(1) Determination.—The term "determination under the income tax laws" means—

(B) A decision by the Board of Tax Appeals or a judgment, decree, or other order by any court of competent jurisdiction, which has become final; * * *

Such term shall not include any * * * decision, judgment, decree, or order which has become final * * * prior to ninety days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

ART. 820 (a)–2. Decision by Board or Court as a determination.—A determination may take the form of a decision by the Board of Tax Appeals or a judgment, decree, or other order by any court of competent jurisdiction, which has become final.

The date upon which a decision by the Board of Tax Appeals becomes final is prescribed in section 1005 of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended.

The date upon which a judgment of a court becomes final must be determined upon the basis of the facts in the particular case. Ordinarily, a judgment of a United States District Court becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for taking an appeal, if no such appeal is duly taken within such time; and a judgment of the United States Court of Claims becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari if no such petition is duly filed within such time.

SECTION 820 (A) (1) (C) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(a) Definitions.—For the purpose of this section—

(1) Determination.—The term "determination under the income tax laws" means—

(C) A final disposition by the Commissioner of a claim for refund. For the purposes of this section a claim for refund shall be deemed finally disposed of by the Commissioner—

(i) as to items with respect to which the claim was allowed, upon the date of allowance of refund or credit or upon the date of mailing notice of disallowance (by reason of offsetting items) of the claim for refund, and

(ii) as to items with respect to which the claim was disallowed, in whole or in part, or as to items applied by the Commissioner in reduction of the refund or credit, upon expiration of the time for instituting suit with respect thereto (unless suit is instituted prior to the expiration of such time).

Such term shall not include any * * * claim for refund finally disposed of, prior to ninety days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

ART. 820 (a)–3. Final disposition of claim for refund as a determination.—A determination may take the form of a final disposition of a claim for refund. Such disposition may result in a determination with respect to two classes of items, i. e., items included by the taxpayer in a claim for refund and items applied by the Commissioner to offset the alleged overpayment. The time at which a disposition in respect of a particular item becomes final may depend not only upon what action is taken with respect to that item but also upon whether the claim for refund is allowed or disallowed.

(a) Items with respect to which the taxpayer's claim is allowed.

(1) The disposition with respect to an item as to which the taxpayer's contention in the claim for refund is sustained becomes final on the date of allowance of the refund or credit if—

(i) The taxpayer's claim for refund is unqualifiedly allowed; or

(ii) The taxpayer's contention with respect to an item is sustained and with respect to other items is denied, so that the net result is an allowance of refund or credit; or

(iii) The taxpayer's contention with respect to an item is sustained, but the Commissioner applies other items to offset the amount of the alleged overpayment and the items so applied do not completely offset such amount but merely reduce it so that the net result is an allowance of refund or credit.

(2) If the taxpayer's contention in the claim for refund with respect to an item is sustained but the Commissioner applies other items to offset the amount of the alleged overpayment so that the net result is a disallowance of the claim for refund, the date of mailing, by registered mail, of the notice of disallowance (see section 3226 of the Revised Statutes, as amended) is the date of the final disposition as to the item with respect to which the taxpayer's contention is sustained.

(b) Items with respect to which the taxpayer's claim is disallowed.—The disposition with respect to an item as to which the taxpayer's contention in the claim for refund is denied becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed by section 3226 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, for instituting suit on the claim for refund, unless suit is instituted prior to the expiration of such period, if—

(i) The taxpayer's claim for refund is unqualifiedly disallowed; or

(ii) The taxpayer's contention with respect to an item is denied and with respect to other items is sustained so that the net result is an allowance of refund or credit; or

(iii) The taxpayer's contention with respect to an item is sustained in part and denied in part. For example, if the taxpayer claims a deductible loss of $10,000 and a consequent overpayment of $2,500 and the Commissioner concedes that a deductible loss was sustained but in the amount of $5,000 only, or that a deductible loss of $10,000 was sustained, but under the Commissioner's computation the consequent overpayment is only $2,000, the disposition of the claim for refund with respect to both the allowance of the $5,000 and the disallowance of the remaining $5,000, or the allowance of the $2,000 overpayment and the denial of the $500, becomes final upon the expiration of the time for instituting suit on the claim for refund unless suit is instituted prior to the expiration of such period.

(c) Items applied by the Commissioner in reduction of the refund or credit.—If the Commissioner applies an item in reduction of the overpayment alleged in the claim for refund, and the net result is an allowance of refund or credit, the disposition with respect to the item so applied by the Commissioner becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed by section 3226 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, for instituting suit on the claim for refund, unless suit is instituted prior to the expiration of such period. If such application of the item results in the assertion of a deficiency, such action does not constitute a final disposition by the Commissioner of a claim for refund within the meaning of section 820 (a) (1) (C) (ii) of the Act, but subsequent action taken with respect to such deficiency may result in a determination under section 820 (a) (1) (A) or (B) of the Act.

The necessity of waiting for the expiration of the two-year period of limitations provided in section 3226 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, may be avoided in such cases as are described under (b) or (c) of this article by the use of a closing agreement to effect a determination.

SECTION 820 (A) (2) AND (3) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(a) Definitions.—For the purpose of this section—

(2) Taxpayer.—Notwithstanding the provisions of section 901, the term "taxpayer" means any person subject to a tax under the applicable Revenue Act.

(3) Related taxpayer.—The term "related taxpayer" means a taxpayer who, with the taxpayer with respect to whom a determination specified in subsection (b) (1), (2), (3), or (4) is made, stood, in the taxable year with respect to which the erroneous inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, or disallowance therein referred to was made, in one of the following relationships: (A) husband and wife; (B) grantor and fiduciary; (C) grantor and beneficiary; (D) fiduciary and beneficiary, legatee, or heir; (E) decedent and decedent's estate; or (F) partner.

ART. 820 (a)–4. Related taxpayer.—An adjustment in the case of the taxpayer with respect to whom the error was made may be authorized under section 820 although the determination is made with respect to a different taxpayer, provided that such taxpayers stand in one of the relationships specified in section 820 (a) (3). The concept of "related taxpayer" has application only to section 820 (b) (1), (2), (3), or (4) and does not apply to section 820 (b) (5). If such relationship exists, it is not essential that the error be with respect to a transaction possible only by reason of the existence of the relationship. For example, if the error with respect to which an adjustment is sought under section 820 grew out of an assignment of rents between taxpayer A and taxpayer B, who are partners, and the determination is with respect to taxpayer A, an adjustment with respect to taxpayer B may be permissible despite the fact that the assignment had nothing to do with the business of the partnership. The relationship need not exist throughout the entire taxable year with respect to which the error was made, but only at some time during that taxable year. For example, if a taxpayer on February 15 assigns to his fiancee the net rents of a building which the taxpayer owns, and the two are married before the end of the taxable year, an adjustment may be permissible if the determination relates to such rents despite the fact that they were not husband and wife at the time of the assignment. See article 820 (b)–8 for the requirement in certain cases that the relationship exist at the time an inconsistent position is first maintained.

SECTION 820 (B) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(b) Circumstances of Adjustment.—When a determination under the income tax laws—

(1) Requires the inclusion in gross income of an item which was erroneously included in the gross income of the taxpayer for another taxable year or in the gross income of a related taxpayer; or

(2) Allow a deduction or credit which was erroneously allowed to the taxpayer for another taxable year or to a related taxpayer; or

(3) Require the exclusion from gross income of an item with respect to which tax was paid and which was erroneously excluded or omitted from the gross income of the taxpayer for another taxable year or from the gross income of a related taxpayer; or

(4) Allows or disallows any of the additional deductions allowable in computing the net income of estates or trusts, or requires or denies any of the inclusions in the computation of net income of beneficiaries, heirs, or legatees, specified in section 162 (b) and (c) of this Act, and corresponding sections of prior revenue Acts, and the correlative inclusion or deduction, as the case may be, has been erroneously excluded, omitted, or included, or disallowed, omitted, or allowed, as the case may be, in respect of the related taxpayer; or

(5) Determines the basis of property for depletion, exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence, or for gain or loss on a sale or exchange, and in respect of any transaction upon which such basis depends there was an erroneous inclusion in or omission from the gross income of, or an erroneous recognition or nonrecognition of gain or loss to, the taxpayer or any person who acquired title to such property in such transaction and from whom mediately or immediately the taxpayer derived title subsequent to such transaction—and, on the date the determination becomes final, correction of the effect of the error is prevented by the operation (whether before, on, or after the date of enactment of this Act) of any provision of the internal-revenue laws other than this section and other than section 3229 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (relating to compromises), then the effect of the error shall be corrected by an adjustment made under this section. Such adjustment shall be made only if there is adopted in the determination a position maintained by the Commissioner (in case the amount of the adjustment would be refunded or credited in the same manner as an overpayment under subsection (c)) or by the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made (in case the amount of the adjustment would be assessed and collected in the same manner as a deficiency under subsection (c)), which position is inconsistent with the erroneous inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be. In case the amount of the adjustment would be assessed and collected in the same manner as a deficiency, the adjustment shall not be made with respect to a related taxpayer unless he stands in such relationship to the taxpayer at the time the latter first maintains the inconsistent position in a return, claim for refund, or petition (or amended petition) to the Board of Tax Appeals for the taxable year with respect to which the determination is made, or if such position is not so maintained, then at the time of the determination.

SECTION 162 (B) AND (C) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 162. Net income.—The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except that—

* * * * *

(b) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under subsection (c) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(c) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary.

ART. 820 (b)–0. Circumstances of adjustment.—Section 820 may be applied to correct the effect of an error if, on the date of the determination, correction of the effect of the error is prevented by the operation, whether before, on, or after the date of enactment of section 820, of any provision of the internal revenue laws other than section 820 and other than section 3229 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (relating to compromises). Examples of such provisions are: Sections 275, 311 (b) and (c), and 322 (b) and (d) of the Revenue Act of 1938 and the corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts, section 3226 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, section 610 of the Revenue Act of 1928, and section 906 (e) of the Revenue Act of 1924, as amended by section 601 of the Revenue Act of 1928 (periods of limitations); sections 272 (f) and 322 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1938 and corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts (effect of petition to Board of Tax Appeals on further deficiency letters and on credits or refunds); section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1928, as amended by sections 801 and 802 of the Revenue Act of 1938 (closing agreements); and sections 607, 608, and 609 of the Revenue Act of 1928 (payments, refunds or credits after period of limitation has expired).

If the tax liability for the year with respect to which the error was made has been compromised under section 3229 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, no adjustment may be made under section 820 with respect to that year.

Section 820 is not applicable if, on the date of the determination, correction of the effect of the error is permissible without recourse to such section.

The determination may be with respect to the tax imposed by Title I, Title IA, or section 602 of Title III, of the Revenue Act of 1938, and by the corresponding provisions of any prior Revenue Acts, by Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936, or by more than one of such provisions. Section 820 may be applied to correct the effect of the error only as to the tax or taxes for the year with respect to which the error was made which corresponds to the tax or taxes with respect to which the determination relates. Thus, if the determination relates to the tax imposed by Title I of the Revenue Act of 1938, the adjustment may be only with respect to the tax imposed by Title I of the Revenue Act applicable to the year with respect to which the error was made; if the determination relates to section 602 of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1938, the adjustment may be only with respect to the tax imposed by the corresponding provisions of the Revenue Act applicable to the year with respect to which the error was made.

ART. 820 (b)–1. Double inclusion of item of gross income.—Section 820 (b) (1) applies if the determination requires the inclusion, in a taxpayer's gross income, of an item which was erroneously included in the gross income of the same taxpayer for another taxable year or of a related taxpayer for the same or another taxable year.

Example (1).—A taxpayer who keeps his books on the cash basis, erroneously included in his return for 1933 an item of accrued rent. In 1938, after the period of limitations on refunds for 1933 has expired, the Commissioner discovers that the taxpayer received this rent in 1934 and asserts a deficiency for the year 1934, which is sustained by the Board of Tax Appeals in 1941. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1933. If the taxpayer had returned the rent for both 1933 and 1934 and by a determination was denied a refund claimed for 1934 on account of the rent item, a similar adjustment is authorized.

Example (2).—A husband assigned to his wife salary to be earned by him in the year 1936. The wife included such salary in her separate return for that year and the husband omitted it. The Commissioner asserted a deficiency against the wife for 1936 with respect to a different item and she contested that deficiency before the Board of Tax Appeals. The wife would therefore be barred by section 322 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1936 from filing a claim for refund for 1936. Thereafter, the Commissioner asserts a deficiency against the husband on account of the omission of such salary from his return for 1936. The husband unsuccessfully contests the deficiency before the Board of Tax Appeals. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the wife's tax for 1936.

ART. 820 (b)–2. Double allowance of a deduction or credit.—Section 820 (b) (2) applies if the determination allows the taxpayer a deduction or credit which was erroneously allowed the same taxpayer for another taxable year or a related taxpayer for the same or another taxable year.

Example (1).—A taxpayer in his return for 1935 claimed and was allowed a deduction for destruction of timber by a forest fire. Subsequently it was discovered that the forest fire occurred in 1936 rather than in 1935. After the expiration of the period of limitations for the assessment of a deficiency for 1935, the taxpayer files a claim for refund for 1936 based upon a deduction for the fire loss in that year. The Commissioner allows the claim for refund. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1935.

Example (2).—The beneficiary of a testamentary trust in his return for 1933 claimed, and was allowed, a deduction for depreciation of the trust property. The Commissioner asserted a deficiency against the beneficiary for 1933 with respect to a different item and final decision of the Board of Tax Appeals was rendered in 1935, so that the Commissioner was thereafter barred by section 272 (f) of the Revenue Act of 1932 from asserting a further deficiency against the beneficiary for 1933. The trustees thereafter filed a timely refund claim contending that under the terms of the will the trust, and not the beneficiary, was entitled to the allowance for depreciation. The court in 1939 sustains the refund claim. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the beneficiary's tax for 1933.

ART. 820 (b)–3. Erroneous exclusion of item of gross income with respect to which tax was paid.—Section 820 (b) (3) applies if the determination requires the exclusion, from a taxpayer's gross income, of an item with respect to which tax was paid and which was erroneously excluded or omitted from the gross income of the same taxpayer for another taxable year or of a related taxpayer for the same or another taxable year.

Example (1).—A taxpayer received payments in 1936 under a contract for the performance of services and included the payments in his return for that year. A closing agreement was thereafter made with respect to the tax liability of the taxpayer for 1935. The taxpayer subsequently filed a claim for refund for the year 1936, asserting that he kept his books on the accrual basis and that, as the payments had accrued in 1935, they were properly taxable in that year. The claim for refund is allowed in 1939. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1935. If the taxpayer had not included the payments in any return and the Commissioner had asserted a deficiency for 1936 with respect to the payments, and the deficiency is not sustained by the Board of Tax Appeals in its final decision in 1940, no adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1935. Although the determination requires the exclusion of the item from gross income, no tax had been paid with respect thereto. If the taxpayer, however, had paid the deficiency and thereafter successfully contested it before the Board or successfully sued for refund in court, an adjustment is authorized.

Example (2).—A father and son conducted a partnership business, each being entitled to one-half of the net profits. The father included the entire net income of the partnership in his return for 1933 and the son included no portion of this income in his return for that year. Shortly before the expiration of the period of limitations with respect to deficiency assessments and refund claims for both father and son for 1933, the father filed a claim for refund of that portion of his 1933 tax attributable to the half of the partnership income which should have been included in the son's return. The court sustains the claim for refund in 1940. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the son's tax for 1933.

ART. 820 (b)–4. Correlative deductions and inclusions specified in section 162 (b) and (c), Revenue Act of 1938, and corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts.—(a) Section 820 (b) (4) applies if the determination relates to the additional deduction specified in section 162 (b) and (c) of the Revenue Act of 1938, or the corresponding provisions of a prior Revenue Act, for amounts distributable to the beneficiaries, heirs, or legatees of an estate or trust, and such determination requires:

(1) The allowance to the estate or trust of such additional deduction when such amounts have been erroneously omitted or excluded from the income of the beneficiaries, heirs or legatees;

(2) The inclusion of such amounts in the income of the beneficiaries, heirs, or legatees when such additional deduction has been erroneously disallowed to or omitted by the estate or trust;

(3) The disallowance to an estate or trust of such additional deduction when such amounts have been erroneously included in the income of the beneficiaries, heirs, or legatees; or

(4) The exclusion of such amounts from the income of the beneficiaries, heirs, or legatees when such additional deduction has been erroneously allowed to the estate or trust.

The provisions of (a) (1) of this article may be illustrated as follows:

Example.—For the taxable year 1935, a trustee, directed by the trust instrument to accumulate the trust income, made no distribution to the beneficiary and returned the entire net income as taxable to the trust. Accordingly, the beneficiary did not include the trust income in his return for the year 1935. In 1937 a State court held invalid the clause directing accumulation. In 1939 the trustee, relying upon the court decision, files a claim for refund of the tax paid on behalf of the trust for the year 1935. The claim is sustained by the court in 1941, after the expiration of the period of limitations upon deficiency assessments against the beneficiary for the year 1935. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the beneficiary's tax for the year 1935.

The provisions of (a) (2) of this article may be illustrated as follows:

Example.—Assume the same facts as in the example under (a) (1) except that, instead of the trustee's filing a refund claim, the Commissioner, relying upon the decision of the State court, asserts a deficiency against the beneficiary for 1935. The deficiency is sustained by final decision of the Board of Tax Appeals in 1941, after the expiration of the period for filing claim for refund on behalf of the trust for 1935. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the trust for the year 1935.

The provisions of (a) (3) of this article may be illustrated as follows:

Example.—A trustee claimed in the return for 1935 a deduction for income distributed to the beneficiary. The income was included by the beneficiary in his return for 1935. In 1939 the Commissioner asserts a deficiency against the trust on the ground that the amount distributed to the beneficiary represented a charge against the corpus of the trust and did not constitute a distribution of income. The deficiency is sustained by final decision of the Board of Tax Appeals in 1941, after the expiration of the period for filing claims for refund by the beneficiary for 1935. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the beneficiary's tax for the year 1935.

The provisions of (a) (4) of this article may be illustrated as follows:

Example.—Assume the same facts as in the example under (a) (3), except that, instead of the Commissioner's asserting a deficiency, the beneficiary files a refund claim for 1935 on the same ground. The claim is sustained by the court in 1941, after the expiration of the period of limitations upon deficiency assessments against the trust for 1935. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the trust for the year 1935.

ART. 820 (b)–5. Determination of basis of property in case of erroneous treatment of transaction relating to acquisition thereof.—Section 820 (b) (5) applies if the determination establishes the basis of property for income tax purposes and in respect of the transaction upon which such basis depends there was an erroneous inclusion in or omission from gross income or an erroneous recognition or nonrecognition of gain or loss with respect to (1) the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made, or (2) any person who acquired title to such property in such transaction and the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made mediately or immediately derived title from such person subsequent to such transaction. Subsection 820 (b) (5) applies with respect to the person who acquired the property and any subsequent transferees or donees who have a substituted basis ascertained by reference to the basis in the hands of such person. No adjustment is authorized with respect to the transferor of the property in the transaction upon which the basis of the property depends, when the determination is with respect to (1) the original transferee, or (2) a subsequent transferee of such original transferee.

Example (1).—In 1933 taxpayer A transferred property which had cost him $5,000 to the X Corporation in exchange for an original issue of shares of its stock having a fair market value of $10,000. In his return for 1933 taxpayer A treated the exchange as one in which gain or loss was not recognizable:

(a) In 1938 the X Corporation claims that gain should have been recognized on the exchange in 1933 and therefore the property it received had a $10,000 basis for depreciation. Its contention is confirmed by a closing agreement. No adjustment is authorized with respect to the tax of the X Corporation for 1933, as there was no "erroneous inclusion in or omission from the gross income of, or an erroneous recognition or nonrecognition of gain or loss to" the X Corporation with respect to the exchange in 1933. Moreover no adjustment is authorized with respect to taxpayer A, as he is not the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made, nor does the determination relate to the property which taxpayer A acquired in the exchange in 1933, but, rather, to the property which he transferred in such exchange.

(b) In 1939 the X Corporation transfers the property to the Y Corporation in a tax-free exchange. In 1940 the Y Corporation sells the property and computes its profit on the basis of $10,000, which basis is sustained by the Board of Tax Appeals. No adjustment is authorized with respect to the Y Corporation or with respect to taxpayer A, for the reason stated in (a).

(c) In 1941 taxpayer A sells the stock which he had received in 1933 and claims that, as gain should have been recognized on the exchange in 1933, the basis for computing the profit on the sale is $10,000. His contention is confirmed in a closing agreement. An adjustment is authorized with respect to his tax for the year 1933, as the basis for computing gain on the sale depends upon the transaction in 1933 and in respect of that transaction there was an erroneous nonrecognition of gain to taxpayer A, "the taxpayer" with respect to whom the determination is made.

(d) Taxpayer A does not sell the stock but makes a gift of it to taxpayer B, who later sells the stock and claims the $10,000 basis, which contention is confirmed in a closing agreement. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the tax of taxpayer A for 1933, as the basis for computing gain on the sale by taxpayer B depends upon the transaction in 1933 and in respect of that transaction there was erroneous nonrecognition of gain to taxpayer A, the "person who acquired title to such property in such transaction and from whom * * * immediately" taxpayer B, with respect to whom the determination is made, "derived title subsequent to such transaction".

Example (2).—In 1934 taxpayer A sold property acquired at a cost of $5,000 to taxpayer B for $10,000. In his return for 1934 taxpayer A failed to include the profit on such sale. In 1939 taxpayer B sells the property for $12,000 and in his return for 1939 reports a gain of $2,000 upon the sale, which is confirmed in a closing agreement. No adjustment is authorized with respect to the tax of taxpayer A for 1934, as taxpayer A is not the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made; nor does the determination relate to property which taxpayer A acquired in the transaction in 1934, but rather to property which he transferred in such transaction.

Example (3).—In 1933 a taxpayer received as additional compensation shares of stock in a corporation but did not include any amount in his return for that year on account of the receipt of such stock. In 1938, after the expiration of the period of limitations on deficiency assessments for 1933, he sells the stock for $15,000 and reports $5,000 in his return for 1938 as profit on the sale. A deficiency is asserted by the Commissioner on the theory that the basis is zero and the recognized gain is $15,000. The Board of Tax Appeals sustains the taxpayer's contention that the transaction was erroneously treated in 1933 in that the property then had a fair market value of $10,000. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1933.

Example (4).—In 1933 a taxpayer received 100 shares of stock of the X Corporation having a fair market value of $5,000, in exchange for shares of stock in the Y Corporation which he had acquired at a cost of $12,000. In his return for 1933 the taxpayer treated the exchange as one in which gain or loss was not recognizable. The taxpayer sold 50 shares of the X Corporation stock in 1934 and in his return for that year treated such shares as having a $6,000 basis. In 1938 the taxpayer sells the remaining 50 shares of stock of the X Corporation for $7,500 and reports $1,500 gain in his return for 1938. After the expiration of the period of limitations on deficiency assessments and on refund claims for 1933 and 1934, the Commissioner asserts a deficiency for 1938 on the ground that the loss realized on the exchange in 1933 was erroneously treated as nonrecognizable, and that the basis for computing gain upon the sale in 1938 is $2,500, resulting in a gain of $5,000. The deficiency is sustained by the Board of Tax Appeals in 1943. An adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1933 as to the entire $7,000 loss realized on the exchange. No adjustment is authorized with respect to the year 1934 as the basis for computing gain upon the sale of the 50 shares in 1938 does not depend upon the transaction in 1934.

ART. 820 (b)-6. Law applicable in determination of error.—The question whether there was an erroneous inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition is determined under the provisions of the internal revenue laws applicable with respect to the year as to which the inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be, was made. The fact that the inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be, was in pursuance of an interpretation, either judicial or administrative, accorded such provisions of the internal revenue laws at the time of such action is not necessarily determinative of this question. For example, if a later judicial decision authoritatively alters such interpretation so that such action was contrary to such provisions of the internal revenue laws as later interpreted, the inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be, is erroneous within the meaning of section 820.

ART. 820 (b)-7. Operation dependent upon maintenance of inconsistent position—(a) Adjustments resulting in additional assessments.—An adjustment which would result in an additional assessment is authorized only if (1) the taxpayer, with respect to whom the determination is made, has, in connection therewith, maintained a position which is inconsistent with the erroneous inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be, and (2) such inconsistent position is adopted in the determination.

Example.—A taxpayer in his return for 1935 claimed and was allowed a deduction for a loss arising from a casualty. After the taxpayer had filed his return for 1936 and after the period of limitations upon the assessment of a deficiency for 1935 had expired, it was discovered that the loss actually occurred in 1936. The taxpayer, therefore, filed a claim for refund for the year 1936 based upon the allowance of a deduction for the loss in that year, and the claim was allowed by the Commissioner. The taxpayer thus has maintained a position inconsistent with the allowance of the deduction for 1935 by filing a claim for refund for 1936 based upon the same deduction. As the determination—the allowance by the Commissioner of the claim for refund—adopts such inconsistent position, an adjustment is authorized for the year 1935.

An adjustment which would result in an additional assessment is not authorized if the Commissioner, and not the taxpayer, has maintained such inconsistent position.

Example.—In the first example under this article, assume that the taxpayer did not file a claim for refund for 1936 but the Commissioner issued a notice of deficiency for 1936 based upon other items. The taxpayer filed a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals and the Commissioner in his answer voluntarily proposed the allowance of a deduction for the loss previously allowed for 1935. The Board took the deduction into account in its redetermination of the tax for the year 1936. In such case no adjustment would be authorized for the year 1935 as the Commissioner, and not the taxpayer, has maintained a position inconsistent with the allowance of a deduction for the loss in that year.

(b) Adjustments resulting in refund or credit.—An adjustment which would result in the allowance of a refund or credit is authorized only if (1) the Commissioner, in connection with a determination, has maintained a position which is inconsistent with the erroneous inclusion, exclusion, omission, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, as the case may be, and (2) such inconsistent position is adopted in the determination.

Example.—A taxpayer who keeps his books on the cash basis erroneously included in his return for 1936 an item of accrued interest. After the period of limitations on refunds for 1936 had expired, the Commissioner asserted a deficiency for the year 1937 on the ground that the item of interest was received in 1937, and, therefore, was properly includible in gross income for that year. The taxpayer appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals, which sustained the deficiency. By asserting a deficiency for 1937 based upon the inclusion of the interest item in that year, the Commissioner has maintained a position inconsistent with the inclusion of the interest item in 1936. As the determination—the decison of the Board of Tax Appeals sustaining the deficiency—adopted such inconsistent position, an adjustment is authorized for the year 1936.

An adjustment which would result in the allowance of a refund or credit is not authorized if the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made, and not the Commissioner, has maintained such inconsistent position.

Example.—In the first example under (b) of this article assume that the Commissioner asserted a deficiency for 1937 based upon other items for that year, but in computing the net income upon which such deficiency was based did not include the item of interest. The taxpayer appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals and in his petition asserted that the interest item should be included in gross income for 1937. The Board included the item of interest in its redetermination of the tax for the year 1937. In such case no adjustment would be authorized for 1936 as the taxpayer, and not the Commissioner, has maintained a position inconsistent with the erroneous inclusion of the item of interest in the gross income of the taxpayer for that year.

ART. 820 (b)-8. Existence of status of related taxpayer at time of the first maintenance of an inconsistent position.—No adjustment by way of a deficiency assessment shall be made with respect to a related taxpayer unless the relationship existed both in the taxable year with respect to which the error was made and at the time the taxpayer with respect to whom the determination is made first maintained, in the manner described in this article, the inconsistent position with respect to the taxable year to which the determination relates.

If the inconsistent position is maintained in a return, claim for refund, or petition (or amended petition) to the Board of Tax Appeals, for the taxable year in respect of which the determination is made, the requisite relationship must exist on the date of filing such document. If the inconsistent position is maintained in more than one of such documents, the requisite date is the date of filing of the document in which it was first maintained. If the inconsistent position was not thus maintained then the relationship must exist on the date of the determination, as, for example, where at the instance of the taxpayer a deduction is allowed, the right to which was not asserted in a return, claim for refund, or petition to the Board, and a determination is effected by means of a closing agreement.

SECTION 820 (c) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases—(c) Method of Adjustment.—The adjustment authorized in subsection (b) shall be made by assessing and collecting, or refunding or crediting, the amount thereof, to be ascertained as provided in subsection (d), in the same manner as if it were a deficiency determined by the Commissioner with respect to the taxpayer as to whom the error was made or an overpayment claimed by such taxpayer, as the case may be, for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made, and as if on the date of the determination specified in subsection (b) one year remained before the expiration of the periods of limitation upon assessment or filing claim for refund for such taxable year.

ART. 820 (c)-1. Method of adjustment.—If the amount of the adjustment ascertained pursuant to section 820 (d) represents an increase in tax it is to be treated as if it were a deficiency determined by the Commissioner with respect to the taxpayer as to whom the error was made and for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made. The amount of the adjustment is thus to be assessed and collected under the law and regulations applicable to the assessment and collection of deficiencies, subject, however, to the limitations imposed by section 820 (e). Notice of deficiency, unless waived, must be issued with respect to such amount and the taxpayer may contest the deficiency before the Board of Tax Appeals or, if he chooses, may pay the deficiency and later file claim for refund. If the amount of the adjustment ascertained pursuant to section 820 (d) represents a decrease in tax, it is to be treated as if it were an overpayment claimed by the taxpayer with respect to whom the error was made for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made. Such amount may be recovered under the law and regulations applicable to overpayments of tax, subject, however, to the limitations imposed by section 820 (e). The taxpayer must file a claim for refund thereof, unless the overpayment is refunded without such claim, and if the claim is denied or not acted upon by the Commissioner within the prescribed time, the taxpayer may then file suit for refund. The amount of the adjustment treated as if it were a deficiency or an overpayment, as the case may be, will bear interest and be subject to additions to the tax to the extent provided by the internal revenue laws applicable to deficiencies and overpayments for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made.

For the purpose of the adjustment authorized by section 820, the period of limitation upon the making of an assessment or upon refund or credit for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made, as the case may be, shall be considered as if, on the date of the determination, one year remained before expiration of such period, regardless of whether or not such period had expired prior to the date of the determination. The Commissioner thus has one year from the date of the determination within which to mail a notice of deficiency in respect of the amount of the adjustment where such amount is treated as if it were a deficiency. The issuance of such notice of deficiency, in accordance with the law and regulations applicable to the assessment of deficiencies, will suspend the running of the one-year period of limitations provided by section 820 (c). In accordance with the applicable law and regulations governing the collection of deficiencies (see section 276 (c) of this Act and the corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts), the period of limitation for collection of the amount of the adjustment will commence to run from the date of assessment of such amount. Similarly, the taxpayer has a period of one year from the date of the determination within which to file a claim for refund in respect of the amount of the adjustment where such adjustment is treated as if it were an overpayment. Where the amount of the adjustment is treated as if it were a deficiency and the taxpayer chooses to pay such deficiency and contest it by way of claim for refund, the period of limitation upon filing claim for refund will commence to run from the date of such payment (see section 322 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1938 and the corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts).

SECTION 820 (D) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(d) Ascertainment of Amount of Adjustment.—In computing the amount of an adjustment under this section there shall first be ascertained the tax previously determined for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made. The amount of the tax previously determined shall be (1) the tax shown by the taxpayer, with respect to whom the error was made, upon his return for such taxable year, increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as deficiencies, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or (2) if no amount was shown as the tax by such taxpayer upon his return, or if no return was made by such taxpayer, then the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as deficiencies, but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. There shall then be ascertained the increase or decrease in the tax previously determined which results solely from the correct exclusion, inclusion, allowance, disallowance, recognition, or nonrecognition, of the item, inclusion, deduction, credit, gain, or loss, which was the subject of the error. The amount so ascertained (together with any amounts wrongfully collected, as additions to the tax or interest, as a result of such error) shall be the amount of the adjustment under this section.

ART. 820 (d)-1. Ascertainment of amount of adjustment.—The amount of the adjustment shall be ascertained as follows:

(1) The tax previously determined for the taxpayer as to whom the error was made, for the taxable year with respect to which the error was made, must first be ascertained. This may be the amount of tax shown on the taxpayer's return, but if any changes in that amount have been made they must be taken into account. In such cases the tax previously determined will be the tax shown on the return, increased by any amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as deficiencies, and decreased by any amounts previously abated, credited, refunded or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. If no amount was shown as the tax upon the return, or if no return was made, the tax previously determined will be the sum of the amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, as deficiencies, decreased by any amounts previously abated, credited, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax.

The tax previously determined may consist of tax for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1931, imposed by Title I, Title IA, section 602 of Title III, of the Revenue Act of 1938, by the corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts, by Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936, or by any one or more of such provisions.

(2) After the tax previously determined has been ascertained a recomputation must then be made to ascertain the increase or decrease in tax, if any, resulting from the correction of the error. The difference between the tax previously determined and the tax as recomputed after correction of the error will be the amount of the adjustment.

With the exception of the items upon which the tax previously determined was based and the item or items with respect to which the error was made, no other item shall be considered in computing the amount of the adjustment. If the treatment of any item upon which the tax previously determined was based, or if the application of any provisions of the internal revenue laws with respect to such tax, depends upon the amount of income (e. g., charitable contributions, foreign tax credit, earned income credit), readjustment in these particulars will be necessary as part of the recomputation in conformity with the change in the amount of the income which results from the correct treatment of the item or items in respect of which the error was made.

Any interest or additions to the tax collected as a result of the error shall be taken into account in determining the amount of the adjustment.

Example.—For the taxable year 1936 a married man with no dependents, who kept his books on the cash receipts and disbursements basis, filed a return disclosing gross income of $42,000, deductions amounting to $12,000, and a net income of $30,000. Included among other items in the gross income were salary in the amount of $15,000 and rents accrued but not yet paid in the amount of $5,000. During the taxable year he donated $10,000 to the American Red Cross and in his return claimed a deduction of $5,294.12 on account thereof, representing the maximum deduction allowable under the 15 percent limitation imposed by section 23 (o), Revenue Act of 1936. In computing his net income he omitted interest income amounting to $6,000 and neglected to take a deduction for interest paid in the amount of $4,500. The return disclosed a tax liability of $3,565, which was assessed and paid. After the expiration of the period of limitations upon the assessment of a deficiency or the allowance of a refund for 1936, the Commissioner included the item of rental income amounting to $5,000 in the taxpayer's gross income for the year 1937 and asserted a deficiency for that year. As a result of a final decision of the Board of Tax Appeals sustaining the deficiency for 1937, an adjustment is authorized for the year 1936. The amount of the adjustment is computed as follows:

Tax previously determined for 1936	$3,565.00
Net income for 1936 upon which tax previously determined was based	30,000.00
Less: Rents erroneously included	5,000.00
Balance	25,000.00
Adjustment for contributions (Add 15 percent of $5,000)	750.00
Net income as adjusted	25,750.00
Tax as recomputed	2,646.50
Tax previously determined	3,565.00
Difference	918.50
Amount of adjustment to be refunded or credited	918.50

In accordance with the provisions of section 820 (d), the recomputation to determine the amount of the adjustment does not take into consideration the item of $6,000 representing interest received, which was omitted from gross income, or the item of $4,500 representing interest paid, for which no deduction was allowed.

SECTION 820 (E) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(e) Adjustment unaffected by other items, etc.—The amount to be assessed and collected in the same manner as a deficiency, or to be refunded or credited in the same manner as an overpayment, under this section, shall not be diminished by any credit or set-off based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss other than the one which was the subject of the error. Such amount, if paid, shall not be recovered by a claim or suit for refund or suit for erroneous refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss other than the one which was the subject of the error.

ART. 820 (e)-1. Effect of other items on amount of adjustment.—The amount of the adjustment ascertained under section 820 (d) shall not be diminished by any credit or set-off based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, or gain or loss with respect to the year as to which the error was made.

Example (1).—In the example set forth in article 820 (d), if, after the amount of the adjustment has been ascertained, the taxpayer filed a refund claim for the amount thereof, the Commissioner could not diminish the amount of that claim by offsetting against it the amount of tax which should have been paid with respect to the $6,000 interest item omitted from gross income for the year 1936; nor could the court, if suit were brought on such claim for refund, offset against the amount of the adjustment the amount of tax which should have been paid with respect to such interest.

Example (2).—Assume that a taxpayer included in his gross income for the year 1936 an item which should have been included in gross income for the year 1935. After expiration of the period of limitations upon the assessment of a deficiency or the allowance of a refund for 1935, the taxpayer filed a claim for refund for the year 1936 on the ground that such item was not properly includible in gross income for that year. The claim for refund was allowed by the Commissioner, and as a result of such determination an adjustment was authorized under section 820 with respect to the tax for 1935. If, in such case, the Commissioner issued a notice of deficiency for the amount of the adjustment and the taxpayer contested the deficiency before the Board of Tax Appeals, the taxpayer could not in such proceeding claim an offset based upon his failure to take an allowable deduction for the year 1935; nor could the Board of Tax Appeals in its decision offset against the amount of the adjustment any overpayment for the year 1935 resulting from the failure to take such deduction.

If the Commissioner has refunded the amount of an adjustment under section 820, the amount so refunded may not subsequently be recovered by the Commissioner in a suit for erroneous refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss (other than the one which was the subject of the error) with respect to the year as to which the error was made.

Example (3).—In the example set forth in article 820 (d), if the Commissioner had refunded the amount of the adjustment, no part of the amount so refunded could subsequently be recovered by the Commissioner by a suit for erroneous refund based on the ground that there was no overpayment for 1936, as the taxpayer had failed to include in gross income the $6,000 item of interest received in that year.

If the Commissioner has assessed and collected the amount of an adjustment, no part thereof may be recovered by the taxpayer in any suit for refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain or loss (other than the one which was the subject of the error) with respect to the year as to which the error was made.

Example (4).—In example (2) in this article, if the taxpayer had paid the amount of the adjustment, he could not subsequently recover any part of such payment in a suit for refund based upon his failure to take an allowable deduction for the year 1935.

If the amount of the adjustment is considered as an overpayment, it may be credited, under the applicable law and regulations thereunder, against any income or excess-profits tax, or installment thereof, due from the taxpayer. Likewise, if the amount of the adjustment is considered as a deficiency, any overpayment by the taxpayer of income or excess-profits tax may be credited against the amount of such adjustment in accordance with the applicable law and regulations thereunder. (See section 322 of the Revenue Act of 1938 and corresponding provisions of prior Revenue Acts.) Accordingly, it may be possible in one transaction between the Commissioner and the taxpayer to settle the taxpayer's tax liability for the year with respect to which the determination is made and to make the adjustment under section 820 for the year with respect to which the error was made.

SECTION 820 (F) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938

SEC. 820. Mitigation of effect of limitation and other provisions in income tax cases.—(f) No adjustment for years prior to 1932.—No adjustment shall be made under this section in respect of any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1932.

ART. 820 (f)-1. No adjustment for years prior to 1932.—Where the year with respect to which the error was made is a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1932, no adjustment is authorized under section 820.

Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TITLE 27—INTOXICATING LIQUORS

FEDERAL ALCOHOL ADMINISTRATION DIVISION

[Regulations No. 4, Amendment No. 2]

AMENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE WINE LABELING AND ADVERTISING REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO STANDARDS OF IDENTITY AND OTHER MATTERS

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, Regulations No. 4,[1] Relating to Labeling and Advertising of Wine, as amended, are further amended as follows:

1. Amend Article I, paragraphs (f), (g) and (h), of said regulations to read:

(f) The term "pure condensed must" means the dehydrated juice or must of sound, ripe grapes, or other fruit or agricultural products, concentrated to not more than 80° (Balling), the composition thereof remaining unaltered except for removal of water; the term "restored pure condensed must" means pure condensed must to which has been added an amount of water not exceeding the amount removed in the dehydration process; and the term "sugar" means pure cane, beet, or dextrose sugar in dry form containing, respectively, not less than 95 per cent of actual sugar calculated on a dry basis.

(g) The term "fortifying spirits" means spirits distilled exclusively from (1) grapes, citrus fruit, or fruit, or their products or residues, or (2) grape wine, citrus wine, or fruit wine, or (3) the fruit pomace residuum of such wines. The term "alcohol" means ethyl alcohol distilled at or about 190° proof.

(h) The term "vintage wine" means a wine made wholly from grapes gathered in the same calendar year and grown and fermented in the same viticultural area, and conforming to the standards prescribed in classes 1 and 2 of article II hereof.

2. Amend Article II of said regulations to read:

ARTICLE II. STANDARDS OF IDENTITY FOR WINE

SEC. 20. Application of standards.—The standards of identity for the several classes and types of wine set forth herein shall be applicable to all regulations and permits issued under the act. Whenever any term for which a standard of identity has been established herein is used in any such regulation or permit, such term shall have the meaning assigned to it by such standard of identity.

SEC. 21. The standards of identity.—Standards of identity for the several classes and types of wine set forth herein shall be as follows:

CLASS 1. Grape wine.—(a) "Grape wine" is wine produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe grapes (including restored or unrestored pure condensed grape must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed grape must, and with or without added fortifying grape spirits or alcohol, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment, Provided, That the product may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by either of the following methods:

(1) By adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 per cent; but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 per cent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or an unfermented residual sugar content, derived from added sugar, of more than 11 per cent by weight.

(2) By adding, separately or in combination, not more than 11 per cent by weight of dry sugar, or not more than 10 per cent by weight of water.

The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural red wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other grape wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

CLASS 2. Sparkling grape wine.—(a) "Sparkling grape wine" (including "sparkling wine", "sparkling red wine" and "sparkling white wine") is grape wine made effervescent with carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle.

(b) "Champagne" is a type of sparkling light white wine which derives its effervescence solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within glass containers of not greater than one gallon capacity, and which possesses the taste, aroma, and other characteristics attributed to champagne as made in the champagne district of France.

(c) A sparkling light white wine having the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to champagne but not otherwise conforming to the standard for "champagne" may, in addition to but not in lieu of the class designation "sparkling wine", be further designated as "champagne style" or "champagne type" or "American (or New York State, California, etc.) champagne—bulk process"; all the words in any such further designation shall be equally conspicuous and shall appear in direct conjunction with and in lettering approximately one-half the size of the words "sparkling wine".

CLASS 3. Carbonated grape wine.—(a) "Carbonated grape wine" (including "carbonated wine", "carbonated red wine", and "carbonated white wine") is grape wine made effervescent with carbon dioxide other than that resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle.

CLASS 4. Citrus wine.—(a) "Citrus wine" or "citrus fruit wine" is wine produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe citrus fruit (including restored or unrestored pure condensed citrus must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed citrus must, and with or without added fortifying citrus spirits or alcohol, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment, Provided, That the product may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 per cent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 per cent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or an unfermented residual sugar content, derived from added sugar, of more than 11 per cent by weight.

The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural citrus wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other citrus wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(c) "Natural citrus wine" or "natural citrus fruit wine" is citrus wine containing no fortifying citrus spirits or added alcohol.

(d) Citrus wine derived wholly (except for sugar, water or added alcohol) from one kind of citrus fruit, shall be designated by the word "wine" qualified by the name of such citrus fruit, e. g., "orange wine", "grapefruit wine". Citrus wine not derived wholly from one kind of citrus fruit shall be designated as "citrus wine" or "citrus fruit wine" qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Citrus wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle, shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and citrus wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived, shall be further designated as "carbonated".

CLASS 5. Fruit wine.—(a) "Fruit wine" is wine (other than grape wine or citrus wine) produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe fruit (including restored or unrestored pure condensed fruit must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed fruit must, and with or without added fortifying fruit spirits or alcohol, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment, Provided, That the product may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 per cent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 per cent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or an unfermented residual sugar content, derived from added sugar, of more than 11 per cent by weight.

The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural fruit wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other fruit wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

Fruit wine not derived wholly from one kind of fruit shall be designated as "fruit wine" or "berry wine", as the case may be, qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Fruit wines which are derived wholly (except for sugar, water or added alcohol) from apples or pears may be designated "cider" and "perry", respectively, and shall be so designated if lacking in vinous taste, aroma and characteristics. Fruit wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle, shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and fruit wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived, shall be further designated as "carbonated".

CLASS 6. Wine from other agricultural products.—(a) Wine of this class is wine (other than grape wine, citrus wine or fruit wine) made by the normal alcoholic fermentation of sound fermentable agricultural products, either fresh or dried, or of the restored or unrestored pure condensed must thereof, with the addition before or during fermentation of a volume of water not greater than the minimum necessary to correct natural moisture deficiencies in such products, with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed must, and with or without added alcohol or such other fortifying spirits as will not alter the character of the product, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment, Provided, That the product may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 per cent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 per cent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or an unfermented residual sugar content, derived from added sugar, of more than 11 per cent by weight.

The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural wine of this class, more than 0.14 gram, and for other wine of this class, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(b) "Light" wine of this class is wine having an alcoholic content not in excess of 14 per cent by volume.

(c) "Natural" wine of this class is wine containing no fortifying spirits or added alcohol.

(d) "Raisin wine" is wine of this class made from dried grapes.

(e) "Sake" is wine of this class produced from rice in accordance with the commonly accepted method of manufacture of such product.

(f) Wine of this class derived wholly (except for sugar, water or added alcohol) from one kind of agricultural product shall, except in the case of "sake", be designated by the word "wine" qualified by the name of such agricultural product, e. g., "honey wine", "raisin wine", "dried blackberry wine". Wine of this class not derived wholly from one kind of agricultural product shall be designated as "wine" qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Wine of this class rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of wine within a closed container, tank or bottle, shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and wine of this class rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived shall be further designated as "carbonated".

CLASS 7. Vermouth.—(a) "Vermouth" is a compound having an alcoholic content of not less than 15 per cent by volume, made by the mixture of extracts from macerated aromatic flavoring materials with grape wine containing fortifying grape spirits or added alcohol, and manufactured in such a manner that the product possesses the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to vermouth.

CLASS. 8. Imitation, concentrate and substandard wine.—(a) "Imitation wine" shall bear as a part of its designation the word "imitation", and shall include:

(1) Any wine containing synthetic materials.

(2) Any wine made from a mixture of water with residue remaining after thorough pressing of grapes, fruit or other agricultural products.

(3) Any class or type of wine the taste, aroma, color or other characteristics of which have been acquired, in whole or in part, by treatment with methods or materials of any kind, if the taste, aroma, color or other characteristics of normal wines of such class or type are acquired without such treatment.

(b) "Concentrate wine" shall bear as a part of its designation the word "concentrate", and shall include any wine made from must concentrated at any time to more than 80° (Balling).

(c) "Substandard wine" shall bear as a part of its designation the word "substandard", and shall include:

(1) Any wine having a volatile acidity in excess of the maximum prescribed therefor in this article.

(2) Any wine for which no maximum volatile acidity is prescribed in this article, having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, in excess of 0.14 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(3) Any wine for which a standard of identity is prescribed in this article, which, through disease, decomposition or otherwise, fails to have the composition, color, and clean vinous taste and aroma of normal wines conforming to such standard.

SEC. 22. Blends, cellar treatment, alteration of class or type.—(a) If the class or type of any wine shall be altered, and if the product as so altered does not fall within any other class or type either specified in this article or known to the trade, then such wine shall, unless otherwise specified in this section, be designated with a truthful and adequate statement of composition in accordance with section 34, Article III, of these regulations.

(b) Alteration of class or type shall be deemed to result from any of the following occuring before, during, or after production.

(1) Treatment of any class or type of wine with substances foreign to such wine which remain therein, Provided, That the presence in finished wine of not more than 350 parts per million (not more than 70 of such parts being in a free state) of total sulphur dioxide, or sulphites expressed as sulphur dioxide, shall not be precluded under this paragraph.

(2) Treatment of any class or type of wine with substances not foreign to such wine but which remain therein in larger quantities than are naturally and normally present in other wines of the same class or type not so treated.

(3) Treatment of any class or type of wine with methods or materials of any kind to such an extent or in such manner as to affect the basic composition of the wine so treated by altering any of its characteristic elements.

(4) Blending of wine of one class with wine of another class or the blending of wines of different types within the same class.

(5) Treatment of any class or type of wine for which a standard of identity is prescribed in this article with sugar or water in excess of the quantities specifically authorized by such standard, Provided, That where such wine is derived exclusively from fruit or other agricultural products the normal acidity of which is 20 parts or more per thousand, and such wine has been manufactured in accordance with the standard of identity therefor in all respects except that the volume of the product has been increased more than 35 per cent, but not more than 60 per cent, by the addition of sugar and water solution for the sole purpose of correcting natural deficiencies due to such acidity, the class or type shall not be deemed to be altered but there shall be stated, as a part of the class or type designation, the phrase "made with over 35 per cent sugar solution".

(c) Nothing in this section shall preclude the treatment of wine of any class or type in the manner hereinafter specified, provided such treatment does not result in the alteration of the class or type of the wine under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(1) Treatment with filtering equipment, and with fining or sterilizing agents.

(2) Treatment with pasteurization at the minimum temperature and for the minimum period necessary to accomplish practical stabilization, but not for the purpose of shortening the normal maturation period.

(3) Treatment with refrigeration at the maximum temperature and for the minimum period necessary to accomplish practical stabilization, but not for the purpose of shortening the normal maturation period.

(4) Treatment with methods and materials to the minimum extent necessary to correct cloudiness, precipitation, or abnormal color, odor, or flavor developing in wine.

(5) Treatment with constituents naturally present in the kind of fruit or other agricultural product from which the wine is produced for the purpose of correcting deficiencies of these constituents, but only to the extent that such constituents would be present in normal wines of the same class or type not so treated.

SEC. 23. Grape type designations.—(a) A name indicative of a variety of grape may be employed as the type designation of a grape wine if the wine derives its predominant taste, aroma, and characteristics, and at least 51 per cent of its volume, from that variety of grape. If such type designation is not known to the consumer as the name of a grape variety, there shall appear in direct conjunction therewith an explanatory statement as to the significance thereof.

SEC. 24. Generic, semi-generic, and non-generic designations of geographic significance.—(a) A name of geographic significance which is also the designation of a class or type of wine, shall be deemed to have become generic only if so found by the Administrator.

Examples of generic names, originally having geographic significance, which are designations for a class or type of wine are: Vermouth, Sake.

(b) A name of geographic significance, which is also the designation of a class or type of wine, shall be deemed to have become semi-generic only if so found by the Administrator. Semi-generic designations may be used to designate wines of an origin other than that indicated by such name only if there appears in direct conjunction therewith an appropriate appellation of origin disclosing the true place of origin of the wine.

Examples of semi-generic names which are also designations for types of grape wine are: Angelica, Burgundy, Claret, Chablis, Champagne, Chianti, Malaga, Marsala, Madeira, Moselle, Port, Rhine Wine (syn. Rock), Sauterne, Haut Sauterne, Sherry, Tokay.

(c) A name of geographic significance, which has not been found by the Administrator to be generic or semi-generic, may be used only to designate wines of the origin indicated by such name, but such name shall not be deemed to be the distinctive designation of a wine unless the Administrator finds that it is known to the consumer and to the trade as the designation of a specific wine of a particular place or region, distinguishable from all other wines.

Examples of non-generic names which are not distinctive designations of specific wines are: American, California, Lake Erie Islands, Napa Valley, New York State, French, Spanish.

Examples of non-generic names which are also distinctive designations of specific grape wines are: Bordeaux Blanc, Bordeaux Rouge, Graves, Medoc, St. Julien, Chateau Yquem, Chateau Margaux, Chateau Lafite, Pommard, Chambertin, Montrachet, Rhone, Liebfraumilch, Rudesheimer, Forster Deidesheimer, Schloss Johannisberger, Lagrima, Lacryma Christi.

SEC. 25. Appellations of origin.—(a) A wine shall be entitled to an appellation of origin if (1) at least 75 per cent of its volume is derived from fruit or other agricultural products both grown and fermented in the place or region indicated by such appellation, (2) it has been fully manufactured and finished within such place or region, and (3) it conforms to the requirements of the laws and regulations of such place or region governing the composition, method of manufacture and designation of wines for home consumption.

(b) Wines subjected to cellar treatment outside the place or region of origin under the provisions of section 22 (c) of this article, and blends of wines of the same origin blended together outside the place or region of origin (if all the wines in the blend have a common class, type or other designation which is employed as the designation of the blend), shall be entitled to the same appellation of origin to which they would be entitled if such cellar treatment or blending took place within the place or region of origin.

3. Amend Article III, Section 33 (b), of said regulations to read:

(b) Brand names of geographic significance.—The word "brand" shall be stated in direct conjunction with, and in lettering at least one-half as large as, any geographic brand name which, either alone or by reason of any statement, design, or device appearing upon the label, tends to create the impression that the wine originated in a particular place or region, unless such wine is in fact of the origin indicated.

4. Amend Article III, Section 34, of said regulations to read:

SEC. 34. Class and type.—(a) The class of the wine shall be stated, and such statement shall be in conformity with article II of these regulations if the wine is defined therein, except that red, white, light and natural wines need not be designated as such. In the case of still grape wine there may appear, in lieu of the class designation, any grape-type designation, semi-generic geographic type designation, or geographic distinctive designation to which the wine may be entitled. In the case of champagne, the type designation "champagne" may appear in lieu of the class designation "sparkling wine". If the class of the wine is not defined in article II of these regulations, a truthful and adequate statement of composition shall appear upon the brand label of the product in lieu of a class designation. In addition to the mandatory designation for the wine, there may be stated a distinctive or fanciful name, or a designation in accordance with trade understanding. All parts of the designation of the wine, whether mandatory or optional, shall be in direct conjunction and in lettering substantially of the same size and kind.

(b) An appellation of origin such as "American", "California", "Chilean", "New York State" or "Spanish", disclosing the true place of origin of the wine, shall appear in direct conjunction with and in lettering substantially as conspicuous as the class and type designation, (1) if a grape variety name having geographic significance is employed as the type designation of the wine pursuant to section 23, (2) if a semi-generic type designation of geographic significance is employed as the type designation of the wine pursuant to section 24 (b), or (3) if the label bears any statement, design, device, or representation which indicates or infers origin.

5. Amend Article III, Section 39 (a), of said regulations by adding at the end thereof a new sub-paragraph to read:

(7) Any statement, design, device, or representation (other than a statement of alcoholic content in conformity with section 36) which tends to create the impression that the wine has been "fortified", or contains distilled spirits, or has intoxicating qualities, except that a statement of composition, if required to appear as the designation of a product not defined in article II of these regulations, may include a reference to the type of distilled spirits employed therein.

6. Amend Article III, Section 39, of said regulations by striking out paragraph "(j)" thereof, and by relettering paragraph "(k)" thereof to read "(j)".

7. Amend Article VI, Section 64 (a), of said regulations by adding at the end thereof a new sub-paragraph to read:

(8) Any statement, design, device, or representation (other than a statement of alcoholic content in conformity with section 62 C.) which tends to create the impression that the wine has been "fortified", or contains distilled spirits, or has intoxicating qualities, except that a statement of composition, if required to appear as the designation of a product not defined in article II of these regulations, may include a reference to the type of distilled spirits employed therein.

8. Amend Article VI, Section 64 (h), of said regulations to read:

(h) Statements indicative of origin.—No statement, design, device, or representation which tends to create the impression that the wine originated in a particular place or region, shall appear in any advertisement unless the label of the advertised product bears an appellation of origin, and such appellation of origin appears in the advertisement in direct conjunction with the class and type designation.

The provisions of Class 8, Section 21, Article II, of this amendment shall become effective one month after the date of filing with the Division of the Federal Register. All other provisions of this amendment shall become effective six months after the date of filing with the Division of the Federal Register.

RETIREMENT OF STOCK UPON REPAYMENT OF LOAN

Section 11.2148 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 11.2148 Disposition of stock proceeds where association is in class 3 or 4.—Where the association is in class 3 or 4, the bank shall retain the full amount of the proceeds of such retired stock and apply the same as a credit on the debts due by such association to the bank; provided, however, that where the association is in class 3 the bank may pay to the association from the proceeds of such retired stock an amount sufficient to permit the association to make settlements under section 29 of the Federal Farm Loan Act as amended by section 25 (d) of the Farm Credit Act of 1937, in which case any balance of such proceeds shall be retained by the bank and applied as a credit on the indebtedness of the association to it. (Sec. 6, 47 Stat. 14, 12 U. S. C. 665; sec. 7, 39 Stat. 365, 12 U. S. C. 721; sec. 8, 39 Stat. 367, 12 U. S. C. 733.) [Revision No. 27, Manual for Federal Land Banks, August 26, 1938.]"

Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by adding the following new section:

"SEC. 11.2168.72 Participation certificates.—If any shareholder or former shareholder does not desire to settle on the basis of a fair book value of the stock of the association as determined in conservatorship proceedings pursuant to section 29 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended by section 25 (d) of the Farm Credit Act of 1937, he may, in lieu thereof, be given a participation certificate which will entitle him to share pro rata on the basis of the number of shares of stock which he owned in the association in the distribution of any assets of the association which is made after all its indebtedness to creditors has been satisfied but not to exceed the par value of such shares. The holder of a participation certificate may at any time, by surrendering the certificate to the secretary-treasurer of the association, receive the amount which is being paid to retiring shareholders at the date of such surrender as the fair book value of the stock of the association, but in no event more than the amount of the fair book value of the association stock as of the date when he became entitled to receive the certificate. Settlements with holders of participation certificates in accordance with the preceding sentence should be made only on condition that they accept the settlement as payment in full. Unless the holder surrenders his participation certificate as herein provided, he shall receive no cash payments in connection with such certificate, except as follows:

(1) If the association is liquidated by receivership or otherwise, he shall be entitled to share pro rata with other persons having similar rights in the distribution of any assets of the association which is made after all of its indebtedness to creditors has been satisfied.

(2) If, prior to liquidation as provided in (1) above, the fair book value of the stock of the association reaches par, he shall be entitled to receive par for such certificate.

(3) If, prior to liquidation as provided in (1) above, all indebtedness of the association is paid but the fair book value of the stock is not par, he may share pro rata with other persons having similar rights in the distribution of any assets of the association which may be made from time to time.

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

ORDER AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ANNOUNCING THE EFFECTIVE TIME OF, AND THE CLASS I AND CLASS II–A PRICES TO BE PAID PURSUANT TO ORDER NO. 27 REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

Whereas, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, issued on August 5, 1938, Order No. 27 [1] regulating the handling of milk in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area, which order provided that it should become effective in accordance with article X thereof, said article X reading as follows:

"ARTICLE X—EFFECTIVE TIME

"SECTION 1. Effective time.—This order shall become effective after the issuance by the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York of an order containing provisions similar to the provisions of this order and to which this order shall be complementary and on the first day of the month following, by more than three days, publication in the Federal Register by the Secretary of (a) his finding that the order is approved by more than two-thirds of the producers voting in a referendum, (b) a marketing agreement containing provisions similar to this order approved by him and signed by handlers of more than 50 percent of the milk sold in the marketing area, or, his determination approved by the President that the failure or refusal of handlers to sign tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act and that the issuance of the order is the only practical means of advancing the interests of producers pursuant to such declared policy of the act.";

Whereas, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York has issued an order containing provisions similar to the provisions of the above-mentioned order and to which said order is complementary; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has (a) found that the issuance of the above-mentioned order is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the month of May 1938, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area and who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary, and (b) determined, such determination being approved by the President of the United States, that the failure or refusal of handlers of more than fifty percentum of the volume of milk covered by said order which is produced for sale in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area to sign a marketing agreement containing provisions similar to the above-mentioned order tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, and that the issuance of said order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in said area, both the above-mentioned finding and determination being published in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

Now, therefore, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, pursuant to the terms ond provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, and of Order No. 27 regulating the handling of milk in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area, issued August 5, 1938, hereby declares that said Order No. 27 shall be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 1, 1938, and hereby orders that from said date such handling of milk produced for sale in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in said Order No. 27.

In addition the Secretary of Agriculture hereby announces that the average of the prices reported daily during the sixty days preceding the 25th day of August, by the United States Department of Agriculture, for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market was 26.18 cents, and that the average of the prices reported daily during the thirty days preceding the 25th day of August, by the United States Department of Agriculture, for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market was 26.25 cents; and hereby orders that the Class I price, pursuant to article IV of said order, for the month of September, shall be $2.45 per cwt., and that the Class II–A price, pursuant to article IV of said order, for the month of September, shall be $1.75 per cwt.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS

DIVISION OF GRAZING

AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RANGE CODE

RULES FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF GRAZING DISTRICTS UNDER THE ACT OF JUNE 28, 1934, AS AMENDED BY THE ACT OF JUNE 26, 1936, COMMONLY KNOWN AS THE TAYLOR GRAZING ACT [3]

The Federal Range Code, approved on March 16 and June 22, 1938,[4] is hereby

[1] 3 F. R. 451 DI.
[2] 3 F. R. 2082 DI.
[3] 48 Stat. 1269; 49 Stat. 1976.
[4] 3 F. R. 705, 1535 DI.

amended in the following particulars:

Sec. 2 (p) is amended to read as follows:

"(p) Free-use applicant means an applicant who resides in the immediate neighborhood of Federal range and who owns livestock kept for domestic purposes. 'Livestock kept for domestic purposes' means livestock whose products are consumed or whose work is used directly and exclusively by the family of the applicant."

Sec. 6, Par. a is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. a. Free-use licenses and permits.—Free-use licenses or permits first will be issued to free-use applicants for not to exceed the number of livestock kept for domestic purposes. Such livestock shall be grazed on Federal range in the immediate neighborhood of the residence of the licensee or permittee."

Sec. 4, Par. a is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. a. Base properties; classes; carrying capacity of land; service value of water.—For the purpose of determining the proper use of the base properties of all applicants and their relative dependence upon the Federal range, water conditions and other factors affecting livestock operations in the area will be considered. Base properties will be classified as land or water and further in the following manner:

CLASS 1. Forage land dependent by both location and use, and full-time prior water.

CLASS 2. Forage land dependent by use only, and full-time water.

CLASS 3. Forage land dependent by location only, and full-time water which otherwise would be in class 2 but which was developed later than other water servicing a part or all of the same area. Base property which is forage land will be rated for its carrying capacity. Water will be rated for its service value by deducting therefrom one half of the carrying capacity of any area serviced jointly by competing water of the same class, the carrying capacity of all nonfederal range within the service area of the water, and the carrying capacity of any Federal range within such area the use of which is essential for purposes other than the granting of grazing privileges. In computing the service value of water in class 3, there will also be deducted therefrom the carrying capacity of any portion of its service area which is serviceable from any other full-time water antedating it in development."

SEC. 6, PAR. b is amended by deleting the words "Reductions; Allotments" in the heading, by substituting a period for the semicolon after the word "Livestock" therein, and by inserting the following at the end of Par. b:

"After licenses or permits have been issued on the basis of the foregoing method of computation, any licensee or permittee may, within the discretion of the regional grazier, and on written order by him, be allowed to use the amount of Federal range feed represented by his license or permit over any period of time within the season or seasons for which the Federal range is classified as proper for use, provided that:

(1) Such period does not exceeed the maximum period of time for which any licensee or permittee is allowed to use the Federal range during any one year;

(2) The number of animal-unit months of Federal range feed to be consumed is not thereby increased;

(3) Such use will not be detrimental to the Federal range; and

(4) Such use will not adversely affect other licensees or permittees."

Sec. 6 is further amended by relettering Par. c as Par. d and by inserting the following new paragraph as Par. c:

"PAR. c. Nonuse licenses and permits.—A nonuse license or permit, which will not entitle the holder thereof to put livestock on the Federal range, will be issued in whole or in part to the extent of the number of livestock for which the applicant might have an effective regular license or permit for the period involved, provided that:

(1) A regular license or permit for the number of livestock to be covered by the nonuse license or permit has not become effective, by the payment of fees, for the period involved;

(2) None of the livestock to be covered by the nonuse license or permit has been placed on the Federal range during the period involved;

(3) Regular licenses or permits will be issued to other applicants to the extent of the carrying capacity of Federal range which may be unused because of the issuance of a nonuse license or permit, unless the nonuse licensee or permittee lawfully maintains improvements which render such a procedure impracticable;

(4) Subject to proviso (3) above, a nonuse licensee or permittee may at any time during the period of the nonuse license or permit apply for and upon the payment of the proper fees obtain a regular license or permit for the remainder of the period for any part of the number of livestock covered by the nonuse license or permit; and

(5) No nonuse license or permit will be issued either to any one applicant or on the basis of any one property for more than four consecutive installment periods, or portions thereof, for which fees are collected from regular licenses or permittees.

Sec. 8 of that part of the Federal Range Code approved on March 16, 1938, is renumbered as sec. 15 of the Federal Range Code.

Sec. 8, Par. e of the Federal Range Code approved June 22, 1938, is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. e. Payment of fees.—All fees for crossing permits, and all fees for regular licenses or permits which total $10 or less or which are for a period of three months or less, shall be paid in full at the time of issuance of the license or permit. Fees for other regular licenses or permits may be paid in two equal installments, each of which must be paid before the license or permit will be effective for the portion of the grazing period covered by the particular installment. No license or permit shall be issued or renewed until payment of any amounts due as grazing fees has been made. Upon application by a transferee of any property or part thereof on the basis of which a license or permit has been issued, a new form of license representing that part of the grazing privileges to which he may thereby become entitled will be issued to him upon payment of his proportionate part of any unpaid installment of fees then due."

Sec. 9, Par. a of the Federal Range Code approved June 22, 1938, is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. a. Consideration of application; recommendation; service of notice.—An application for a grazing license or permit will, upon reference by the regional grazier, be considered by the advisory board of the district in which it is sought. The advisory board will make its recommendation to the Division of Grazing. If such recommendation is favorable, the Division will so notify the applicant by ordinary mail. If the recommendation is to any extent adverse, notice thereof will be served on the applicant personally either by the regional grazier or such person as may have been designated by him or by registered letter sent to the address given by the applicant in his application. Such notice will name a place and a date, not less than ten days thereafter, when protests against the recommendation of the advisory board will be heard."

Sec. 9, Par. c of the Federal Range Code approved June 22, 1938, is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. c. Allowance or rejection of application by the regional grazier; modification; service of notice; appeal to examiner; intervention.—The regional grazier is vested with authority, in the light of all facts and circumstances, either with or without first having submitted an application to the district advisors, to issue or refuse to issue a grazing license or permit. If a grazing license or permit is refused or if the action of the regional grazier is to any extent adverse to the applicant, a notice including a recital of the specific reasons for the action taken will be served on the applicant either personally by the regional grazier or such person as may have been designated by him, or by registered letter sent to the address given by the applicant in his application. If the action taken by the regional grazier on any application is substantially different from that recommended by the advisory board, a notice including a recital of the specific reasons for the action taken will be served on any other applicant or applicants affected by such action, either personally by the regional grazier or such person as may have been designated by him or by registered letter sent to the address given by the applicant in his application. The notice given the particular applicant will advise him of his privilege to file an appeal to an examiner of the Division of Grazing. The appeal must be filed in the local office of the Division of Grazing within fifteen days following the receipt of the notice. The appeal shall be accompanied by specifications of error setting forth in a clear and concise manner the matters upon which it is based. Any party or parties who would be directly affected by the decision in the appeal may file a request for permission to be heard in the appeal and shall serve the appellant with a copy of such request. Such a party shall be known and designated as an intervenor. Where separate appeals are filed and the issue or issues involved are common to both appeals, the appeals may be heard at the same hearing."

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

DETERMINATION OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, having reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of milk in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, gave, on the 29th day of April 1938, notice of public hearings [1] to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, said hearings being held jointly with the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York at Albany, New York, May 16, 1938; Malone, New York, May 17, 1938; Syracuse, New York, May 18, 1938; Elmira, New York, May 19, 1938; New York City, May 20, 24, 25, and 26, 1938; and Albany, New York, June 3, 4, and 7, 1938, and at said times and places all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order; and

Whereas, after said hearings and after the tentative approval of a marketing agreement by the Secretary on August 5, 1938, handlers of more than fifty (50) percentum of the volume of milk covered by such proposed order, which is produced for sale in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement:

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the power and authority vested in him by said act, hereby determines:

(1) That the refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) That the issuance of the proposed order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in said area; and

(3) That the issuance of the proposed order is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the month of May 1938, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area, and who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary.

In witness whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has executed this determination in duplicate, and has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 24th day of August 1938.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Special Order 401-A-4]

TEMPORARILY EXEMPTING PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS, INC., WITH REFERENCE TO THE AIR TRANSPORTATION SERVICE RENDERED BY SAID AIR CARRIER BETWEEN SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, AND JUNEAU, ALASKA, VIA KETCHIKAN, ALASKA

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of August, 1938.

Upon consideration of the application of Pan American Airways, Inc., for exemption from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, insofar as the provisions of said section are applicable to the overseas air transportation service rendered by said air carrier between Seattle, Washington, and Juneau, Alaska, with scheduled intermediate stop at Ketchikan, Alaska; and

It appearing that:

(1) The applicant was, prior to May 14, 1938, and is now an air carrier engaged in the rendition of scheduled overseas and foreign air transportation service between points in the United States and various points in the territorial possessions of the United States, Latin America and the Orient.

(2) On August 19, 1938, after application made and proof submitted in connection therewith, the Secretary of Commerce rated said air carrier competent to inaugurate a proving period for the purpose of qualifying for the conduct of an overseas air transportation over the route from Seattle to Juneau, and during said proving period to carry property and mail for compensation on a schedule of one round-trip per week. A specific condition to the authorization given was that no passengers other than company personnel or authorized government inspectors should be carried on any such proving flights. At least ten of such round-trip proving flights are required to be completed on or before January 1, 1939. The air carrier inaugurated and completed the first of such proving flights on August 20, 1938.

(3) The air carrier has no contract for carriage of mail over said route.

(4) Said carrier has transferrer aircraft and other equipment, and personnel, from Miami, Florida, to Seattle, Washington, for the conduct of the above-described operation, and has expended considerable sums of money in preparation for and the inauguration of the aforesaid air transportation service.

(5) The Post Office Department and the citizens of the Pacific Northwest and of Alaska have long been desirous of establishing an air transportation service for all classes of traffic between continental United States and Alaska, and the establishment of such air transportation service would be in the public interest.

The Authority finds that:

(1) The present enforcement of the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, insofar as the provisions of said section are applicable to the air transportation service rendered by said air carrier between Seattle and Juneau would be an undue burden on such air carrier by reason of the unusual circumstances affecting the operations of such air carrier with respect to said air transportation service, and such enforcement would not be in the public interest.

Now, therefore, the Authority, pursuant to the powers granted it by sections 205 (a) and 416 (b) of the Act, issues the following special order:

Special order 401-A-4.—Temporarily exempting Pan American Airways, Inc., from the provisions of section 401 (a) with respect to a specified service.

Pan American Airways, Inc., is hereby exempted from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Act for the period to and including December 31, 1938, insofar as the provisions of that section would otherwise be applicable to the overseas air transportation service between Seattle, Washington, and Juneau, Alaska, with a scheduled intermediate stop at Ketchikan, Alaska, heretofore authorized by the Secretary of Commerce by authorization dated August 19, 1938, and to transport property thereon during said period for such charges and rates as may be established pursuant to law, subject, however, to the condition that said Pan American Airways, Inc., shall at all times comply in all respects with the terms and conditions set forth in said authorization for a proving period for such service dated August 19, 1938.

By the Authority.

Secretary.

5. Upon receipt of a reply from another department or agency of the Government, as contemplated by paragraph No. 3 of this Order, in which it is recommended that an application be granted, the Secretary of State shall notify the government of the American republic concerned, through diplomatic channels, that permission to receive the instruction requested in the application is granted, provided the applicant complies with the terms of this Order and with the terms of the administrative regulations of the department or agency concerned.

WHEREAS the Convention for the recovery and return of stolen or embezzled motor vehicles, trailers, airplanes, or the component parts of any of them, between the United States of America and the United Mexican States, concluded on October 6, 1936, and proclaimed by the President of the United States of America, on June 24, 1937, reads as follows:

ARTICLE I.

Whenever the Government of the United Mexican States through its Embassy in Washington shall so request the Department of State of the United States of America, that Department will use every proper means to bring about the detention of alleged stolen or embezzled motor vehicles, trailers, airplanes or the component parts of any of them.

The request of the Embassy shall be accompanied by documents legally valid in the United Mexican States supporting the claim of the person or persons interested to the property the return of which is requested.

After the property shall have been detained, and in the absence of evidence conclusively controverting the proof just before mentioned, it will be delivered to the person or persons designated for such purpose by the Embassy in Washington of the United Mexican States.

ARTICLE II.

Whenever the Government of the United States of America through its Embassy in Mexico City shall so request the Department of Foreign Relations of the United Mexican States, that Department will use every proper means to bring about the detention of alleged stolen or embezzled motor vehicles, trailers, airplanes or the component parts of any of them.

The request of the Embassy shall be accompanied by documents legally valid in the United States of America supporting the claim of the person or persons interested to the property the return of which is requested.

After the property shall have been detained, and in the absence of evidence conclusively controverting the proof just before mentioned, it will be delivered to the person or persons designated for such purpose by the Embassy in Mexico City of the United States of America.

ARTICLE III.

When the stolen or embezzled property is held as evidence in a criminal case, in the country where recovered, such detention shall not exceed twenty days from the date of the presentation to the Department of State or the Department of Foreign Relations, as the case may be, of the official request for the return of the property.

ARTICLE IV.

The High Contracting Parties will extend all necessary customs and other facilities in order that the person or persons on whose behalf the return has been made shall receive the stolen property and return with it to the territory of the country from which the request emanated.

ARTICLE V.

The High Contracting Parties will not assess any duties, fines or other monetary penalties upon the property detained and returned under the terms and provisions of this Convention. All expenses incident to the return and delivery of the property to the requesting country shall be borne by the person or persons receiving the vehicles or their component parts and such person or persons shall have no claim for compensation against the detaining authorities for damages to the property in connection with its seizure, detention and storage.

ARTICLE VI.

The High Contracting Parties will ratify this Convention in accordance with the provisions of their respective Constitutions and the exchange of ratifications shall take place in the City of Mexico as soon as possible.

This Convention shall remain in force for one year from the date of exchange of ratifications. If upon the expiration of one year notice is not given by either High Contracting Party of the desire to terminate the same, it shall continue in force until thirty days after either party shall have given notice to the other of the desire to terminate it.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed and affixed their seals to this Convention.

Done in duplicate, in English and Spanish, at Mexico City, this sixth day of the month of October one thousand nine hundred and thirty six.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS [SEAL]

ARTICLE I.

ARTICLE II.

Whenever, in accordance with the provisions of Article II of the Convention, the United States of America shall request the detention in the United Mexican States of alleged stolen or embezzled motor vehicles, trailers, airplanes, or the component parts of any of them, the request shall be accompanied by documents legally valid in the United States of America. The said documents shall be as follows: (1) the original or a certified copy of the official registration card; (2) not more than three affidavits identifying the claimant as the owner of the legal or equitable title, or both, to the property alleged to have been stolen or embezzled; (3) not more than three affidavits identifying the claimant as the owner of the legal or equitable title, or both, to the property alleged to have been stolen or embezzled; (4) the original or a certified copy of any assignment of the property by the insured to the insurer pursuant to a contract of insurance in force at the time the theft or embezzlement was committed.

[Amendment 1 to B. A. I. Order 366]

EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 3, 1938

AUGUST 27, 1938.

Under authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Section 306 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 590, 689), the order to prevent the introduction into the United States of rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease (B. TITLE 10—ARMY

WAR DEPARTMENT

PART 4.—FINANCE DEPARTMENT

VOUCHERS PERTAINING TO MONEY ACCOUNTS

SEC. 4.09 Certification, general—(a) By creditor.—A voucher for funds disbursed will be made out in full before being certified by a public creditor. The original voucher must be signed and certified to in the space provided in the voucher form by the creditor or by his duly authorized agent, except that if a payee submits for payment an invoice or bill on which is shown the required certificate or certificates duly signed (see paragraph (b) below), such invoice or bill may be accepted if it constitutes a valid claim against the Government, and will be fastened securely to the voucher in lieu of stating the invoice or bill in detail on the voucher form and securing the payee's certificate thereon.

(b) Vendor's certificates—(1) General.—Under general contracts or agreements where the nature of the contract or agreement does not require additional certificate or certificates, the following certificate will be furnished:

I certify that the above bill is correct and just; that payment therefor has not been received; that except as otherwise noted all of the articles, materials, and supplies furnished under purchase order No. ------, if unmanufactured articles, materials, and supplies, have been mined or produced in the United States, and if manufactured articles, materials, and supplies, they have been manufactured in the United States substantially all from articles, materials, or supplies mined, produced, or manufactured, as the case may be, in the United States; and that State or local sales taxes are not included in the amount billed.

(2) Reduction in wage rates.—Under contracts or agreements which provide that the Government is to receive the benefit of any reduction in wage rates, in addition to the general certificate ((1) above) the following certificate will be furnished:

[1] 3 F. R. 1228 (DI).

I certify that the United States received the benefit of reduction, if any, in the wage rate in accordance with the stipulations under the contract.

(3) Wages, rights, and hours of work.—Under contracts which contain certain stipulations required by law with respect to wages, rights, and hours of work of employees, in addition to the general certificate ((1) above) the following certificate will be furnished:

I certify that the stipulations required by law and/or under contract, etc., with respect to wages, rights, and hours of work of employees have been complied with.

Examples: The labor stipulations in the acts of July 5, 1935 (49 Stat. 449); June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036); and April 26, 1937 (50 Stat. 87).

(4) Decline in market price.—Under contracts or agreements which provide that the Government is to receive the benefit of any decline in market price, in addition to the general certificate ((1) above) the following certificate will be furnished:

I certify that the United States received the benefit of decline, if any, in the market price in accordance with the stipulations under the contract.

(5) Decline in freight rates.—Under contracts or agreements which provide that the Government is to receive the benefit of any decrease in freight rates, in addition to the general certificate ((1) above) the following certificate will be furnished:

I certify that the United States received the benefit of decrease, if any, in freight rates in accordance with the stipulations under the contract.

(6) Tank wagon, barge, or service station deliveries.—Under contracts or agreements covering the purchase of gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil, etc., based on tank wagon, barge, or service station price, in addition to the general certificate ((1) above) the following certificate will be furnished:

I certify that tank wagon (or barge, service station, etc.) price, at date and point of delivery, is as stated herein.

(7) Temperature adjustments.—While no special form of certificate is prescribed for commodities such as oils, petroleum products, etc., contracted for on a temperature adjustment basis, the vouchers or invoices covering such procurements should contain information as to the temperatures or moisture content involved in the adjustments of the quantities for which the vouchers or invoices are submitted.

(8) Telephone, telegraph, and metered services.—Unless special forms are prescribed for telephone, telegraph, or metered services, such services will be billed on the company's invoices, the original of which must bear the following signed certificate (general certificate prescribed in (1) above is not required in such cases):

I certify that the above bill is correct and just; that payment therefor has not been received; that the rates charged were in effect at the time the services were rendered; and that such rates are not in excess of those charged the general public for similar services.

(c) Form in which payee's certificates will be furnished.—The prescribed certificate or certificates should be printed, stamped, typed, or written on the voucher or invoice and must be signed (in original only) by the duly authorized representative of the concern billing. (See MS. Comp. Gen. A–51607, August 26, 1937.) In cases where it is physically impossible to include the additional certificate or certificates on the face of the voucher or invoice, the certificate or certificates will be placed on the reverse of the voucher or invoice. Additional (separate) sheets for, duplicates, or copies of certifications only will not be accepted by the General Accounting Office. (See MS. Comp. Gen. A–51607, A–49009, April 2, 1938.) Under no conditions should the certificates on Government vouchers or on invoice forms to be attached to such vouchers be signed in blank or at any time prior to submission of the voucher or invoice but after delivery or performance by the claimant. To do so may result in the submission of a false claim against the Government for which the person signing the certificate may be held liable under the law. See MS. Comp. Gen. A–51607, A–49009, April 2, 1938, June 2, 1938.

(d) Zones to be stated on vouchers covering payments for gasoline under TPS contracts.—The zone in which delivery was made will be stated on vouchers covering payments for gasoline under TPS contracts, where such zone deliveries are specified in such contracts and noted on purchase orders or other procuring instruments. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22.) [AR 35–1040, Aug. 1, 1938.]

SEC. 4.10 Certification when payment made by check.—If payment is made by check to the order of any company (incorporated or unincorporated) or firm or individual by name, and the fact that the check has been so drawn is stated on the voucher, giving its number, date, amount, and United States depositary on which drawn, the certificate to the voucher may be signed by an officer, attorney, or agent of the company, or by an attorney or agent of the firm or individual, stating the capacity in which he signs, without filing with the voucher evidence of his authority to sign. In all such cases the disbursing officer will deliver the check to such person only who, to his satisfaction and by positive identification, is authorized by the principal to certify to the voucher and receive the check. See 2 Comp. Dec. 295. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22.) [AR 35–1040, Aug. 1, 1938.]

SEC. 4.11 Certification and receipt when payment made in currency.—(a) General.—Payment in currency will not be made to the holder of a power of attorney or to a holder of an instrument operating as a transfer or an assignment.

(b) Payments to companies.—(1) General.—If payment in currency is made to an incorporated or unincorporated company, the money will be delivered to and the voucher certified to and receipted by a duly authorized officer or agent of the company, the certificate and receipt to be signed with the company name, followed by the autograph signature of the officer, with his title, or of the agent to whom the money was delivered, and except as prescribed in (2) below the receipted voucher will be accompanied by evidence showing his authority. This evidence will consist of extracts from the articles of incorporation or association, the by-laws, or the minutes of the board of directors duly certified by the custodian of such records (under the company seal, if there is one), showing that the signer is properly vested with authority to receive and receipt for money due the company.

(2) Payments of small sums to corporations.—Receipts for small sums paid in currency to a corporation, such as a railroad, telegraph, turnpike, transfer, express, steamboat, hotel, newspaper, or ice company, for an occasional service rendered may be signed and the vouchers certified by the local agent in charge of the business of the company at the place where the service is rendered or where it begins or terminates. The certificate of the officer who made the payment that the person to whom payment was thus made was then the local agent of the company in charge of its business at the place designated will be sufficient evidence of the agent's authority to certify to the vouchers and to receipt for the money paid.

(c) Payments to individuals or copartnerships doing business under company titles.—If payment in currency is made to an individual or to a copartnership doing business under a company title, the certificate and receipt will be signed with the company name, followed by the autograph signature of the individual proprietor or of one of the members of the firm with the words "proprietor" or "one of the proprietors" affixed thereto.

(d) Payments to copartnerships doing business as such.—If payment in currency is made to a copartnership doing business as such, the certificate and receipt will be signed with the firm's usual signature by one of the members of the firm, who will be required to affix his own signature as "one of the firm."

(e) Payments to individuals.—If payment in currency is made to an individual creditor, the certificate and receipt will be signed by him in person. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22.) [AR 35–1040, Aug. 1, 1938.]

SEC. 4.12 Signatures.—(a) General.—The form of the signature to the certificate, and to the receipt when required, and the name of the person or business firm as entered at the head of an account must be literally alike.

(b) When signed by "X".—When a signature is not written by the hand of the party, due to inability to write, and such signature is signed by mark "X", it must be witnessed by a disinterested party with his address. Such witness will be a commissioned officer when practicable.

(c) In case of physical disability of person signing.—Where there is a mere physical inability to write on the part of a claimant and he causes his amanuensis to sign his name in his presence, such signature is regarded as a signing by the claimant. (See vol. 2, Dig. 2d Comp., 1109, July 18, 1883.) A physician's certificate as to the affliction should be filed with the first voucher. The signature of the amanuensis must be certified to by two witnesses.

(d) If a claimant is afflicted with a mental disability that disqualifies him from signing his name, the law requires the appointment of a committee or guardian. See vol. 2, Dig. 2d Comp., 1109, July 18, 1883.

(e) Certified copies of court papers appointing a guardian should be filed with the first voucher, and in future payments reference to such voucher, by number, should be made. If the payee is in an asylum, the superintendent's certificate that the payee was alive at the time payment was due should be filed with each voucher. The guardian should sign the name of the payee, followed by his own signature as guardian. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22) [AR 35–1040, Aug. 1, 1938.]

Brigadier General,
Acting The Adjutant General.

Suitable provisions should be made by the institutional authorities for the clerical and other labor necessary to carry out the above-mentioned duties pertaining to the Government property so issued.

During the temporary absence of the military property custodian an authorized official of the institution may be designated to act for him, signing all property papers, etc., in the following manner:

_____ University

For and in the absence of John Doe, Military Property Custodian

(Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.36 Requisitions.—Requisitions for articles authorized in Reserve Officers' Training Corps equipment tables herein should be prepared on W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 400 (Requisition), and the original copy under heading, "Requisitioned by" will be signed with the name of the institution followed by the word "by" and the name and title of the military property custodian, in the following form:

Requisitions will be prepared in triplicate; the triplicate copy retained by the requisitioning officer as a follow-up, and the original and duplicate copy forwarded by the institution direct to the corps area commander for approval and transmission to the supplying agency. Chiefs of supply arms or services may in their discretion require additional copies to be made and distributed in order to provide additional records by them in connection with the issue of property under their control. Separate requisitions will be prepared for supplies stored and issued by the different supply arms and services (ordnance, quartermaster, etc.). Requisitions will be numbered serially by the originating office in one consecutive series for each fiscal year, starting with No. 1 for the first requisition submitted on or after July 1 of each year. Requisitions will be submitted at least 30 days in advance of the time when the supplies will be needed. Requisitions for uniforms and clothing should be submitted when practicable at least 60 days in advance of time required. This applies particularly to colleges and schools west of the Mississippi River since the point of supply is the Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot, Philadelphia, Pa.

Equipment and supplies will be issued with or without reimbursement from appropriations for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in accordance with instructions furnished from time to time by the chiefs of supply arms and services. Such flat rate percent as measures the actual cost of issue is authorized to be charged, in connection with issues to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, under the appropriation for quartermaster supplies, etc., Reserve Officers' Training Corps. See 2 Comp. Gen. 304.

All requisitions for clothing will contain the following certificate:

SEC. 10.37 Acting quartermasters and disbursing officers.—The issuance of bills of lading and transportation requests and the handling of finance matters for institutions will ordinarily be the responsibility, respectively, of quartermasters and finance officers at corps area headquarters. Acting quartermasters and disbursing officers may, when necessary, be appointed at institutions by the corps area commander concerned. Whenever acting quartermasters are appointed, the corps area commander will furnish two copies of the appointment order to The Quartermaster General. The duties of acting quartermasters or disbursing officers at institutions may include assistance to the military property custodian of the institutions in the preparation of requisitions, reports, returns, and other documents as required by the War Department. These duties will be in addition to those of instructor, which are considered to be of paramount importance. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.38 Bonds.—(a) All property and equipment issued to an educational institution, except clothing and expendable articles and articles specifically exempted, must be covered by bond. The organization of a unit having been authorized and an officer having been detailed, the institution will submit a requisition for the property which it is authorized to receive. Such requisition will be submitted on the proper form to the corps area commander. With this initial requisition will be forwarded the following papers:

(1) A copy of the resolution or bylaw indicating the authority of the president or other designated officer to execute the bond on behalf of the corporation and designating the officer who will act as military property custodian, and authenticated as a true copy by the signature of the secretary and by the corporate seal.

(2) A copy of the charter or articles of incorporation, authenticated by the secretary of state or other officer required by law to keep a record of such corporations, or a reference to the statute, if incorporated by direct legislative act.

(b) Upon receipt of properly authenticated initial requisition, the corps area commander will forward a blank bond to the institution. This bond should be properly executed by the person indicated in the bylaws or resolution as vested with such authority, and should cover completely the value of the property to be issued. Should this bond become insufficient by reason of subsequent issues, adequate additional bond or bonds will be required.

(c) The surety on the bond may be either any corporation authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to act as surety, or two responsible individuals who shall be citizens of the United States, or by United States bonds or notes.

(d) For exceptions to the requiring of surety, see paragraph (m) below.

(e) Individual sureties will justify in sums aggregating not less than double the penalty of the bond, and no individual should be accepted as surety who does not justify in a sum equal at least to 50 percent of the penal sum of the bond. Each individual surety will justify, under oath, before a United States commissioner, a clerk of a United States court, or a notary public, or some other officer having authority to administer oaths generally, and his affidavit of justification will be in the following form:

AFFIDAVIT BY INDIVIDUAL SURETY

STATE OF ----------
County of ----------, ss:

I, ----------, being duly sworn, depose and say that I am one of the sureties to the foregoing bond; that I am a citizen of the United States, and of full age and legally competent; that I reside at ---------- and that I am worth in real estate and personal property the sum of ------ dollars, over and above (1) all my debts and liabilities, owing and incurred; (2) any property exempt from execution; (3) any pecuniary interest I have in the business of the principal on said bond; that I own, unincumbered, real estate, the fee of which is in my name, worth ------ dollars, located in ----------; that said property is not exempt from seizure and sale under any homestead law, community, or marriage law, or upon any attachment, execution, or judicial process; and that I am not surety on any other bonds, except as follows:

(Surety's signature)

Subscribed and sworn to before me this -------- day of ---------- 19--.

[OFFICIAL SEAL]

(Title of official administering oath)

(f) The affidavits of individual surety will be followed by a "certificate of sufficiency" as to each individual surety, signed by a judge or clerk of a court of record, a United States district attorney or commissioner, or the president or cashier of a bank or trust company, in the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF SUFFICIENCY

I, ----------, do hereby certify that ---------- one of the sureties named above, is personally known to me, and that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts stated by such surety in the foregoing affidavit are true.

(Address)

(g) A firm, as such, will not be accepted as a surety, nor a partner for copartners or for a firm of which he is a member. Stockholders or a corporate principal may be accepted as sureties provided their qualifications as such are independent of their stock holdings therein.

(h) The name (first name, middle name, and last name) and resident of each individual party to the bond will be inserted in the body thereof, and each such party will sign the bond with his usual signature on the line opposite the scroll seal, and if signed in Maine or New Hampshire, an adhesive seal will be affixed opposite the signature.

(i) If the principals are partners, the names of the individual partners will appear in the body of the bond, with the recital that they are partners composing a firm operating as the (name of the educational institution), and all the partners will execute the bond as individuals.

(j) If the principal is an individual, the bond will be executed by him in his proper person and signed with his usual signature.

(k) The signature of a witness will appear in the appropriate place, attesting the signature of each individual party to the bond.

(l) If principal or surety is a corporation, the name of the State in which incorporated will be inserted in the appropriate place in the body of the bond, and said instrument will be executed and attested under the corporate seal as indicated in the form. If the corporation has no corporate seal the fact will be stated, in which case a scroll or adhesive seal will appear following the corporate name.

(m) Corps area commanders may legally authorize the acceptance of bonds to cover property issued to an institution of the three classes mentioned below without requiring a surety or sureties thereto when, upon a satisfactory showing of its financial responsibility, the bond of the principal without surety is deemed ample to provide for the care and safekeeping of the property and for its return when required:

(1) State universities operating under State charter.

(2) Institutions directly under the control of municipalities.

(3) Institutions which are corporations.

(n) The bond must be accompanied by a true copy, authenticated by the signature of the secretary and the corporate seal, of so much of the record of the proceedings of the board of regents, or other governing body of the principal, as will give the resolution or bylaw authorizing the president or other person to execute the bond, and as will show that it was adopted.

(o) The bond will be accompanied by a certificate of the corporate principal's secretary in the following form:

I, ----------, certify that I am the ---------- secretary of the corporation named as principal in the within bond, that ----------, who signed the said bond on behalf of the principal was then ---------- of said corporation; that I know his signature, and his signature is genuine; and that said bond was duly signed, sealed, and attested for and in behalf of said corporation by authority of its governing body.

[CORPORATION SEAL]

(p) The bond, when duly executed, will be returned to the corps area commander, in whose custody it will be retained and who will assure himself as to the sufficiency of the sureties thereon before acceptance. No bond will be accepted until it shall have been examined and approved by the corps area judge advocate as to legal sufficiency, form, and correctness of execution. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.39 Fire insurance.—An institution is not required to carry fire insurance. Whether or not the institution carries insurance on its Government property will not modify its pecuniary obligations for losses by fire which may result from neglect or loss through fault of the institution. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.40 Execution of bills of lading and receipt of property.—(a) As soon as requisitions are received and a bond covering full value thereof has been approved, the requisitions will be approved and forwarded to the proper depot for supply. Shipments will be made on Government bills of lading and will be consigned and billed to the "Military Property Custodian (insert name of institution)" in the manner prescribed in AR 30–950. Upon receipt of a shipment the military property custodian will accomplish the original bill of lading, in the name of and in behalf of the institution, and surrender it to the agent of the carrier, and in so doing will comply with the detailed instructions in paragraphs 24 to 34, inclusive, AR 30–950. In no case will the transportation charges on such shipments be paid by the institution.

(b) When a shipment of property is received it will be checked against the shipping tickets and the shipping tickets distributed as directed by these regulations. Should any discrepancies be found, the words "except as noted" will be inserted in the receiving officer's receipt, and W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 445 (Over, Short, and Damaged Report) will be initialed.

(c) When property is returned to the Government, six copies of W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 434 (Shipping Ticket (posts, camps, and stations)) will be prepared and routed as follows:

(1) Two to the receiving officer. (One copy will be signed and returned by the receiving officer as a receipt, and will be used by the institution as a voucher for dropping property from its records.)

(2) Two to the finance officer of the corps area in which the receiving officer is located.

(3) One to the corps area Reserve Officers' Training Corps officer.

(4) One filed with property records as a follow-up. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C., 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.41 Drayage—(a) Facilities for.—When notice has been received that Government property has been shipped to an institution, arrangements should be made by the military property custodian for the necessary drayage, in the manner prescribed by paragraph 12, AR 30–905, and paragraph 5c and d, AR 30–950. When delivery services of the carriers are not available, or if available and practicable and the military property custodian exercises the option of performing his own hauling, the drayage facilities of the institution should be used, but if the latter are not available, the military property custodian should formally request the professor of military science and tactics to effect the hauling by Government drayage facilities if available.

(b) No facilities for.—If, under the provisions of paragraph (a) above, no delivery services of the carriers are available, or no institutional or Government drayage facilities are available in case where the military property custodian exercises the option of performing his own hauling, he should request bids from local firms for performing the necessary drayage. The lowest responsible bid should be accepted, and the drayage services procured by means of an agreement, or a Purchase Order (W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 308). When such services have been completed, the drayage firm should be advised to state its bill in triplicate on Standard Form Nos. 1034 and 1034a (Public Voucher for Purchases and Services Other than Personal), supported by the original agreement or purchase order. A certificate should be made by the military property custodian and attached to that form certifying that the services were performed, the necessity for the services, the weight of the property hauled, the distance hauled, the period of time required, the bill of lading reference, and that the lowest responsible bid was accepted. The executed voucher in duplicate and supporting papers should be submitted promptly to the professor of military science and tactics for approval and transmittal to the corps area commander for action toward payment. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.42 Payments of commutation of subsistence to members of units, senior division.—(a) All members of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps duly enrolled in the advanced course are entitled to the commutation of subsistence authorized by section 47c, National Defense Act (41 Stat. 778), as amended by the act approved May 12, 1928 (45 Stat. 501), subject to the conditions prescribed by law and these regulations.

(b) The rate of commutation of subsistence for advanced-course students will be fixed from time to time by the Secretary of War, at a figure not exceeding the cost of the garrison ration prescribed for the Army.

(c) Allowance of commutation will begin in each instance with the date on which the student actually enters upon the work of the advanced course, which date should be the effective date of the advanced-course contract, and will continue until completion or termination of the contract, except as hereinafter provided. Commutation will not be allowed for any period in excess of two calendar years nor for any period in excess of two academic years plus one intervening summer vacation between such years, less the period of prescribed camp training during such vacation. Payment of commutation for the authorized portion of a summer vacation period will not be made until after the student has entered upon the second year of the advanced course. In computing the amount of such payment there will be deducted that portion of a summer vacation period which was devoted to advanced camps for members of the student's arm or service and during which subsistence was furnished, whether the student actually attended camp or not. In the event that the academic class of which the student is a member is continued beyond the date of opening of the camp, he will continue to be allowed commutation during the period he is so held. The summer vacation for which commutation will be allowed will in every case be that next following the school year during which the student entered upon the work of the first year of the advanced course at the institution. For each unauthorized absence from an hour of instruction as defined in paragraph (k), section 10.22, the sum of 50 cents will be deducted from the student's next payment of commutation. Commutation will not be allowed for any period during which the student is not pursuing the course, except the authorized portion of one summer vacation period above defined. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.43 Care of uniforms and equipment—(a) Clothing issued to remain property of the United States.—Articles of issued clothing will remain the property of the United States. When articles of clothing become unfit for use at regular drills and ceremonies, the professor of military science and tactics will furnish a certificate to that effect and a new article will be furnished the institution. No more than one outfit of uniform clothing per member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit will be furnished to any educational institution in one year. No more than two of any article of clothing per member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit will be in possession of any institution at one time, except cotton shirts, and as provided in paragraph (e) below. It is not intended that one complete outfit of new clothing will be issued for each Reserve Officers' Training Corps student per year, but that articles of clothing will be replaced only when worn out and unfit for use at regular drills and ceremonies. Articles of clothing worn out, but fit for rough wear, and for the replacement of which new uniforms have been received, may be retained at the institution, but not more than two of any article of clothing per member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit will be in the possession of any institution at one time. No new uniforms will be issued until all used uniforms have been issued insofar as sizes permit. Clothing will not be turned in to salvage unless it is unserviceable and unfit for renovation and reissue.

(b) Cleaning and renovation allowance for uniform.—Cleaning and renovation of uniform clothing issued by the Government will be accomplished under contract at the lowest possible rate. Cleaning and renovation of uniforms purchased from commutation of uniform funds will not be done at Government expense.

(c) Equipment to be turned in at close of school year.—At the close of each school year each member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will return to the storerooms indicated by the military property custodian of the institution all property which has been loaned to him for use in connection with the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Rifles will be carefully cleaned and well oiled with heavy cosmic oil so that all metal parts are thoroughly protected. Canvas equipment will be thoroughly cleaned with stiff brushes and otherwise placed in proper condition before being turned in. All articles of uniform of those who expect to return the next year will be thoroughly brushed and carefully tagged for ready identification. These uniforms should then be carefully packed with preservatives against moths and stored in such dry and well-selected place as to prevent their destruction. Uniforms of the students who do not expect to return to the institution will be carefully brushed and packed separately without being tagged.

(d) Preservatives furnished upon requisition.—Necessary preservatives will be furnished to institutions upon requisition in such quantities as are approved by the corps area commander but which will not exceed similar issues to the Regular Army.

(e) A surplus of uniforms not to exceed 10 percent of the number of basic students enrolled may be kept on hand. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.44 Care and safekeeping of arms, ammunition, and equipment.—The authorities of institutions are responsible for the care and safekeeping of arms, ammunition, and equipment which have been issued to them and are charged with seeing that proper precautions are taken to prevent arms, ammunition, and equipment from being improperly used and from falling into the hands of irresponsible persons. Corps area commanders are charged with supervision of the execution of War Department regulations and orders affecting such property. Professors of military science and tactics will advise the school authorities regarding all such regulations and orders and in case of noncompliance therewith will report all facts to the corps area commander. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat.

777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.45 Property accounting—(a) Assistance in the preparation of requisitions, etc.—In accordance with section 10.37, an officer of the Regular Army may assist the authorities of the institution in the preparation of requisitions, reports, and returns required by the War Department. In order that they may assist and instruct the military property custodians in the care of property and the proper methods of accounting therefor, all officers of the Regular Army on duty at schools and colleges will familiarize themselves with the regulations relative to accounting for Government property issued to those institutions.

(b) Institutions to keep necessary property accounts.—It will be necessary for the institutions to which public property is issued to keep the necessary property accounts as required by Army Regulations. It is therefore desired that the military property custodian immediately inaugurate such an account, in accordance with existing regulations, and call upon the professor of military science and tactics, or other officer designated by him, for such advice as may be desired in the initial preparation and subsequent keeping of the account.

(c) Property records.—A record of all Government property issued to institutions will be kept as provided in Army Regulations.

(d) Debit and credit vouchers.—All debit and credit vouchers should be promptly posted to the stock record account and the account kept up to date. When certificates of audit showing discrepancies found by a property auditor in the property accounts of the institution are received, adjustment of the discrepancies should be made as soon as practicable.

(e) The professor of military science and tactics will keep in touch with the methods employed by the military property custodian of the institution who is accountable for the Government property thereat, and will take appropriate measures, when necessary, to bring these methods into conformity with the regulations. This will include accounts covering commutation of uniforms.

(f) Inventories.—(1) By whom and when made.—Inventories of all Government property at each institution will be made at least once each year by the military property custodian. These inventories will be made during the period between the close of the spring term of one academic year and the opening of the fall term of the following academic year. Personnel of the Regular Army on duty at the institution will assist in making this inventory. The result of such inventory and also the balances appearing on the stock record account will be entered, segregated according to supply arms or services, on the form prescribed in paragraph (2) below (in duplicate), the original of which will be certified as correct and forwarded to the corps area commander. The duplicate copy will be retained by the institution authorities.

(2) Form.—The report of inventory and stock record balances will be prepared by the military property custodian in the following form:

(Place and date)

Subject: Certified report of inventory and balances on stock record of public property at _____ (Designation of institution)

To Commanding General _____ Corps Area.

Articles	Stock record balances	Inventory balances	Overages	Shortages

I certify that the above report is correct:

(Signature)

(Military property custodian)

(g) Overages to be taken on stock record account.—Any overages disclosed by the inventory will be taken up on the stock record account of the institution on W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 445 as "Found at school." Report of survey will be initialed to cover all shortages disclosed by the inventory unless the authorities of the institution acknowledge liability for the loss and make payment therefor as contemplated in section 10.46, paragraph (e). (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.46 Unserviceable and lost property surveys, etc.—(a) Government property worn out or damaged by fair wear and tear incident to the use of the property in military instruction prescribed or authorized by the Secretary of War will be replaced at the expense of the United States. Such property may be dropped from the institution's accountability records on an approved survey report or inventory and inspection report. In event the survey report or inventory and inspection report designates the unserviceable property to be shipped to a depot or arsenal for salvage or repair, such property will be dropped only on the receipted shipping ticket on which it is shipped to the depot or arsenal. The survey report or inventory and inspection report authorizing its shipment will be attached to the receipted shipping ticket.

(b) Property lost, destroyed, or damaged by fire, flood, theft, tornado, or other similar causes, without fault or neglect on the part of the institution, its servants or employees, or any members of its Reserve Officers' Training Corps, will be replaced at the expense of the United States. To determine whether such loss, destruction, or damage was without fault or neglect on the part of the institution, its servants or employees, or members of its Reserve Officers' Training Corps, a survey will be made. The surveying officer will be appointed by the corps area commander.

(c) The professor of military science and tactics will report to the proper authorities of the institution in writing any facts, circumstances, or conditions which he believes to be prejudicial to the proper protection of Government property against loss through fire, flood, theft, tornado, or other similar causes. In the event that proper attention is not paid to such communication, report will be made to the corps area commander. Access to all such reports will be afforded to surveying officers appointed under provisions of paragraph (b) above.

(d) Inspectors visiting Reserve Officers' Training Corps units will include within the purview of their inspections the precautions taken by institutions, their servants and employees, to protect Government property from loss, destruction, or damage by fire, flood, theft, tornado, or other similar causes. In the case of each such inspection the inspector will submit a report to the corps area commander stating whether or not every reasonable precaution is being observed. In case an unfavorable report is submitted, the defects will be stated in detail and a copy will be furnished to the head of the institution concerned. Access to all reports made hereunder will be given to surveying officers appointed under the provisions of paragraph (b) above.

(e) All other losses or damages of Government property for which the institution is accountable will be replaced by the institution or reimbursement will be made to the United States in the full value of the property lost or damaged. In such cases if the authorities of the institution acknowledge liability for the loss or damage a survey will not be necessary and the account may be cleared by forwarding through corps area headquarters to the Chief of Finance, Washington, D. C., a check for the full value of the property shortage or damage, with an itemized list in duplicate of the articles grouped by classes for which payment is being made. The duplicate copy of the list will be retained at corps area headquarters and placed in the property auditor's file. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389). [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.47 Waste material and salvage property—(a) Property in general.—The military property custodian will prepare shipping tickets and ship waste material and salvage property to himself as "acting salvage officer," thereby enabling him to have the necessary shipping tickets to support his property account.

(b) Classification of waste material.—Waste material will be classified as directed in AR 30–2145. Separating unserviceable property in accordance with the standard classification greatly increases its market value and assists buyers unable to make physical inspection to form a better estimate of the value of the property on which they are invited to bid.

(c) Unserviceable articles.—Unserviceable articles, not to be reclaimed, will be turned in to salvage as directed in Army Regulations.

(d) Record of waste materials received for salvage.—A record of all property and waste materials received for salvage will be maintained in such a manner that any inspecting officer may be able to trace salvage from the date it is received to the date of sale or other disposition thereof. The record will show the source from which received, namely, expendable list, survey, inventory and inspection report, or statement of charges. When articles are disposed of by utilization, by issue to organizations, depots, or other services, or by sale, proper notation of disposition will be made.

(1) Professors of military science and tactics will personally supervise the matter of classification, the record of receipt, and the disposition of salvage materials.

(2) A considerable quantity of material arrives in salvage which has never been accounted for, such as brass shells from target practice, empty barrels, etc. These articles are very valuable. Professors of military science and tactics will cause them to be turned over to the acting salvage officer, who will take them up on the record herein prescribed.

(e) Disposition of waste material and salvage property other than sale—(1) Transfer to depots, etc.—If for any reason disposition by sale is deemed inadvisable, property may be transferred to a depot or local quartermaster designated by the corps area quartermaster, provided transfer can be made by Government truck or at the expense of the institution involved.

(2) Shipment on Government bill of lading.—Shipment on Government bill of lading will not be made without express authority therefor.

(f) Disposition of waste material and salvage property by sale—(1) Authorized methods of sale.—See section 3.56.

(2) Circular advertisements and proposals.—Copies of W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 328 (Circular Proposal—Sale of Waste Material) will be furnished all professors of military science and tactics from the office of the corps area quartermaster upon requisition on W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 400.

(3) Distribution of circular advertisements.—Six copies of each circular advertisement and proposal covering the sale of waste materials and salvage property will be furnished The Quartermaster General at time distribution thereof is made to prospective purchasers and bidders from stations within the continental limits of the United States except Alaska, and two copies from stations in the three departments beyond the continental limits of the United States, Alaska and Puerto Rico.

(4) Sealed bids.—(i) Sale will be made to the highest bidder on sealed proposals, on due public notice, and in such market as the public interest may require.

(ii) Bids will be abstracted on War Department Forms Nos. 14 (Abstract of Bids) or 29 (Abstract of Bids (long form)) and forwarded, in triplicate, directly to the corps area quartermaster. Upon notice of award from that office the successful bidder will be informed and after the purchase price has been paid, delivery will be made "As is, Where is," without expense to the Government for handling or for transportation.

(5) Payments.—When payments are made by check, only certified checks will be accepted. Receipts from sales will be forwarded to the corps area quartermaster.

(i) Deposits of unsuccessful bidders.—Deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned when the award is made.

(ii) Sale by negotiation.—Sales by negotiation will not be resorted to unless the property involved has a sale value of less than $500, and then only after it has been offered at least twice, either on sealed proposals, or at public auction, or both, except as below for sale of rags. Where, in the opinion of the quartermaster, salvage property having a sale value of, or in excess of, $500 should be sold by negotiation owing to the fact that neither of the two prescribed methods had yielded satisfactory prices, the matter will be referred to The Quartermaster General for instructions before final action is taken.

Sales of rags may be made to any vocational training activity of the Government as required for use in the manufacturing of rag rugs as a part of such training, at the prices shown on the latest issue of the Quarterly Current Price List Bulletin, issued by The Quartermaster General, plus cost involved for packing, handling, and transportation. Before the material is delivered or shipped to the buyer, payment will be made to the shipping quartermaster who will transmit the proceeds to the finance officer for deposit to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

When approved by The Surgeon General, public animals suffering from periodic ophthalmia may be sold by negotiation to recognized medical educational institutions for purposes of observation and treatment to relieve suffering and to determine the cause of and cure for this disease. All costs accruing from transportation and delivery to purchaser of any animal thus disposed of will be paid by the purchaser. Before animals are delivered or shipped to the buyer, payment will be made to the shipping quartermaster who will transmit the proceeds to the finance officer for deposit to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

(iii) Sales to officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees.—Sales to officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees will not be made.

(iv) Reports.—Report of each sale will be made by the acting salvage officer on War Department Form No. 325 (Account of Sales of Public Property at Public Auction or on Sealed Proposals) in quintuplicate (one copy of Form No. 325 will be attached to the abstract of bids, marked "For The Quartermaster General") and, together with the proceeds of the sale, will be forwarded to the corps area quartermaster by the professor of military science and tactics.

The copy of War Department Form No. 325 marked "For The Quartermaster General," attached to the copy of the abstract of bids, constitutes the report of the sale to be made to The Quartermaster General, and will be forwarded to him by the corps area quartermaster. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.48 Commutation in lieu of uniforms—(a) General.—(1) Institutions having senior divisions of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps units may be paid commutation for such units in lieu of the issue of Government uniforms in kind, if they so elect, under the conditions hereinafter prescribed; but no institution will be permitted to draw commutation for some units or individuals and uniforms for others; except that institutions maintaining senior units may be authorized to draw commutation for students in the advanced course and for basic course members of a duly constituted band, and uniforms for the other basic course members.

(2) Institutions which elect to draw commutation will not be entitled to draw any articles of uniform from the Government for students for whom commutation is drawn. Institutions which elect to draw uniforms in kind for students in a course will not be permitted to draw commutation for such students during that school year.

(3) Commutation cannot be drawn for the purpose of purchasing from the Government articles of uniform which are authorized for issue to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

(4) Commutation is payable only if it is used to provide a suitable uniform. If an olive-drab uniform is adopted, basic students will be required to wear the distinctive lapel of sky blue as prescribed in tables of allowances.

(b) Annual allowance.—The rate of annual commutation allowed for Reserve Officers' Training Corps students for each year will be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War. A rate so prescribed for a training year will apply for the nine months' school calendar ending with the close of the term, semester, or other major subdivision of the school calendar which ends nearest to June 30. The expression "training year" or "school year" as used in this paragraph will be so construed.

(c) Payment.—(1) Should an institution desire commutation of uniforms at the rate and under the conditions herein prescribed for its Reserve Officers' Training Corps students, the head of the institution or the duly authorized representative thereof will request authority from the corps area commander not later than the end of the academic year preceding the one in which they desire to receive such commutation. The application will state the total probable number of students in a course for which commutation is desired. This request, if approved by the corps area commander, will be promptly forwarded to The Adjutant General for final action.

(2) Institutions authorized to draw commutation will provide the uniforms for the students at a cost not less than the amount of commutation, and when they have been delivered to the students, Standard Form No. 1034 (Public Voucher for Purchases and Services Other Than Personal), will be duly accomplished as follows:

I certify that the above commutation has been expended for the purchase, repair, or replacement of uniforms for Reserve Officers' Training Corps students, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and that such uniforms have been delivered to the students for the use for which intended by said regulations.

(3) Institutions once authorized to receive commutation need not repeat the request for subsequent years, but each year will furnish a statement of the total number of students in a course for which commutation is desired.

(4) At the close of each training year final settlement will be made on the commutation basis prescribed for that training year for students not completing a full training year. For the purpose of such final settlement it will be assumed that the training year covers a period of nine months, and a student must use a uniform nine months in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at the institution to entitle the institution to retain a year's commutation for his uniform.

(5) If a student attending an institution which is on a commutation basis withdraws before he has used his uniform the prescribed nine months of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps training year, the institution will be required to reimburse the Government in an amount determined by dividing the number of months the student was not a member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps by the total number of months in the training year and multiplying the quotient by the authorized commutation allowance for that year. In case the student returns to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit in the same or a later year, commutation will be paid at the prescribed rate for the school year in which he returns only for the period he is in training in that school year. Uniforms in use on or before the last day of the calendar month following that in which the students enroll will be considered as in use two months. Uniforms purchased for use on or before the last day of the calendar month following that in which the students enroll will be considered as in use two months, provided such uniforms are, when delivered, actually used. Thereafter any period of 15 days or less will be ignored and any period of 16 days or more up to 30 will be computed as one month.

(6) Normally commutation of uniforms will be paid only on account of those students who enroll in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps on or prior to the end of the first month of a semester or other major subdivision of the scheduled school year. In exceptional cases, with the approval of the corps area commander, commutation of uniforms may be paid on account of students who enroll in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps after the termination of the first month of a semester or other major subdivision. In case a student enrolls in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps after the beginning of the training year and after the time specified above, commutation of uniform will be paid at the prescribed rate for that school year only for the period he is in training in that school year. Payment will be made as soon as practicable after the end of the first month of the school year for students then enrolled. Payment of the pro rata amount due for students enrolling thereafter will be made in connection with the final settlement at the close of the school year.

(7) Institutions will keep a record, by name, of all students for whom commutation of uniforms is drawn, and a record of disbursements made. Such records must be available for inspection by the professor of military science and tactics or other War Department representative.

(8) When a student has fully completed the training, the financial obligation of the institution as respects such student is satisfied. All allowances will be expended so as to enhance the quality and quantity of the uniforms and so as not to constitute a source of profit to anyone. Under no circumstances will institutions derive profit from payment of commutation of uniforms or use such funds for other purposes than those for which intended.

(d) Responsibility for uniforms.—The commutation of uniforms will be paid to the military property custodian or other official appointed by the institution to receive the funds who becomes responsible that the general regulations pertaining to this method of supplying uniforms are observed, that the uniforms are purchased to the best advantage, and that the individual students are properly uniformed and observe their obligations with reference thereto. No money paid to an institution as commutation will be used for the benefit of any student not in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. (Ses. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.49 Purchase of equipment, etc.—Any institution maintaing a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may purchase from the Government any articles of authorized equipment and general office supplies that they may require for the operation of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit by making requisition therefor on W. D., Q. M. C. Form No. 400, certified by the professor of military science and tactics to the corps area commander. Overhead charges will be applied to such purchases as in the case of issues. This authority does not authorize the purchase of subsistence stores by educational institutions. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

SEC. 10.50. Shoeing of animals issued to units.—The Government animals issued to units will be shod by the enlisted detachment on duty therewith unless the institution provides for this work to be done by its agencies without expense to the Government. Animals will not be shod by contract at the expense of the Government without the specific authority, secured in advance, of The Adjutant General. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

NOTE.—Tables of allowances for clothing and equipment are published in AR 145–20.

SEC. 10.51 Annual allowances of stationery and duplicating supplies.—An annual monetary allowance of stationery and duplicating supplies for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of $30 for senior units and $15 for junior units is authorized. If necessary, corps area commanders may increase this allowance to meet actual needs. (Sec. 47, 39 Stat. 192; sec. 34, 41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 389.) [AR 145–20, July 1, 1938.]

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3546]

IN THE MATTER OF SUPERIOR CERAMIC CORPORATION

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", (the Clayton Act) as amended by an Act approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes', approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes", (the Robinson-Patman Act), the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that Superior Ceramic Corporation, a corporation, is violating and has been violating the provisions of the said Clayton Act as amended, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, Superior Ceramic Corporation, is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Indiana, with its principal office and place of business located at Anderson, Indiana.

PAR. 2. Respondent corporation is now and has been since June 19, 1936, engaged in the business of manufacturing, offering for sale, selling and distributing tile. Respondent sells and distributes said tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and, preliminary to or as a result of such sales causes said tile to be shipped and transported from the place of origin of the shipment to purchasers thereof who are located in states of the United States other than the state of origin of the shipment, and there is, and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said tile across state lines between respondent's factories and the purchasers of such tile. Said tile is sold and distributed for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now, and during the time herein mentioned has been in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling and distributing tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, since June 19, 1936 respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers buying said tile of like grades and qualities sold by the respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption and resale, by giving and allowing some of its said purchasers of said tile lower prices than given or allowed other of its said purchasers competitively engaged, one with the other, in the resale of said tile within the United States. Said discrimination in price is brought about by the following practice and policy pursued by the respondent, to wit:

Respondent in the sale of its tile allows discounts varying at times from 5% to 15% to certain of its customers designated as wholesalers, which discounts are denied to certain other of its customers designated as contractors and commission dealers. The said designated wholesalers are in fact retailers, in that they resell said tile directly or indirectly to the ultimate consumer and are thereby in direct competition in the sale of tile with the contractors and commission dealers.

PAR. 5. The general effect of said discriminations in price so made by respondent, as above set forth, has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between the respondent and its competitors in the sale and distribution of tile, and also has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition in the resale of such tile between some of the favored purchasers of said tile and some of the competitive customers dealing in said tile not receiving such favorable prices. The effect of said discriminations in price also has been, or may be, to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce, and to tend to create a monopoly in the said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory prices in the resale of said products in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in business.

PAR. 6. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent are violations of subsection 2 (a) of Section 1 of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes', approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes."

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 20th day of August, A. D. 1938, issues this its complaint against said respondent, stating its charges in that respect as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, Superior Ceramic Corporation, respondent herein, that the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1938, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the city of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true and if in the judgment of the Commission such facts admitted constitute a violation of law or laws as charged in the complaint, to make and serve findings as to the facts and an order to cease and desist from such violations. Upon application in writing made contemporaneously with the filing of such answer, the respondent in the discretion of the Commission, may be heard on brief, in oral argument, or both, solely on the question as to whether the facts so admitted constitute the violation or violations of law charged in the complaint.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of August, A. D., 1938.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. 3548]

IN THE MATTER OF MOSAIC TILE COMPANY

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," (The Clayton Act) as amended by an act approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes," (the Robinson-Patman Act), the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that Mosaic Tile Company, a corporation, is violating and has been violating the provisions of the said Clayton Act as amended, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, Mosaic Tile Company, is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Ohio, with its principal office and place of business located at Zanesville, Ohio.

PAR. 2. Respondent corporation is now and has been since June 19, 1936 engaged in the business of manufacturing, offering for sale, selling and distributing tile. Respondent sells and distributes said tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and, preliminary to or as a result of such sales causes said tile to be shipped and transported from the place of origin of the shipment to purchasers thereof who are located in states of the United States other than the state of origin of the shipment, and there is, and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said tile across state lines between respondent's factories and the purchasers of such tile. Said tile is sold and distributed for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now, and during the time herein mentioned has been in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling and distributing tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, since June 19, 1936 respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers buying said title of like grades and qualities sold by the respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption and resale, by giving and allowing some of its said purchasers of said title lower prices than given or allowed other of its said purchasers competitively engaged, one with the other, in the resale of said title within the United States. Said discrimination in price is brought about by the following practice and policy pursued by the respondent, to wit:

Respondent in the sale of its title allows a discount of 15% to certain of its customers designated as wholesalers, which discounts are denied to certain other of its customers designated as contractors. The said designated wholesalers are in fact retailers, in that they resell said tile directly or indirectly to the ultimate consumer and are thereby in direct competition in the sale of tile with the contractors.

PAR. 5. The general effect of said discriminations in price so made by respondent, as above set forth, has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between the respondent and its competitors in the sale and distribution of tile, and also has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition in the resale of such tile between some of the favored purchasers of said tile and some of the competitive customers dealing in said tile not receiving such favorable prices. The effect of said discriminations in price also has been, or may be, to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce, and to tend to create a monopoly in the said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory prices in the resale of said products in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in business.

PAR. 6. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent are violations of subsection 2 (a) of section 1 of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes."

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 22nd day of August, A. D. 1938, issues this its complaint against said respondent, stating its charges in that respect as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, Mosaic Tile Company, respondent herein, that the 30th day of September, A. D. 1938, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true, and if in the judgment of the Commission such facts admitted constitute a violation of law or laws as charged in the complaint, to make and serve findings as to the facts and an order to cease and desist from such violations. Upon application in writing made contemporaneously with the filing of such answer, the respondent, in the discretion of the Commission, may be heard on brief, in oral argument, or both, solely on the question as to whether the facts so admitted constitute the violation or violations of law charged in the complaint.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 22nd day of August, A. D., 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF ARCHITECTURAL TILING CO., INC.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," (the Clayton Act) as amended by an Act approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes," (the Robinson-Patman Act), the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that Architectural Tiling Co., Inc., a corporation, is violating and has been violating the provisions of the said Clayton Act as amended, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, Architectural Tiling Co., Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, with its principal office and place of business located at Keyport, New Jersey.

PAR. 2. Respondent corporation is now and has been since June 19, 1936 engaged in the business of manufacturing, offering for sale, selling and distributing tile. Respondent sells and distributes said tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and, preliminary to or as a result of such sales causes said tile to be shipped and transported from the place of origin of the shipment to purchasers thereof who are located in states of the United States other than the state of origin of the shipment, and there is, and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said tile across state lines between respondent's factories and the purchasers of such tile. Said tile is sold and distributed for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now, and during the time herein mentioned has been in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling and distributing tile in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, since June 19, 1936 respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers buying said tile of like grades and qualities sold by the respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption and resale, by giving and allowing some of its said purchasers of said tile lower prices than given or allowed other of its said purchasers competitively engaged, one with the other, in the resale of said tile within the United States. Said discrimination in price is brought about by the following practice and policy pursued by the respondent, to wit:

Respondent in the sale of its tile allows discounts of 15% to certain of its customers designated as wholesalers, which discounts are denied to certain other of its customers designated as contractors. The said designated wholesalers are in fact retailers, in that they resell said tile directly or indirectly to the ultimate consumer and are thereby in direct competition in the sale of tile with the contractors.

Said respondent also allows to certain of its customers designated as contractors discounts of 15%, which discounts are denied to other of its customers designated as contractors.

Said respondent also allows, in addition to the 15% discount hereinbefore referred to, discounts varying at times from 5% to 7½% to certain of its customers designated as wholesalers, which additional discounts are denied to other of its customers designated as wholesalers.

PAR. 5. The general effect of said discriminations in price so made by respondent, as above set forth, has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between the respondent and its competitors in the sale and distribution of tile, and also has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition in the resale of such tile between some of the favored purchasers of said tile and some of the competitive customers dealing in said tile not receiving such favorable prices. The effect of said discriminations in price also has been, or may be, to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce, and to tend to create a monopoly in the said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory prices in the resale of said products in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in business.

PAR. 6. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent are violations of subsection 2 (a) of section 1 of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, section 13) and for other purposes."

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 24th day of August, A. D. 1938, issues this its complaint against said respondent, stating its charges in that respect as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, Architectural Tiling Co., Inc., respondent herein, that the 30th day of September, A. D. 1938, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true, and if in the judgment of the Commission such facts admitted constitute a violation of law or laws as charged in the complaint, to make and serve findings as to the facts and an order to cease and desist from such violations. Upon application in writing made contemporaneously with the filing of such answer, the respondent, in the discretion of the Commission, may be heard on brief, in oral argument, or both, solely on the question as to whether the facts so admitted constitute the violation or violations of law charged in the complaint.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

[Administration Order 41 (Rev. 1) (Suppl. 10)]

LOANS TO INDIVIDUALS FOR RURAL REHABILITATION

AUGUST 19, 1938.

1. Purpose.—This Supplement[1] establishes the policies and procedure for accomplishing the improvement of farm tenure arrangements of RR clients who are tenant farmers, and of other low-income tenant farmers who are potential applicants for RR loans.

2. Basis for activity.—(a) Farm and Home Management Plans for rehabilitation are usually developed on the assumption that the client will remain upon the farm for the period of the rehabilitation loan. Insecure or unsatisfactory farm tenure arrangements may require the clients to move or may prevent successful rehabilitation in accordance with the plans developed.

(b) Unsatisfactory and insecure tenure has contributed to the distress and need for emergency aid on the part of many rehabilitation clients; has retarded and may prevent their successful rehabilitation; or, even after successful rehabilitation, may cause recurring distress which will necessitate additional loans and grants at different intervals.

(c) For the above reasons, the FSA has a proper interest in the farm tenure arrangements of existing or potential RR clients and is justified in requiring that such arrangements are equitable and satisfactory and provide reasonable security of tenure for tenant farmers to whom it makes rehabilitation loans. Such tenure arrangements will usually be of mutal advantage to both tenants and landlords.

3. Policy.—(a) Approval of tenure agreements for RR clients.—I. The FSA will conduct a systematic program designed to provide more equitable and secure tenure arrangements for the mutual benefit of both tenants and landlords. This activity will apply to RR clients (FSA and state RR corporation) and to applicants or potential applicants for RR loans. County RR supervisors will make approved FSA lease forms available to standard RR clients and applicants and, upon request, to other low-income tenant farmers who are potential applicants, and to the landlords of such tenant farmers.

II. County RR supervisors will inquire into the tenure arrangements of all loan applicants who are tenant farmers, as part of the procedure in the preparation and recommendation of loan applications. The regional office will not approve such a loan to a prospective new RR client unless the loan application is accompanied by a lease (on an approved FSA lease form or, in special cases, on another form acceptable to the regional director or his delegatee) which provides equitable tenure arrangements and gives the tenant reasonable security of tenure at least for the period of the loan.

III. FSA employees will use every reasonable and practicable means to promote improved tenure and leasing arrangements for existing RR clients. However, additional loans or other aid to existing RR clients, except loans for permanent improvements, will not be withheld solely because of the client's inability to procure written leases, if satisfactory conditions and reasonable security of tenure can be provided otherwise.

(b) Loans for permanent improvements.—An RR loan for making permanent improvements on a leased farm will not be made to the tenant farmer unless he has a written lease which provides definite security of tenure until he has received full benefit of the improvements, or which provides that he will be equitably compensated for such improvements if the lease is terminated or expires before full benefit of the improvements is realized, or unless there is a definite agreement between the tenant and the landlord by which the tenant will be compensated or credited on rent for expenditures in making such improvements.

(c) Community and cooperative loans.—Applications for community or cooperative loans to individuals should conform insofar as possible to the same general policy of security of tenure for the period of the loans as is required for standard RR loans. Leases should be consistent with the period of the loans whenever necessary to insure borrowers and participants continued benefit of the services. As a general rule, approval of community and cooperative loans will not be withheld solely because of the client's inability to secure acceptable tenure arrangements. However, efforts will be made to obtain the most favorable tenure arrangements possible.

(d) Tenure improvement for low-income farmers who are not RR clients.—Upon request, other low-income tenant farmers who are potential applicants for RR loans, and their landlords, may be furnished approved lease forms and given assistance through the tenure improvement program in working out satisfactory tenure arrangements.

(e) Lease forms.—Approved FSA lease forms which differ in accordance with the requirements of the various states, are available and may be obtained upon requisition to the BM Division, Washington, D. C. The requisitions must specify the states in which the forms are to be used.

(e) A clearance certificate, commerce Form 1378, may be issued when requested by the person in charge of the aircraft.

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPERATION OF THE SANITARY DISTRICT CONTROLLING WORKS AND THE USE, ADMINISTRATION, AND NAVIGATION OF THE LOCK CONSTRUCTED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH AT THE MOUTH OF THE CHICAGO RIVER, CHICAGO HARBOR

AUTHORITY

A permit executed by the Acting Chief of Engineers and the Assistant Secretary of War under dates of March 11 and 12, 1936, respectively, under the authority of Section 10 of an Act of Congress approved March 3, 1899, authorized The Sanitary District of Chicago to construct controlling works at the mouth of the Chicago River, Illinois, subject to the condition, among others, "That the controlling works shall be maintained and operated by and at the expense of The Sanitary District of Chicago and its successors or assigns under the general supervision of the District Engineer in charge of the locality and subject to such rules and regulations as to operation as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War."

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, provides as follows:

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the authority above quoted, the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the operation of the controlling works and the use, administration and navigation of the lock at the mouth of the Chicago River owned and operated by The Sanitary District of Chicago, 910 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

CONTROLLING WORKS

The controlling works shall be so operated that the water level in the Chicago River will be maintained at a level lower than that of the lake, except in times of excessive storm run-off into the river or when the level of the lake is below minus 2 feet, Chicago City Datum.

The elevation to be maintained in the Chicago River at the west end of the lock will be determined from time to time by the U. S. District Engineer, Chicago, Illinois. It shall at no time be higher than minus 0.5 foot, Chicago City Datum, and at no time lower than minus 2.0 feet, Chicago City Datum, except as noted in the preceding paragraph.

LOCK

1. Operation.—The operation of the lock shall be under the general supervision of the U. S. District Engineer, Chicago, Illinois. The lock gates shall be kept in a closed position at all times except for the passage of navigation.

2. Description of lock.—

	Feet
Clear length	600
Clear width	80
Depth over sills	[1] 24.4

[1] This depth is below Chicago City Datum which is the zero of the gages mounted on the lock. The clear depth below Low Water Datum for Lake Michigan, which is the plane of reference for U. S. Lake Survey Charts, is 23.0 feet.

The east end of the northeast guide wall shall be marked by an intermittent red light, and by a traffic light showing a fixed red or fixed green light. The west end of the northwest gate block shall be marked by a traffic light showing a fixed red or fixed green light. The east end of the southeast guide wall and the west end of the southwest guide wall shall be marked by an intermittent white light.

3. Definition and authority of lockmaster.—The term "lockmaster" as used herein shall mean the lockmaster, or his representative having authority to issue orders to vessels and operating personnel. The mooring, position, and movement of all vessels and floating craft of every description, while in the lock or its approaches, shall be subject to the direction of the lockmaster whose orders must be obeyed. This order does not relieve the master of the responsibility for the safety of his vessel.

4. Signals.—a. Signals from vessels for lockage shall be by whistle or by telephone message from one of the adjacent bridges or terminals. Signals from the lockmaster shall be by the traffic light and/or horn. In case of emergency the lockmaster may signal the vessel by voice or by waive of hand or lantern, and the signals thus given shall have the same weight as though given by visual or sound devices at the lock. Vessels must approach the lock with caution and shall not enter or leave the lock until signaled to do so by the lockmaster. The following lockage signals, and duration of sound signals, are prescribed:

A long blast shall be of 4 seconds duration.

A short blast shall be of 1 second duration.

VESSEL SIGNALS

Inbound vessels at a distance not more than 4,000 feet from the lock and outbound vessels at a distance not more than 2,000 feet from the lock shall signal for lockage by 2 long and 2 short blasts of a whistle, or telephone from one of the adjacent bridges or terminals.

LOCK SIGNALS

When the lock is ready for entrance, the traffic light will show green, and vessels under 500 gross tons shall come ahead under caution and enter the lock; vessels of 500 gross tons or more shall come to a stop along the guide wall, as prescribed in paragraph 5. Should the traffic light be out of order or be invisible due to thick weather, vessels shall upon 1 long blast of the lock horn approach and moor to the south guide wall or continue into the lock if so directed by the lockmaster.

When the lock is not ready for entrance, the traffic light will show red, and vessels shall not pass beyond the end of the south guide wall, provided, however, that vessels may approach and moor to said wall if authorized by 1 long blast of the lock horn.

Permission to leave the lock shall be indicated by 1 short blast of the lock horn.

Caution or danger will be indicated by four or more flashes of the red traffic light or four or more short blasts of the lock horn delivered in rapid succession.

b. When in the lock, vessels shall not blow whistle signals for tugs, bridges, landings, etc., without the lockmaster's permission.

c. The master and chief engineer of each vessel of 500 gross tons or more shall be on duty at their respective stations when passing through the lock.

5. Stop before entering.—All vessels or tows of 500 gross tons or more shall come to a full stop at the point indicated by the sign reading "Stop" on the south guide wall and shall not proceed into the lock until so directed by the lockmaster.

6. Maximum draft.—Vessels drawing within 6 inches of the depth over the sills shall not be permitted lockage except under special permission from the lockmaster.

7. Precedence of lockage.—Vessels shall ordinarily be locked through in order of their arrival, but priority shall be given to vessels belonging to the United States, fire boats, passenger vessels, and freight vessels, in the order named. When two or more vessels of the same class arrive from the same direction at practically the same time, the vessel along the south approach wall shall be locked through first. Inbound vessels shall generally have precedence over outbound vessels. The lockmaster at his discretion may change this order depending upon how the lock is set, the seal conditions in the outer harbor, or other reasons which may justify a change in the regular procedure, and his decision shall be final. Power vessels shall accompany their tows through the lock in such manner as the lockmaster may direct.

8. Lockage of pleasure boats.—Pleasure boats, yachts, house boats, and other light-draft craft will be given lockage as soon as practicable but will not be permitted to interfere with or delay the lockage of commercial craft. Whenever a lockage is made for a commercial boat, other craft may likewise pass through, if there is room for them in the lock. Small passenger-carrying speed boats shall not be construed as commercial craft within the meaning of these regulations. The lockmaster shall have the final decision as to whether craft presenting itself for lockage is a commercial or pleasure boat.

9. Speed of approach and departure.—Vessels of 500 gross tons or more when approaching the lock shall navigate at a speed not exceeding 2 miles per hour, and when leaving the lock shall navigate at a speed not exceeding 6 miles per hour. While entering or leaving the lock, the propellers of vessels of 500 gross tons or more shall be operated at slow speed so as not to undermine or injure the concrete paving on the bottom of the lock chamber. Tugs assisting vessels in lockage, and Coast Guard and fire vessels, may navigate at a higher speed when authorized by the lockmaster. Vessels of less than 500 gross tons shall operate at reasonable speed.

10. Mooring.—Vessels shall be moored in the lock or along its approach walls in such manner as may be directed by the lockmaster. Tying to lock ladders, lamp standards, or railings is strictly prohibited. Commercial vessels and tows of 500 gross tons or more shall in general have at least one line out when entering the lock and shall be moored in the lock with two bow and two stern lines, which shall lead forward and aft at each end of the vessel or tow. When the gates are closed, commercial vessels shall not be permitted to work their wheels. Said vessels shall have two seamen at each end of the vessel while they are in the lock; one to operate the deck engine and the other to relay the signals from the lock linesman to the deck engine operator. Lines shall not be released or the slack taken in except by signal from the linesman.

Mooring lines shall not be cast off until after the lock gates have been opened fully into their recesses, and the signal given to leave the lock. The lines leading aft shall be released first. The lines leading forward shall not be released until the vessel has started to move forward, so as to prevent the vessel from drifting back into the lock gates.

11. Assistance.—Lock employees will handle lines on the approach and lock walls. However, vessel crews shall furnish such assistance as the lockmaster may require.

12. Unnecessary delay at lock.—Masters and pilots must use every precaution to prevent unnecessary delay in entering or leaving the lock. Vessels failing to enter lock with reasonable promptness, when signaled to do so, shall lose their turn. Vessels arriving at the lock with their tows in such shape so as to impede lockage, shall lose their turn.

13. Depositing refuse prohibited.—The depositing of ashes or refuse matter of any kind in the lock; the passing of coal from barges or flats while in the lock; and the emission of dense smoke from any vessel while passing through the lock, is forbidden.

14. Vessels denied lockage.—The lockmaster may deny the privilege of passage through the lock to any vessel with sharp or rough projecting surfaces of any kind, or overhanging rigging, or any vessel which is badly leaking or in a sinking condition.

15. Fenders.—All barges and oil tankers must be provided with suitable nonmetallic fenders so as to eliminate damage to the lock or approach walls and reduce fire hazard. Said fenders shall be used as may be directed by the lockmaster.

16. Operating machinery.—Lock employees only shall be permitted to operate the lock gates, valves, signals or other appliances. Tampering or meddling with machinery or other parts of the lock is strictly forbidden.

17. Commercial statistics.—Upon each passage through the lock, the master or clerk of each vessel shall furnish the lockmaster, in duplicate, upon prescribed forms, such statistical information as may be required. The forms may be obtained without charge from the lockmaster; The Sanitary District of Chicago, 910 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois; or the District Engineer, U. S. Engineer Office, 932 U. S. Post Office Building, Chicago, Illinois.

18. Vessels to carry regulations.—A copy of these regulations shall be kept at all times on board each vessel regularly engaged in navigating this lock. Copies may be obtained without charge from the lockmaster; The Sanitary District of Chicago, 910 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois; or from the District Engineer, U. S. Engineer Office, 932 U. S. Post Office Building, Chicago, Illinois.

19. Failure to comply with regulations.—Any vessel failing to comply with these regulations or any orders given in pursuance thereof, may in the discretion of the lockmaster be denied the privilege of passage through or other use of the lock or appurtenant structures.

20. Effective date.—These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the opening of this lock to navigation.

Approved, August 17, 1938.

STAMP TAXES

SUBDIVISION (M) AND (N) OF ARTICLE 35, AMENDED

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Regulations 71, approved July 16, 1932, as amended, are further amended as follows:

Subdivisions (m) and (n) of article 35, as amended by Treasury Decision 4701,[1] approved October 16, 1936, are amended to read respectively as follows:

(m) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock by or on behalf of a customer to his broker solely for the purpose of enabling such broker to make a sale of the stock for the customer, where the broker has no ownership or interest therein, is not subject to the stamp tax and does not require an exemption certificate. The transfer of stock from the name of the owner thereof to the name of his broker, or (on or after June 29, 1936) to the name of the registered nominee of the broker, solely for the purpose of enabling such broker to make a sale thereof for the owner, where the broker has no ownership or interest therein, is not subject to stamp tax provided the broker shall, in every case, at the time of such transfer to him or to his registered nominee, furnish a certificate stating that the transfer to him or to his registered nominee was made solely to enable the broker to sell the stock for the owner. See subdivision (o).

The exemption applicable with respect to brokers does not apply in the case of a bank acting as agent for a customer in the sale of stock, whether the sale is made by the bank direct or through a broker for the account of the bank, since a bank is not a broker within the meaning of the law. However, in such case, the mere delivery of a certificate of stock by the owner to the bank for sale of the stock is not subject to the stamp tax, provided the bank has no legal title to or other proprietary interest in the stock. A transfer of stock by the owner to the name of a bank solely for purposes of sale is in every case subject to the stamp tax. But see subdivision (v) as added by Treasury Decision 4824. The provisions of this paragraph are likewise applicable to other persons, not including brokers, acting as agents in similar transactions.

(n) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock from a broker to a customer for whom the broker has purchased the stock, where the tax has been paid upon the delivery of the certificate to the broker and where such broker has no ownership or interest therein, is not subject to the stamp tax and does not require an exemption certificate. The transfer of stock from the name of a broker, or (on or after June 29, 1936) from the name of his registered nominee, to the name of the customer for whom and upon whose order the broker has purchased such stock, or (on or after June 29, 1936) the transfer from a purchasing broker to his registered nominee of stock purchased for a customer, if such stock is to be held by the registered nominee for the same purpose as if held by the broker, and the tax has been paid upon the transfer of the stock to the broker, is not subject to stamp tax, provided the broker shall, in every case, at the time of each such exempt transfer, furnish a certificate in whichever of the forms given in subdivision (o) of this article is applicable.

The exemption applicable with respect to brokers does not apply in the case of a bank acting as agent for a customer in the purchase of stock, whether the stock is purchased by the bank direct or through a broker for the account of the bank, since a bank is not a broker within the meaning of the law. However, in such case, the mere delivery of a certificate of stock by the bank to the customer for whom the stock was purchased is not subject to the stamp tax, provided the bank has no legal title to or other proprietary interest in the stock. But see subdivision (v) as added by Treasury Decision 4824. If the stock is transferred directly by the purchasing broker to the customer, there is no taxable transfer of a right to receive on the part of the bank unless the bank has a legal title to or other proprietary interest in the stock. In every case, if, in effecting the purchase of stock, the stock is transferred to the name of the bank, the subsequent transfer of the stock by the bank to its customer is subject to the stamp tax. The provisions of this paragraph are likewise applicable to other persons, not including brokers, acting as agents in similar transactions.

This Treasury decision is issued under the authority prescribed in section 1101 of the Revenue Act of 1926.

TITLE 11—AVIATION

[General Order 404-B-1]

TEMPORARY AND PARTIAL POSTPONEMENT OF SECTION 404 (B)

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of August 1938.

Inquiries having been made on behalf of certain air carriers as to whether the continuance of their present practice of issuing air travel cards (sometimes called "scrip"), entitling the holders thereof to a fifteen (15) percent discount on one-way fares and the charges made for excess baggage, would constitute a violation of sections 403 and 404 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, and, if so, whether the air carriers could continue to honor such air travel cards as they have outstanding on the date when those sections become effective; and

It appearing that until tariffs have been filed pursuant to the provisions of section 403 (a) (the provisions of which will not become effective until October 3, 1938), it cannot be known whether the air carriers will continue such practice;

Now, therefore, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, acting pursuant to the provisions of section 1110 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, and finding that its action in such matter is desirable in the public interest, hereby makes and issues the following general order:

GENERAL ORDER 404-B-1.—POSTPONING THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF SECTION 404 (B)

The effective date of sub-section (b) of section 404 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 is hereby postponed until 12:01 A. M. the third day of October, 1938, insofar, but only insofar as the provisions of said sub-section might otherwise be applicable to the issuance by air carriers of air travel cards (sometimes called "scrip") entitling the holders thereof to procure passenger and excess baggage air transportation at a discount of not exceeding fifteen (15) percent from the one-way passenger fares and excess baggage rates regularly charged to persons not holding such air travel cards.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[General Order No. 27]

PRACTICES TO BE OBSERVED IN THE METHOD OF TERMINATING VOYAGES AND DETERMINING LAY-UP PERIODS FOR SUBSIDIZED VESSELS

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of August 1938.

In order to establish uniformity in the method of terminating voyages and determining lay-up periods under Operating-Differential Subsidy Agreements, the following practices shall be observed by each operator, effective at once:

VOYAGE TERMINATIONS

All voyages shall be terminated at midnight of the day on which the crew is paid off from foreign articles or the final discharge of cargo or ballast at the last inward port of discharge is completed, whichever is the later, except in instances where a vessel sails on a new voyage on that day, in which event the old voyage shall be terminated at midnight of the preceding day. If in the opinion of the Operator termination of the voyage at the home or terminal port rather than at the last inward port of discharge is more desirable, application may be made to the Commission to do so.

LAY-UP PERIODS

A separate accounting period shall be created to cover any period of ten (10) days or more beyond the termination of the preceding voyage during which a vessel is idle in a continental United States port.

No lay-up period shall be created to cover lay time of less than ten (10) days, and if a vessel which has been idle is placed in active status or on loading berth prior to expiration of the ten (10) days minimum lay-up period, the commencement of the new voyage shall be ante-dated to coincide with the termination of the preceding voyage. Whenever a vessel is delayed for an unusual period of time or in other than a continental United States port, full information shall be submitted to the Commission for determination of its accounting status.

GENERAL

Vessel movement bulletins furnished by operators shall reflect the dates on which (1) the crew is paid off from foreign articles, (2) the final discharge of cargo or ballast at the last inward port of discharge is completed, and (3) repairs are completed and also the beginning and ending dates of each voyage and lay-up period as it occurs.

To insure uniformity in accounting, the operator shall submit all questions of doubtful interpretation of the foregoing to the Commission for consideration and decision.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

Secretary.

GENERAL PULASKI MEMORIAL DAY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it is entirely fitting and proper that we should, from time to time, recall with gratitude the invaluable succor accorded this nation in its infancy by lovers of freedom who, though born beyond the seas, flocked to the standard of Washington and contributed substantially to the triumph of the American cause, each according to his abilities; and

WHEREAS we are proud to number General Casimir Pulaski, a valiant son of Poland, in the ranks of those whose deeds are part of the imperishable record of American independence; and

WHEREAS the Seventy-fifth Congress, by Public Resolution 102, approved on June 1, 1938, provided:

"That the President of the United States is authorized to issue a proclamation calling upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all governmental buildings on October 11, 1938, and inviting the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches, or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies in commemoration of the death of General Casimir Pulaski."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do direct that the flag be displayed upon all Government buildings on October 11, 1938, as a mark of respect to the memory of General Casimir Pulaski, and do hereby invite the people of the United States to observe that day as General Pulaski Memorial Day and to participate with appropriate ceremonies in schools and churches or other suitable places in the solemn commemoration of General Pulaski's death on October 11, one hundred and fifty-nine years ago.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 31st day of August, in the year [SEAL] of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-third.

The net payment or net deduction computed with respect to the restoration land goal for any farm which comprises field-rented or separately-owned tracts shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion (as indicated by their acreage shares expressed in terms of either proportionate acreages or percentages) that such persons contribute to the restoration land on such farm. In the event that restoration land is designated for a farm which is not operated by a tenant in 1938, the net payment or net deduction, if any, with respect to such restoration land goal shall be attributed to the owner of such farm."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DETERMINATION OF FLUE-CURED TOBACCO FARM MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1938

AUGUST 13, 1938.

(Issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 as amended)

Form 38—Tobacco 11, "Instructions for Determination of Flue-Cured Tobacco Farm Marketing Quotas for 1938", is amended as follows:

Paragraph D of Section I is amended by striking out the whole of the said paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"D. Establishment of farm marketing quotas on the basis of normal marketings—1. Old farms.—The total of the normal marketings of all old farms in each State will be brought within the State marketing quota (or the balance of such quota remaining after deduction therefrom of the amount, if any, reserved for adjustments as provided in Section IV (D)) by adjusting the normal marketings of each old farm by a uniform percentage. The normal marketings for old farms, after being thus adjusted, will be subject to such further adjustment as is necessary in order to provide each such farm with a 'minimum quota' and at the same time keep the total of the quotas for all such farms equal to the State marketing quota after deduction therefrom of the amount, if any, reserved pursuant to section IV (D). The farm marketing quota will be the normal marketings adjusted as indicated above, plus such additions as may be made thereto from the 4 percent addition to the State quota (Sec. IV (C)), and from the amount reserved from the State quota (Sec. IV (D)).

"2. New farms.—The total of the normal marketings of all new farms in the United States will be brought within the amount represented by three percent of the national quota of 705,000,000 pounds by adjusting the normal marketings of each new farm by a uniform percentage. The normal marketings for new farms, after being thus adjusted, will be subject to such further adjustment as is necessary in order to provide each new farm with a "minimum quota" and at the same time keep the total of the quotas for all new farms within the amount reserved from the national quota for new farms. Normal marketings for a new farm, as finally adjusted, will constitute the farm marketing quota (Sec. IV, B)."

Paragraph A of Section IV is amended as follows:

By striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (1) and adding in lieu thereof the following:

"after deduction therefrom of the amount, if any, reserved pursuant to paragraph D below."

By striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (4) and adding in lieu thereof a comma and the following:

"and the amount, if any, reserved from the State marketing quota pursuant to paragraph D below."

By striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (5) and adding in lieu thereof a comma and the following:

"and plus such additions as may be made thereto pursuant to paragraphs C and D below."

Section IV is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"D. Reserve for adjustment by county committees.—An amount not in excess of 5 percent of the State marketing quota may be reserved therefrom for the purpose of making adjustments as in this paragraph provided. The amount so reserved shall be allocated by the State committee among the counties of the State upon the basis of (1) the relationship of the total 'excess' (computed pursuant to paragraph A (3) above) for old farms in the county to the total 'excess' for old farms in all counties in the State and (2) the relative needs of the counties for adjustments of the quotas determined for old farms thereon. The amount so allocated to a county shall be allotted by the county committee among those old farms in the county whose marketing quotas, as compared with the marketing quotas for other similar farms in the county, are determined by the county committee to require adjustment in order to take into adequate account past marketings of tobacco, making due allowance for abnormal weather conditions, plant-bed and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco."

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ISSUED PURSUANT TO PUBLIC ACT NO. 10, 73RD CONGRESS, AS AMENDED, AND AS RE-ENACTED AND AMENDED BY THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING AGREEMENT ACT OF 1937, AS AMENDED, REGULATING SUCH HANDLING OF PACKAGE HONEY BEES AND QUEEN BEES PRODUCED IN THE UNITED STATES AS IS IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE, AND AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE

Whereas, it is provided in Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, approved June 3, 1937, as amended (hereinafter called the "act"), as follows:

SEC. 8c (1) The Secretary of Agriculture shall, subject to the provisions of this section, issue, and from time to time amend, orders applicable to processors, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof specified in subsection (2) of this section. Such persons are referred to in this title as "handlers". Such orders shall regulate, in the manner hereinafter in this section provided, only such handling of such agricultural commodity, or product thereof, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects, interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof, and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act to establish and maintain such marketing conditions for package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States as would reestablish prices to farmers at a level that would give such package honey bees and queen bees a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such package honey bees and queen bees in the base period, did, pursuant to the provisions of the act and the regulations thereunder, on the 19th day of November, 1937, give notice of a hearing [2] to be held at the Hotel Montelone, in New Orleans, Louisiana, on December 6, 1937, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., on a proposed order regulating the handling of package honey bees and queen bees and, did, at the same time and place, conduct a public hearing thereon and give due opportunity to all interested parties to be heard concerning the said proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has found and determined that the purchasing power during the pre-war period, August 1909–July 1914, of package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States cannot be satisfactorily determined from the available statistics of the United States Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of said package honey bees and queen bees can be satisfactorily determined from the available statistics of the United States Department of Agriculture for the post-war period, August 1919–July 1929, which period of August 1919–July 1929 is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of said package honey bees and queen bees; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture finds upon the evidence introduced at said hearing and the record thereof:

(1) That a substantial proportion of the total shipments of package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States enters into the current of interstate and foreign commerce and directly burdens, obstructs, and affects such commerce;

(2) That, at the time of the hearing aforesaid, the prices received by the producers of such package honey bees and queen bees were at a level that gave such package honey bees and queen bees a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such package honey bees and queen bees during the base period;

(3) That the lack of regulation of handling of such package honey bees and queen bees, together with widely fluctuating prices, unfair trade practices and unfair methods of competition, have been important factors in contributing toward uncertain and unstable market conditions for such package honey bees and queen bees and consequent depressed prices to the producers thereof;

(4) That the regulation of handling of such package honey bees and queen bees by regulations requiring the filing of prices at which handlers offer to sell or sell such package honey bees and queen bees, together with regulations prohibiting unfair trade practices and unfair methods of competition on the part of handlers, will tend to prevent fluctuations of prices to the producers of package honey bees and queen bees, particularly prices which are so low as to represent losses to such producers, and will thereby establish and maintain a more stable market for such package honey bees and queen bees;

(5) That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act;

(6) That the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivisions of such regional production and marketing areas covered by this order would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act with respect to establishing and maintaining such marketing conditions for package honey bees and queen bees as will establish and maintain prices to the producers thereof with respect to articles that such producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such package honey bees and queen bees in the base period;

(7) That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agency herein created, based upon the total quantity of combs, honey bees and queen bees shipped, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable; and

(8) That this order, and all the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States by establishing and maintaining such marketing conditions as will reestablish prices to producers thereof at a level that will give such package honey bees and queen bees a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy, equivalent to the purchasing power of such package honey bees and queen bees in the base period, at the same time protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture finds:

(1) That the marketing agreement regulating the handling of package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States, executed by him on the day of 1938, upon which a hearing was held on December 6, 1937, was signed by handlers who handled during the year 1937 more than fifty percent of the volume of such package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States during such year;

(2) That this order regulates the handling of such package honey bees and queen bees in the same manner as the said marketing agreement, and is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in the said marketing agreement; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture finds and determines that the issuance of this order is favored by producers who, during the year 1937, which is hereby determined to be a representative period, produced for market at least two-thirds (⅔) of the volume of package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States for market:

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary of Agriculture, acting pursuant to the authority vested in him as aforesaid, that, from and after the date herein specified, the handling in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of package honey bees and queen bees produced in the United States shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order.

SECTION 1. Expenses and assessments.—1. The Control Committee is authorized to incur such expenses during each calendar year as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out its functions under this order. The funds to cover such expenses shall be secured by the levying of assessments on each handler for each pound of honey bees, each comb and each queen sold by him in the current of interstate or foreign commerce; Provided, That the assessment shall be paid only by the handler who makes the first sale of honey bees, combs or queens for shipment in the current of interstate or foreign commerce. Each such handler shall pay to the Control Committee, upon demand, such handler's pro rata share, as determined by the Secretary, of such expenses as the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the said committee for its maintenance and functioning during each calendar year.

2. Each such handler's pro rata share of the expenses of the said committee for any calendar year shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of honey bees, combs and queens sold by him, as provided in paragraph 1 of this section, during such calendar year is of the total quantity of honey bees, combs and queens sold by all such handlers during such calendar year.

3. In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the said committee, handlers may make advance payments of assessments, which advance payments shall be credited to such handlers.

4. At the end of each calendar year, the Control Committee shall credit each contributing handler with the excess of the amount paid by such handler over his pro rata share of the expenses, or debit such handler with the difference between his pro rata share and the amount paid by him. Any such debits shall become due and payable upon the demand of the Control Committee.

ARTICLE IV—FILING OF PRICES

SECTION 1. Open price filing.—No handler shall offer to sell or sell package bees, comb packages or queens in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct or affect interstate or foreign commerce, except as follows:

1. Each handler shall file with the Control Committee, in accordance with such rules, regulations and forms prescribed by the said committee, a schedule of his selling prices, discounts, rebates, allowances, and all other terms and conditions of sale which relate to his prices, hereinafter in this article referred to as "price terms," for package bees, comb packages and queens. Such schedule shall state specific prices at which such handler will sell and not merely maximum and minimum prices.

2. Initial price terms shall become effective immediately upon being filed with the Control Committee and shall remain in effect until changed as hereinafter provided.

3. Any handler may, at any time, revise his price terms for package bees, comb packages or queens by filing a revised or an amended schedule thereof with the Control Committee. Such revised price terms shall, except as provided in paragraph 4 hereof, become effective ten (10) days after the date upon which they were filed.

4. Any handler may offer to sell or sell at the price terms, or any revisions thereof, filed by any other handler by giving written or telegraphic notice thereof to the Control Committee. Such notice received by the Control Committee shall constitute a revision of the notifying handler's price terms and such revised price terms shall be effective as of the date such other handler's price terms are effective, or, if such other handler's price terms are in effect upon the date such notice is received by the Control Committee, upon receipt of such notification by the Control Committee.

5. No handler shall sell or offer to sell package bees, comb packages or queens in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct or affect interstate or foreign commerce, except in accordance with his effective price terms.

SEC. 2. Publication.—1. At the close of each business day, the Control Committee shall, with respect to each handler who has on file a schedule of price terms, notify each such handler, by mail, of any price terms or revisions thereof filed with the Control Committee during such day. Upon the request of any handler who assumes the cost thereof, the Control Committee shall furnish this information to such handler by telephone or telegraph.

2. The Control Committee shall maintain a permanent file of all price terms filed with it which shall be made available to the public during the usual hours of business.

ARTICLE V—RECORDS AND REPORTS

SECTION 1. Invoicing.—1. Each handler shall forward to the buyer an invoice covering each shipment of package bees, comb packages or queens made by him, showing the date of sale, date of shipment, the name and address of the person to whom shipped and the quality and price of the commodity shipped by him.

2. Each handler shall keep a true copy of all such invoices on file at his usual place of business for a period of one (1) year after the date of shipment. Any such invoice shall be made available for inspection by the Secretary, or his duly authorized agent, during the usual hours of business.

SEC. 2. Reports.—Each handler shall furnish to the Control Committee, in such manner as it prescribes, a report of his sales and shipments of package bees, comb packages and queens. Such reports are to be prepared and mailed to the Control Committee on or before the fifth day of each month and shall cover the volume of business for the preceding calendar month.

ARTICLE VI—UNFAIR METHODS OF COMPETITION AND UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES

SECTION 1. Prohibitions.—The following unfair methods of competition and unfair trade practices are prohibited, and no handler shall:

1. Make secret payment or an allowance of rebates, refunds, commissions or unearned discounts, whether in the form of money or otherwise, or secretly extend to certain purchasers special services or privileges not extended to all purchasers under like terms and conditions, with the intent and with the effect of injuring another handler and where the effect may be to lessen competition substantially or tend to create a monopoly or to restrain trade unreasonably.

2. Defame a handler by falsely imputing to him dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by any other false representation, or the false disparagement of the grade or quality of his package bees, comb packages or queens, with the tendency and the capacity to mislead purchasers or prospective purchasers of package bees, comb packages or queens.

3. Sell honey bees or queens which come from an apiary infected with American foul brood.

4. Sell or offer for sale any package bees, comb packages or queens by any false means or device which has the tendency and capacity to mislead or deceive customers or prospective customers as to the quantity, quality or grade of such package bees, comb packages or queens.

5. Withhold from or insert in an invoice covering the shipment of package bees, comb packages or queens any statement which makes the invoice a false record, wholly or in part, of the transaction represented on the face thereof.

6. Make or cause to be made or published any false, untrue, misleading or deceptive statement relating to the business of handling package bees, comb packages or queens, by himself or any other handler.

ARTICLE VII—LIABILITY

SECTION 1. Liability.—No member of the Control Committee nor any employee thereof shall be held responsible individually in any way whatsoever to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member or employee, except for acts of dishonesty. The obligations of the handlers hereunder are several and not joint, and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

ARTICLE VIII—SEPARABILITY

SECTION 1. Separability.—If any provision of this order is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this order, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE IX—DEROGATION

SECTION 1. Derogation.—Nothing contained in this order is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (1) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (2) in accordance with such powers to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

ARTICLE X—AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. Proposals.—Amendments to this order may, from time to time, be proposed by any party subject hereto or by the Control Committee.

ARTICLE XI—DURATION OF IMMUNITIES

SECTION 1. Duration of Immunities.—The benefits, privileges and immunities conferred by virtue of this order shall cease upon its termination, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order; and the benefits, privileges and immunities conferred by this order upon any person shall cease upon its termination as to such party, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order.

ARTICLE XII—AGENTS

SECTION 1. Agents.—The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person not subject to this order, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any Bureau or Division in the Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

ARTICLE XIII—EFFECTIVE TIME AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effective Time.—This order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways hereinafter specified.

SEC. 2. Termination.—1. The Secretary may at any time terminate this order as to all handlers by giving at least one (1) day's notice by means of a press release or by any other means which he may determine.

2. The Secretary shall terminate this order at the end of any marketing year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of package honey bees and queen bees, who, during the preceding marketing year, have been engaged in the production for market of such package honey bees and queen bees in the area covered by this order: Provided, however, That such majority have, during such preceding marketing year, produced for market more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of such package honey bees and queen bees produced within the area: Provided further, Such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before September 1 prior to the end of the then current marketing year.

3. This order shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 3. Proceedings after termination.—1. Upon the termination of this order, the members of the Control Committee then functioning shall continue as joint trustees, for the purposes of this order, of all funds and property then in the possession of or under the control of said committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination.

2. The said trustees (a) shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (b) shall account, from time to time, for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Committee and of the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (c) shall execute, upon the request of the Secretary, such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds or claims vested in the Control Committee or the joint trustees pursuant to this order. Any funds collected pursuant to Article III, and held by such joint trustees or such person, over and above the amount necessary to meet outstanding obligations and expenses necessarily incurred by the joint trustees or such other person in the performance of their duties hereunder, shall be returned as soon as practicable after the termination of this order to the handlers, pro rata, in proportion to their contributions made pursuant to this order.

3. Any and all persons to whom funds or claims have been delivered by the Control Committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds as are hereinabove imposed upon the members of said committee.

In witness whereof, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this order under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 2d day of September 1938, and declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 6, 1938.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE

NATIONAL BITUMINOUS COAL COMMISSION

[Docket No. 68-FD]

INVESTIGATION TO DETERMINE WHETHER OR NOT CERTAIN COALS IN THE STATE OF ARKANSAS ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND FOR THE FURTHER PURPOSE OF HEARING PETITIONS FOR EXEMPTION

IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF SUNSHINE ANTHRACITE COAL COMPANY EXEMPTION UNDER SUB-SECTION (B) OF SECTION 17 OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, ET AL.

At a Regular Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission Held at its Offices in Washington, D. C., on the 31st day of August 1938.

It appearing, That on the 24th day of September 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission entered its Order No. 53[1] providing for a public hearing to be held at the Goldman Hotel, Fort Smith, Arkansas, on the 4th day of October, 1937, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine whether certain coals in the State of Arkansas are subject to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and for the further purpose of hearing petitions for certificates for exemption as provided for by Order No. 28,[2] and for the further purpose of hearing evidence upon the petition of the Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company filed pursuant to said Order No. 28. The Commission assigned the cause to an examiner of the Commission for a hearing at the time and place designated by said Order No. 53; and

It further appearing, That due and proper notice of said hearing was given to all interested parties and the cause came on to be heard pursuant to Order No. 53 and that a hearing was held, with opportunity for all interested parties to be heard and to present evidence. At said hearing, the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company and the D. A. McKinney Coal Company, each of Clarksville, Arkansas, intervened, participated in the hearing and subsequently filed formal petitions for certificates of exemption. The evidence being heard and submitted to the examiner, the examiner filed his report in the above entitled matter with the Secretary of the Commission on December 3, 1937, copies of which were thereafter served upon interested parties in conformance with Rule XXIII of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Commission.

Thereafter, on January 21, 1938, the Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company moved to dismiss the petition and for leave to withdraw all papers filed therewith. This motion was denied by the Commission on February 3, 1938. On February 14, 1938, the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company and the D. A. McKinney Coal Company each filed exceptions to the Report of the Examiner.

Subsequently, on the 28th day of April, 1938, the Commission filed the Proposed Report[1] of the Commission containing findings of fact and conclusions. A true copy of said Proposed Report of the Commission was served upon the interested parties on May 7, 1938, together with notice that exceptions thereto could be filed within thirty days and that any of said parties might apply for oral argument within said time limit. The Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company, the D. A. McKinney Coal Company and the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company duly filed separate exceptions to the Proposed Report of the Commission. The Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company filed a request to be heard upon oral argument, and the same being granted, oral argument upon behalf of said company was presented to the Commission on the 7th day of July, 1938. Whereupon, the record and evidence was again considered by the Commission; and

The Commission being fully advised of the evidence adduced at the hearing as the same is contained in the official transcript of the testimony herein, and after argument finds that the findings of fact and conclusions submitted by the examiner are, in all respects true and correct, and that the findings of fact and conclusions contained in the Proposed Report of the Commission as filed herein are true and correct and are hereby adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of the Commission; and the Commission further finds, for reasons stated in the separate opinion filed herein, that the exceptions filed to the Proposed Report of the Commission should be overruled.

Now, therefore, it is by order determined:

1. That the underlying coal in the counties of Washington, Crawford, Sebastian, Scott, Madison, Franklin, Logan, Johnson, Pope, Yell, and Conway, in the State of Arkansas is bituminous coal within the meaning of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and is therefore subject to the provisions of said Act.

2. That the exceptions of the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company and the D. A. McKinney Coal Company to the Proposed Report of the examiner are each and severally overruled.

3. That the separate and respective exceptions of the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company, the D. A. McKinney Company and the Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company to the Proposed Report of the Commission are hereby each and severally overruled.

4. That each of the separate petitions for certificates of exemption from the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 filed by the Diamond Anthracite Coal Company, the D. A. McKinney Coal Company and the Sunshine Anthracite Coal Company are hereby denied.

By order of the Commission.
Dated this 31st day of August, 1938.

Secretary.

[File No. 21-334]

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE TOMATO PASTE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

Due proceedings having been had[1] under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding, and the rules in Group II which have been received by the Commission as expressions of the industry, be promulgated September 3, 1938.

Trade Practice Rules for Tomato Paste Manufacturing Industry

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

Unfair trade practices which are embraced in Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission, as construed in the decisions of the Commission or the courts; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

RULE 1. Misrepresentation of industry products.—The practice of selling, packing, advertising, or representing tomato paste or related products, or any simulation or imitation thereof, in a manner which is calculated to mislead or deceive or has the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public with respect to the character, nature, content, grade, quality, quantity, origin, substance, material, preparation, or manufacture of such products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 2. Specifications—Tomato paste—For the purpose of and as used in these rules.—(a) Tomato Paste (Salsa di Pomodoro, "Salsa") is understood to be the product resulting from the concentration of the screened or strained fleshy and liquid portions of ripe tomatoes, except those portions from skin and core trimmings; with or without the addition of salt, and with or without the addition of basil leaf. The finished product shall contain not less than 22% of tomato solids.

(b) Should such minimum of 22% tomato solids hereafter be raised to a higher percentage or proportion by applicable provisions of law or by rules or regulations in pursuance thereof, then such higher percentage so fixed shall be considered the minimum under these rules, in lieu of such 22% specified in paragraph (a) of this rule.

(c) Heavy Tomato Paste ("Concentráto") is understood to be tomato paste containing not less than 33% of tomato solids.

(d) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other seller to cause the concentration or content of his tomato paste to be misrepresented, or by any other means to represent, directly or indirectly, that the product is of a certain concentration of 22% or more tomato solids when such is not true in fact.

RULE 3. Misrepresentation as to tomato paste.—It is an unfair trade practice to sell, offer for sale, advertise, describe, or otherwise represent directly or indirectly, any product as being tomato paste (Salsa di Pomodoro, "Salsa"), heavy tomato paste ("Concentrato"), or other similar tomato paste product, when such product does not conform to the specifications hereinabove set forth in Rule 2.

RULE 4. Misrepresentation as to artificial color.—It is an unfair trade practice to sell, offer for sale, advertise, or otherwise represent, directly or indirectly, any product of the industry containing added artificial color without then and there making full and nondeceptive disclosure of the presence of such added artificial color.

The use of any coloring matter whatsoever shall not be permitted when the same is introduced for the purpose or with the effect of concealing or masking damage or inferiority, or of adulterating the product or rendering the same deleterious.

RULE 5. Misrepresentation as to tomato content of product.—It is an unfair trade practice to sell, offer for sale, advertise, describe, or otherwise represent, directly or indirectly, any product of the industry as containing a higher tomato solids content than is actually the case.

RULE 6. Deceptive depictions.—The use of photographs, cuts, engravings, illustrations, or pictorial or other depictions, or devices, of industry products, in catalogues, sales literature, advertisements, or other representations, in such manner as to have a capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving the purchasing or consuming public as to the origin, manufacture, grade, quality, quantity, size, composition, material, coloring, or content of any products of the industry, or ingredient thereof, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 7. Defamation of competitors and disparagement of their products.—The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality, or manufacture of the products of competitors, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 8. Substituting inferior products for those ordered.—The practice of using or substituting any product of the industry inferior in grade or quality to that specified by the purchaser, without the consent of said purchaser to such use or substitution, or with the tendency, capacity, or effect of otherwise misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 9. Commercial bribery.—Directly or indirectly to give, or permit to be given, or offer to give, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase industry products from the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 10. Inducing breach of contract.—Knowingly inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or knowingly interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 11. Enticing away employees of competitors.—Wilfully enticing away the employees of competitors with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 12. Selling below cost.—The practice of selling industry products below the seller's cost with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably restrain trade is an unfair trade practice; all elements recognized by good accounting practice as proper elements of such cost shall be included in determining cost under this rule.

RULE 13. (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc.,[1] which effect unlawful price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential,[1] where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[2] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[2] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[2] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[2] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[2] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Illegal price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other person engaged in commerce[2], in the course of such commerce, to discriminate in price in any other respect contrary to Section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (Public No. 692, 74th Congress), or knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by such section as amended.

RULE 14. Misrepresentation as to basil, etc.—It is an unfair trade practice to cause any tomato paste or related product to be represented, directly or indirectly, as containing basil leaf or any other ingredient when such is not true in fact; or when such basil leaf or other specified ingredient has been omitted in packing from various or sundry cans of the product so represented.

[1] Paragraph (a) of Rule 13 shall not be construed as embracing practices prohibited by paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this rule.

[2] As herein used, the word "commerce" means trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States; Provided, That this shall not apply to the Philippine Islands.

Group II

The trade practices embraced in these Group II rules are considered to be conducive to sound business methods and are to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. However, the failure to observe them under certain circumstances may result in an unfair method of competition contrary to law. In such event, a corrective proceeding may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of a violation of Group I rules.

RULE A. Disclosure of solids content.—The practice, by each member of the industry, of making clear and nondeceptive disclosure to the purchasing public of the percentage or proportion of tomato solids present in his product, thereby disclosing whether his tomato paste contains only the minimum percentage of tomato solids or some higher percentage, is recommended as a proper and desirable practice to follow in the interest of affording consumers and other purchasers correct information as to the concentration of the product, and of avoiding confusion, deception and misrepresentation in respect thereto.

RULE B. Repudiation of contracts.—Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market or by buyers on a declining market is condemned by the industry.

RULE C. Fake or fictitious bids.—The industry condemns fake or fictitious bids made for the purpose of deceiving competitors and securing undue advantage. If plans and specifications are changed and new bids called for after the original bids have been submitted and opened, the same fairness should obtain as with the original bid.

RULE D. Truthful disclosure of quality of products.—In the interest of consumer protection, the industry records itself as favoring, and recommends, the practice of members making fair and truthful disclosure, in their advertising, labeling, sales literature, and other selling representations, of the quality and content of their products.

RULE E. Dissemination of credit information.—The industry records its approval of distributing information covering delinquent and slow accounts insofar as it may be lawfully done.

By the Commission.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING TRANSFERS OF RIGHTS TO OPERATE AS A MOTOR CARRIER IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE

Effective September 1, 1938

ORDER

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1938.

The matter of transfers, under sections 206, 209, and 212 (b) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, of rights to operate as a motor carrier, in interstate or foreign commerce, being under consideration; and the matter of the preservation of adequate service and continuous operation in the public interest, under motor carrier operating rights by persons temporarily succeeding to such rights, being also under consideration; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That the following rules and regulations be, and they are hereby, approved and prescribed, and that from and after the 1st day of September, A. D. 1938, said rules and regulations shall be observed by motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935; and by all other persons who are parties to transfer proceedings arising thereunder.

RULE 1. General.—(a) As used herein, the term "transfer" shall include all transactions, not included within sections 210a (b) and 213 of said act, whether by purchase and sale, lease, contract to operate, or otherwise, whereby a right to operate as a motor carrier in interstate or foreign commerce arising out of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, is transferred from one person to another. No transfer by means of an attempted pledge of any such rights or by any action purporting to foreclose a pledge upon or lien against any such rights, or by any attempt to levy execution against any such rights in satisfaction of any judgment or other claim against the holder thereof, shall be effective without compliance with these rules and regulations and the prior approval of the Commission as herein provided.

(b) The term "operating rights" as used herein includes the right to operate as a motor carrier in interstate or foreign commerce over a route or routes or within a specified territory, as authorized by the whole or any part of a certificate of public convenience and necessity or a permit issued by this Commission under the provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, or as authorized by those provisions of said act under which a motor carrier may continue operations pending consideration of its application to the Commission for a certificate or permit, or as recognized in the second proviso of section 206 (a) by reason of the holding of an intrastate certificate of public convenience and necessity. On operating right so recognized in the second proviso of section 206 (a) is hereinafter, for convenience, termed a "State operating right."

(c) For the purposes of transfer, operating rights may be divided as to routes or territories, if such routes or territories are clearly severable and if the division thereof does not permit the creation of duplicate motor carrier operating rights. No division of operating rights based upon the class or classes of property authorized to be transported will be approved, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the Commission that the part of the operating rights sought to be transferred is, because of a difference in the nature or type of the service rendered, clearly distinguishable and severable from the remaining operating rights.

(d) No attempted transfer of any operating right shall be effective except upon full compliance with these rules and regulations and until after the Interstate Commerce Commission has approved such transfer as herein provided (except as provided in rule 7 (a)).

RULE 2. Applications to transfer, and notifications.—(a) Applications to transfer operating rights, and the notifications provided in rule 7 (a), shall be made in writing to the Commission, be verified under oath, and shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commission shall prescribe.

(b) A verified original copy of any such application or notification and two additional copies thereof shall be filed with the Commission, and one copy thereof shall be delivered, in person or by mail, to the District Director or District Directors of the district or districts of the Bureau of Motor Carriers in which headquarters of each of the parties signing such application or notification is located, and one copy thereof to the Board, Commission, or official, (or to the Governor where there is no Board, Commission, or official), having authority to regulate the business of transportation by motor vehicle, of each State in which each of said parties operates. Proof of service of copies of the application or notification upon each of such persons shall be made in connection with and as a part of the original verified application or notification filed with the Commission.

(c) The transfer described in any such application shall be approved if it appears from the application or from any hearing held thereon or from any investigation thereof that the proposed transaction is one which is not subject to the provisions of section 213 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and that the proposed transferee is fit, willing and able properly to perform the service authorized by the operating rights sought to be transferred, and to conform to the provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and the requirements, rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder. Otherwise the application shall be denied.

RULE 3. Transfers to fiduciaries.—(a) The temporary continuance of motor carrier operations without prior compliance with the provisions of rule 2 hereof will be recognized as justified by the public interest in cases in which administrators or executors of deceased carriers, guardians of incapacitated carriers, a surviving partner or the surviving partners collectively of dissolved partnerships, or trustees, receivers, conservators, assignees or other such persons who are authorized by law to collect and preserve property of financially disabled carriers, desire to continue the operations of the carriers whom they succeed in interest.

(b) Immediately upon any such succession, and in any event not more than 10 days thereafter, the successor shall give notice of the succession by a letter, properly enclosed in a stamped envelope, addressed to the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., stating the names of the motor carrier and of the successor, the date of the succession, the circumstances causing the succession, whether there has been any discontinuance of operations and, if so, for what period, and, if the representative capacity of the successor involves appointment by a judicial proceeding, a certified copy of such appointment.

(c) Successors under this rule may exercise the operating rights of the motor carrier whom they succeed so long as they act in a temporary and representative capacity or until the Commission shall otherwise order. All transfers by such successors to other persons shall be subject to all of the provisions of rule 2 of these rules and regulations.

(d) Successors as described by this rule shall operate in the name of the prior holder of the certificate, permit, or other operating right, followed also by the name of the successor and a designation of his capacity.[2] The use of such name on all papers filed in accordance with the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, or the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, shall be sufficient compliance with any requirement, rule, or regulation that such papers be filed in the name of a holder of a certificate or permit.

RULE 4. Leases and contracts to operate.—In addition to the showing required under rule 2 hereof, applicants who seek approval of a transfer of operating rights for a limited period, whether by lease, operating contract, or otherwise, shall show in their application and establish by proof in support thereof the specific period for which such transfer is sought, the consideration for such transfer and the time and method of payment thereof, and that the applicants have agreed in writing that all operating rights involved in the transaction shall revert to the transferor at the expiration of said term, or upon discontinuance of operations thereunder by the transferee at any time prior to the expiration of said term. In any such case of reversion, the transferor shall give immediate notice of that fact to the Commission.

RULE 5. Orders of court.—If any transfer presented to the Commission for approval shall also require the authority or approval of any court, applicants shall file with the Commission a certified copy of the order of the court authorizing the transfer of the operating rights involved, at the time of the filing of the application, or a certified copy of the order of court approving such transfer within 30 days after such transfer has been approved by the Commission.

RULE 6. Abandoned or inactive operating rights.—The transfer of any operating right under which operations are not being conducted at the time of the proposed transfer will be approved only upon a showing that the cessation of operations was caused by circumstances over which the holder of such operating rights had no control, or that the motor carrier operations authorized under the operating rights sought to be transferred are required in the public interest.

RULE 7. Transfers of rights under intrastate certificates.—(a) A State operating right, as defined in rule 1 (b), shall not be transferred apart from the intrastate certificate upon which it is based, but may be transferred together with such intrastate certificate without application to and prior approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission under these rules and regulations, if the transfer of the latter shall have been approved by the State Commission, Board, or official having jurisdiction, and notification of such approval, accompanied by certified copy thereof, shall have been filed within 30 days of such approval with the Interstate Commerce Commission; and provided further, that after such transfer the operating rights of the transferee will be solely between places within a single State.

(b) If, after a transfer from or to the holder of a State operating right, the operating rights of the transferee will not be solely between places within a single State, the transfer shall not be effective until the transferee has applied for and obtained the Commission's approval of the transfer under these rules and regulations.

By the Commission, division 5.

ORDER

It appearing, That pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved April 26, 1937, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal and for other purposes" (Public No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, applicant, Norfolk and Western Railway Company, on the 10th day of July, 1937, filed with the Commission its application for exemption seeking to avail itself of the provisions of Section 4, Part II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 in so far as the same relates to the bituminous coal alleged to be produced and consumed by it, or produced and transported to itself for consumption by it, in its operation as a common carrier by railroad, which application was filed by virtue of the provisions contained in the second paragraph of Section 4–A of the Act; and

It further appearing, after considering the allegations made in the verified application of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, that applicant is the owner and producer of bituminous coal from mines known as "Howard Collieries" and "Vulcan Collieries", located in Mingo County, West Virginia, and "Pond Creek Collieries", located in Pike County, Kentucky, and that substantially all the bituminous coal produced at such mines is consumed by applicant in its operation as a common carrier by railroad;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered:

That the provisions of Section 4, Part II, (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 do apply to the bituminous coal produced by Norfolk and Western Railway Company at its mines known as "Howard Collieries" and "Vulcan Collieries", located in Mingo County, West Virginia, and "Pond Creek Collieries", located in Pike County, Kentucky, which is consumed by Norfolk and Western Railway Company in its operation as a common carrier by railroad, and such coal shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Within fifteen (15) days from the date of this Order all interested parties are afforded the opportunity of filing a protest to this determination requesting a hearing on the application and protest. If no such protest be filed, this Order shall become effective fifteen (15) days from this date.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF THE PITTSBURGH STEEL COMPANY FOR EXCEPTION FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 4 OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, FILED UNDER PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE SECOND PARAGRAPH OF SECTION 4–A OF THE ACT

It appearing, That pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved April 26, 1937, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal and for other purposes" (Public No. 48, 75th Cong. 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, applicant, Pittsburgh Steel Company, on the 10th day of June 1937, forwarded to the Commission its application for exemption seeking to avail itself of the provisions of Section 4, Part II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 insofar as the same relates to the bituminous coal alleged to be produced and consumed by it, or produced and transported to itself for consumption by it, in its business of producing pig iron and steel, which application was filed by virtue of the provisions contained in the second paragraph of Section 4–A of the Act; and

It further appearing, That the Commission by its orders referred and assigned the cause to Charles S. Mitchell, an Examiner, for hearing at Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, 1937; that due and proper notice of said hearing was given to all interested parties; that the cause came on to be heard pursuant to said orders of reference and assignment; that the Examiner filed his report in the above entitled matter with the Secretary of the Commission, copies of which were thereafter served upon interested parties in conformance with Rule XXIV of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Commission, and more than fifteen days having elapsed since that service, and no exceptions to said report having been filed with the Commission; and

The Commission being fully advised of the evidence as the same is contained in the official transcript of the testimony and documentary evidence filed therein, adopts as its Findings of Fact that the applicant is a corporation organized and existing as such under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Pennsylvania; that the applicant is a member of the Bituminous Coal Code; that the applicant is a producer of bituminous coal at its mine designated as the "Monessen Mine" in Greene County, Pennsylvania, and that applicant, in its business of producing pig iron and steel, is a consumer of all the bituminous coal produced in the "Monessen Mine";

It further appearing, That at its "Alicia Mine No. 2" in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, applicant produces only a small quantity of coal for the purpose of maintaining the mine in condition for future operation;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered:

That the provisions of Section 4 II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, do apply to the bituminous coal produced by the Pittsburgh Steel Company, at its "Monessen Mine", in Greene County, Pennsylvania, which is consumed by the Pittsburgh Steel Company, in its business of producing pig iron and steel, and such coal shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

That in so far as the application of Pittsburgh Steel Company relates to the "Alicia Mine No. 2", it is hereby dismissed for the reason that at that mine the applicant is not engaged in the business of producing coal.

Applicant shall apply annually hereafter, and at such other times as the Commission may require, for renewal of this Order, and applicant shall file such accompanying reports as will enable the Commission to determine whether the facts as found in this Order continue to exist.

CONDITION OF THE APPORTIONMENT AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1938

Important.—Although the apportioned classified civil service is by law located only in Washington, D. C., it nevertheless includes only about half of the Federal Civilian positions in the District of Columbia. Positions in local post offices, customs districts, and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his State of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from States which are in arrears.

Order for consolidation of hearings 2183

as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States is empowered, after due notice and opportunity for hearing,[1] to enter into marketing agreements with processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in such handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, under the terms and provisions of said act, the Secretary of Agriculture is empowered to issue orders applicable to processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof specified in subsection (2) of section 8c, such orders to regulate only such handling of such agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act gave notice on the 28th day of April 1938 of a hearing to be held on the 10th day of May 1938 at Toledo, Ohio, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, said hearing being reopened at Toledo, Ohio, on the first and 15th days of June 1938 for the purpose of receiving additional evidence, and at said times and places conducted public hearings at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed[2] the period August 1919–July 1929 to be the base period to be used in connection with ascertaining the purchasing power of milk handled in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area; and

Whereas, after said hearings and after the tentative approval of a marketing agreement by the Secretary on July 30, 1938, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, which is marketed within the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement; and

Whereas, the Secretary determined on the 2d day of Sept. 1938, said determination being approved by the President of the United States on the 2d day of Sept. 1938, that said refusal or failure to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of said act and that the issuance of this order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk in said area and is approved or favored by more than two-thirds (⅔) of the producers who participated in a referendum thereon conducted by the Secretary, on August 6, 1938, and who during the month of May 1938 (said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area; and

Whereas, the provision of the order providing for the payment to all producers delivering milk to the same handler of uniform prices for all milk delivered by them is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, during the month of May 1938 (said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period) were engaged in the production for market of milk covered in such order, said approval being separate and apart from the approval of producers as set forth above; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds that the expenses which the market administrator will necessarily incur during any twelve-month period of time for the maintenance and functioning of such agency for the administration of this order will be approximately $18,000 and that the payment by each handler of 2 cents per hundredweight on all milk received from producers is a proper maximum pro rata share of such expenses; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds, upon the evidence introduced at said hearings:

1. That approximately 26 percent of the producers engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area produce, outside the State of Ohio, milk which is delivered to handlers who distribute milk in said marketing area; and

2. That the milk originating in States other than Ohio enters the current of interstate commerce; that the milk originating in the State of Ohio is inextricably intermingled with that milk which is in the current of interstate commerce and in such amount that it is impossible to regulate that milk originating in States other than Ohio without regulating that milk which originates in the State of Ohio; and that the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce; and

3. That orderly marketing conditions for milk flowing into the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area are threatened with disruption which will result in an impairment of the purchasing power of milk handled in said marketing area, and that the issuance of this order and all its terms and conditions will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act; and

4. That the prices calculated to give milk handled in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 and section 8e of said act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, the available supplies of feed, and other economic conditions which affect the supply and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

5. That this order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in him by said act, hereby orders that such handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, shall, from the effective date hereof, be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions.

ARTICLE IV.—CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

SECTION 1. Class Definitions.—Milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, if any, shall be classified by the market administrator as follows:

1. Class I milk shall be all milk sold or given away in the form of milk, whether plain or flavored, and all milk not accounted for as Class II milk or Class III milk;

2. Class II milk shall be all milk used to produce cream which is sold or given away in the form of cream (for consumption as cream), creamed buttermilk, and creamed cottage cheese;

3. Class III milk shall be all milk used to produce a milk product other than one of those specified in Class II, and all milk accounted for as actual plant shrinkage but not to exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of milk.

SEC. 2. Interhandler and nonhandler sales.—Milk sold or delivered by a handler to another handler, and milk sold by a handler to a person who is not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products, shall be classified as Class I milk: Provided, That if the selling handler on or before the 5th day after the end of the delivery period furnishes to the market administrator a statement which is signed by the buyer and seller, that such milk was disposed of as Class II milk or Class III milk, such milk shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

SEC. 3. Computation of butterfat in each class.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the butterfat in each class, as set forth in section 1, as follows:

1. Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (a) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers and new producers by the average butterfat test, (b) multiply the weight of the milk produced by him, if any, by the average butterfat test, (c) multiply the weight of the milk received from handlers, if any, by the average butterfat test, and (d) add together the resulting amounts.

2. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk as follows: (a) convert to quarts the quantity of milk, whether plain or flavored, sold or given away in the form of milk, and multiply by 2.15, (b) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk, and (c) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk and Class III milk, computed pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 of this section, is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with paragraph 1, an amount equal to the difference shall be added to the quantity of butterfat determined pursuant to (b) of this paragraph.

3. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class II milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of the several products of Class II milk by the average butterfat test thereof and (b) add together the resulting amounts.

4. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class III milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of the several products of Class III milk by the average butterfat test thereof, (b) multiply the weight of a quantity of milk equal to the plant shrinkage, which shall not exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of milk by the handler, by the average butterfat test of milk received from producers and new producers, and (c) add together the resulting amounts.

5. Determine the classification of the butterfat received from producers and new producers, as follows:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in each class the total pounds of butterfat which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(b) In the case of a handler who also distributes milk of his own production, subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in each class a further amount which shall be computed as follows: divide the total pounds of butterfat in said class by the total pounds of butterfat in all classes and multiply by the total pounds of butterfat produced by him.

SEC. 4. Computation of Milk in Each Class.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the hundredweight of milk in each class, which was received from producers and new producers, as follows:

1. Divide the total pounds of butterfat computed for each class in accordance with paragraph 5 of section 3 of this article by the average test of all milk received from producers and new producers by such handler.

ARTICLE V.—MINIMUM PRICES

SECTION 1. Class prices.—Except as set forth in section 2 of this article, each handler shall pay, at the time and in the manner set forth in article VII, not less than the following prices for milk received at such handler's plant:

Class I milk—$2.35 per hundredweight.

Class II milk—$1.65 per hundredweight.

Class III milk—The price per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: multiply by 3.5 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, and add 15 percent thereof.

SEC. 2. Sales outside the marketing area.—The respective prices for Class I milk and Class II milk set forth in section 1 of this article shall not apply to milk sold or disposed of in such classes outside the marketing area. However, the market administrator, in computing the uniform price for each handler pursuant to section 1 of article VI, shall determine the value of such milk by applying the prices per hundredweight which the handler has reported, pursuant to paragraph 4 of section 1 of article III.

ARTICLE VI.—DETERMINATION AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF UNIFORM PRICES TO PRODUCERS

SECTION 1. Computation of Uniform Price for Each Handler.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received at such handler's plant as follows:

1. (a) Multiply the hundredweight of Class I milk and of Class II milk sold or disposed of in the marketing area by the respective class price, (b) multiply the hundredweight of Class III milk by the Class III price, (c) add together the resulting amounts, and (d) add to the sum obtained in (c) of this paragraph an amount equal to the total value of milk determined in accordance with section 2 of article V.

2. Subtract the total amount to be paid pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 1 of article VII;

3. If, in the verification of the reports of such handler, the market administrator discovers error in such reports, or errors in payments to producers or new producers, there shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amount of money necessary to correct such errors;

4. Divide by the hundredweight of milk received from producers other than the milk represented by the amount subtracted in paragraph 2; and

5. Adjust the resulting price to the nearest cent.

SEC. 2. Announcement of prices.—On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler of the uniform price computed for him and of the price for milk received from new producers and shall make public announcement of such prices. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall also announce the prices which each handler reports, pursuant to paragraph 4 of section 1 of article III.

ARTICLE VII.—PAYMENT FOR MILK

SECTION 1. Time and Method of Payment.—On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in section 2, to producers from whom milk was received during such delivery period as follows:

1. To producers, except as set forth in paragraph 2 of this section, at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight computed for such handler pursuant to section 1 of article VI; and

2. To each new producer, as defined in paragraph 4 of section 1 of article I, at not less than the Class III price.

SEC. 2. Butterfat differential.—If a handler has received from a producer or a new producer, during any delivery period, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler, in making payments pursuant to section 1 of this article, shall add to the price to be paid each producer or new producer, for each one-tenth of one percent of average butterfat content above 3.5 percent, or shall deduct from such price, for each one-tenth of one percent of average butterfat content below 3.5 percent, an amount per hundredweight as follows:

Three (3) cents, if the average butter price used in section 1 of article V is 30 cents or less; or Four (4) cents, if the average butter price used in section 1 of article V is more than 30 cents.

SEC. 3. Additional payments.—Any handler may make payments for milk in addition to the payments to be made pursuant to section 1: Provided, That such additional payments shall be made on a uniform basis for all milk of like grade and quality received by him.

ARTICLE VIII.—EXPENSE OF ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. Payment of handlers.—As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler, with respect to all milk received from producers, an association of producers, new producers, or produced by him during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period that amount per hundredweight, subject to review by the Secretary and not to exceed 2 cents per hundredweight, which is announced on or before the 8th day after the end of such delivery period by the market administrator.

ARTICLE IX.—MARKETING SERVICES

SECTION 1. Deductions for marketing services.—Each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight (the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) from the payments made direct to producers and new producers pursuant to article VII, with respect to all milk received by such handler during the delivery period from producers and new producers, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 10th day after the end of such delivery period. Except as set forth in section 2 of this article, such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator only for market information to, and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received from, said producers and new producers.

SEC. 2. Payment to an association.—In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing (as determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) the services set forth in section 1 of this article, the market administrator shall pay to such association, with respect to the deliveries of milk of producers and new producers who are members of or who are marketing their milk through such association, an amount per hundredweight equal to the per hundredweight deduction made from all producers and new producers pursuant to section 1 of this article.

ARTICLE X.—AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION, AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effect of amendment, suspension, or termination.—The amendment, suspension, or termination of any or all of the provisions of this order shall not affect, waive, or terminate any right, duty, obligation, violation, or liability which shall have arisen, or may thereafter arise, in connection with any of the provisions herein.

SEC. 2. Power of the market administrator to liquidate.—Upon the suspension or termination of this order, the powers and duties of the market administrator shall be continued for the purpose of permitting the market administrator then functioning, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, to: (1) reduce all assets to cash, (2) pay all costs of liquidation, (3) distribute all remaining cash on hand to the parties entitled to receive the same, and (4) ship all books and records to the Secretary for filing.

ARTICLE XI.—LIABILITY

SECTION 1. Handlers.—The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Now, therefore, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and amends certain provisions of Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this order under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 3d day of Sept., 1938, and declares this order to be effective on and after September 16, 1938.

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the terms and provisions of Public Act, No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, having reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, gave, on the 28th day of April, 1938, notice of a hearing [1] to be held on the 10th day of May, 1938, at Toledo, Ohio, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, said hearing being reopened at Toledo, Ohio, on the 1st and 15th days of June 1938, for the purpose of receiving additional evidence, and at said times and places conducted public hearings at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order; and

Whereas, after said hearings and after the tentative approval of a marketing agreement by the Secretary on July 30, 1938, handlers of more than fifty (50) percentum of the volume of milk covered by such proposed order, which is marketed within the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement:

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the power and authority vested in him by said Act, hereby determines:

(1) That the refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) That the issuance of the proposed order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is marketed in said area; and

(3) That the issuance of the proposed order is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the month of May, 1938, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area, and who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary on August 6, 1938.

In witness whereof, Secretary of Agriculture, has executed this determination in duplicate, and has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 2nd day of September, 1938.

The President

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDING THE FOREIGN SERVICE REGULATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 1752 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (22 U. S. C. § 132), it is ordered that the Foreign Service Regulations of the United States be, and they are hereby, amended by prescribing the following as Chapter V thereof:

CHAPTER V. FOREIGN SERVICE ACCOUNTS

Accounting Procedure

V–1. Accounts and records.—Diplomatic, consular, and all other disbursing officers in the Foreign Service of the United States shall keep separate general accounts of all moneys of the United States or other moneys coming into their possession, in their official capacities, from any source and for any purpose whatever, and shall render accounts of the same in such manner, on such forms, and at such times as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State. These officers shall keep a general cash book and such other account books as may be required, according to the needs of their offices, to show all details of receipts and expenditures, to insure accuracy, and to enable the principal officers to exercise complete control over the funds of their offices.

V–2. Accounts rendered monthly.—(a) All accounts, except an account for a period of less than a full month when an officer has surrendered charge temporarily or is submitting a final account at an office, must be rendered at the end of each calendar month and these accounts are to be designated according to the following form:

"Month ending _____ (Last day of month)" or

"Partial month _____ (Date) to _____ (Date) inclusive."

(31 U. S. C. §§ 496, 497.)

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law, all monthly accounts shall be mailed or otherwise sent to the proper officer at Washington within 10 days after the end of the month to which they relate. (31 U. S. C. § 78.) (Accounts must be sent to the Department of State in Washington as soon as possible within the prescribed period.

(c) Should there be any delay in the transmission of an account the officer shall forward an explanation stating the reason therefor for the information and action of the Department of State and the Secretary of the Treasury. A continuance of such delinquencies will not be countenanced and officers are enjoined consistently to observe the provisions of the law in the matter of rendering accounts.

V–3. Report of no transactions.—At the close of any accounting period (month or fractional part thereof) officers of whatever title who have qualified to collect or disburse, or both, moneys on account of the United States and during such period have had no advances of funds, made no collections or disbursements, and have no balance to be accounted for, shall fill out a report of no transactions, Standard Form 1063, execute the certificate thereon, and transmit it to the Department of State within the time prescribed for transmitting their accounts. The administrative officer's certificate must be left blank as it is required that it be executed by an officer of the Department designated to perform that duty.

V–4. Accounts at embassies, legations, and combined offices.—At embassies and legations, including combined offices, except where special disbursing officers are assigned, the highest ranking Foreign Service officer on the staff of the mission shall be the accounting officer. The chief of mission may, if he considers it necessary to the efficient operation of the mission, propose to the Department of State the designation for this duty of a Foreign Service officer on the staff of the mission other than the highest ranking officer, but such nomination must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for it and shall not be effective unless approved by the Department of State. The accounting officer shall render accounts and returns covering all receipts and expenditures of the mission or combined office as required by pertinent regulations and instructions, including accounts and returns covering the salaries and allowances of all officers and employees. In the performance of their fiscal duties, the accounting officers of missions are directly responsible under their bonds to the Government and to the departments for which they make disbursements.

V–5. Officers temporarily in charge.—(a) Where a principal officer is absent temporarily for one or more brief intervals during an accounting period and the officer temporarily in charge during such absence draws no drafts and makes no disbursements, the principal officer may submit the account for the full accounting period and it will be a sufficient accounting by the relief officer if he (1) complies with the provisions relating to fee stamps, (2) executes the certificate for a vice consul or other officer in charge, on the reverse of the principal officer's account current, and (3) submits with such certificate a schedule of collections on the form prescribed and a sworn record of fees collected by him supported by the receipt of the principal officer for the amount of such collections turned over to him.

(b) If an officer temporarily in charge makes any disbursements or draws any draft he shall make a complete accounting for all funds coming into his possession and for all disbursements made during the period.

(c) Except where provision is expressly made therefor, no officer should take over vouchers paid by another officer, charge himself with drafts drawn by another officer, or include such items in his accounts.

V–6. Final accounts.—Officers of the Foreign Service will not draw any drafts against final accounts, but will submit such accounts to the Department of State for administrative examination and submission to the General Accounting Office for settlement as claims. (See sec. V–56.)

V–7. Consular court accounts.—All fees and fines imposed and collected by consular courts shall, as far as is necessary, be used to defray the expenses of such courts, and detailed accounts of receipts and expenditures shall be rendered to the Secretary of State on June 30 of each year by the officer in charge of the post. (22 U. S. C. § 159.)

V–8. Special accounts.—Officers instructed to draw a separate draft and render a separate account therefor, for any purpose whatever, shall prepare and forward the special account to the Department as instructed. Under no circumstances shall the amount of the draft or expenditures therefrom be included in the regular accounts of the office.

V–9. Exchange of funds restricted.—No exchange of funds shall be made by any disbursing officer or agent of the Government, of any grade or denomination whatsoever, or connected with any branch of the public service, other than an exchange for gold, silver, United States notes, and national-bank notes; and every such disbursing officer, when the means for his disbursements are furnished to him in gold, silver, United States notes, or national-bank notes, shall make his payments in the moneys so furnished; or when they are furnished to him in drafts, shall cause those drafts to be presented at their place of payment, and properly paid according to law, and shall make his payments in the money so received for the drafts furnished, unless, in either case, he can exchange the means in his hands for gold and silver at par. (18 U. S. C. § 175; 31 U. S. C. § 543.) (See section V–57 prescribing special accounting in connection with the acceptance and transmission of gold coins and gold certificates.)

V–10. Appropriations not interchangeable.—Except as otherwise provided by law, sums appropriated for the various branches of expenditure in the Foreign Service shall be applied solely to the objects for which they are respectively made, and for no others. (31 U. S. C. § 628.)

V–11. Deposit of public money.—(a) No Foreign Service officer or employee shall deposit public funds in a bank in a foreign country except where such banks have been designated as United States Government depositories by the Secretary of the Treasury under the provisions of the act of June 19, 1922. (31 U. S. C. § 473.)

(b) Officers of the Foreign Service of the United States may when necessary, in their discretion and at their own risk, make temporary deposits of funds on hand and maintain accounts with banking institutions which they may select for the purpose, except where Government depositories have been designated. Nothing in this authorization may be construed to relieve them of complete responsibility to account for official funds coming into their possession.

(c) When official funds are deposited temporarily in a bank, the deposit should be made in the name of and to the credit of the office rather than the officer wherever the banking facilities at a given post permit such practice. Official and personal bank accounts must be kept separate and distinct in all cases.

(d) All officers of the Foreign Service, before depositing funds in a bank of the United States, should ascertain whether such bank has been designated as a depositary of public moneys received by such officers.

V–12. Inspection by General Accounting Office.—When an inspection of accounts is being made by a properly identified representative of the General Accounting Office, officers should give all possible assistance to facilitate his work.

Collections

V–13. Collections.—Collections shall be scheduled in the manner and on the form prescribed by the Secretary of State to show all miscellaneous receipts and appropriation moneys actually collected on behalf of the Government during the period of the account including:

(a) All fees collected by diplomatic and consular officers and amounts received for services performed for foreign governments.

(b) Interest accruing on public moneys. Such interest belongs to the Government and must be accounted for as an official receipt. (133 U. S. 273, 286.)

(c) Proceeds of sales of discarded or surplus materials or supplies, or other public property, including waste or salvage material, after the expenses connected directly with the sale have been deducted. (31 U. S. C. §§ 487, 489.)

(d) Rents.—(1) Amounts received as rent for Government-owned buildings from private individuals or another Government department or agency are miscellaneous receipts and should be credited as such.

V–15. Tariff of United States Foreign Service Fees.—(a) The following Tariff of United States Foreign Service Fees, prescribed by the President under authority of section 1745, Revised Statutes, as amended (22 U. S. C. § 127), shall be charged by diplomatic and consular officers and all persons connected with embassies, legations, or consulates for official services. All charges for such services must be in strict accordance with this tariff, and be collected in the coin of the United States or at its representative value in exchange. (22 U. S. C. § 128.) For each and every fee where the representative value in exchange is collected instead of the coin of the United States, there shall be collected a sufficient amount of foreign currency to enable the officer to purchase as of the date of collection a sight draft in the amount of the fee as prescribed by this tariff payable at par to the Treasurer of the United States. No fee or compensation will be collected for any service not covered by this tariff.

(b) No fees prescribed in this tariff shall be charged or collected by officers for official services to American vessels or seamen. (22 U. S. C. § 89.) Undocumented vessels owned by American citizens and vessels documented under the laws of the Philippine Islands are not exempt from the payment of the fees prescribed herein. Consular agents will make the fees prescribed in this tariff for services to vessels and seamen a basis of collection from the Treasury for those services.

(c) All fees must be paid in advance and before the fee stamps are canceled, except in case of attendance out of office or of commissions where the amount cannot be determined until the service is performed. In the latter cases the amount of the fees shall be carefully estimated, and in these cases only, the estimated cost of the service shall be deposited with the officer before the service is performed, subject to refundment of any balance remaining.

(d) A copy of this tariff shall be posted in a conspicuous place in diplomatic and consular offices. (22 U. S. C. § 101.)

(a) Any services which officers may be called upon to perform under items 12, 31, 33, 38, 39, 40, 42, and 43 of the tariff when performed in connection with the settlement of the estate of any employee of the United States dying abroad while on official duty.

(c) Any service performed for the purpose of establishing the right to and obtaining the return of property held by the Alien Property Bureau, Department of Justice.

V–17. Receipts.—(a) A receipt must be given when demanded for any fee which an officer collects, describing the service for which it is received and giving the serial number of the fee, the amount in dollars, and the equivalent in the money in which collected.

(b) Receipts must be furnished by all officers to owners, agents, consignees, masters, or commanders of vessels from whom fees, charges, extra wages, or arrears of wages of seamen are collected.

V–18. Refund of fees.—(a) Unless authorized by law no refund shall be made of any fee collected except under circumstances showing conclusively that the officer was entirely at fault. (1 Comp. Gen. 267.)

(b) Prior authorization required.—No refund of fees shall be made in any case by an officer of the Foreign Service until a request in writing therefor has been referred to the Secretary of State for administrative consideration of the circumstances involved and specific authorization for the refund has been received.

V–19. Record of and accounting for fees.—(a) Every diplomatic or consular officer shall register in a book to be kept by him for that purpose all fees so received by him, in the order in which they are received, specifying each item of service and the amount received therefor, from whom, and the dates when received, and if for any service connected with any vessel, the name thereof, and indicating what items and amounts are embraced in each receipt given by him therefor, and numbering the same according to the number of the receipts, respectively, so that the receipts and register shall correspond with each other; and he shall, in such register, specify the name of the person for whom, and the date when he shall grant, issue, or verify any passport, certify any invoice, or perform any other official service in the entry of the receipt of the fees therefor, and also number each act so receipted for with the number of such receipt, and as shown by such register. (22 U. S. C. §§ 13, 96.)

(b) All fees, official or unofficial, received by any diplomatic or consular officer for services rendered in connection with the duties of his office, including fees for notarial services, and fees for taking depositions, executing commissions or letters rogatory, settling estates, receiving or paying out moneys, caring for or disposing of property, shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States, and the sole and only compensation of such officers shall be by salaries fixed by law; but this shall not apply to consular agents (sec. V–22). (22 U. S. C. §§ 13, 99.)

(c) Every diplomatic or consular officer, in rendering his account of fees received, shall furnish a full transcript of the register which he is required to keep, and make oath that, to the best of his knowledge, the same is true, and contains a full and accurate statement of all fees received by him, or for his use, for his official services as such officer, during the period for which it purports to be rendered. Such oath may be taken before any person having authority to administer oaths at the port or place where the officer is located.

V–20. Fee stamps.—(a) Every officer in charge of an office will upon requisition therefor, be supplied by the Department of State with adhesive official fee stamps on which shall be printed the equivalent money value of denominations and in amounts to be determined by the Department of State, and he shall account monthly (31 U. S. C. § 496) to the Department of State for the use of such stamps and for such of them as shall remain in his hands.

(b) Whenever an officer is required or finds it necessary to perform any official or notarial act he shall prepare and deliver to the party or parties at whose instance such act is performed a suitable and appropriate document as prescribed in the regulations and affix thereto and duly cancel an adhesive stamp or stamps of the denomination or denominations equivalent to the fee prescribed for such official or notarial act, and no such act shall be legally valid within the jurisdiction of the Government of the United States unless such stamp or stamps is or are affixed and canceled. (22 U. S. C. §§ 13, 100.)

(c) Fee stamps shall be used for no other purpose than to evidence the payment of such fees as may be prescribed by law or by the President for acts or services performed by diplomatic or consular officers. Inasmuch as expenses which are to be collected under certain circumstances in addition to the fees prescribed are not regarded as fees but as reimbursement for outlays made by the officer, stamps for the amount of such expenses collected will not be affixed.

V–21. Fees for services for foreign governments.—When an office of the United States has been authorized to undertake representation of the interests of a foreign government in accordance with the provisions of sections 174 and 453 of Part II of the Foreign Service Regulations, any officer of the United States who discharges consular duties for that foreign government is not a consular officer of the foreign government but is an agent of it only insofar as the discharge of duties and responsibility for his official acts are concerned. The tariff of fees of the foreign government should be followed, if available, but if not, the United States tariff of Foreign Service fees is applicable. To the extent to which the laws or instructions of the foreign government permit the consular officer to retain fees collected in its name, these fees are the fees of the consular office and must be paid over and accounted for to the Government of the United States. Fees collected by a diplomatic or consular officer for these services, which the officer is not authorized to retain, shall be disposed of and accounted for in accordance with the instructions of the Secretary of State.

V–22. Fees of consular agents.—(a) Consular agents shall be entitled to retain as compensation one-half of the fees received in their offices provided that in no case shall such compensation exceed $1,000 per annum. The balance of all fees received shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States. (22 U. S. C. § 99.)

(b) For official services to American vessels consular agents who are compensated by fees must furnish the master of every such vessel with an itemized statement of the services performed on account of said vessel showing the fee prescribed by the tariff of fees for each service. If the amount received or due consular agents from regular fees collected by them is not equivalent to compensation at the rate of $1,000 per annum, they will be allowed from the appropriation therefor such additional compensation as they would have received, and would have been entitled to retain but for the exemption of these vessels from the payment of such fees to a maximum total compensation of $1,000. (22 U. S. C. § 89; 31 U. S. C. 725a (5).) Such services will not be compensated unless they are necessarily rendered. (22 U. S. C. § 89.)

(c) Consular agents shall account for fees collected and furnish reports of services to American vessels and seamen, including the fees prescribed therefor, and shall be compensated for such services in accordance with the provisions of these regulations and the instructions of the Secretary of State. (See sec. 183, Part II.)

(1) That official collections be applied, insofar as necessary, to disbursements, the balance, if any, to be remitted for deposit in the Treasury;

The regulations governing the use of Departmental codes set forth in the introduction to each code shall be strictly observed and followed by all officers and employees.

(d) Whenever the Secretary of State, in his discretion, procures information on behalf of corporations, firms, and individuals, the expense of cablegrams and telephone service involved may be charged against the respective appropriations for the service utilized, and reimbursement therefor shall be required from those for whom the information was procured, and, when made, be credited to the appropriation under which the expenditure was charged. (22 U. S. C. § 17a.)

(d) Resignation in the United States.—The right to compensation of an officer or employee of the Foreign Service who resigns while in the United States on leave of absence terminates with the effective date of the acceptance of the resignation, or the lapse of his statutory leave, whichever occurs first.

Emergency travel.—Whenever travel has been performed and expense incurred on account of an emergency, or without prior authority, the travel voucher must be approved by the head of the Department or independent establishment, or by an official designated by him for this purpose, and such approval shall constitute the authority for the travel. All vouchers submitted on account of such travel must contain a satisfactory statement of the facts constituting the necessity therefor. (Standardized Government Travel Regulations, approved January 30, 1934, and December 10, 1935, paragraph 7.)

V–45. Expenditures for other departments.—In case an account is opened by request of any department or establishment of the Government under instructions of the Secretary of State, that account will be rendered in accordance with the instructions received and unless otherwise instructed the amounts so received or disbursed shall be included in the regular accounts of the office.

Satisfactory evidence must accompany the accounts as to the correct rates for conversion into the currency of the United States of all foreign currencies involved in transactions set forth in the accounts. Such evidence may consist of a certificate of a responsible banker or of a diplomatic or consular officer himself based on authentic quotations.

Accounts Rendered Direct to Department of State

V–47. Account current required for every account.—All transactions of officers, without regard to where they may be located, or for whatever period, for which an accounting is required to be made direct to the Department of State, shall be stated on an account current form in accordance with the instructions issued by the Secretary of State. (See sec. V–50.)

V–48. Cash accounts.—Every account shall be supported by evidence of proper accounting for all receipts and payments in United States currency and in the various foreign currencies in the manner and on the forms prescribed for that purpose by the Secretary of State.

Accounts From Offices Within Fiscal Districts

V–49. Establishment of fiscal districts and creation of district accounting and disbursing offices to exercise control over the accounting and disbursing work of the Foreign Service posts located therein.—The Secretary of State is hereby authorized, whenever the necessity for such offices with a view to effecting economies in accounting procedure is apparent, to prescribe certain fiscal districts or areas and to establish within each such district as a part of the Department of State service, a district accounting and disbursing office to exercise control over the accounts of all diplomatic missions and consular offices within the district in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct. To each such office may be assigned the administrative accounting responsibility for receipts and expenditures of the diplomatic missions and consular offices within the district. Each district office shall be in charge of an accountable officer, to whom all fees, and other official moneys, received by any diplomatic, consular, or Foreign Service officer may be accounted for, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State, all such fees and moneys, or the residue thereof after the payment of salaries, allowances, and current expenses of the diplomatic missions and consular offices within the district, to be paid by the district accounting and disbursing officer into the Treasury of the United States. Such district accounting and disbursing officer accountable for public moneys may entrust moneys to other bonded officers for the purpose of having them make disbursements as his agent; and the officer to whom the moneys are entrusted, as well as the officer who entrusts the moneys to him, shall be held pecuniarily responsible therefor to the United States. All diplomatic, consular, or Foreign Service officers on duty within the area covered by such district offices may be required to render accounts of their disbursements to the officer in charge of such district office to be included in his accounts. Said district accounting and disbursing officers and their agents shall be bonded respectively to the United States for the faithful performance of their duties in such penal amounts as the Secretary of State may require. (22 U. S. C. § 23k.)

V–50. General accounts required within the jurisdiction of a district accounting and disbursing office.—Diplomatic, consular, or Foreign Service officers on duty within the area covered by a district accounting and disbursing office will forward to such district office, rather than to the Department of State, such accounts as the Secretary of State may prescribe. No accounts will be required of such diplomatic, consular, or Foreign Service officers with respect to such of their fiscal transactions as the Secretary of State may from time to time establish, by appropriate instructions, as exclusive or primary functions of such district offices.

V–51. Payments and disbursements made by district accounting and disbursing offices.—District accounting and disbursing offices shall pay, by checks for American currency drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, and in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary of State, the salaries and allowances for personal services due to all diplomatic, consular, or Foreign Service officers and employees stationed at the Foreign Service posts within the jurisdiction of the respective district offices, except employees paid in foreign currency; and any other official expenses of Foreign Service posts may be paid in the same manner when so directed by the Secretary of State.

V–52. Accounting regulations — when applicable.—(a) All regulations and instructions pertaining to the accounts of officers of the Foreign Service will be binding upon officers stationed within the district of any Foreign Service district accounting and disbursing office except as modified by these regulations or by instructions issued with respect thereto by the Secretary of State.

(b) Regulations and instructions regarding fiscal districts shall not be applicable to officers located outside such fiscal districts.

Special Disbursing Officers

V–53. Special Disbursing Officers.—Special disbursing officers shall render accounts for the periods required by these regulations in the manner and on such forms as the Secretary of State shall prescribe. All regulations and instructions pertaining to accounts rendered by officers who are not stationed within a fiscal district shall apply to all accounts rendered by special disbursing officers except as modified by these regulations or by instructions issued by the Secretary of State.

Drafts and Treasury Checks

V–54. Drafts.—(a) Ambassadors, ministers, Foreign Service officers, vice consuls not of career, or special disbursing officers if specifically authorized and no others may draw drafts:

1. When the post to which the officer is assigned is not within a fiscal district.

2. When such an officer is specifically directed by the Secretary of State to draw separate drafts and render separate accounts therefor. Strict compliance with such instructions is enjoined.

3. When stationed within fiscal districts, for salaries and expenses in accordance with these regulations or as modified by pertinent instructions, only in cases of emergency, or under the provisions set forth in paragraph 2 above, except that an officer who draws and negotiates drafts on account of traveling expenses or for transporting his effects prior to arrival at his post within such fiscal district, may draw for the balance due on such account, and he must render an account therefor to the Department of State in the required manner.

(b) When a vice consul not of career assumes charge of a consulate, he should promptly notify the Secretary of State in order that any drafts drawn by him may be duly paid. No drafts of the vice consul will be paid unless the prescribed bond has been filed with and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(c) The Secretary of State when he deems it necessary may authorize the payment of salaries and allowances by separate drafts drawn on the Secretary of State to the order of employees. Drafts for other expenses will be drawn in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct consistent with law.

(d) How drawn.—Drafts shall be drawn in the currency of the United States on the Secretary of State, at five days sight, unless instructed otherwise by the Secretary of State, acceptance waived and endorsements by procuration excepted. They should be made on the prescribed form in the handwriting of the officer, and should bear on the margin the appropriations and fiscal years to which the amounts are chargeable. One draft should ordinarily cover all funds necessary at the time and the amount should not exceed contemplated requirements for disbursements during the accounting period. Drafts drawn at posts should bear the impression seal of the office. No draft shall be post dated.

(e) Issuance of two copies.—Two copies of drafts may be issued in all cases where it is requested by the individual or institution cashing the original. This should be done by striking out, on the official forms, the wording "Sole of Exchange" and inserting, with pen or typewriter on one copy "First of Exchange" and on the other copy, "Second of Exchange." Such drafts should not be marked "Original" and "Duplicate."

(f) Numbering drafts.—Each officer should number his drafts in a separate series, beginning with number one on the first draft drawn by him and by continuing the series of numbers during his period of service, without reference to post or position. Each officer should begin a series of numbers at once unless he has an established series.

(g) Negotiating drafts.—In negotiating drafts it is the duty of the officer to dispose of them at the most favorable rates obtainable, and to support the sale of the draft with an exchange voucher (form no. 92) regardless of the kind of currency received therefor.

(h) The payment of drafts of officers in the Foreign Service will be considered an advance of public money to them for which they will be held accountable to the Government under their official bonds, and otherwise, until the sums drawn have been properly accounted for as required by law.

V–55. Suspensions and disallowances.—(a) Whenever upon the statement of the account of any disbursing officer of the United States in the General Accounting Office credit shall have been disallowed for any payment to any person in the executive branch of the Government otherwise entitled to compensation from the United States or from any agency or instrumentality thereof, such compensation of the payee may be withheld until full reimbursement has been accomplished under such regulations as may be prescribed by the head of the department, branch, or independent establishment (including corporations) under which such payee is entitled to receive compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or in any way modify existing laws relating to the collection of the indebtedness of accountable or disbursing officers. (5 U. S. C. § 46b.)

(b) Officers shall give prompt attention to suspended items in their accounts. Additional information or evidence required should be obtained and forwarded as soon as possible and prompt refund should be effected when it is established that the charge is not allowable. The action taken on suspended items should be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State.

V–56. Claims.—All claims must be signed by the claimant and must state his post-office address. They should be forwarded to the Department of State for administrative examination and transmission to the General Accounting Office for settlement.

V–57. Acquisition and disposition of and accounting for United States gold coins and gold certificates.—United States gold coin and gold certificates received by officers of the Foreign Service in the course of their official duties shall be received only on the basis of the face amount thereof, and shall be forwarded to the Department of State for transmission to the Treasurer of the United States. Any United States gold coin and gold certificates received by such officers shall be accounted for specially. The special accounting procedure for such receipts shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

Such officer or officers may be given (a) general supervision of the destruction of all accounts, records, and memoranda the destruction of which is permitted by this chapter, or (b) authority over the destruction of such of these accounts, records, and memoranda as may be specified by the board of directors. A copy of the resolution of appointment shall be filed with the Commission before the destruction of any of the accounts, records, or memoranda involved. AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

[Form 38-Tobacco 11 Supplement 4]

SUPPLEMENT TO INSTRUCTIONS FOR DETERMINATION OF FLUE-CURED TOBACCO FARM MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1938

ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT OF 1938, AS AMENDED

JULY 25, 1938.

Form 38-Tobacco 11, "Instructions for Determination of Flue-Cured Tobacco Farm Marketing Quotas for 1938",[1] is amended as follows:

Section IV, paragraph A "Old Farms" is amended by striking out the paragraph numbered (2) and inserting in lieu lieu thereof the following:

"There will be allocated to each such farm a minimum quota equal to the three-year average (1935-37) for the form of marketings and diversion, but not more than 3,200 pounds, and not less than a number of pounds obtained by multiplying a yield 200 pounds below the farm yield by the smaller of (a) the 1938 acreage of tobacco to be harvested on the farm, or (b) 2.5 acres. The sum of such 'minimum quotas' for all farms in each State will be deducted from the State quota."

Section IV is amended by striking out paragraph B "New Farms" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"B. NEW FARMS.—

"(1) The normal marketings for all new farms will be adjusted by a uniform percentage (determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration) so as to equal 3 percent of the national marketing quota of 705,000,000 pounds.

"(2) There will be allocated to each new farm a 'minimum quota' of that number of pounds obtained by multiplying a yield 200 pounds below the farm yield by the smaller of (a) the acreage of tobacco to be harvested on the farm in 1938, or (b) 1.3 acres. The sum of such 'minimum quotas' for all farms will be deducted from the amount equal to 3 percent of the national marketing quota of 705,000,000 pounds.

"(3) There will be subtracted from the normal marketings for each new farm as adjusted under item (1) above, the 'minimum quota' for the farm. The resulting figure will be the 'excess' for the farm.

"(4) The 'excess' for all new farms will be reduced by a uniform percentage so as to equal that portion of 3 percent of the national marketing quota of 705,000,000 pounds remaining after subtraction therefrom of the total (computed under item (3) above) 'minimum quotas' for all new farms.

"(5) The marketing quota for each new farm will be the 'minimum quota' for the farm plus the 'excess' (if any) for the farm as adjusted under item (4) above."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of July 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

3. The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege and will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. Subscription and Allotment

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Cash subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital and surplus of the subscribing bank or trust company. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions in payment of which Treasury Notes of Series E–1938 are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of the allotment will be publicly announced.

IV. Payment

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before September 15, 1938, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district. Treasury Notes of Series E–1938, maturing December 15, 1938, with coupon dated December 15, 1938, attached, will be accepted at par in payment for any bonds subscribed for and allotted, and should accompany the subscription. Accrued interest from June 15, 1938, to September 15, 1938, on the maturing notes ($3.142076 per $1,000) will be paid following acceptance of the notes.

V. General Provisions

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

[Chapter I: Part 29—The Tobacco Inspection Act]

ORDER OF DESIGNATION OF TOBACCO MARKETS (OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY)

Whereas, The Act of Congress approved August 23, 1935 (49 Stat., 731: 7 U. S. C., Sup. I, Chap. 21A) entitled "The Tobacco Inspection Act" contains the following provisions:

[In the original document here follows the text of sections 2 and 5 of the Act cited above.]

and

Whereas, pursuant to said Act a referendum has been held among the growers of Green River and One-sucker tobacco who sold tobacco at auction on the Owensboro, Kentucky market during the last marketing season, in which referendum said growers were given an opportunity to vote for or against the designation as provided in Section 5 of said Act; and

Whereas, more than two-thirds of the growers voting in said referendum and who sold tobacco at auction on said market during the last marketing season voted in favor of said designation,

SEC. 29.301 (j) Designation of Tobacco Market.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Section 5 of The Tobacco Inspection Act and the affirmative results of the referendum conducted thereunder, the Green River and One-sucker tobacco market at Owensboro, Kentucky is designated as a market where tobacco bought and sold thereon at auction, or the products manufactured therefrom, moves in commerce.

It is hereby ordered, That, effective 30 days from this date no tobacco shall be offered for sale at auction on the above-named market until it shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the United States Department of Agriculture according to standards established under the Act; provided, however, that the requirement of inspection and certification may be suspended at such times as it is found impracticable to provide inspection or when the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is insufficient to justify the cost of such service. No fee or charge shall be imposed or collected for the inspection and certification of tobacco sold or offered for sale at auction on the market designated herein. (49 Stat., 731: U. S. C., Sup. I, Chap. 21A.)

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 9th day of Sept., 1938.

2. That the period November 1925–March 1929, and the period October 1926–March 1929, for grapefruit and oranges, respectively, has been determined by the Secretary to be the base periods to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of grapefruit and oranges;

3. That this order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to such commodity by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will reestablish prices to producers thereof at a level that will give such grapefruit and oranges a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy, equivalent to the purchasing power of such grapefruit and oranges in the base period, and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to such producers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that the handling of grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect interstate or foreign commerce in such grapefruit and oranges, from and after the date herein specified, shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of this order.

In the selection of nominees each producer shall be entitled to cast but one (1) vote regardless of the number of districts in which he may be producing fruit. The chairman of the meeting shall publicly announce at such meeting the total number of votes cast and the names of the persons selected as nominees, and the chairman and the secretary shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary, or to such person as the Secretary may designate, their certificate as to the number of votes so cast, and the names of the nominees selected.

The selection of the nominees for the members and their alternates of the Shippers Marketing Committee shall be made at a meeting of each of the aforesaid groups of handlers at which each handler shall be entitled to cast but one (1) vote on behalf of himself, agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries and representatives which shall be weighted according to the volume of fruit shipped by such handlers during the preceding shipping season. The chairman and secretary of each meeting shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary, or to such person as the Secretary may designate, their certificate as to the number of votes so cast and the names of the nominees selected.

6. Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or alternate of the Growers Industry Committee or the Shippers Marketing Committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance of this appointment with the Secretary or his designated representative.

7. 8. In the event of the death, removal, resignation or disqualification of any member or his alternate of either committee, a successor for the unexpired term of such member or alternate shall be selected by the Secretary. Such selection may be made without resorting to the provision as to nominations of candidates for the office of member or alternate.

SEC. 3. Duties.—1. It shall be the duty of the Growers Industry Committee and the Shippers Marketing Committee to keep minutes, books and records which will clearly reflect all of their acts and transactions, and such minutes, books and records shall at all times be subject to the examination of the Secretary.

2. It shall be the duty of the Growers Industry Committee:

(a) to act as intermediary between the Secretary and the producers and handlers;

(b) to furnish the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(c) to appoint such employees as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of any such employees;

(d) to cause the books of the Growers Industry Committee to be audited by one or more certified public accountants at least once for each crop year and at such other times as the Growers Industry Committee deems necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary copies of all audit reports made;

(e) to make such estimates of the total crop of fruit including the grade and size distribution thereof as may be deemed necessary by said committee in connection with the administration of articles IV and V hereof, or as may be prescribed by the Secretary; and

(f) to perform such duties in connection with the administration of Section 32 of the Act to Amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes, Public No. 320, approved by the President on August 24, 1935, as amended, as may from time to time be assigned to it by the Secretary.

SEC. 4. Procedure.—1. For any decision of the Growers Industry Committee to be valid seven (7) concurring votes shall be necessary, and for any decision of the Shippers Marketing Committee to be valid five (5) concurring votes shall be necessary. Each member, or alternate then serving in the place and stead of any member of either committee, must vote in person.

2. Eight (8) members of the Growers Industry Committee or five (5) members of the Shippers Marketing Committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

3. In the event the Shippers Marketing Committee fails to make a decision by five (5) concurring votes in the performance of any of its powers or duties under this order, the Growers Industry Committee shall perform such duties or exercise such power.

4. The members, and alternates when acting in the place and stead of a member as provided by this order, of the committees functioning under the provisions of this order shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties, and each of the members of the Growers Industry Committee and of the Shippers Marketing Committee, and their alternates, when acting in their place and stead, shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the Growers Industry Committee but not to exceed five dollars ($5.00) for each meeting actually attended by a member or the alternate when acting in the place and stead of the member.

5. The Growers Industry Committee shall give to the Secretary, his designated agents and representatives, the same notice of meetings of the committees as is given to the members of the committees.

6. The members of each committee shall select a chairman from their membership, and all communications from the Secretary to the committees may be addressed to the chairman at such addresses as may, from time to time, be filed with the Secretary. The committees shall select such other officers and adopt such rules for the conduct of their business as may be deemed advisable by them.

7. The members of the committees (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committees, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of both committees shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time and upon his disapproval shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith.

SEC. 5. Funds.—All funds received by the Growers Industry Committee pursuant to any provision of this order shall be used solely for the purposes herein specified and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(1) The Secretary may, at any time, require the Growers Industry Committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(2) Upon the removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the Growers Industry Committee, such member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession to his successor in office, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor full title to all of the property, funds and claims vested in such member pursuant to this order.

ARTICLE III—EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1. Expenses and assessments.—1. The Growers Industry Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out the functions of both committees under this order during a designated fiscal period. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments upon handlers as hereinafter provided.

2. Each handler shall pay to the Growers Industry Committee upon demand such handler's pro rata share, as is approved by the Secretary, of the expenses as the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the Growers Industry Committee and the Shippers Marketing Committee for the maintenance and functioning of said committees during each fiscal period. Each handler's share of such expenses shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of oranges and grapefruit shipped by such handler in the current of interstate or foreign commerce during said fiscal period is of the total quantity of oranges and grapefruit shipped by all handlers in the current of interstate or foreign commerce during said fiscal period. The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment per standard packed box of oranges and grapefruit. Each handler shall pay to the Growers Industry Committee a sum of money equivalent to the product of the rate per standard packed box fixed by the Secretary and the total quantity of standard packed boxes of oranges and grapefruit shipped by the handler: Provided, That if the shipment of any of the fruit mentioned, i. e., oranges or grapefruit, is not regulated during the designated fiscal period, the Growers Industry Committee shall refund to the handlers who shipped the fruit not regulated a sum of money paid by such handlers on account of such fruit: Provided, further, That in the event the shipment of none of the fruit is regulated, a sufficient sum of money shall be retained to pay the expenses incurred in administering this order.

3. The Growers Industry Committee may require that each handler pay his assessment in advance of actual shipments on the basis of the quantity of fruit shipped by him during the last shipping season. The assessment levied pursuant to this section by the Growers Industry Committee shall be due and payable at such time or times, and in such installments, if any, as may be set by the Growers Industry Committee. In the event assessments are levied in advance of actual shipment, such assessments shall be adjusted at the end of the fiscal period so that the assessment shall be based on the actual quantity of fruit shipped by the handler during the fiscal period.

4. If at the end of the fiscal period it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal period, unless he demands payment of the sum due him, in which case such sum shall be paid to him.

5. At any time during or after the fiscal period, the Secretary shall have the power to increase the rate of assessment so that the sum of money collected pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be adequate to cover the expenses. Such increase shall be applied retroactively as well as to future shipments.

6. The Growers Industry Committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name or in the name of its members a suit against any handler subject hereto for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of expenses.

ARTICLE IV—REGULATION OF SHIPMENTS

SECTION 1. Determination of regulation periods and weekly shipments.—1. It shall be the duty of the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee to investigate supply and demand conditions of fruit. Whenever such conditions make it advisable to regulate the shipment of fruit, the Shippers Marketing Committee shall recommend the establishment of a weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods as well as the commencement, duration and termination thereof. The Shippers Marketing Committee shall promptly report its findings, determinations, and recommendations so made, with supporting information in regard thereto, to the Growers Industry Committee, which committee shall submit the same to the Secretary, together with its own recommendations and supporting information. Such recommendations to the Secretary shall be accompanied by a report on the marketing policy for the season or remaining portion thereof deemed advisable by the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee, in view of the demand and supply conditions of fruit. Such reports shall be submitted to the Secretary, from time to time, in the event it is deemed advisable to adopt new marketing policies pursuant to the provisions of this article in view of changed demand and supply conditions of fruit. The Growers Industry Committee shall give notice of the intention of the Shippers Marketing Committee or of the Growers Industry Committee to meet to consider such recommendations by publishing a legal notice in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation in the producing area selected by the Growers Industry Committee.

2. If, from such recommendations and accompanying reports or other information available to the Secretary, the Secretary finds that to establish a particular weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods for any one or more types of fruit would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall establish such weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods, and he shall notify the Growers Industry Committee of the establishment thereof, as well as of the time of commencement, duration and termination thereof.

3. For each weekly regulation period the Shippers Marketing Committee shall find and determine the quantity of such type or types of fruit deemed by it advisable to be shipped and to be prorated in view of the prospective demand therefor. In making such determination, the committee shall give due consideration to the following factors: (1) market prices, (2) fruit on hand in the market areas, as evidenced by supplies in storage, enroute to or on track, at the principal markets, (3) available supply, maturity and condition of fruit in the production area, (4) supplies from competitive areas producing citrus fruit and other competitive fruit, and (5) trend in consumer income. The Shippers Marketing Committee shall promptly report the findings and determinations so made with supporting information to the Growers Industry Committee, which committee shall in turn submit the same to the Secretary together with its own recommendations, and supporting information respecting the factors hereinabove enumerated, and shall promptly advise all handlers of such findings and determinations. Notice of each meeting of the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee held for the purpose of determining the weekly quantity to be shipped shall be published not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time set for such meeting in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by the Growers Industry Committee.

4. If, from such recommendations and reports or other information available to the Secretary, the Secretary shall find that to fix a total quantity of any one or more types of fruit to be shipped during any week by all handlers would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall fix such a quantity for each such type of fruit, and he shall so notify the Growers Industry Committee of the establishment thereof, and in turn said committee shall promptly advise each applicant handler of such total quantity for each fruit so fixed by the Secretary.

SEC. 2. Application for allotment base and allotments.—1. Every handler intending to ship fruit in the current of interstate and foreign commerce shall submit to the Growers Industry Committee in the manner and at such time or times as shall be designated by said committee, upon forms to be supplied by said committee, written application for an allotment base and allotments for each type of fruit, substantiated in the manner prescribed in such application forms.

2. The written application of each handler for an allotment base and allotments with respect to each such fruit for which such application is made shall contain the following information regarding each type of fruit, the marketing of which he controls for the entire current shipping season by (a) a bona fide written contract which gives him unconditioned authority to market the fruit for that season, or (b) having legal title and possession thereof, or (c) having purchased or agreed to purchase said fruit as evidenced by a bona fide bill of sale or written agreement: (1) name and address of the owner and duly-authorized agent, if any, of each grove, (2) location and legal description of each such grove, including number of acres, number of trees, and their age distribution, and (3) an estimate of the amount of each type of fruit controlled as aforesaid on each such grove in terms of pounds or standard packed boxes. Each such application shall also include information specifying the quantities of each type of fruit shipped from Texas in interstate and foreign commerce by the applicant during each of the two years immediately preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season.

3. When fruit is controlled in accordance with (a) or (c) of subsection 2 of this section, each such application shall have attached thereto an exact copy of the type of contract, bill of sale and agreement entered into by the handler and the owners of the fruit or such owners' duly-authorized agent. It shall be the duty of the Growers Industry Committee to cause such instruments to be examined. Each such handler shall maintain a file of the originals of all such instruments entered into as aforesaid, subject to examination by the Growers Industry Committee or its duly-authorized representative. Only those instruments determined to conform to the type or types of control set forth in (a) and (c) of subsection 2 of this section shall be deemed to be a part of the handler's application for an allotment base and allotments.

SEC. 3. Allotment base either on past performance or current control basis.—Allotment bases shall be computed either on a past performance basis, as provided by section 4 of this article, or on the basis of current control of fruit, as provided by section 5 of this article. Unless the applicant advises the Growers Industry Committee at the time of filing his application that he desires that his allotment base be computed on the basis of his current control of each type of fruit, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute his allotment base on the basis of past performance; except, however, if the applicant has no past performance, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute such applicant's allotment base on the basis of such applicant's current control of fruit.

SEC. 4. Computation of allotment base on past performance.—1. For the purpose of arriving at an allotment base computed on a past performance basis, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute, from the application filed by the applicant, or other information available to said committee, the two-year average quantity of each type of fruit shipped by the applicant during the two years preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season. The two-year average quantity so computed, as the same may be revised pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of this article, shall be the allotment base for such applicant.

2. If an applicant for an allotment base, computed on a past performance basis, shipped fruit during only one of the two years immediately preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season, the Growers Industry Committee shall, from the application filed by the applicant, or other information available to said committee, compute the quantity which the applicant did ship. The quantity so computed, as the same may be revised pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of this article, shall be the allotment base for such applicant.

SEC. 5. Computation of allotment base on current control.—For the purpose of arriving at an applicant's allotment base computed on a current control basis, the Growers Industry Committee shall, from the application and subsequent reports filed by the applicant at the request of the Growers Industry Committee, or other information available to said committee, compute the quantity of each type of fruit which is controlled by the applicant for the remainder of the then current shipping season and which the applicant intends to ship to fresh fruit markets. To ascertain the intention of an applicant to ship to fresh fruit markets, the Growers Industry Committee shall give due regard to the past performance of the applicant and to other information available to said committee. The quantity so computed, as the same may be revised pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of this article, shall be the allotment base of such applicant.

SEC. 6. Revisions of allotment bases.—1. The Growers Industry Committee shall check the accuracy of the information set forth in the applications for allotment bases and of all other information filed by applicants for the purpose of obtaining allotments and allotment bases, and shall check the computations made pursuant to the provisions of this article. The Growers Industry Committee shall adjust allotment bases in such a manner as to eliminate the effect of any errors, omissions, inaccuracies and misstatements upon the total amount of shipments allotted each applicant for the entire shipping season with respect to each type of fruit. Subject to the opportunity for applicants to be heard, under such rules as the Growers Industry Committee shall establish, the said committee shall correct any omissions or inaccuracies found therein, by revising the same to conform to the check.

2. Promptly after allotment bases shall have been computed as provided in subsection 1 of this section and again when fixed by the Secretary, as provided in section 9 of this article, each applicant shall be notified in writing by the Growers Industry Committee of the allotment base fixed for him for each type of fruit.

3. Any applicant may, at any time, apply, in writing, to the Growers Industry Committee for the revision of any allotment base computed for him, and may present evidence that such allotment base is inaccurate or inequitable. In such case, the said committee shall, under such rules as it shall establish, afford such applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard, and if the evidence reveals that such allotment base is inaccurate or inequitable, it shall revise such base. The said committee, upon its own initiative, subject to the opportunity of the person affected to be heard, may revise any allotment base if the evidence reveals such allotment base is inaccurate or inequitable. The revision, however, by the Growers Industry Committee of any allotment base which has been fixed by the Secretary in accordance with section 9 of this article, shall be subject to the prior approval of the Secretary.

SEC. 7. Reports by the growers industry committee to Secretary.—The Growers Industry Committee shall make written reports to the Secretary of its findings and determinations with regard to the allotment bases established pursuant to this article, or any changes or revisions thereof.

SEC. 8. Computation of group allotments.—The Growers Industry Committee shall compute for each week the portion of the total quantity of each type of fruit found and determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3 of section 1 of this article, which shall be allotted for such week to all applicants desiring allotments based on their past performance and to all applicants desiring allotments based on their current control in the following manner:

1. That portion of such total quantity of each type of fruit to be allotted during each week to all applicants desiring allotments based on their current control shall be that portion which, in terms of percent, shall be equal to the percentage that the aggregate of the allotment bases with respect to each type of fruit of all such applicants is of the total quantity of such type of fruit then remaining available to be shipped, which said total quantity shall be determined by the Growers Industry Committee in the same manner as it determines the estimates of the quantity of such type of fruit controlled for shipment in interstate and foreign commerce by applicants desiring an allotment base and allotments on the basis of current control.

2. That portion of such total quantity of each type of fruit to be allotted each week to all applicants desiring an allotment on a current control basis shall be deducted from the total quantity of such type fruit for the same week found and determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3 of section 1 of this article, and the remaining quantity shall be the aggregate quantity of such type of fruit allotted for such week to all applicants receiving allotments based on their past performance.

3. The Growers Industry Committee shall promptly report to the Secretary the computations made by it with regard to the portions of the total quantity of each type of fruit determined pursuant to the provisions of this section.

SEC. 9. Fixing of allotment bases and allotments by Secretary.—1. From the reports received by the Secretary, made by the Growers Industry Committee as required by sections 7 and 8 of this article, or other information available to the Secretary, he shall, for each type of fruit, fix (a) the allotment base for each applicant desiring allotments on the basis of past performance and the portion of the total quantity fixed by him pursuant to subsection 4, section 1 of this article to be allotted to all such applicants, and (b) the current control allotment base for each applicant desiring allotments on such a basis and the portion of the said total quantity to be allotted to all such applicants.

2. Thereupon the Secretary shall for such regulation period fix for each type of fruit the allotment for each applicant who has applied for allotments, pursuant to section 2 of this article and for whom an allotment base has been fixed, by signing a direction that (a) such allotment for each applicant desiring allotments on a past performance basis shall be that portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, which, expressed in terms of percent, shall be equal to the percentage that each such applicant's allotment base is of the aggregate of the allotment bases of all such applicants, (b) such allotment for each applicant desiring allotments on a current control basis shall be that portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, which, expressed in terms of percent, shall be equal to the percentage that each such applicant's allotment base is of the aggregate of the allotment bases of all such applicants.

3. Whenever the Secretary has fixed a weekly allotment for each applicant handler, as above provided, the Growers Industry Committee shall calculate the amount thereof, in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of this section, in terms of standard packed boxes. A certificate shall then be issued by the Growers Industry Committee to each such applicant which shall show the allotment base and the current allotment fixed for the applicant by the Secretary and shall set forth (1) that such allotment is subject to adjustment with respect to (a) over and undershipment as permitted by section 10 of this article, (b) duly recorded allotment loan agreements pursuant to section 11 of this article, and (c) interchange of allotments as permitted by section 17 of this article; and (2) that such allotment so adjusted represents the net quantity which may be shipped by such handler during the weekly regulation period. Such certificate shall be mailed or otherwise sent to handlers for whom allotment bases and allotments have been fixed, and the delivery of such certificate to such handler or the depositing thereof in the United States mail shall constitute notice of the fixing of the allotment base and allotments by the Secretary.

4. The Growers Industry Committee shall, from time to time, during the shipping season find and determine if any or all handlers for whom allotment bases have been fixed by the Secretary and allotments issued to such handlers in accordance therewith do not require allotments for the purpose of completing their shipping season, or to repay allotments borrowed. The Growers Industry Committee shall report such findings to the Secretary and recommend to him the discontinuance of the allotment bases of such handlers who do not so require such allotments.

SEC. 10. Over and undershipments.—1. During any week in which the Secretary fixes allotments as hereinbefore provided, every handler, for the purpose of providing flexibility in the preparation of fruit for market, may ship, during any regulation period when not required to reduce shipments as provided in the following sentence, in addition to his allotment, an amount not to exceed ten (10) percent of his allotment or, if his allotment is less than one hundred standard packed boxes, a quantity equivalent to the difference between one hundred standard packed boxes and such allotment. The quantity of fruit shipped in excess of the allotment, and not exceeding the quantity permitted by the foregoing sentence, shall be offset by a reduction of an equal amount from his allotment for the next week in which regulation is in effect, and if such weekly allotment be less than such permitted excess shipment, then such permitted excess shipment shall be deducted from the succeeding weekly allotments until such excess shipment has been entirely offset. If a handler ships a quantity of fruit less than his allotment during any week, such handler may ship, during the next week only in which such handler is given an allotment, in addition to such allotment and after shipping such allotment, a quantity equal to the undershipment: Provided, That such additional quantity shall not exceed twenty (20) percent of the total allotment of such handler for the weekly regulation period during which the undershipment occurred. No handler shall be permitted to loan any part of such additional quantity.

SEC. 11. Allotment loan transactions.—1. Handlers for whom an allotment base has been fixed by the Secretary may borrow allotments from one another: Provided, That (a) a handler borrowing an allotment agrees in writing with the lender, on forms provided by the Growers Industry Committee, to return to the lender an allotment in the same quantity and covering the same type of fruit and specifies in such agreement the week in which said allotment is to be returned, which week shall not be later than the third week after the week in which the allotment was loaned; (b) handlers party to an allotment loan agreement shall notify the Growers Industry Committee of such loan by supplying said committee with a copy of said written agreement within two days after the allotment loan agreement is executed; and (c) the loan of an allotment is made during the week for which the allotment is issued. The filing of a written loan agreement with the Growers Industry Committee shall serve as an automatic return of the borrowed allotment during the week stated in said agreement for the return of such allotment and the Growers Industry Committee shall accordingly debit and credit the allotment of the lending handler and borrowing handler respectively. The allotment may be returned prior to the date specified: Provided, That the parties to the loan agreement notify the Growers Industry Committee of such prior return within two days thereafter, upon forms supplied by said committee. A handler borrowing an allotment may ship the quantity of fruit represented by such an allotment only during the week for which such allotment is issued, and shall not loan any part thereof to another handler. A handler who returns an allotment borrowed from another handler shall deduct the quantity of fruit represented by the allotment returned from the allotment fixed for such handler by the Secretary for the week during which the borrowed allotment is returned. A handler receiving the return of an allotment loaned may ship a quantity of fruit equal to such returned allotment or may loan such allotment only during the week the return of such an allotment is received. No handler who has an allotment to loan shall loan such allotment to another handler when such handler who has the allotment to loan does not need the return of such allotment to complete his shipping season of such type of fruit.

2. During any week in which a handler has (1) an additional quantity from the previous week as permitted by section 10 of this article, (2) receives the return of an allotment loaned pursuant to section 11 of this article, (3) borrows an allotment from another handler pursuant to section 11 of this article, or (4) obtains an allotment pursuant to section 17 of this article, and ships less than the total of his allotment, or such portion thereof that has not been disposed of pursuant to sections 11 and 17 of this article, plus the quantities enumerated in (1), (2), (3) and (4) above, such shipment shall first be applied to his current weekly allotment fixed by the Secretary if the same has not been disposed of, or upon such portion thereof as has not been disposed of (pursuant to sections 10, 11 and 17 of this article), and the remainder of such shipments shall be applied to the quantities enumerated in (1), (2), (3) and (4) above.

3. The Growers Industry Committee shall maintain its books and records so as to accurately reflect all transactions between handlers made pursuant to sections 10, 11 and 17 of this article.

SEC. 12. Issuance of certificates.—The Growers Industry Committee may, subject to the approval of the Secretary, provide for the issuance of certificates by applicants holding allotments to persons who have no allotments and who purchase fruit from the applicants.

SEC. 13. Changing from past performance to current control basis.—At any time during a current shipping season an applicant whose allotment base is computed on a past performance basis may make written application to the Growers Industry Committee to have his allotment base for the balance of such shipping season computed on a current control basis. Such application shall be submitted in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of this article. After complying with the provisions of section 3 of this article respecting such application, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute an allotment base on the basis of current control for such applicant. No handler who receives allotments on the basis of current control shall be permitted to change to a past performance basis at any time during a current shipping season.

SEC. 14. Shipment of fruit for by-product use and export and charitable purposes.—1. Subject to such rules and regulations as the Growers Industry Committee may establish in order to enable it to determine that such fruit will not enter fresh fruit trade channels in interstate or foreign commerce, any person may ship, free from any restriction or obligation imposed by this order, fruit that will be used solely for purposes of conversion into by-products, or for unemployment relief or for charitable purposes, or for export to foreign countries other than Canada.

2. As used in this order, the term "by-product" means and includes all processed and manufactured products of fruit and all products in the manufacturing or processing of which fruit is used, including canned or bottled fruits and juices; except that fruit shipped for conversion into juices without further processing or treatment to render the same bona fide manufactured or processed product, as above described, shall be deemed fresh fruit subject to all regulations of such fruit herein contained and shall not be deemed fruit shipped for conversion.

SEC. 15. Equitable treatment of producers.—Each handled shall, insofar as practical operations permit, divide his total allotments for each variety of fruit equitably among the producers for whom he ships such fruit.

SEC. 16. Obligation as to shipment by persons.—During any week for which the Secretary fixes allotments for shipment of any type of fruit, no person shall ship any such fruit without an allotment covering same, nor any quantity in excess of the allotment fixed for him, as such quantity may be increased or decreased pursuant to the provisions of sections 10, 11, and 17 of this article.

SEC. 17. Interchange of Interstate for Intrastate Allotments.—An exchange between handlers of allotments or any part thereof, under the provisions hereof, for an equivalent quantity of the same type of fruit under an allotment for the same weekly period fixed pursuant to a corresponding order, license or other regulation of the duly constituted authorities pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Citrus Marketing Act is hereby authorized, subject to such administrative rules and regulations as the Growers Industry Committee may make, with the approval of the Secretary, to govern the procedure to be followed in connection with such exchanges.

ARTICLE V—REGULATION OF GRADES AND SIZES

SECTION 1. Recommendations of Committees.—It shall be the duty of the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee to investigate supply-and-demand conditions for grades and sizes of fruit. Whenever such conditions make it advisable to regulate the shipment of a particular grade or grades, size or sizes of any variety or varieties of fruit during a specified period or periods, the Shippers Marketing Committee shall so find and determine, and shall promptly report such findings and determinations to the Growers Industry Committee, which committeee shall submit the same to the Secretary together with its own recommendations. The first recommendation submitted to the Secretary pursuant to section 2 of this article, during the shipping season, shall be accompanied by a report setting forth the marketing policy, with respect to the regulations permitted by this article, deemed advisable for the current shipping season by the said committees. Such reports shall be submitted, from time to time, in the event it is deemed advisable to adopt new marketing policies in view of changed demand and supply conditions with respect to fruit.

SEC. 2. Determination of Committees.—For each such recommended regulation period, the Shippers Marketing Committee shall find and determine the grades and sizes of each variety of fruit deemed by it advisable to be shipped in view of the prospective demand therefor. In making such determination, the committee shall give due consideration to the following factors: (1) market price, including market prices by grades and sizes of the fruit for which regulation is recommended, (2) fruit on hand in the market areas, as evidenced by supplies on track at the principal markets, (3) available supply, maturity and condition of fruit in the producing area, including the grade and size distribution of fruit remaining in the producing area, (4) supplies from competitive areas producing citrus fruit and other competitive fruit, and (5) trend in consumer income. The Shippers Marketing Committee shall promptly report the finding and determination so made with supporting information to the Growers Industry Committee, which committee shall in turn submit the same to the Secretary together with its own recommendations and supporting information respecting the factors hereinabove enumerated.

SEC. 3. Limitation of Grade and Size Shipments.—Whenever the Secretary shall find from the recommendations of the Growers Industry Committee and of the Shippers Marketing Committee, submitted to him by the Growers Industry Committee in accordance with section 2 of this article, or from other available information, that to limit the shipment of a particular grade or grades, size or sizes, or any combination of grades and sizes of any variety or varieties of fruit would tend to effectuate the declared policy of title I of the act, he shall so limit the shipment of such varieties of fruit during a specified period or periods. The Growers Industry Committee shall be informed of any such determination by the Secretary, and shall, in turn, notify all persons desiring to ship fruit in the current of interstate or foreign commerce by publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by the said committee.

SEC. 4. Notice of meeting.—The Growers Industry Committee shall give at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of any meeting to consider the recommendation of regulations limiting the shipment of particular grades and sizes of fruit in the current of interstate and foreign commerce during any specified period or periods by publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by said committee, and no regulation pursuant to this article shall become effective sooner than twenty-four (24) hours after it has been issued by the Secretary.

SEC. 5. Obligation as to shipment by persons.—Except as provided in section 14 of article IV and in section 7 of this article, no handler shall, during any regulation period established pursuant to the provisions of this article, ship fruit other than of those grades and sizes or that portion of such grades and sizes which are permitted to be shipped in the current of interstate and foreign commerce by the Secretary pursuant to section 3 of this article.

SEC. 6. Grading and certification.—1. Each handler, prior to making each shipment of fruit in interstate or foreign commerce during any regulation period established pursuant to this article, shall have the fruit included in each such shipment graded and certified on the basis of the grades now promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture or as the same may be modified or changed hereafter, or as the same may be modified or supplemented by regulatory orders by the Secretary pursuant to this article, by a duly-authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service; and each such handler shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Growers Industry Committee the Federal-State shipping point inspection certificate, issued by the Federal-State Inspection Service, stating the variety or varieties, grade or grades, and size or sizes of the fruit in each such shipment.

SEC. 7. Exemptions.—1. In the event that shipments of any type of fruit are regulated pursuant to this article, the Growers Industry Committee shall adopt and announce the procedural rules by which exemption certificates will be issued to growers, and shall grant an exemption certificate to any grower who furnishes proof that he will be prevented from having shipped as large a percentage of his crop of such type of fruit as the average of all growers. Such exemption certificate shall permit such grower to have shipped such a quantity of such regulated grades and sizes of the particular type of fruit as will enable such grower to have shipped as large a portion of his crop of such type of fruit as the average for all growers. Shipments made in accordance with this provision shall be in compliance with the provisions of article IV hereof.

2. The Secretary shall have the power to modify, change or alter (a) any such procedural rules, and (b) any exemption granted under subsection 1 of this section.

ARTICLE VI—REPORTS AND RECORDS

SECTION 1. Handler's weekly report.—On or before Tuesday of each week throughout the shipping season, each handler shall report to the Growers Industry Committee, on forms supplied by said committee, the following information regarding such handler's operations during the immediately preceding calendar week for each type of fruit, the marketing of which is controlled by him within the meaning of subsection 2, section 2, article IV: (a) quantity shipped interstate and to Canada, exclusive of the quantities designated by items (b), (c) and (d) hereunder, (b) quantity shipped by express and parcel post, (c) quantity shipped for unemployment relief, including donations for charitable purposes, (d) quantity exported to countries other than Canada, (e) quantity sold or transported for intrastate consumption, (f) quantity sold or otherwise disposed of for canning and manufacture of by-products, (g) quantity eliminated, and (h) quantity harvested from individual groves including the name and address of the owners, or such owners' duly-authorized agent, and legal description of each such grove.

SEC. 2. Shipping manifest report.—The Growers Industry Committee may request information from each handler regarding the variety, grade and size of each standard packed box of fruit or its equivalent contained in each individual shipment of fruit by a handler and require such information to be delivered to said committee or its duly-authorized representative, in a manner or by such method as the said committee may prescribe, upon such form or forms as may be supplied by said committee for such purpose, within twenty-four (24) hours after such shipment is made.

SEC. 3. Records.—The Growers Industry Committee shall maintain such books and records as are necessary to the proper administration of the provisions of this order and to determine the performance of handlers with respect thereto or as may be prescribed by the Secretary.

SEC. 4. Upon request of the Growers Industry Committee, made with the approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish such committee in such manner and at such times as it prescribes such other information as will enable it to perform its powers and duties hereunder.

ARTICLE VII—EFFECTIVE TIME AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effective time and termination.—The provisions hereof shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto, and shall continue in force, subject to termination as follows:

1. The Secretary may at any time terminate this order by giving at least one (1) day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which the Secretary may determine.

2. The Secretary shall terminate this order at the end of any current crop year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of citrus fruit who, during the preceding crop year, have been engaged in the production for market of fruit: Provided, That such majority have, during such period, produced for market more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of such fruit produced for market, but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before May 1 of the then current crop year.

3. This order shall in any event terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 2. Proceedings after termination.—1. Upon the termination of the provisions hereof the members of the Growers Industry Committee then functioning shall continue to function for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the Growers Industry Committee and shall keep the funds and property then in their possession as members of such Growers Industry Committee including claims for any funds unpaid or property undelivered at the time of such termination. Said members (a) shall continue to function until discharged by the Secretary, (b) shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements or deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the Growers Industry Committee to such person or persons (who at the time of termination was or were a member or members of the Growers Industry Committee) as the Secretary may direct, and (c) shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignment or other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such person or persons full title to all of the funds, property and claims vested in the Growers Industry Committee. Any funds collected pursuant to article III of this order, over and above amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred during the operation hereof and during the liquidation period, shall, as soon as practicable after the termination hereof, be returned to the handlers. The refund to each handler shall be represented by the excess of the amount paid by him over and above his pro rata share of the expenses.

2. Any person to whom funds, property or claims have been transferred or delivered by the members of the Growers Industry Committee upon direction of the Secretary as herein provided shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to the said funds, property or claims as were hereinabove imposed upon the members of said committee.

ARTICLE VIII—DURATION OF IMMUNITIES

The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue of this order shall cease upon its termination, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence hereof.

ARTICLE IX—AGENTS

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person or persons, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

ARTICLE X—DEROGATION

Nothing contained herein is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (1) to exercise any power granted by the act or otherwise, and (2) in accordance with such power to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

ARTICLE XI—PERSONAL LIABILITY

No member of the Growers Industry Committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, nor any member nor employee of any other committee that may be appointed or created hereunder, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any other person or persons for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts of commission or omission as such member or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

ARTICLE XII—SEPARABILITY

If any provision hereof is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this order or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE XIII—EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

Nothing contained in this amended order shall be deemed to affect, waive, or terminate any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which may hereafter arise in connection with, by virtue of, or pursuant to any provision of the order regulating the handling of citrus fruit issued by the Secretary on July 9, 1937, effective July 13, 1937, or affect or impair any right or remedy of the Secretary in connection therewith except as herein indicated, expressly or by necessary implication.

In witness whereof, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this amended order under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 10th day of September 1938, and declares this amended order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., c. s. t., September 15, 1938.

AMENDED PROCLAMATION OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE MADE WITH RESPECT TO THE BASE PERIOD TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND THE AMENDED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF ORANGES AND GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN CAMERON, HIDALGO AND WILLACY COUNTIES, TEXAS

Whereas, on July 9, 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture, by virtue of the authority vested in him by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, found and proclaimed[1] that, with respect to oranges and grapefruit grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, the purchasing power of oranges and grapefruit during the base period, August 1909–July 1914, could not be satisfactorily determined from the available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such fruit; and

Whereas, it was found and determined that the purchasing power of such fruit could be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period September 1924–May 1929, which statistics relate only to the weighted average season prices received by the producers of such fruit, and such period was determined to be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of such fruit for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such fruit; and

Whereas, there are now on file in the Department of Agriculture additional and more detailed statistics with respect to the prices received by producers of such fruit, which data relate to the "on-tree" prices for grapefruit received by producers during the period November 1925–March 1929, and to the "on-tree" prices for oranges received by producers during the period October 1926–March 1929, and thus more satisfactorily reflect prices received by producers of said fruit;

Now, therefore, it is hereby found and proclaimed that the period November 1925–March 1929, and the period October 1926–March 1929, for grapefruit and oranges, respectively, shall be the base periods to be used in determining the purchasing power of oranges and grapefruit grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, for the purpose of the execution of an amended marketing agreement and the issuance of an amended order regulating the handling of such fruit.

In witness whereof, I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, have executed this proclamation in duplicate and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 10th day of September 1938.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

MODIFYING DEPARTMENTAL ORDER[2] BY RESTORING UNDISPOSED-OF OPENED LANDS OF GRAND PORTAGE RESERVATION, MINNESOTA, TO CHIPPEWA INDIANS OF MINNESOTA

APRIL 6, 1938.

The Honorable, The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: On November 29, 1935, the First Assistant Secretary of the Interior, under authority contained in section 3 of the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. L., 984), upon the recommendation of this Office, restored the undisposed-of opened lands of the Grand Portage Indian Reservation, Minnesota, consisting of 9,277.59 acres, to tribal ownership.

In the recommendation of this Office it was asked that restoration be made in favor of the Grand Portage Band of Chippewa Indians of the Grand Portage Reservation. This position was taken because at that time it had not been definitely determined whether restorations of this kind should be made to individual bands of Chippewa Indians of Minnesota or to the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota generally. The Departmental indorsement making the restoration reads as follows:

"The lands described on the attached list are hereby restored to tribal ownership as recommended and the matter referred to the Commissioner of the General Land Office for appropriate notation on the records of that Office; also any lands inadvertently omitted from said list and any that may be released subsequently thereto."

In an opinion rendered February 19, 1938, by the Solicitor for the Interior Department, approved by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior on the same date, relating to the restoration of undisposed-of lands ceded by the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians under section 3 of the Indian Reorganization Act, in which it was held that the lands should be restored to the "Chippewa Indians of Minnesota" and not to the Red Lake Band alone, the following appears:

"In reaching this conclusion I have not overlooked the fact that certain lands within the Grand Portage Reservation have already been restored under section 3 of the Reorganization Act to the Grand Portage Indians. This action, taken without complete consideration of the general problem of land restoration in the Chippewa area and without due regard for the interest in those lands possessed by the other Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, should be modified to conform with this opinion.

"In summary of the foregoing conclusions, it is my opinion that the remaining undisposed-of lands ceded by the Red Lake Band under the act of 1889 should be restored under section 3 of the Reorganization Act to the 'Chippewa Indians of Minnesota', and that, if this opinion is approved, the remaining lands ceded by the other bands of Chippewa Indians under the 1889 act should be restored to the same beneficiary, and the previous restoration of lands to the Grand Portage Band should be corrected."

In order to comply with the instructions referred to, it is respectfully recommended that the restoration order of November 29, 1935, mentioned in the opening paragraph of this letter, be modified so as to make the beneficiary the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota instead of the Grand Portage Band of Chippewa Indians of the Grand Portage Reservation.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN, JR.,
Assistant Commissioner.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE.
April 9, 1938.

There are no reasons appearing in the records of this Office why the foregoing recommendation should not be approved.

D. K. PARROTT,
Acting Assistant Commissioner.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.
June 3, 1938.

For the reason mentioned in the foregoing recommendation, Departmental order of November 29, 1935, restoring the undisposed-of opened lands of the Grand Portage Indian Reservation, Minnesota, to tribunal ownership, is hereby modified to the extent of making the beneficiary the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota instead of the Grand Portage Band of Chippewa Indians of the Grand Portage Reservation.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Irrigation 9228-36-G]

LETTER OF INSTRUCTIONS AUTHORIZING ASSESSMENTS ON LAND IN NON-INDIAN OWNERSHIP UNDER THE WAPATO INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, WASHINGTON, FOR REPAYMENT OF THE CONSTRUCTION COSTS OF THAT PROJECT

JULY 25, 1938.

The Honorable The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: Reference is made to the matter of assessments for repayment to the Government of the construction costs incurred in the construction of the Wapato Indian irrigation project on the Yakima Indian Reservation, Washington.

The Act of Congress of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat., 431) provided for the use of the sum of $250,000 for continuing the construction and enlargement of the Wapato irrigation and drainage system and among other things provided as follows:

• • • That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to collect on or before December 31 of each calendar year hereafter including 1920, from the white landowners under the said system the sum of $5 per acre for each acre of land to which water for irrigation purposes can be delivered from the said system, which sum shall be credited on a per acre basis in favor of the land in behalf of which it shall have been paid and be deducted from the total per acre charge assessable against said land when the amount of such total charge can be determined, • • •

It will be observed from the above quotation that no determination had been made at that time of the total construction cost that will finally be charged against each acre of land of that project but provision is made that any collections shall be credited against such total charge when the amount thereof can be determined. No such determination has as yet been made, and all rates of assessment heretofore fixed, as well as the rate now fixed, provide for only partial reimbursement of the construction costs.

On December 16, 1920, the Indian Office addressed a letter of instructions to the Supervising Engineer in charge of the Wapato project, which letter received departmental approval on December 20, 1920 (Indian Office file 51656-20-341 Part 1). The purpose of that letter was to direct the Supervising Engineer in the application of the provisions of the act of Congress above cited.

Subsequently the Act of Congress of May 25, 1922 (42 Stat., 595) modified Section 22 of the Act of February 14, 1920, supra, so as to read as follows:

That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to collect on or before December 31 of each calendar year hereafter, including 1922, from landowners other than Indians under the said system the sum of $2.50 per acre for each acre of land to which water for irrigation purposes can be delivered from the said system, which sum shall be credited on a per acre basis in favor of the land in behalf of which it shall have been paid and be deducted from the total per acre charge assessable against said land when the amount of such total charge can be determined, • • •

Under date of June 12, 1922 (Indian Office file 51656–20–341 Part 1) the Office addressed another letter to the Supervising Engineer which received departmental approval on the same date. That letter contains appropriate instructions for applying the provisions of the legislation quoted above and to that extent modified and superseded the letter of instructions approved on December 20, 1920.

The correspondence on file (Indian Office file 9001–36–0–c) shows that the non-Indian landowners of the Wapato project have availed themselves of the benefits afforded by the various relief acts of Congress as follows: the Act of January 26, 1933 (47 Stat., 776) authorized the deferment of all construction assessments for the season of 1931 and one-half of the assessments for the season of 1932. The Act of March 7, 1933 (47 Stat., 1427) authorized the deferment of the remaining one-half of the assessments for 1932 and all assessments for 1933. The Act of June 13, 1935 (49 Stat., 337) authorized the deferment of all assessments for the years 1934 and 1935. The Act of April 14, 1936 (49 Stat., 1206) authorized the deferment of one-half of the assessments for the season of 1936. The repayment commission authorized by the Act of August 21, 1937 (50 Stat., 737) recommended the deferment of one-half of the construction assessments on the Wapato project for the season of 1937, which recommendation was approved by the Department on April 18, 1938 (Indian Office file 9228–36–G).

The deferred assessments discussed in the preceding paragraph are in each instance to become due as an annual installment one year after the date on which the last preceding installment becomes due under the existing laws and regulations.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1932 (47 Stat., 564–565), known as the Leavitt Act, releases all Indian lands from further assessments for construction costs so long as such lands remain in Indian ownership.

The recent Act of Congress of February 24, 1938 (Public 433—75th Cong.) further modifies the Acts of February 14, 1920, supra, and May 25, 1922, supra as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of the Act approved February 14, 1920 (41 Stat., 431), as amended by the Act approved May 25, 1922 (42 Stat. L. 595 and 596), as fixes the annual rate of payment of irrigation construction costs or assessments on the Wapato Indian irrigation project on the Yakima Reservation in the State of Washington, be, and it is hereby, amended so as to fix the per-acre per-annum assessment rate at $1.25 against those lands classed as A or B which are subject to construction assessments pursuant to existing law. Such rate is to take effect immediately upon approval of this Act and shall continue until the total cost assessable under existing law against such of the A and B lands shall have been repaid.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to modify the annual repayment schedule set forth in the memorandum agreement of March 9, 1921, approved March 31, 1921, as amended, wherein provision is made among other things for payment of the actual cost of the two hundred and fifty thousand acre-feet of water for certain of the lands under the Wapato Indian irrigation project so as to extend payment of the balance of the cost of such water over a twenty-four-year period commencing with the payment due December 31, 1937.

Further legislation is contemplated at the next session of Congress (1st session of 76th Cong.) with a view to carrying out the provisions of Section 2 of the act quoted above (Indian Office file 9228–36–R & X).

Pursuant to the recent legislation herein cited it is recommended that all prior instructions issued for the assessment of construction costs against the lands of the Wapato project be modified in so far as they may conflict with the legislation and the instructions contained herein, and it is also recommended that the Project Engineer be instructed to make the necessary preparations for the assessment of all lands in non-Indian ownership, which are properly subject to assessment under the existing laws and regulations, at the rate of $1.25 per acre for the season of 1938 and for each succeeding year until further modified, such assessments to become due and payable on December 31 of each year.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN HERRICK,
Acting Commissioner.

Approved, August 3, 1938.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

(b) The Commission is hereby authorized and directed, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, to establish the United States Maritime Service to be a voluntary organization and which shall consist of such licensed and unlicensed personnel of the United States merchant marine as may be enrolled under the provisions of this section. The ranks, grades, and ratings for the personnel of the said Service, shall be the same as are now or shall hereafter be prescribed for the personnel of the Coast Guard. The Commission is authorized and directed to determine the number of persons to be enrolled in the said Service, to fix the rates of pay of such persons, and to prescribe such courses and periods of training as, in its discretion, is necessary to maintain a trained and efficient merchant-marine personnel.

The number of persons to be enrolled in said Service, the rates of pay of such persons, and the courses and periods of training shall be determined, fixed, and prescribed by the Commission in such manner and form as may appear to it to be necessary to maintain a trained and efficient merchant-marine personnel. The ranks, grades, and ratings for the personnel of the said Service shall be the same as are now or shall hereafter be prescribed for the personnel of the Coast Guard.

In the administration and conduct of the said Service the Commission shall, subject to the consent and approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, avail itself of the use of such information, services, facilities, officers, and employees of the Coast Guard and the Public Health Service as may be necessary for the operation of said Service, such use to be at the expense of the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF JOHN THOMAS PARKS DOING BUSINESS AS JOHN T. PARKS, INVESTMENT BROKER, P. O. BOX 363, YAKIMA, WASHINGTON

ORDER FOR PROCEEDINGS AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that John Thomas Parks, hereinafter called the registrant, doing business as John T. Parks, Investment Broker, a sole proprietorship registered as a broker and dealer under Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended,

(1) has wilfully violated Section 7 (c) (2) of said Act and Section 3 (c) of Regulation T adopted by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to Section 7 of said Act, in that said registrant as a broker and dealer transacting a business in securities through the medium of a member of a national securities exchange during the period from January 1, 1938 to May 28, 1938, extended and maintained credit on certain securities other than exempted securities and/or securities registered upon a national securities exchange, including among others the stock of Clayton Silver Mines and Azurite Gold Co.;

(2) has wilfully violated Section 8 (b) of said act in that said registrant as a broker and dealer transacting a business in securities through a member of a national securities exchange, permitted in the ordinary course of business as a broker prior to May 28, 1938, his aggregate indebtedness to all other persons, including customers' credit balances but excluding indebtedness secured by exempted securities, to exceed 2,000 per cent of the net capital, exclusive of fixed assets, employed in the business;

(3) has wilfully violated Section 17 (a) (1) and 17 (a) (3) of the Securities Act of 1933 in that registrant, in the sale of securities by the use of means of transportation and communication in interstate commerce and by the use of the mails, has employed a device, scheme or artifice to defraud, and has engaged in transactions, practices and courses of business which would operate and have operated as a fraud or deceit upon the purchasers, in the following particulars, to wit:

(a) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept for safekeeping securities belonging to such customers for which such customers had paid in full and, without the knowledge of such customers, convert such securities to his own use and benefit;

(b) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept monies to be held for such customers as free credit balances and without the knowledge of such customers convert such monies to his own use and benefit;

(c) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept securities as collateral for balances due from such customers on margin accounts and without the knowledge of such customers sell said securities for more than the balance due from such customers and convert the proceeds thereof to his own use and benefit.

(4) has wilfully violated Section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-15C1-2 thereunder, in that registrant has made use of the mails and of means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce to effect transactions in, or induce the purchase or sale of, securities, otherwise than on a national securities exchange, by means of acts, practices, or courses of business which would operate and have operated as a fraud or deceit upon any person, in the following particulars; to wit:

(a) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept for safekeeping securities belonging to such customers for which such customers had paid in full and, without the knowledge of such customers, convert such securities to his own use and benefit;

(b) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept monies to be held for such customers as free credit balances and without the knowledge of such customers convert such monies to his own use and benefit;

(c) registrant solicited and accepted orders for the sale of securities to his customers as principal and offers to buy securities for his customers as agent and in connection therewith intended to and did receive and accept securities as collateral for balances due from such customers on margin accounts and without the knowledge of such customers sell said securities for more than the balances due from such customers and convert the proceeds thereof to his own use and benefit.

(5) has wilfully violated Rule MB2 adopted by the Commission pursuant to Section 15(b), 17(a), and 23(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, by reason of the said registrant having failed to report and correct the inaccuracy of the information furnished:

(a) Under Items 17(a) and 18 of the aforesaid application, by means of a supplemental statement, disclosing the fact that, on May 28, 1938 registrant's license to sell securities in the State of Washington was revoked; and

(b) Under Item 10 of the aforesaid application, by means of a supplemental statement, disclosing the fact that registrant had employed two salesmen; and

The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that it is in the public interest to suspend or revoke said registration; and

The Commission being of the opinion that it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors that proceedings be instituted for the purposes below provided:

It is ordered, That proceedings be held to determine whether the registration of John Thomas Parks, doing business as John T. Parks, Investment Broker, a sole proprietorship, should be suspended or revoked pursuant to the provisions of Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

It is further ordered, That a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence be held at 10:00 A. M. on October 20, 1938 at the Seattle Regional Office, Securities and Exchange Commission, 821 Second Avenue, Seattle, Washington, and that the said hearing be continued at such other time or place as the Commission or the officer conducting such hearing may determine; that for the purpose of said hearing John G. Clarkson be and he is hereby designated as the officer of the Commission to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda and any and all other records deemed relevant or material to the matters in issue at said hearing and to perform all other duties in connection therewith as authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That this notice and order be served on the said registrant personally or by registered mail, not less than seven (7) days prior to the time of the hearing, or by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to conclude said hearing, make his report to the Commission, and transmit same with a record of this hearing to the Commission.

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of September 1938.

Regulation 601–A–1[1] promulgated by the Civil Aeronautics Authority on August 20, 1938, adopted the Civil Air Regulations made, prescribed and issued by the Secretary of Commerce under date of May 31, 1938, with certain substitutions, modifications and amendments.

The records pertaining to a request of the War Department for a Special Air Traffic Rule governing aircraft operation in the central and eastern portion of North Carolina during the period of the Joint Anti-Aircraft-Air Corps Exercises to be conducted September 14 to October 22, 1938, inclusive, were transferred to the Authority with the files of the Bureau of Air Commerce pursuant to an Executive Order dated August 22, 1938. The Civil Aeronautics Authority, therefore, acting pursuant to the provisions of Section 601 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 973, 1008), being fully advised in the premises and deeming it necessary for the promotion of safety of flight in air commerce, hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Air Traffic Rule:

A declaration and application pursuant to sections 7 and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 23, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Moore or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before September 20, 1938.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed reorganization and recapitalization of the Republic Electric Power Company of Delaware holding company system. The plan provides for the divestment by the Republic Electric Power Company of securities and other assets of its subsidiaries, for territorial integration, for the simplification of the corporate structure, and the eventual dissolution of the Republic Electric Power Company of Delaware and the Republic Mutual Service Company of California, with the object of meeting the requirements of Section 11 (b) of the Holding Company Act. California Utilities Corporation, Needles Gas and Electric Company, and Weaverville Electric Company will be merged into the Southern Oregon Gas Corporation, which will continue to operate as the surviving corporation under the name California-Pacific Utilities Company. It is proposed that the surviving corporation will acquire all the assets and assume all liabilities of the three corporations which it will absorb. The new corporation will issue a total of $475,000 of bonds, $425,000 of which will be issued to the Republic Electric Power Company and $50,000 to be issued to the Niagara Share Corporation of Maryland in consideration for the cancellation of a like amount of indebtedness due the respective companies by the corporations merged into the surviving corporation.

It is further proposed that the Republic Electric Power Company will execute to the Niagara Share Corporation a non-negotiable 5% demand note the sum of $200,000, secured by demand notes of Apache Gas Company and Gas Transport Company, and all the issued and outstanding stock of the latter companies. The Niagara Company will look to the collateral for collection of the note, and agrees not to transfer or assign the note without first obtaining the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This declaration and application is filed as an amendment and supplements the original declaration and application on which the Commission has already held a public hearing.

By the Commission.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that it waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4860]

INCOME TAX

ARTICLES 167-1 OF REGULATIONS 86 AND 94, AS AMENDED, FURTHER AMENDED

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Subdivisions (b) of articles 167-1 of Regulations 86 and 94,[1] as amended by Treasury Decision 4759,[2] approved September 7, 1937, are further amended to reads as follows:

"(b) Test of taxability to the grantor.—The test prescribed by the Act as to the sufficiency of the grantor's retained interest in the trust income, resulting in the taxation of such income to the grantor, is whether he has failed to divest himself, both permanently and definitively, of every right which might, by any possibility, enable him to have such income, at some time, distributed to him, either actually or constructively. Such a distribution to the grantor occurs within the meaning of section 167 if the income is paid to him or to another in obedience to his direction or if the income is applied in payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the grantor's life.

"For the purposes of this article, the sufficiency of the grantor's retained interest in the income is not affected by the fact that the grantor has provided that the right to so effect or direct the distribution of income is, or may at some future time be, vested in any person (either alone or in conjunction with the grantor) not having a substantial interest in the income adverse to the grantor.

"If the grantor has retained any such interest in the income, such income is taxable to the grantor regardless of—

"(1) whether it may be distributed currently or accumulated for future distribution;

"(2) whether such distribution, either current or subject to accumulation, is fixed by the trust instrument or is dependent on an exercise of discretion;

"(3) whether, if such distribution is in any way effected by or dependent on an exercise of discretion, the person exercising the discretion is the grantor or a person not having a substantial interest in the income adverse to the grantor, or both. A bare legal interest, such as that of a trustee, is never substantial and never adverse;

"(4) the time or times of such distribution, whether within or without the taxable period, whether conditioned on the precedent giving of notice, or on the elapsing of an interval of time, or on the happening of a specified event, or otherwise;

"(5) when the trust was created.

"Thus the inclusion of any trust within the scope of section 167 is based on the fact that the grantor has retained an interest in the income therefrom by which he is, or may be enabled at some time, to receive its benefits. But the provisions of section 167 are not to be regarded as excluding from taxation to the grantor the income of other trusts, not specified therein, in which the grantor is, for the purposes of the Act, similarly regarded as remaining in substance the owner of the trust income. If, for example, trust income is applied in satisfaction of the grantor's legal obligation whether to pay a debt, to support dependents, to pay alimony, to furnish maintenance and support, or otherwise, such income is in all cases taxable to the grantor.

"If the grantor strips himself permanently and definitively of every such interest retained by him, the income of the trust realized after such divesting takes effect is not taxable to the grantor but is taxable as provided in sections 161 and 162.

"A person may have an interest that is both substantial and adverse to the grantor in the disposition of only part of the income. There is to be excluded in computing the net income of the grantor only that part of the trust income in the disposition of which such person has a substantial interest adverse to the grantor."

This Treasury Decision is prescribed pursuant to the provisions of section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1934 and of section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1936.

Whereas, the Commission by Orders issued August 31, 1938, and September 9, 1938,[1] within the above entitled proceedings, directed the Secretary of the Commission to cause the verified cost reports of the individual producers within each of Minimum Price Areas 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9 and 10 to be made available for inspection during business hours on and after September 15, 1938 at the offices of the Commission, Central Savings Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, and Washington, D. Published by the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives, pursuant to the authority contained in the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. L. 500), under regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee, with the approval of the President.

The Administrative Committee consists of the Archivist or Acting Archivist, an officer of the Department of Justice designated by the Attorney General, and the Public Printer or Acting Public Printer.

The daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, for $1 per month or $10 per year; single copies 10 cents each; payable in advance. Remit by money order payable to Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Correspondence concerning the publication of the FEDERAL REGISTER should be addressed to the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives, Washington, D. C.

Ranges 11 and 12 West, Gila and Salt River Meridian, Arizona, were embraced in a first form withdrawal under the provisions of Section 3, Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat., 388), in connection with the Colorado River Storage Project.

Recent surveys under Group 200, Arizona, aproved July 6, 1937, and accepted by the Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office on February 21, 1938, established fractional townships 8 and 9 South, Range 11½ West, Gila and Salt River Meridian, Arizona.

Since it was the intention of Departmental Order of March 14, 1929, to include the lands now designated as fractional townships 8 and 9 South, Range 11½ West, Gila and Salt River Base and Meridian, Arizona, it is recommended that Departmental Order of March 14, 1929, be adjusted to the extent of embracing townships 8 and 9 South, Range 11½ West, Gila and Salt River Base and Meridian, Arizona.

Respectfully,

JOHN C. PAGE,
Commissioner.

I concur:

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner, General Land Office.

SEPTEMBER 2, 1938.

The foregoing recommendation is hereby approved and the Commissioner of the General Land Office will cause the records of his office and the local land office to be noted accordingly.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS GOVERNING PAYMENT OF LOSSES SUSTAINED BY OFFICERS, ENLISTED MEN, AND EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED STATES WHILE IN SERVICE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES ON ACCOUNT OF APPRECIATION OF FOREIGN CURRENCIES IN THEIR RELATION TO THE AMERICAN DOLLAR

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of March 26, 1934, ch. 87, 48 Stat. 466, as amended by the act of August 14, 1937, ch. 627, 50 Stat. 641, I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing payment of losses sustained by officers, enlisted men, and employees of the United States while in service in foreign countries on account of appreciation of foreign currencies in their relation to the American dollar:

DEFINITION

1. (a) The words in the act, "while in service in foreign countries," for the purpose of these regulations shall be understood to mean: (1) while employed in or on assignment or detail to a post of duty in a foreign country, (2) while en route through a foreign country or to and from such post, (3) while during such assignment or detail abroad on leave of absence with pay in a foreign country, or, in connection with allowances for living quarters maintained abroad during leave of absence or while under orders in the United States, (4) while traveling in foreign countries under official orders, or (5) while attached to and serving on board United States vessels, when such vessels are stationed "in foreign waters." A vessel is to be considered "stationed in foreign waters" from the date of first arrival in foreign port or jurisdiction, providing she remains 60 or more consecutive days in foreign waters.

1. (b) As used in these regulations:

The term "net salary" means the base salary, less any deductions for contribution to the retirement or other fund or on account of percentage deductions in compensation or allotment of pay. The term "net allowances" means allowances paid to the employee, including mileage allowance and per diem allowances for dependent members of the employee's family in travel status as well as for the employee himself. The term "net pay and allowances" means the employees full pay, including extra or additional pay, and all allowances (other than those furnished in kind) less deductions therefrom on account of allotments, fines and forfeitures, clothing, hospital, Civil Service Retirement fund, percentage deductions in compensation, and other sundry checkages. The term "country of assignment" means the regular, permanent duty station, as opposed to a temporary duty station or a station of new assignment for which the employee has not departed. Except as otherwise provided in this order, the term "salary and allowances accruing" means the amount being earned and payable at the expiration of regular pay periods, that is, on the fifteenth and last day of each month. The term "salary or allowances earned" means the amounts earned on a daily basis for the actual period involved as distinguished from an accrual of salary and allowances and payment at the expiration of regular pay periods. The term "substantial period of time" means any time over and above that necessary for mere transit through a country, allowing for necessary delays in making transportation connections. The term "allowable transit period" shall be considered to include periods awaiting sailing outside the United States and the time which would ordinarily be consumed in direct transit by the usually traveled route unless indirect travel be authorized for official reasons. The term "assigned to temporary headquarters in a foreign country" refers to employees in a travel status performing special duty at a specific station or stations abroad. The term "detailed for temporary duty to another station" refers to employees having a permanent duty station or headquarters abroad who may be detailed to travel or perform other official duties elsewhere than at such permanent duty station or headquarters. METHOD OF COMPUTATION OF PAYMENT OF LOSSES

2. (a) The loss above referred to is that calculated on the basis of a computation of conversion into foreign currency of the employee's net salary and net allowances, except as provided in the following paragraphs.

2. (b) In case of employees serving under the War and Navy Departments (with the exception of military and naval attachés and other employees attached to their offices, who shall be governed by paragraph (a) of this section), the loss is that calculated on the basis of conversion into foreign currency of the employee's net pay and allowances.

2. (c) In case of employees assigned to temporary headquarters in a foreign country, or traveling in foreign countries under official orders but not employed in or on assignment or detail to a post of duty in a foreign country, all of the employee's net salary and allowances earned outside of the United States shall be included in computing the loss referred to for the purpose of these regulations. Reimbursement in case of employees assigned to temporary headquarters in a foreign country, including reimbursement for losses during allowable transit periods, shall be made only on the basis of the applicable basic rate prescribed for and the rate of exchange obtaining on accrual dates in the country wherein the temporary headquarters are located. In the case of employees traveling and not assigned to temporary headquarters, computation of reimbursable loss shall be made on the basis of the applicable basic rate prescribed and the rate of exchange obtaining on the first day of travel within the country wherein duty is first performed for salary and allowances earned during the transit periods, and on the basis of the rate of exchange obtaining on the first subsequent accrual date for the net salary and allowances earned between date of arrival and the accrual date, subsequent calculations to be computed on accrual dates and payment so made during continuous travel status within the same country. Upon departure for each subsequent duty station abroad the basic rate applicable for computation of reimbursable losses shall be that of the station from which transferred for salary and allowances earned prior to departure therefrom, the date of departure being considered the accrual date, and the basic rate prescribed for the new duty station shall apply to the transit period and period of duty at each new station or country in which duty is performed as hereinabove provided. Upon termination of duty for return to the United States the basic rate for the country in which duty was last performed and the rate prevailing on the date of departure shall apply in determining the reimbursable losses during such allowable transit. Exchange rates obtaining in countries through which the employees perform official travel but no other duty shall uniformly be disregarded.

2. (d) In case of a foreign country in which the loss cannot be calculated on the basis of conversion into the currency of that country but, in consequence of local law or regulations, is required to be calculated on the basis of the appreciation in relation to the dollar of a noncirculating monetary unit in which prices of commodities and services are quoted but not payable—the dollar itself being used in payment therefor—the loss is authorized to be computed on that basis. In case the currency in circulation in a particular province or distinct portion of a foreign country is different from the currency in circulation elsewhere in that country, for which a basic rate is herein prescribed, the exchange losses for such portion of the country may nevertheless be computed upon the basic rate prescribed for the country as a whole.

2. (e) In case of employees employed in or on assignment or detail to posts in countries having local laws and regulations preventing or limiting subsequent to April 1, 1934, conversion of local currency into foreign currency the reimbursable loss on their net salary and net allowances while they are at their post of duty in such country may be computed in the currency of a country other than that in which they are stationed, and the losses so sustained and computed since April 1, 1934, or hereafter sustained and computed in such manner shall be reimbursed, but in no case in an amount greater than would have been reimbursed had their net salary and their net allowances been computed at the rates applicable at the post of duty: PROVIDED, That if in any country having such laws and regulations the rate at which foreign currency may be exchanged into the local currency is fixed on the basis of the currency of a third country, the computation of reimbursable losses is to be based on the applicable basic rate and the rate of exchange prevailing in the third country, the currency of which is used as the basis for the exchange rate of the country of assignment.

2. (f) In case of employees who sustained losses arising from the conversion of salaries or allowances (including those paid from fees either in foreign or American currency) during the period from July 1, 1933, to March 31, 1934, the losses shall be calculated as heretofore. Claims for reimbursement for such losses shall be accompanied by the best evidence available to the employee, of the rate at which conversion was made.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVISORY

3. (a) In cases of employees having a regular station in a foreign coutry, the basic rate for that country shall apply in determining reimbursable losses including those on shipboard during periods of leave and irrespective of the country within which authorized leave is taken outside the United States. Leave outside the United States taken en route to a new post shall be considered as taken while on duty at the new post.

3. (b) Payment of currency-appreciation losses may be made either in foreign currency or in United States currency, considering only the basic rate as fixed by this order and the rate prevailing when the right to payment accrues, and when the amount in American dollars has been so ascertained and paid or when payment is made in foreign currency by a disbursing officer after correct computation at the basic rate of exchange properly applicable, such payment shall constitute payment of such salary and allowances and currency-appreciation loss thereon; and no further computation shall be required.

3. (c) The accrual date for payments such as salary and allowances accruing at regular intervals shall ordinarily be the last day of the month, or in the case of semimonthly payments the fifteenth, PROVIDED, That when for administrative or other reasons it becomes desirable to make payments for fractional periods or at other than the regular date, the last day of the fractional period shall be regarded as the accrual date.

3. (d) In countries where restrictive conditions are applicable to certain legal media of exchange, the use of such currency shall not be insisted upon, but where computation of conversion is made into the currency upon which restricted conditions are imposed the exchange loss shall be computed upon the rates applicable to such currency regardless of whether the employee be regularly assigned or be temporarily traveling in such foreign countries.

3. (e) No losses shall be payable on salary or allowances earned or accrued while an employee is in the United States, except on rent allowances, on which allowance losses are in all cases for computation on the basis of the rate prescribed for application for the countries in which the quarters are being maintained, and this rate shall apply throughout the period such allowances are authorized and payable.

3. (f) In case of the transfer from one duty post to another, losses on salary and allowances accruing to an employee are for reimbursement on the basis of the rate applicable to the new duty station, except that loss on salary and allowances earned up to and including the date of departure and on rent allowances throughout the period authorized and payable at the old post shall be computed at the rate applicable and obtaining to that station on the date of departure: PROVIDED, That should temporary duty be ordered en route to the new regular duty station the rate applicable to the temporary duty station shall govern and computation of losses on salary and allowances earned thereat shall be made considering such temporary station for this purpose as the new duty station including losses computed on salary and allowances earned or accruing en route from the last permanent duty post.

3. (g) In case of employees having regular duty stations abroad who are detailed for temporary duty to another station or are required to travel in performance of official duties in places and countries other than those in which they are stationed, losses on per diem and other allowances accruing by reason of duty at the temporary station are for computation on the basis of the rates applicable to the temporary duty station or the rates applicable to the particular country where the travel and duty are performed, and losses on salary and other allowances with the exception of allowances for living quarters, accruing at their regular duty station during such detail may be computed on the basis of the rates applicable either to the temporary duty station or to the regular duty station as shall be determined and stated in the travel order, except that all losses of an employee such as a courier who is required to perform official travel through other countries and return to his permanent station without stop-over for any substantial period of time are for computation at the rate applicable to his regular duty station.

BASIC EXCHANGE RATES FOR COMPUTATION OF LOSSES

4. For the basis of computation of losses as referred to in the aforesaid acts, the following rates are prescribed as the basic rates for foreign currencies, and hereafter it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State annually to review the basic rates established by this order and amendments thereto and to submit to the President for approval such changes in the basic rates as may be required to give appropriate weight to fluctuations in the appreciation of foreign currencies in their relation to the American dollar.

the State of Colorado and the effect of such transactions upon interstate commerce in such coal; and

It further appearing, that reasonable public notice of a hearing was provided [1] and that at said hearing interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard; that the presiding examiner duly designated by the Commission having filed his report and recommendation and the Commission having given due consideration to said report and recommendations and to the record of the evidence in this proceeding; and the Commission having on the 16th day of September, 1938, made its own report, findings, and conclusions, which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof;

Now, therefore, it is by order declared:

That substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce in the State of Colorado directly affect interstate commerce in such coal; and

That there will be an undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice as between localities in Colorado in such intrastate commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce in bituminous coal on the other hand and an undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in such coal if such transactions in intrastate commerce or any substantial part thereof are not regulated and subjected to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

That on and after the 1st day of November, 1938, all bituminous coal sold, delivered or offered for sale in transactions in intrastate commerce in such coal in all localities within the State of Colorado, shall be subject to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to the Bituminous Coal Code, as promulgated by the Commission and made effective on the 21st day of June, 1937,[2] and to all relevant orders of the Commission in effect on the date of this order, as well as all further orders which may thereafter be issued by the Commission under Section 4 of said Act, so as to apply to such intrastate commerce in coal within the State of Colorado.

2. That any producer of bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Colorado, who may believe that his or its particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal should be exempted from this order and/or from the provisions of Section 4 and 4–A of said Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file application at any time hereafter for exemption pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 4–A of said Act, and be entitled to a hearing and appropriate orders thereon.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice to each known producer of bituminous coal within the State of Colorado, who is not upon the date of this order a member of the Bituminous Coal Code, by mailing, within five (5) days from this date, a copy of this order, together with three (3) copies of the form of code acceptance and rules prescribed by the Commission for filing acceptances, and a copy of the Bituminous Coal Code as promulgated under date of June 21, 1937.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE

AMENDMENT TO REGULATION DESIGNATING AND DEFINING A LINE DIVIDING THE HIGH SEAS FROM RIVERS, HARBORS, AND INLAND WATERS

Pursuant to the authority granted to the Secretary of Commerce under section 2 of the Act of February 19, 1895 (33 U. S. C. 151), the line dividing the high seas from rivers, harbors, and inland waters in Juan de Fuca Strait, Washington and Puget Sounds, as published in "Pilot Rules for Certain Inland Waters of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts and of the Coast of the Gulf of Mexico", edition of March 16, 1938, is hereby altered and a new line is designated and defined. Waters inshore of the line here laid down are "inland waters" and upon them the inland rules and pilot rules made in pursuance thereof apply. Upon the high seas, viz, waters outside of the line here laid down, the international rules apply.

Notices

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Federal Alcohol Administration Division.

CONCESSIONS AT WORLD'S FAIRS

SEPTEMBER 17, 1938.

To all industry members:

Reports have recently reached the Administration, indicating that members of the liquor industry are being importuned to subsidize, through various means, the liquor-selling enterprises to be conducted by concessionaires at the two World's Fairs to be held in New York and San Francisco in 1939. According to the reports mentioned, industry members, particularly distillers, have been promised that their products will be used exclusively or given preference by such concessionaires in return for substantial financial assistance. In order that industry members may avoid violations of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act in connection with these solicitations, the Administration takes this occasion to call attention to the provisions of Section 5 (b) of the Act.

It is unlawful, within the limitations imposed by Section 5 (b), for any industry member, directly or indirectly, to induce a retailer to purchase his products to the exclusion in whole or in part of other products sold or offered for sale in interstate or foreign commerce, by furnishing to the retailer money, services, or other things of value. Concessionaires at the coming expositions in New York and San Francisco, who engage in the sale of alcoholic beverages at retail, are retailers within the meaning of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Consequently, industry members should avoid giving money or other things of value, directly or indirectly, to such retailers in consideration of a promise to promote the sale of their particular brands of distilled spirits, wines or malt beverages.

[SEAL] W. S. ALEXANDER,
Administrator.

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

CONDITION OF THE APPORTIONMENT AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1938

IMPORTANT.—Although the apportioned classified civil service is by law located only in Washington, D. C., it nevertheless includes only about half of the Federal Civilian positions in the District of Columbia. Positions in local post offices, customs districts, and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his State of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from States which are in arrears.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION.

ISTHMIAN STEAMSHIP COMPANY AND DOLLAR STEAMSHIP LINE

HEARING ON OPERATING-DIFFERENTIAL SUBSIDY CONTRACT

At a session of the United States Maritime Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of September, A. D. 1938.

It appearing, That the Isthmian Steamship Company, an American citizen within the definition of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, and operating vessels of United States registry, has filed an application for an operating-differential subsidy contract covering services on a route between North Atlantic ports of the United States via California ports of the United States to China, Philippine Islands, Netherlands East Indies, Straits Settlements, and returning therefrom to North Atlantic ports via Suez Canal, with permission to load at Colombo, Ceylon and Red Sea ports for North Atlantic ports, and with permission to carry eastbound intercoastal cargo from Atlantic Coast ports to California ports of the United States.

It further appearing, That the range of the route covered by the said application may be somewhat broader than that now served by said Isthmian Steamship Company, and that the range is already covered by a citizen of the United States with vessels of United States registry.

It further appearing, That the award of an operating-differential subsidy contract covering the services on the route above mentioned may give an undue advantage or be unduly prejudicial as between said citizens in the operation of vessels in the competitive service above mentioned.

It is ordered, That a public hearing be held, before such member or members of the Commission or such examiner as the Commission may designate, in Washington, D. C., in Conference Room "B", Government Auditorium, on Friday, September 30, 1938, at 10:00 A. M., in accordance with the provisions of Section 605 (c) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and for the purposes therein stated.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served forthwith upon the Isthmian Steamship Company and the Dollar Steamship Line and that notice of said public hearing be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER immediately.

It is further ordered, That the rules of procedure now in force with respect to the Division of Regulation shall be the rules in effect for this hearing in respect to the procedure, intervention of parties and the taking of evidence.

By the Commission.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK—1938

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the many preventable fires which occur each year in the United States cause loss of life or serious injury to thousands of persons; and

WHEREAS hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of property is destroyed annually by fires in this country; and

WHEREAS the great number of fires occurring in homes in the United States emphasizes the urgent need for impressing upon every citizen the fullest realization of individual responsibility for bringing about the curtailment of losses of life and property resulting from fires;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and designate the week beginning October 9, 1938, as Fire Prevention Week, and I urge upon all the people of the nation that they cooperate in the movement to emphasize the disastrous consequences of preventable fires to the end that more effective precautionary measures may be taken to eliminate fire hazards, and thus to safeguard human life and prevent the needless waste of property.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 19th day of September, in the [SEAL] year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-third.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

WAR DEPARTMENT

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE OPENING OF THE HIGHWAY BRIDGE ACROSS SAUGATUCK RIVER AT WESTPORT, CONN.

REVOCATION OF SECTION 3.028

AUGUST 25, 1938.

To: The Secretary of War.

On July 12, 1930 the Secretary of War approved regulations to govern the opening of the drawbridge across the Saugatuck River at Westport, Connecticut. Request was made by the Connecticut State Highway Commissioner for approval of plans for the reconstruction of this drawbridge so as to convert it into a fixed structure. It was found that the needs of navigation at this locality no longer required a drawbridge, and the plans for a fixed bridge were approved by the Secretary of War under date of August 19, 1938. It is therefore recommended that the existing regulations requiring opening of this bridge be revoked.

M. C. TYLER,
Brigadier General,
Acting Chief of Engineers.

Recommendation approved August 27th, 1938.

[SEAL] LOUIS JOHNSON,
Acting Secretary of War.

IN THE MATTER OF REPUBLIC ELECTRIC POWER CORP., OF DEL., SOUTHERN OREGON GAS CORP. OF CALIF., CALIFORNIA UTILITIES CO. OF CALIF., NEEDLES GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. OF CALIF., WEAVERVILLE ELECTRIC CO. OF CALIF., APACHE GAS COMPANY OF NEVADA, GAS TRANSPORT COMPANY OF NEVADA, AND REPUBLIC MUTUAL SERVICE CO. OF CALIF.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING (CORRECTION)[1]

A declaration and application, pursuant to sections 7 and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 23, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Moore or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such manner. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before September 20, 1938.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed reorganization and recapitalization of the Republic Electric Power Corporation of Delaware holding company system. The plan provides for the divestment by the Republic Electric Power Corporation of securities and other assets of its subsidiaries, for territorial integration, for the simplification of the corporate structure, and the eventual dissolution of the Republic Electric Power Corporation of Delaware and the Republic Mutual Service Company of California, with the object of meeting the requirements of Section 11 (b) of the Holding Company Act. California Utilities Company, Needles Gas and Electric Company, and Weaverville Electric Company will be merged into the Southern Oregon Gas Corporation, which will continue to operate as the surviving corporation under the name California-Pacific Utilities Company. It is proposed that the surviving corporation will acquire all the assets and assume all liabilities of the three corporations which it will absorb. The new corporation will issue a total of $475,000 of bonds, $425,000 of which will be issued to the Republic Electric Power Corporation and $50,000 to be issued to the Niagara Share Corporation of Maryland in consideration for the cancellation of a like amount of indebtedness due the respective companies by the corporations merged into the surviving corporation.

It is further proposed that the Republic Electric Power Corporation will execute to the Niagara Share Corporation a non-negotiable 5% demand note the sum of $200,000, secured by demand notes of Apache Gas Company and Gas Transport Company, and all the issued and outstanding stock of the latter companies. The Niagara Company will look to the collateral for collection of the note, and agrees not to transfer or assign the note without first obtaining the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This declaration and application is filed as an amendment and supplements the original declaration and application on which the Commission has already held a public hearing.

By the Commission.

[File Nos. 31-419, 60-1]

IN THE MATTER OF UTILITIES EMPLOYEES SECURITIES COMPANY AND NEW ENGLAND CAPITAL CORPORATION

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO SEPARATE HEARINGS AND TO VACATE ORDER TO CONSOLIDATE HEARINGS

Utilities Employees Securities Company having filed an application with this Commission pursuant to Section 2 (a) (8) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for an order declaring said company and its subsidiary company, New England Capital Corporation, not to be subsidiary companies of certain named companies, and the matter having been set down for hearing to be held on September 15, 1938 at Washington, D. C., and

The Commission having ordered a hearing[1] to be held pursuant to Section 2 (a) (11) (D) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 to determine whether Utilities Employees Securities Company and New England Capital Corporation bear such a relationship to certain specified companies as to constitute affiliates under the provisions of said section of the Act, and the matter having been set down for hearing to be held September 15, 1938 at Washington, D. C., and

The Commission on September 2, 1938[2] having ordered that the said two matters be consolidated for the purpose of hearings thereon but reserving for the Commission the right, if at any time it may appear conducive to an orderly and economic disposition of either of such matters, to order separate hearings with respect to the same or any part thereof or to close the order with respect thereto or to take action thereon prior to closing the record on said other matter, and

Utilities Employees Securities Company on its own behalf and on behalf of New England Capital Corporation having on September 15, 1938 filed with the Commission a written motion to vacate the Commission's order of September 2, 1938 or in the alternative that an order should be made to separate the hearings on said two matters, and

Oral argument on said motion having been heard by the Commission and the motion having been duly considered on its merits, it is the opinion of the Commission:

1. That the primary parties of interest in both the proceedings are Utilities Employees Securities Company and New England Capital Corporation.

2. That the specified parties from whom exemption as a subsidiary company is sought in the application pursuant to Section 2 (a) (8) are four of the six specified companies referred to in the proceedings pursuant to Section 2 (a) (11) (D).

3. That while the ultimate findings of fact and conclusions of law must be separately applied to the determination of each of said proceedings, nevertheless, the proceedings involve common questions of law and fact, and evidence offered with respect to each matter may have a bearing upon the other.

4. That it does not appear that the consolidated hearings will prejudice any rights of the moving parties to a judicial review of an order which may issue in either matter nor obstruct the right of the moving parties to file separate briefs or make separate arguments in support of separate findings in connection with each of said proceedings to this Commission.

5. That by the consolidation of the said matters substantial savings in time and expense, both to the applicants and to the Commission's staff, will result, and the probable need of repetition of similar or identical proof if the matters were separated will be prevented; that a consolidation of matters where such savings may reasonably be anticipated is, in the opinion of the Commission, highly desirable and in conformity with the practice of both courts of law and of equity.

6. That if at any time during the course of the consolidated hearings it may appear conducive to an orderly and economic disposition of either of such matters to separate such hearings with respect to the same, then the Commission, under the reservation contained in the order for consolidation, may so provide.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the motion to vacate the Commission's order of September 2, 1938 or in the alternative that an order be made by this Commission with respect to said two proceedings be, and the same hereby is, denied.

By the Commission.

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATES OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of September 1938.

Acting pursuant to the Authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a) and 401 (b) thereof, and finding that such action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under such Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends Regulation 401–B–1[1] as follows:

[Regulation 402–D–1]

APPLICATION FOR FOREIGN AIR CARRIER PERMITS (GRANDFATHER CLAUSE)

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of September, 1938.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority, exercising the powers and duties vested in it by sub-section (d) of section 402 and by sub-section (a) of section 205 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, and finding that its action is consistent with the provisions of said Act and necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions thereof, hereby makes and promulgates the following regulation:

REGULATION 402–D–1. APPLICATION FOR FOREIGN AIR CARRIER PERMITS (GRANDFATHER CLAUSE)

(a) Scope of regulation.—The application of any foreign air carrier who holds a permit issued by the Secretary of Commerce under section 6 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926, as amended, which was in effect on May 14, 1938, and which permit authorizes such air carrier to operate between any foreign country and the United States, requesting the issuance to it of a permit under the terms of section 402 (c) of the Act, shall be filed with the Civil Aeronautics Authority at its office in Washington, D. C., and shall comply with the provisions of this regulation. Regulations for applications for foreign air carrier permits by others than those entitled thereto under the terms of section 402 (c) of the Act will hereafter be prescribed by the Authority.

(b) Number of copies.—Ten copies of each such application shall be filed with the Authority. Only two of such copies need be actually executed on behalf of the applicant. The names and titles of all signing officers shall be clearly typed or printed beneath their signatures. All unexecuted copies filed with the Authority shall contain typed, printed or facsimile signatures. Each copy must be clear and legible in all respects.

(c) Verification.—The signed copies of each application shall be verified by three of applicant's officers who shall be respectively the chief executive, the chief financial and the chief operating officer. In the event of the unavailability of any such officer, the acting officer charged with responsibility for his duties may execute such verification in his stead. Every such verification shall set forth that the persons verifying the same have read and are familiar with the contents of the application and the attached exhibits; that they intend and desire that in granting or denying the rights and privileges applied for, the Authority shall place full and complete reliance on the accuracy of each and every statement therein set forth; that to the best of their information and belief, every statement contained in the application is true and no such statement is misleading; and that, in their opinion, the application does not omit to state any facts known to them which would be deemed by the Authority to be of importance to it in reaching its determinations in connection therewith. Every such verification shall be subscribed and sworn to before a Notary Public or other officer (including any United States consular officer) authorized to administer oaths in the jurisdiction in which such application is executed. Notwithstanding the laws of the country of applicant's citizenship, an application verified before a United States consular officer will be deemed to have met the requirements of this paragraph.

(d) Service of notice.—State that the applicant has caused a notice of its intention to file such application with the Authority to be served upon each scheduled air carrier and foreign air carrier shown on a list or lists of such air carriers or foreign air carriers, or both, issued by the Authority after September 15, 1938. Each such notice shall state the name and address of the applicant, the route or routes over which, and the terminal and intermediate points between which, the applicant conducts or proposes to conduct operations, and the classes of traffic to be embraced within the permit for which application is made. The application shall state that service of such notice has been made either by delivery of a copy thereof personally to each such air carrier and foreign air carrier or by the mailing thereof by registered mail post-paid, giving the date of such delivery or mailing. A copy of such notice shall be attached to the application as an exhibit. The application need not be accompanied by any further proof of service but upon setting any application down for public hearing, the Authority will cause notice of such hearing to be given to such interested parties as it deems appropriate in the particular case.

(e) Amendments to application.—If, after receipt of any application, the Authority shall request the applicant to supply it with additional information, such information shall be furnished in the form of an amendment to the original application. All such amendments shall be consecutively numbered and shall comply with the requirements of this regulation as to form, number of copies, manner of execution, verification, and in all other essential respects. In the event that an application shall be amended so as to alter the route or routes, the terminal or intermediate points, or the classes of traffic, covered by such application, the amendment shall contain a statement that notice of such amendment has been served on each such air carrier and foreign air carrier in the form and manner, and containing the information, required by paragraph (d) for the service of notice of intention to file an original application. A copy of each such notice shall be attached to the amendment as an exhibit.

(f) Formal requirements.—Every application for a foreign air carrier permit shall be made on paper approximately 8½ x 13 inches in size, except that exhibits or other documents attached thereto may be folded to those dimensions. Every such application shall be typewritten, printed or reproduced by some other process which will produce a clear and durable result on firm, tough paper. A margin of at least one inch in width shall be left on the left hand side of all pages and all applications must be bound on that side. All pages of an application shall be consecutively numbered and the application shall clearly describe and identify each exhibit by a separate number or symbol. All exhibits shall be deemed to constitute a part of the application to which they are attached.

(g) Time of filing.—An application shall be deemed to have been filed only when it is actually received by the Civil Aeronautics Authority at its office in Washington, D. C.

(i) Contents of application.—The statements contained in an application shall be restricted to significant and relevant facts. They shall be free from argumentation, and, except as may be required by this regulation, any expression of opinion. Opportunity for argument will be given in the subsequent proceedings.

Each application shall give full and adequate information with respect to each of the items set forth in this paragraph of this regulation. In addition, the application may contain such other information and data as the applicant shall deem necessary or appropriate in order to acquaint the Authority fully with the particular circumstances of its case. Among other things, every such application shall give the following information:

1. The full name and address of the applicant, the nature of its organization (individual, partnership, corporation, etc.) and, if other than an individual, the name of the country under the laws of which it is organized, and the statutory citation of such laws, if any. If the applicant is governmentally-owned, that fact should be shown, or if jointly owned by governmental and private interests the percentage owned by each.

2. The name, title, address and citizenship of the principal officers and members of applicant's managing board, and if a partnership, of the members of the applicant.

3. The name and official address of the competent air authority of applicant's country of citizenship having regulatory jurisdiction over applicant.

4. If applicant's country of citizenship, or of organization, or of the country or countries from which applicant proposes to conduct an air transportation service to the United States, requires applicant to obtain authorization from it to engage in such air transportation service, a statement or statements that such authorizations or consents have been obtained, briefly setting forth the nature and conditions thereof.

5. A statement as to whether applicant's country of citizenship or of organization, or the country or countries from which applicant proposes to conduct an air transportation service to the United States;

(A) has entered into a reciprocal agreement with the United States providing for the routes and services to be covered by the permit for which application is made;

(B) has entered into a reciprocal air navigation arrangement with the United States, or is the signatory to an international convention covering the subjects of such reciprocal air navigation arrangements to which the United States is a party.

6. A statement as to whether all airmen employed in the proposed service are required to and at all times will be possessed of appropriate airman certificates or licenses qualifying them to engage in the type of operation for which a permit is sought.

7. A statement setting forth the methods to be employed by applicant which will provide that the crews or some members thereof, or the ground personnel stationed in the United States shall be possessed of such linguistic ability as to insure effective voice communication between the aircraft and the ground station located at the port of entry of the United States.

8. A statement as to whether all aircraft employed in the proposed service are required to be and at all times will be possessed of certificates of airworthiness issed by the competent air authority having regulatory jurisdiction over such aircraft. The statement should also include the name of the country issuing such certificates. List all aircraft employed in the service, indicating ownership, make, model and type, license or certificate number, and international markings, number, make and type of engines, number of crew and passenger capacity. Briefly describe the aircraft employed in the service to be covered by the permit for which application is made and indicate generally the nature of appliances with which the aircraft is or will be equipped. State particularly whether all such aircraft are or will be equipped with:

(a) one or two-way radio,
(b) radio range beacon receiver, and
(c) a two-way radio telephone communication system.

9. Identify route or routes to be covered by the permit for which application is made, specifying the type or types of service (mail, passengers and property) to be rendered on each such route, and whether or not such services are to be rendered in scheduled operations. If the applicant carries mail under contract with the United States Government state briefly the terms of such contract. The identification of each route shall name every terminal and intermediate point to be served by applicant in connection with the service for which a permit is sought.

10. A map (to be attached as an exhibit) drawn approximately to scale, showing all terminal and intermediate points, both in the United States and in all foreign countries to be served by applicant in connection with the service for which this permit is sought, giving the approximate air mileages between all adjacent points, and principal over-all distances. This map should indicate all of such points which are now served by other foreign or by domestic air carriers, indicating by arrows the directions flown by such interconnecting carriers and indicating their principal terminals. This map should also show the routes flown and points served by any other air carrier which might reasonably be considered to offer a service competing with that which is the subject of the application.

11. A brief description (including a statement of the frequency of schedules) of the operations of the applicant and of any of its predecessors in interest since May 14, 1938. The application shall state that a permit for the service applied for was issued by the Secretary of Commerce under section 6 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926, as amended, giving the date thereof, and that such permit was in effect on May 14, 1938.

12. State whether the applicant filed with the Authority a designation in writing of an agent for the purposes specified in, and as required by, section 1005 (b) of the Act.

By the Authority.

1. Filing, Posting and Publishing of Tariffs

(a) Who may file.—A tariff specifying single-sum rates[1] for service by one air carrier[2] shall be known as a "local tariff". A tariff specifying single-sum rates for service partly by one air carrier and partly by one or more other air carriers shall be known as a "joint tariff". A local tariff or a joint tariff may be filed with the Authority by an air carrier, or through any duly authorized agent.

(b) Designation of Agent.—An air carrier may designate any one or more agents (who may be, but are not required to be, officers and employees of such carrier) to file tariffs or concurrences on its behalf with the Authority by giving such agent or agents a power of attorney and by filing such power of attorney with the Authority. Such agent or agents are sometimes referred to in this regulation as the "designated agent" or the "designated agents". There shall be enclosed with each such power of attorney the signature and the initials of each designated agent therein named, certified by the secretary (or person authorized to perform similar functions) of such air carrier as being the signature and the initials of such designated agent. If more than one agent be designated by any air carrier in any such power of attorney so filed, such power of attorney must contain provisions authorizing each such agent to act alone, or requiring two or more of such agents to act jointly, in filing any tariff with the Authority. Each such power of attorney so filed with the Authority by an air carrier shall be binding until notice of revocation thereof is filed with the Authority by such air carrier. An illustrative form of such a power of attorney is set forth in Appendix A hereto.

(c) Method of filing.—Each air carrier shall transmit to the Authority at its office in Washington, D. C., three (3) copies of each tariff, such copies to be included in one package and under one letter of transmittal. An illustrative form of letter of transmittal is set forth in Appendix B hereto. The word "Tariffs" must appear on the outside of the package. No tariff will be received by the Authority unless it is free from all charges, including claims for postage. The copies of each tariff filed must bear on the cover or title page the signature of the air carrier or of its designated agent or agents, and the copies of each revised page of a loose-leaf tariff filed must bear, at some place other than in the left-hand margin, the signature or the initials of the air carrier or its designated agent or agents.

(d) Method of posting and publishing.—A copy of the tariff issued by each air carrier shall be posted and published by the air carrier in a conspicuous place in each of its general offices, and in each office maintained by it, individually or jointly with others, for the sale of passenger tickets, or for the receipt or delivery of property for transit, at each point named in the tariff. The copies so posted and published shall be readily accessible for public examination.

(e) Effect of filing.—The filing of a tariff with the Authority in no way relieves an air carrier from liability for any violation of the Act or of regulations issued thereunder.

2. Form of Tariff

(a) Size and binding.—Tariff pages shall be eight and one-half by eleven inches in size. In the case of tariffs covering express only, pages may be nine and one-half by eleven and one-half inches in size. Tariffs shall be in book, pamphlet, or loose-leaf form and bound or securely fastened along the left-hand side. A margin of at least one inch in width must be left blank along the left-hand side of all pages included in the tariff.

(b) Paper and preparation.—Tariffs in book or pamphlet form must appear on firm, tough paper of durable quality, and must be clear, legible and in such form as may easily be read and understood. Pages of loose-leaf tariffs may consist of thin paper of strong texture, blank on one side. Cover pages may consist of cover stock of durable quality. All pages other than the cover page shall be plainly printed in not less than 8-point bold or full face type, except that reference marks, footnotes, and explanations relating to the tables or text on any page, may be printed in not less than 6-point bold or full face type, and except further that stereotype, mimeograph, planograph, or other similar durable process may be used if each copy filed, posted and published is clear and legible in all respects. Reproductions by hectograph, or other similar process, typewritten sheets, or proof sheets may not be filed or posted. Copies of tariffs posted and which the air carrier shall keep open to public inspection as required by this regulation shall be replaced as often as may be necessary with fresh copies in order that such copies shall be complete and legible. No alterations in writing or erasures shall be made in any tariff after such tariff shall have been filed with the Authority.

(c) Numbering of pages.—All pages of each tariff, other than the cover or title page, must be consecutively numbered "1", "2", etc., except that page numbering in the case of a loose-leaf tariff containing a check sheet shall be as provided in Rules 3 (e) and 4 (a) of this regulation.

3. Contents of Tariff

(a) In general.—No tariff may contain any advertising except the trade marks, insignia, maps, or slogans of the issuing and concurring air carriers. Statements of rates, classifications, rules, regulations, practices and services, and explanations of reference marks, shall be as clear and simple as possible. No air carrier may issue or concur in a tariff if such tariff would when effective conflict with another effective tariff issued by it or in which it has concurred.

(b) Separation of passenger and property rates.—If the same tariff shall contain both rates for the transportation of passengers and for the transportation of property, other than the property of passengers carried as baggage, such rates shall be separated into distinct passenger and property sections.

(c) Cover or title page.—Either the cover or title page of each tariff must contain sufficient information to identify and describe clearly the tariffs contained therein and their application. Illustrations of cover or title pages are set forth in Appendices C and D hereto. The cover or title page of a loose-leaf tariff should contain only such information as will remain constant even though particular rates may be changed from time to time. Tariffs must be given consecutive numbers by the air carrier with the prefix "CAA" in the upper right hand corner of the cover or title page; but the air carrier's own tariff number may be shown elsewhere.

[1] The word "rates" as used in this regulation includes "fares" and "charges" unless the context otherwise requires.

[2] The words "air carrier" as used in this regulation include "foreign air carrier".

(d) Contents of inside pages.—Each tariff must contain:

Table of contents.—A full and complete statement of the exact location where information respecting each subject of the tariff will be found, specifying page or item numbers. If a tariff contains so small a volume of matter that its cover or title page or its arrangement plainly discloses its contents, the table of contents may be omitted.

Names of carriers.—The exact names, alphabetically arranged, of all air carriers over whose lines the tariff is applicable, together with an identification of any concurrences under which such tariff is issued, unless such information is fully shown on the cover or title page.

Description of commodities.—A full and complete statement or description of the commodities (including a definition of baggage) within the scope of the tariff.

Index of stations.—Separate alphabetical indexes of all points of origin and all destinations named in the tariff, except that one index will suffice when the tariff is applicable in both directions, and except further that if the points of origin and the destinations are shown throughout the tariff in continuous alphabetical order, the index may be omitted.

Explanation of reference marks, etc.—Separate and clear explanations of symbols, reference marks and abbreviations of terms used throughout the tariff, except that explanation of a symbol, reference mark or abbreviation used only on one page of the tariff may be shown on that page.

Rules governing tariffs.—A statement of such classifications, rules, regulations, practices, and services in connection with air transportation, and explanatory statements, separately stated by subjects, regarding the contents of the tariffs (including explanatory statements governing canceled or interrupted trips and charges for excess baggage and a statement that, except as otherwise indicated in the tariff, rates do not include any charge for ground transportation from airports to any town or city) as may be necessary to make clear beyond doubt the proper application and effect of such tariffs.

Statement of rates.—Following the foregoing, the tariff shall set forth, in a simple and systematic manner, a statement of all rates for air transportation of passengers and property (separated as required by this regulation). All places to and from which, or between which, such rates apply (completely identified by reference to the States or other governmental units in which such places are located) must be stated. In addition to rates required by the Act to be included in the tariff, rates between points in the same or different foreign countries may be included for information.

Free or reduced rate transportation.—Rules and rates relating to free and reduced rate transportation need not be included in the tariff unless specifically required by the Authority.

(e) Loose-leaf tariffs.—In addition to the matter required by paragraph (d) of this Rule 3, a loose-leaf tariff shall contain a sheet or sheets, to be known as "check sheets," by which all currently effective pages of the tariff may be identified. Each page of such a tariff must show, at the top, the name of the issuing air carrier, the word "Original" or the revision number and the number of the tariff preceded by the prefix "C. A. A." and, at the bottom, the date of issue and the effective date.

4. Changes in Tariffs

(a) Methods of making.—Any changes in a tariff must be made by supplements thereto or by a reissue thereof except that any changes in loose-leaf tariffs must be made by substituting pages on which changes are made (the substituted page to bear the notation "Substitute for Original Page —"), or new pages may be inserted bearing the same number, if any, as the pages which they are to follow, with a letter added, as "4-a", or bearing new numbers if such new pages follow the last numbered page of the tariff. All new pages (as distinguished from substitute pages) of a loose-leaf tariff must be designated "Original" when first filed. Notice of every such change and of the date when the same is to become effective, together with copies of such substituted or new pages as aforesaid, shall be filed with the Authority within such time prior to the effective date thereof as is prescribed by section 403 (c) of the Act. Similar notice and copies shall also be posted and published in the same manner and at the same places as required for the original posting and publishing of a tariff. Any notice of such a proposed change filed too late to give the Authority the notice required by the Act is subject to rejection and return. No consideration will be given to telegraphic or other advice of the dispatch of notice of any such proposed change to the Authority, or to the time during which such change may be in transit to the Authority.

(b) Status of supplements.—Supplements to a tariff, and substitute, or new, pages of a loose-leaf tariff, are subject to this regulaton in the same manner and to the same extent as original tariffs, except that substitute pages of loose-leaf tariffs must be designated as "1st Revision", "2d Revision," etc., and except further that supplements to the same tariff shall be consecutively numbered, and the cover or title page of each supplement shall show the number thereof above the CAA number of the tariff, as:

SUPPLEMENT NO. 4
(Cancels Supplements Nos. 1 and 3) to Tariff CAA No. —

(Supplements Nos. 2 and 4 contain all changes from the original tariff which will be effective on the effective date hereof.)

(c) Cancelation of tariff.—Cancelation of a tariff in its entirety must be by supplement, filed, posted and published, as herein provided, solely for that purpose, which must show where any rates substituted for the rates named in the canceled tariff will be found after such cancelation becomes effective, or that no rates will thereafter be in effect, together with the reason therefor. Such cancelation of a tariff also cancels all supplements thereto in effect at the time such cancelation becomes effective. Cancelation of a portion of a tariff or supplement must be specific. The filing, posting and publishing, as herein provided, of a revised page of a loose-leaf tariff automatically cancels the original or immediately preceding revision of the page as of the effective date of such revised page. Rates may not be restored by cancelation of a cancelation supplement but must be filed, posted and published as if the same were new rates.

(d) Designation of changes.—Changes made in tariffs and supplements on file with the Authority must be uniformly indicated by the use of the following symbols:

↓ to denote reductions in rates.
◆ to denote increases in rates.
▲ to denote changes in wording which result in neither increases nor reductions in rates.
● to denote no change.

These symbols must be shown and explained in the tariff or supplement in which used and must not be used for any other purpose. Use of the symbols may be reduced by appropriate notation conspicuously and distinctively shown on the tariff, supplement, or individual page thereof, as "All rates in this supplement are increases, unless otherwise indicated." "All matter in this tariff is reissued without change, unless otherwise indicated, from CAA No. —, effective December —, 1938, except as noted in individual items."

(e) Volume of supplemental matter.—The aggregate volume of supplemental matter currently in effect should not exceed approximately one-third of the volume of the principal tariff. The Authority may direct the reissue of any tariffs at any time.

5. Effecting Filing of Joint Tariffs

(a) Concurrence in joint tariffs.—No air carrier may file a tariff naming rates for service partly by it and partly by another air carrier or other air carriers without the concurrences of the latter.

(b) Contents and disposition of concurrences.—Three signed copies of each concurrence must be issued. One original counterpart thereof must be filed with the Authority with the first joint tariff issued thereunder; another original counterpart thereof must be retained by the air carrier or agent to whom such concurrence is issued; and a third original counterpart thereof must be retained by the concurring air carrier. An illustrative form of concurrence is set forth in Appendix E hereto.

(c) Posting and publishing of concurrences unnecessary.—Concurrences specified in this Rule need not be posted or published in the tariffs issued thereunder.

(d) Effect of giving concurrence.—The granting of authority to issue tariffs under concurrences does not relieve the air carrier granting such authority from the necessity of complying with the law in respect of the posting and publishing of all joint tariffs to which it is a party at all points at which it is required to post and publish its own local tariffs; nor does it confer upon the air carrier, to whom a concurrence is granted, authority to cancel any tariffs other than joint ones. Cancelation of such other tariffs must be made by the air carrier issuing them either for itself or through its designated agent or agents.

(e) Copies of tariffs to participating carriers.—Copies of each tariff issued under concurrences specified in this regulation must be sent by the air carrier issuing the tariff to each air carrier that is named as concurring therein at the same time such tariffs are delivered or transmitted to the Authority.

(f) Revocation.—Any air carrier which has concurred in a joint tariff may revoke its concurrence therein by filing with the Authority not less than 45 days before the effective date of such revocation a notice of revocation substantially in the form set forth in Appendix F hereto. A copy of such notice must be sent at the same time to the air carrier to whom such concurrence was given. The notice must definitely identify the concurrence revoked and must specify the date such revocation is to become effective.

(g) Designation of junction points.—Unless otherwise specifically provided in the tariff, joint tariffs will apply via any junction point between points of origin and destination which is served by the air carriers making the rates available. Restriction of rates to designated junctions must be clear and definite and must be shown in as simple and systematic manner as possible.

6. Application of Rates

(a) Methods of stating rates.—Rates for transportation by aircraft from airport to airport must be stated separately from any charge made by the air carrier for ground transportation to or from airports or for pick-up and delivery service. The tariff must definitely show any separate charge that is to be made by the air carrier or any subsidiary thereof for ground transportation or for pick-up and delivery service. Charges of others for such ground transportation or pick-up and delivery service may be specified in the tariff and shall not be deemed to constitute a part thereof; Provided, That they are accompanied by conspicuous notation to the effect that they are published for information only and are not guaranteed by the air carrier.

(b) Combination rates.—The rates named in a tariff will apply only for service between the points specified therefor in the tariff, except that such rates may be made applicable for through service beyond such points by providing an appropriate rule in the tariff to the effect that such rates may be used in combination with rates of other air carriers for through service beyond the points named in the tariff.

7. Effect of Suspension by Authority

(a) Suspension supplement. — Upon entry by the Authority of an order suspending the operation of any tariff, in whole or in part, and upon service thereof upon the air carrier who issued such tariff, such air carrier must immediately file with the Authority a "suspension supplement", which must also be posted and published in the manner prescribed in this regulation. Such supplement must quote the pertinent portions of the order of suspension which describe the matter suspended, and must state that such matter is under suspension and may not be used until such specified date as the suspension order may name and that the rates theretofore in effect (which must be clearly identified) and sought to be changed by the matter suspended will remain in effect until lawfully changed. The CAA numbers of the tariffs or supplements where such rates so continued in effect may be found must be shown. A suspension supplement must not bear an effective date.

(b) Changes during suspension.—During the period of suspension, a suspended rate may not be changed or withdrawn, nor may any change be made in the rate continued in effect as a result of such suspension, except under order or special permission of the Authority. Notation to this effect must be included in the suspension supplement.

(c) Vacation of suspension.—When an order of suspension is vacated or otherwise ceases to be effective as of a date earlier than the date to which the operation of the tariff, or portion thereof, was suspended, the air carrier issuing such tariff, or portion thereof, may file and post on not less than one day's notice, unless otherwise provided by the vacating order, a supplement stating the date upon which, in accordance with the terms of the vacating order, such tariff, or portion thereof, will become effective; otherwise such tariff, or portion thereof, will become effective at the expiration of the suspension period. No further supplement need be filed and posted if the order of suspension is vacated as of the expiration of the suspension period.

(d) Expiration of suspension period before order of Authority.—If the suspension period expires before the Authority has entered an order vacating its order of suspension or directing cancelation of the suspended tariff, or portion thereof, such suspended matter will become effective as of the expiration of the suspension period without further action by the air carrier or agent. The Authority may later direct the cancelation of matter thus becoming effective. Cancelation ordered by the Authority, whether prior or subsequent to the expiration of the suspension period, must be made effective by filing, posting and publishing an appropriate reissue of the tariff, a supplement thereto, or (if the tariff is in loose-leaf form) a revised page thereof.

8. Rates Prescribed by the Authority

Rates prescribed by order of the Authority shall be filed, posted and published by the air carriers subject to such order in accordance with the terms of such order and this regulation; and separate notice must be sent to the Secretary of the Authority for filing in the docket in which such order was entered to the effect that "the order of the Authority in Docket No. — has been complied with in Item No. —, page No. — of —— (identifying description of tariff)". Such notice must be sent at the same time the tariff is tendered for filing, but must not accompany such tariff.

9. Changes in Air Carriers

The successor to the property or operating control of an air carrier, whether by change of name, consolidation, merger, operating contract, or in any other legal manner, may (subject to the provisions of any order or regulation which may be issued by the Authority under section 408 of the Act) adopt the tariffs to which the air carrier is a party by filing, posting and publishing therewith on not less than one day's notice an "adoption supplement," in the form required for supplements by these regulations, which, after clearly identifying such tariffs, must contain the following provision:

---------- (legal name of successor) hereby adopts, ratifies, and makes its own, in every respect as if the same had been filed, posted and published by it, the tariff specified above, filed with the Civil Aeronautics Authority by ---------- (corporate name of air carrier succeeded).

No further supplement to tariffs so adopted may be filed, and such tariffs must be replaced by a tariff filed, posted and published by the successor to be effective not more than 60 days from the effective date of the adoption supplement.

10. Exemptions From Filing, Posting and Publishing Requirements

An air carrier seeking to file, post and publish rates on less notice than that required by the Act (except as specifically authorized in this regulation), or seeking exemptions from any of the requirements of this regulation, shall file with the Authority an application, in triplicate, stating fully the nature of the relief sought and the reasons for seeking such relief. Such applications shall be entitled "Application for Special Tariff Permission No. —" and shall be consecutively numbered. Each subject should usually be covered by a separate application. The filing of such application will not stay the requirements of the Act or of this regulation; specific action by the Authority on the application is essential to effect any such stay.

By the Authority.

Secretary.

NOTE.—For powers of attorney to be given by air carriers doing business other than in corporate form, appropriate changes may be made in the foregoing suggested form. If the air carrier desires to have two or more agents file any tariff, appropriate provisions to that effect may be inserted.

If it is desired to limit the authority conferred by the power of attorney to the filing of a particular tariff, or to concurring in a particular tariff, provision may be made to that effect provided that identification of such tariff is clear and complete.

TITLE 31—MONEY AND FINANCE: TREASURY.

OFFICE OF THE SECETARY

[T. D. 4861]

EXCESS PROFITS ON NAVY CONTRACTS

GUARANTEE EXPENSES, BIDDING AND GENERAL SELLING EXPENSES, EXCESS FACILITIES, BONUSES TO EMPLOYEES, ALLOCATION OF INDIRECT COSTS, TIME FOR FILING ANNUAL REPORTS

To Officers and Employees of the Treasury Department, the Navy Department, and Others Concerned:

PARAGRAPH A. Article 8 (b) of Treasury Decision 4723,[1] approved December 31, 1936, by the Acting Secretary of the Treasury and approved January 6, 1937, by the Acting Secretary of the Navy (C. B. 1937–1, 519), relating to elements of cost, is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Elements of cost.—No definitions of the elements of cost may be stated which are of invariable application to all contractors and subcontractors. In general, the elements of cost may be defined for purposes of the Act as follows:

"(1) Manufacturing cost, which is the sum of factory cost (see paragraph (c) of this article) and other manuacturing cost (see paragraph (d) of this article);

"(2) Cost of installation and construction (see paragraph (e) of this article);

"(3) General expenses, which are the sum of indirect engineering expenses, usually termed 'engineering overhead' (see paragraph (f) of this article) and expenses of distribution, servicing and administration (see paragraph (g) of this article); and

"(4) Guarantee expenses (see paragraph (h) of this article)."

PAR. B. Article 8 (g) of Treasury Decision 4723, as amended by Treasury Decision 4741,[2] approved June 1, 1937, by the Acting Secretary of the Treasury and approved June 3, 1937, by the Secretary of the Navy (C. B. 1937–1, 531), relating to expenses of administration, is amended to read as follows:

"(g) Expenses of distribution, servicing and administration.—Expenses of distribution, servicing and administration, which are treated in this article as a part of general expenses in determining the cost of performing a contract or subcontract (see pargraph (b) of this article), comprehend the expenses incident to and necessary for the performance of the contract or subcontract, which are incurred in connection with the distribution and general servicing of the contracting party's products and the general administration of the business, such as—

"(1) Compensation for personal services of employees.—The salaries of the corporate and general executive officers and the salaries and wages of administrative clerical employees and of the office services employees (telephone operators, janitors, cleaners, watchmen and office equipment repairmen).

"(2) Bidding and general selling expenses.—Bidding and general selling expenses which by reference to all the pertinent facts and circumstances reasonably constitute a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract. The treatment of bidding and general selling expenses as a part of general expenses in accordance with this paragraph is in lieu of any direct charges which otherwise might be made for such expenses. The term 'bidding expenses' as used in this article includes all expenses in connection with preparing and submitting bids.

"(3) General servicing expenses.—Expenses which by reference to all the pertinent facts and circumstances reasonably constitute a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract and which are incident to delivered or installed articles and are due to ordinary adjustments or minor defects; but including no items which are treated as a part of guarantee expenses (see paragraph (h) of this article) or as a part of direct costs, such as direct materials, direct labor, and other direct expense.

"(4) Other expenses.—Miscellaneous office and administrative expenses, such as stationery and office supplies; postage; repair and depreciation of office equipment; employees' welfare expenses; premiums and dues on compensation insurance; employers' payments to unemployment, old age and social security Federal and State funds not including payments deducted from or chargeable to employees or officers; pensions and retirement payments to administrative office employees and accident compensation to office employees (as to self-insurance, see the following subparagraph); but including no items which are not incidental to activities necessary for the performance of the contract or subcontract.

"Subject to the exception stated in this subparagraph, in cases where a contracting party assumes its own insurable risks (usually termed 'self-insurance'), losses and payments will be allowed in the cost of performing a contract or subcontract only to the extent of the actual losses suffered or payments incurred during, and in the course of, the performance of the contract or subcontract and properly chargeable to such contract or subcontract. If a contracting party assumes its own insurable risks (a) for compensation paid to employees for injuries received in the performance of their duties, or

[2] 2 F. R. 977 (1163 DI).

(b) for unemployment risks in States where insurance is required, there may be allowed as a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract a reasonable portion of the charges set up for purposes of self-insurance under a system of accounting regularly employed by the contracting party, as determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, at rates not exceeding the lawful or approved rates of insurance companies for such insurance, reduced by amounts representing the acquisition cost in such companies, providing the contracting party adopts and consistently follows this method with respect to self-insurance in connection with all contracts and subcontracts subsequently performed by him.

"Allowances for interest on invested capital are not allowable as costs of performing a contract or subcontract.

"Among the items which shall not be included as a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract or considered in determining such cost, are the following: Entertainment expenses; dues and memberships other than of regular trade associations; donations; losses on other contracts; profits or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets; extraordinary expenses due to strikes or lockouts; fines and penalties; amortization of unrealized appreciation of values of assets; expenses, maintenance and depreciation of excess facilities (including idle land and buildings, idle parts of a building, and excess machinery and equipment) vacated or abandoned, or not adaptable for future use in performing contracts or subcontracts; increases in reserve accounts for contingencies, repairs, compensation insurance (except as above provided with respect to self-insurance) and guarantee work; Federal and State income and excess-profits taxes and surtaxes; cash discount earned up to one percent of the amount of the purchase, except that all discounts on subcontracts subject to the Act will be considered; interest incurred or earned; bond discount or finance charges; income from royalties; premiums for life insurance on the lives of officers; legal and accounting fees in connection with reorganizations, security issues, capital stock issues and the prosecution of claims against the United States (including income tax matters); taxes and expenses on issues and transfers of capital stock; losses on investments; bad debts; and expenses of collection and exchange.

"In order that the cost of performing a contract or subcontract may be accounted for clearly, the amount of any excess profits repayable to the United States pursuant to the Act should not be charged to or included in such cost."

PAR. C. Article 8 of Treasury Decision 4723 is amended by eliminating paragraph (h) of such article and by inserting in such article (in lieu of the paragraph so eliminated) the following new paragraphs (h), (i), and (j):

"(h) Guarantee expenses.—Guarantee expenses include the various items of factory cost, other manufacturing cost, cost of installation and construction, indirect engineering expenses and other general expenses (see paragraphs (c) to (g), inclusive, of this article) which are incurred after delivery or installation of the article manufactured or constructed pursuant to the particular contract or subcontract and which are incident to the correction of defects or deficiencies which the contracting party is required to make under the guarantee provisions of the particular contract or subcontract. If the total amount of such guarantee expenses is not ascertainable at the time of filing the report required to be filed with the collector of internal revenue (see articles 15 and 16) and the contracting party includes any estimated amount of such expenses as part of the claimed total cost of performing the contract or subcontract, such estimated amount shall be separately shown on the report and the reasons for claiming such estimated amount shall accompany the report; but only the amount of guarantee expenses actually incurred will be allowed. If the amount of guarantee expenses actually incurred is greater than the amount (if any) claimed on the report and the contracting party has made an overpayment of excess profit, a refund of the overpayment shall be made in accordance with the provisions of article 19. If the amount of guarantee expenses actually incurred is less than the amount claimed on the report and an additional amount of excess profit is determined to be due, the additional amount of excess profit shall be assessed and paid in accordance with the provisions of article 19.

"(i) Unreasonable compensation.—The salaries and compensation for services which are treated as a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract include reasonable payments for salaries, bonuses, or other compensation for services. As a general rule, bonuses paid to employees (and not to officers) in pursuance of a regularly established incentive bonus system may be allowed as a part of the cost of performing a contract or subcontract.

"The test of allowability is whether the aggregate compensation paid to each individual is for services actually rendered incident to, and necessary for, the performance of the contract or subcontract, and is reasonable. Excessive or unreasonable payments whether in cash, stock or other property ostensibly as compensation for services shall not be included in the cost of performing a contract or subcontract.

"(j) Allocation of indirect costs.—No general rule applicable to all cases may be stated for ascertaining the proper proportion of the indirect costs to be allocated to the cost of performing a particular contract or subcontract. Such proper proportion depends upon all the facts and circumstances relating to the performance of the particular contract or subcontract. Subject to a requirement that all items which have no relation to the performance of the contract or subcontract shall be eliminated from the amount to be allocated, the following methods of allocation are outlined as acceptable in a majority of cases:

"(1) Factory indirect expenses.—The allowable indirect factory expenses (see paragraph (c) (5) of this article) shall ordinarily be allocated or 'distributed' to the cost of the contract or subcontract on the basis of the proportion which the direct productive labor (see paragraph (c) (2) of this article) attributable to the contract or subcontract bears to the total direct productive labor of the production department or particular section thereof during the period within which the contract or subcontract is performed, except that if the indirect factory expenses are incurred in different amounts and in different proportions by the various producing departments consideration shall be given to such circumstances to the extent necessary to make a fair and reasonable determination of the true profit and excess profit.

"(2) Engineering indirect expenses.—The allowable indirect engineering expenses (see paragraph (f) of this article) shall ordinarily be allocated or 'distributed' to the cost of the contract or subcontract on the basis of the proportion which the direct engineering labor attributable to the contract or subcontract (see paragraph (c) (3) of this article) bears to the total direct engineering labor of the engineering department or particular section thereof during the period within which the contract or subcontract is performed. If the expenses of the engineering department are not sufficient in amount to require the maintenance of separate accounts, the engineering indirect costs may be included in the indirect factory expenses (see paragraph (c) (5) of this article) and allocated or distributed to the cost of performing the contract or subcontract as a part of such expenses, provided the proportion so allocated or distributed is proper under the facts and circumstances relating to the performance of the particular contract or subcontract.

"(3) Administrative expenses (or 'overhead').—The allowable expenses of administration (see paragraph (g) of this article) or other general expenses except indirect engineering expenses, bidding and general selling expenses, and general servicing expenses shall ordinarily be allocated or distributed to the cost of performing a contract or subcontract on the basis of the proportion which the sum of the manufacturing cost (see paragraph (b) of this article) and the cost of installation and construction (see paragraph (e) of this article) attributable to the particular contract or subcontract bears to the sum of the total manufacturing cost and the total cost of installation and construction during the period within which the contract or subcontract is performed.

"(4) Bidding, general selling, and general servicing expenses.—The allowable bidding and general selling expenses and general servicing expenses (see paragraph (g) (2) and (3) of this article) shall ordinarily be allocated or distributed to the cost of performing a contract or subcontract on the basis of—

(i) The proportion which the contract price of the particular contract or subcontract bears to the total sales made (including contracts or subcontracts completed) during the period within which the particular contract or subcontract is performed, or

(ii) The proportion which the sum of the manufacturing cost (see paragraph (b) of this article) and the cost of installation and construction (see paragraph (e) of this article) attributable to the particular contract or subcontract bears to the sum of the total manufacturing cost and the total cost of installation and construction during the period within which the contract or subcontract is performed, except that special consideration shall be given to the relation which certain classes of such expenses bear to the various classes of articles produced by the contracting party in each case in which such consideration is necessary in order to make a fair and reasonable determination of the true profit and excess profit. See article 13."

PAR. D. Article 16 (b) of Treasury Decision 4723, relating to time for filing annual reports, is amended to read as follows:

"(b) Time for filing annual reports.—Annual reports of contracts and subcontracts completed by a contracting party within an income-taxable year beginning after December 31, 1935 must be filed on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the contracting party's income-taxable year. It is important that the contracting party render on or before the due date an annual report as nearly complete and final as it is possible for the contracting party to prepare. An extension of time granted the contracting party for filing its Federal income tax return does not serve to extend the time for filing the annual report required by this article. Authority consistent with authorizations for granting extensions of time for filing Federal income tax returns is hereby delegated to the various collectors of internal revenue for granting extensions of time for filing the reports required by this article. Application for extensions of time for filing such reports should be addressed to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the contracting party files its Federal income tax returns and must contain a full recital of the causes for the delay."

This Treasury Decision is prescribed pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the Act of March 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 505 (U. S. C. title 34, sec. 496), as amended by the Act of June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1926 (U. S. C. Sup. II, title 34, sec. 496).

The Secretary of the Treasury may give such authorization if he shall find that the risk of loss, destruction, or damage in such shipment cannot be adequately guarded against by the facilities of the United States or that the circumstances are such that adequate replacement cannot be provided under this Act.';

"and

"Whereas I find that the risk of loss, destruction, or damage in shipments of gold and silver coin or bullion to, from, between, or within foreign countries under the provisions of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, as amended, and the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 cannot be adequately guarded against by the facilities of the United States:

"It is hereby ordered that any such shipment is excepted from the prohibitions contained in the first sentence of section 4 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act if, and to the extent that, adequate insurance at satisfactory rates can, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be obtained to cover such shipment.

"The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time supplement, amend, or revoke this Order."

(6) Representing that any of the said products are designed by or are compounded under the supervision of a doctor or one possessing special knowledge of dental hygiene and pharmacology, when such is not the case.

By the Commission.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION

DETERMINATIONS AS TO ENTITLEMENT TO PENSION AND OF SERVICE CONNECTION

DETERMINATIONS AS TO BASIC ENTITLEMENT

SEC. 2.1065 Misconduct.—(a) A disabling condition will be considered to be the result of misconduct for the purpose of all adjudications under Public No. 2, 73d Congress and all regulations issued thereunder, when it is shown to have been incurred under conditions or in a manner set forth by Section 8.10, paragraph IX, without regard to any prior determinations respecting the manner of its incurrence. A finding in any case that a disabling condition is of misconduct nature, as defined by Section 8.10, paragraph IX, will bar any right to pension or compensation under Public No. 2, 73d Congress and all regulations issued thereunder.

(b) 1. The words "willful misconduct" are used in Section 27 of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and in all cases arising under this Section of that Law, the term "willful misconduct" as defined by precedents under the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, will be applied.

2. For the purpose of adjudications under Section 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, the definition established by precedents under Section 200, World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, for willful misconduct will be applied, instead of the definition of misconduct set forth in Section 8.10, paragraph IX.

3. For the purpose of adjudications under Section 31, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, the definition established by precedents under Section 213, World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, for misconduct will be applied.

(c) Gross negligence or gross carelessness, as referred to in Section 8.10, paragraph IX, is defined as the want of slight care. (A. D. 191–B and 296.)

(d) On or after June 16, 1938, the date of approval of Public No. 648, 75th Congress, amending paragraphs VIII and IX of Section 8.10, the limitation "other than through the sexual relation" in paragraph IX of Section 8.10, with respect to venereal disease affirmatively shown to have been in fact innocently acquired, will not be applied in determining misconduct for the purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress and all regulations issued thereunder. (September 21, 1938.)

SEC. 2.1066 "Line of Duty" under Sections 8.011 and 8.012.—Sections 8.011 and 8.012 require that a disabling condition for which pension or compensation is claimed, shall have been incurred in line of duty, except in cases where a right to pension or compensation is preserved by Sec. 8.04. The records of Service Departments will be accepted in determining "line of duty" status of diseases and injuries unless considerations set forth in Section 8.10, paragraph VIII, may warrant a different finding. Any evidence which is properly admissible or acceptable according to the practice of the Veterans' Administration, and which is of a nature competent to demonstrate that the incurrence of disability was or was not in line of duty, according to conditions specified in Section 8.10, paragraph VIII, may be used as a basis for adjudications, despite any official military or naval record with respect to manner of incurrence. For the purpose of ascertaining "line of duty" status for periods of time prior to June 16, 1938, continuous periods of leave will be considered as one extended leave in determining whether a leave of absence is of such duration as to interfere materially with the routine performance of duty. The provisions of Section 8.10, paragraph VIII will be observed carefully in effecting all adjudication where a question of incurrence of disease or injury in line of duty is pertinent: Provided, That on or after June 16, 1938, the date of approval of Public, No. 648, 75th Congress, the fact that the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person on whose account benefits are claimed was on authorized leave (irrespective of the duration of such leave) will not of itself bar a finding that the disability or death resulting therefrom was incurred in line of duty. If the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person who served was away from camp or his post of duty, the burden is upon the claimant to establish line of duty. If, however, the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person who served was at camp or his post of duty, even though in a leave status, the burden is upon the Government to show that the disability or death resulting therefrom was not in line of duty. (September 21, 1938.)

DETERMINATION OF SERVICE CONNECTION

SEC. 2.1100 Natural progress under Sec. 8.011 and Sec. 8.012.—For the purposes of Sec. 8.011, paragraph I (d), and Sec. 8.012, paragraph I (a), a preexisting injury or disease will be considered to have been aggravated by active military or naval service where there is an increase in disability during active service unless there is a specific finding that the increase in disability is due to the natural progress of the disease. A specific finding that the increase in disability is due to the natural progress of a disease will be met by a finding of a constituted rating agency of the Veterans' Administration based upon available evidence of a nature generally acceptable as competent to show that an increase in severity of a disease or injury, or of the disabling effects thereof, or the acceleration in progress of a disease was that normally to be expected by reason of the inherent character of the condition, aside from any extraneous or contributing cause or influence peculiar to military service. (September 3, 1938.)

COMPUTATION OF SERVICE; AWARDS, AMENDMENTS AND DISCONTINUANCES

COMPUTATION OF SERVICE

SEC. 2.2020 Public No. 541, 75th Congress (Act of May 24, 1938).—Service is to be computed only from the date of enlistment or the beginning of the war period, whichever is the later date. All leaves of absence and furloughs under General Orders numbered 130, August 29, 1898, War Department, shall be included in determining the period of pensionable service. However, service in the Moro Province after July 4, 1902 and prior to July 15, 1903 may not be used as a basis for pension under this Act nor will other than honorable separation from an enlistment beginning after July 4, 1902 deprive the veteran of pension. (September 21, 1938.)

Line of Duty

SEC. 2.2046 (A) "Line of duty" is a technical phrase which is defined in paragraph VIII, Sec. 8.10, as amended by Public No. 648, 75th Congress, approved June 16, 1938.

(B) Findings of the service departments relative to the line of duty status of diseases and injuries will not be binding on the Veterans' Administration. (September 21, 1938.)

AWARDS, AMENDMENTS AND DISCONTINUANCES

SEC. 2.2107 Public No. 269, 74th Congress.—(A) Commencement shall be from August 13, 1935, or the date of claim, whichever is the latter, when entitlement is otherwise shown, as to claims filed on or after March 20, 1933, and not finally adjudicated. Any claim filed subsequent to March 19, 1933, under Public No. 2 or Public No. 141, 73d Congress, disallowed or abandoned may, upon written notice from the claimant or his representative, be revived at any time prior to August 13, 1936, and when entitlement is otherwise shown, payments under the provisions of the Act of August 13, 1935, may commence from the date of the Act.

(B) Public No. 541, 75th Congress.—Form 526, revised March 1938, is prescribed as the form on which claims under this act will be filed. However, where there is already on file a formal application for service pension and benefits are being paid, any writing signed by the veteran or in his behalf, claiming increased pension, will constitute a valid application under this Act. Pension on account of attainment of age of sixty-five years will be effective from the date of receipt of a claim filed on or after the attainment of the beneficial age and on or after May 24, 1938. The rate for regular aid and attendance will be payable from the date of receipt of a claim, executed on or after May 24, 1938 and after the requisite condition is shown to exist. (September 21, 1938.)

While the veteran is in a State Soldiers' Home, the U. S. Soldiers' Home or the U. S. Naval Home, pension may not be paid in an amount in excess of $50.00 per month. (See Secs. 2.1256 and 2.2181.) This restriction is applicable to Public No. 541, 75th Congress, only while the Government of the United States contributes toward defraying the expense incurred in providing such inmate with domiciliary care. Where a veteran is furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the United States or a political subdivision thereof and is furnished with nursing or attendant's service, the award of pension will be the amount authorized by the rating decision or the attainment of beneficial age, exclusive of any additional amount on account of the need of regular aid and attendance. This rate of pension in such instances will be effective as of the beginning of the maintenance of the disabled veteran in an institution by the United States or a political subdivision thereof. EFFECTIVE DATE OF INSURANCE APPLIED FOR BY PERSONS ENTERING ACTIVE MILITARY OR NAVAL SERVICE

SEC. 3.3005 The effective date of United States Government life insurance applied for by persons entering the active military or naval service under the War Department, Navy Department, or Coast Guard Service will be established as of the date on which valid application and tender of premium are made and forwarded to the Veterans' Administration; but not later than 120 days from the date of the applicant's enlistment, entrance into, or employment in the active service and while on active duty. If the first premium is to be paid by allotment of pay as in the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, or by deduction from pay, as in the Army, the effective date of the insurance will be the first day of the month following the month in which said allotment or authorization for deduction is executed, but not later than the first day of the month following the expiration of the period of 120 days from date of the applicant's enlistment, entrance into or employment in the active service and while on active duty: Provided, the amount of premium is deducted from the applicant's service pay in accordance with the allotment or authorization.

(A) The effective date of a United States Government life insurance policy granted to a person entering the active military or naval service under the War Department, Navy Department, or Coast Guard Service may be established upon written request by the applicant as of any day of a month prior to the month in which the application and tender of premiums are made to the Veterans' Administration, as set out above: Provided, That such date is not prior to the date of entrance into the active service, and that there be paid (a) an amount equal to the full reserve on the insurance at the end of the month prior to the month in which the application is made, and (b) the full premium on the amount and plan of insurance for the month in which application is made. DISPOSITION OF VETERAN'S PERSONAL EFFECTS AND FUNDS ON STATION UPON DEATH, OR DISCHARGE, OR UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE, AND OF EFFECTS AND FUNDS FOUND ON STATION

SEC. 4.4800 (A) As used in respect to the disposition of property of veterans dying in Veterans' Administration facilities, or who are discharged or who elope, or are absent without leave therefrom, and in respect to property found thereat, the term "funds" means all types of United States Currency and Coin. The term "funds" does not include deposits to the credit of the veteran in the account "Personal Funds of Patients", and each competent veteran will be so advised. The term "effects" means and embraces all other property of every description, including all checks drawn on other than the Treasurer of the United States, negotiated checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, if payee be dead, and non-negotiated checks so drawn, if payee be alive, insurance policies, certificates of stock, bonds and notes the obligation of the United States or of others, and all other papers of every character except non-negotiated checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States in favor of a decedent, as well as clothing, jewelry and other forms of property, or evidences of interest therein. Non-negotiated checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States in favor of a decedent will be forwarded to central office for disposition.

(B) "Facility" as used in Sec. 4.4801 to Sec. 4.4814 includes facilities, and supply depots over which the Veterans' Administration has direct and exclusive administrative jurisdiction, and excludes State, county, city, private and contract hospitals and hospitals or other institutions operated by the United States through agencies other than the Veterans' Administration. Existing practices with respect to disposition of funds or effects as defined in Sec. 4.4800 (A) at institutions other than facilities as herein defined will continue unless and until modified. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4801 (A) Each competent veteran now being cared for or who is hereafter admitted to receive care as such in a Veterans' Administration Facility, unless detrimental to his health, will be requested and encouraged to designate on the prescribed Form 1170 in duplicate, the person to whom he desires the Veterans' Administration to deliver his funds and effects at death. He may also designate an alternate to whom delivery will be made if the first designate fails or refuses to accept delivery, and he may change the designate or alternate at any time during his lifetime by signing a new form. It should be clearly understood that the delivery of such funds or effects will constitute a delivery of possession thereof only, and such delivery is not intended to affect in any manner the title to such funds or effects or determine the person ultimately entitled to receive same from the person to whom delivery is made (hereinafter in these regulations termed the "designate"). The person designated may not be an employee of the Veterans' Administration unless such employee be the wife (or husband), child, grandchild, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, brother or sister of the veteran. The veteran, or if he becomes incompetent his guardian, may in writing change or revoke such designation at any time. The information which said Form 1170 is intended to elicit with respect to living relatives of the veteran will be obtained in every case, and at that time the veteran's attention will be called to his agreement therein contained with respect to disposition of his property.

(B) Veterans will be encouraged to place in the custody of their relatives articles of little or no utility value to them during their period of care at a Veterans' Administration facility, and to retain in their possession only such funds and effects as are actually required and necessary for their immediate convenience. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4802 (A) An incompetent veteran will not be informed concerning the designation of a person to receive funds or effects; but if he has a guardian the guardian will be requested to make such designation of himself or another person to receive possession of the funds and effects upon the incompetent's death. The guardian will execute the same form of designation as a competent veteran but will sign same with the veteran's name "By _____, Guardian of his Estate."

(B) No effort will be made to obtain a designation by or on behalf of an incompetent veteran who has no guardian. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4803 (A) Immediately upon the death or the absence without leave of any veteran in a facility as defined in Sec. 4.4800 (B), a survey and inventory of the funds and effects of such veteran will be taken in the following manner:

(1) If the death or absence without leave occurred during hospitalization, the manager will direct the ward physician concerned and the supply officer to make a complete, careful survey and inventory (Medical Form 2687, Inventory of Personally Owned Effects of Beneficiary) of the effects, personally owned (including all funds found and moneys on deposit in "Personal Funds of Patients," jewelry being worn by the deceased person, or jewelry and other effects in pockets of clothing he may have been wearing).

(2) If the death or absence without leave occurred while the beneficiary was in barracks, the manager will direct a like survey and inventory to be made by the domiciliary officer and the supply officer.

(3) The inventory report will be executed in triplicate, original and two copies. All will be signed by each employee making the inventory, and disposed of as hereinafter provided.

(4) Personally owned clothing or other effects (such as toothbrushes, false teeth not containing gold, etc.) which are unserviceable by reason of wear or tear or insanitary condition, and clothing that had been supplied by the Government, will not be included in this inventory; instead, the board, as constituted above, will list the unserviceable personally owned articles on a separate list, describing briefly their condition, and will recommend their disposition in a separate report to the manager on Form 2687a, "Inventory of Unserviceable Personally Owned Effects of Beneficiary". The manager, if approving this recommendation, will order destruction or utilization in occupational therapy, or as wipe rags, etc., of such unserviceable articles and, when they are so destroyed or utilized, will have entered on the papers the date and nature of the disposition. The completed papers will then be placed in the correspondence file of the beneficiary. Clothing that had been supplied by the Government will be reconditioned if possible and returned to stock for issue to other eligible beneficiaries. When Government owned clothing cannot be reconditioned it will be disposed of as provided in currently effective procedure.

(5) When the nearest relative requests that the deceased beneficiary be clad for burial in clothing he personally owned, instead of burial clothing to be supplied under the undertaker's contract, such request will be honored. A receipt in such cases will be obtained from the undertaker, specifying the articles of clothing so used. This receipt will accompany the inventory that is forwarded to central office. Adjustment of the undertaker's bill in the case will correspondingly be made.

(6) In accomplishing such inventories, detailed description will be given of items of material value or importance, for example:

Watch.—Yellow metal (make, movement and case number if available without damage to watch).

Ring.—Yellow metal (probably gold plated or stamped 14 K, setting, if any).

Discharge Certificate.

Adjusted Service Certificate.—(Number.)

Bonds or Stocks.—(Name of company, registered or non-registered identifying number, recited par value, if any.)

Bank Books or other evidences of indebtednesses.—(Name of bank or other obligor, apparent value, identifying numbers, etc.).

Clothing.—(Brief description and statement of condition.)

Etc.

(B) Upon completion of the survey and inventory the effects will be turned over to the supply officer for safekeeping. Any funds found which apparently were the property of the deceased will be turned over to the manager, or his specially designated representative, who shall receipt therefor in duplicate. The original of the receipt will be transmitted to central office with copy of the inventory, Form 2687, and the duplicate thereof will be safely kept among the effects turned over to the supply officer. Funds in excess of $100.00 shall be delivered immediately to the agent cashier who shall forthwith deposit same to the credit of the deceased veteran in the account "Personal Funds of Patients." The remaining funds and effects will be safely kept pending disposition as elsewhere provided by regulations. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4804 (A) Upon authorization by the manager such funds (not in excess of $100.00) and effects will be delivered or sent to the person designated by the deceased veteran if request therefor be made after death and within 90 days following the mailing of notice to such designate unless—(See Sec. 4.4809 (A).)

(1) The executor or administrator of the deceased veteran shall have notified the manager of his desire and readiness to receive such funds or effects, in which event the manager will deliver all funds and effects to such executor or administrator, upon receipt of appropriate documentary evidence of his qualifications and in exchange for appropriate receipts, or

(2) Subsequent to the designation the veteran became incompetent and his guardian revoked such designation, in which event the manager will deliver all funds and effects to his guardian in exchange for appropriate receipts subject to the limitations contained in Sec. 4.4804 (F), or

(3) The person designated was the wife (or husband) of the veteran at the time of designation and information at the disposal of the facility indicates that she was thereafter divorced and the veteran was incompetent at or subsequent to the time of divorce, or

(4) Notwithstanding there is a designate, it is probable that title would pass to the United States under the Act of June 25, 1910 (24 U. S. Code, Section 136), or the Act of July 1, 1902 (24 U. S. Code, Section 139), or would escheat to the United States under the Act of August 12, 1935 (38 U. S. Code 450), or

(5) The manager determines that there is reasonable ground to believe that the transfer of such possessions to the designate probably would be contrary to the interests of the lawfully entitled legatee or distributee, or there are any other special circumstances raising a serious doubt as to the propriety of such delivery to the designate.

In any case in which the manager declines to deliver, pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 above, he will request instructions from central office.

(B) If the designate or the alternate request delivery of the funds (not in excess of $100.00) within 7 full days after the date of death, such delivery can be made to designate or alternate in person by the manager or his representative and an appropriate receipt obtained therefor, subject to the exceptions stated in Sec. 4.4804 (A); if it is necessary to send these funds through the mail, the manager shall deliver such funds to the agent cashier who shall deposit same to the credit of the account "Special Deposit" and authorize the preparation and submission of a voucher for the payment thereof to the designate or to the alternate.

(C) If the manager has not delivered or transmitted said funds to the designate within 7 full days after the day of death of the veteran, he shall deliver such funds to the agent cashier who shall forthwith deposit same to the credit of the account "Special Deposit." The agent cashier will furnish the manager with a receipt for such funds. If such funds be requested after such deposit, the manager may, subject to the provisions of Sec. 4.4804 (A), authorize the preparation and submission of a voucher for the payment thereof to the designate or the alternate. If, however, these funds are not disposed of within 90 days as provided for in Sec. 4.4805, transfer of such funds shall be made to "Personal Funds of Patients."

(D) The supply officer, when authorized by the manager, will deliver or ship the effects. If shipped at Government expense, the shipment shall be made in the most economical manner but in no case to exceed the sum of $10.00. If such expenses will exceed $10.00, the amount thereof in excess of $10.00 shall be paid by the consignee, either to the manager in advance, or to the carrier if it accepts the shipment without full prepayment of charges. There will be no obligation of the Government, initially or otherwise, to pay such expenses in excess of $10.00.

(E) When possession of funds or effects is transferred to an individual designated for such purpose by the veteran, the attention of the designate will again be directed to the fact that possession only has been transferred to him and that such transfer does not of itself affect title thereto and that such designate will be accountable to the owner of said funds and effects under applicable laws.

(F) Upon receipt from the chief attorney of an appropriate certification that the guardianship was in full force and effect at the time of the veteran's death and that the guardian's bond is adequate, funds and effects of an incompetent veteran may be immediately delivered or sent to such guardian, inasmuch as the guardian had a right to possession and he will be accountable therefor to the party entitled to receive the decedent's estate. If, however, it appears probable that decedent died without a valid will and left no person surviving entitled to inherit, the funds will not be paid to the former guardian, but will be forthwith deposited to the account "Personal Funds of Patients" and transmitted to central office. The effects will be safely kept and reported to central office with recommendation for sale or other disposition thereof. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4805 If there exists no designate or alternate at the time of death in a facility of a veteran admitted as competent; or the designate fails or refuses to claim the funds and effects of such decedent which are found at the facility within 90 days following the mailing of notice to such designate, this fact shall be reported to central office where appropriate action shall be taken to dispose of these funds and effects in accordance with existing law. Central office shall authorize the delivery of the funds and effects of such decedent which are found at the facility to the executor or administrator, or if no notice of appointment thereof has been received, to the decedent's widow, child, grandchild, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, brother or sister in the order named; subject to the applicable provisions of Secs. 4.4803, 4.4804, such delivery may be made at any time before the sale contemplated by Sec. 4.4809, to the designate or alternate or other person entitled under the facts of the case (subject to Sec. 4.4804 (A)). But delivery shall be made only to the person entitled to priority unless each of those entitled to priority as to the claimant, waives in writing his or her prior right to possession. The guardian of a minor or incompetent may waive his ward's prior right to possession. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4806 Except as provided in Sec. 4.4808, the funds and effects of veterans absent without leave or who have been discharged or have eloped (and who are not to be returned to the facility) will be disposed of as follows:

(1) To the owner if competent, or if deceased to his administrator or executor or as directed in writing by such owner, or his executor or administrator.

(2) To the guardian of the owner if the latter be incompetent, or if deceased to his administrator or executor, or as directed in writing by such guardian, executor or administrator.

(3) To the incompetent owner if he has no guardian; but delivery to him may be withheld and may be made to the person who is caring for such incompetent if in the judgment of the manager such delivery is to the incompetent owner's best interest. NOTE.—The Government will not pay the expense of transportation of effects of competent or incompetent veterans discharged, absent without leave, or who have eloped. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4807 The provisions of Sec. 4.4800 to Sec. 4.4806, inclusive, shall be inapplicable to property known to be that of any person dying in or discharged or absent without leave from a Veterans' Administration facility other than a veteran admitted as such to such facility. Such property of members of the Civilian Conservation Corps and of others admitted under various laws of the United States will be dealt with in accordance with the several laws respectively applicable to such other persons. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4808 (A) In the case of any property heretofore or hereafter left at a Veterans' Administration facility, the veteran owner of which is deceased or is discharged or absent without leave, or who has eloped and is not to be returned to the care of a Veterans' Administration facility; or in case the whereabouts or identity of any owner of any property thereat be unknown, such property shall be sold, used, or destroyed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with instructions from central office. The manager will furnish appropriate information with respect thereto, and recommendation concerning its sale, use, or destruction. Any sale of such property shall be conditioned upon the ninety day notice provided in Section 6 of Public 734, 75th Congress.

(B) If the circumstances are such that retention of any property as is mentioned in (A) of this section, or of any property of unknown ownership found on the premises would endanger the health or life of patients or others on the premises, (by reason of contagion, infection, or otherwise) any such property shall be forthwith destroyed on order of the manager without prior report to central office, but proper record of the action taken will be retained.

(C) If there be no known claimant of any such property and if it may be used at the facility for the benefit of the members or patients for such purposes as the Post Fund is intended to serve and if the sale value is small, the manager may recommend that any such property be retained at the facility for such use and upon approval by central office it may be so used (and not sold).

(D) Any such property which is not destroyed or used as provided in (B) and (C) of this section shall be sold in the manner provided in Sec. 4.4809 and Sec. 4.4810, after notice as therein provided unless prior to sale, claim be made for any such property by one or more of the persons legally entitled thereto. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4809 (A) Upon death of a veteran admitted as such to a facility the manager will cause notice (Parts I and V of Form 1171) to be sent to the person designated by such decedent to receive possession of his property at death; provided however, that if the manager has information that the designate's death occurred before notice is sent to the designate, notice shall be sent to the alternate and all the provisions of these regulations respecting the designate will be deemed to apply to the alternate. However, if the designate dies subsequent to mailing the notice and prior to delivery of funds or effects to him, report shall be made to central office and the procedure outlined in Sec. 4.4809, (D), (E) and (F), shall be followed. Such notice shall fully identify the decedent, state the fact that he designated the addressee to receive possession of such property; that the right to receive possession thereof does not affect the ownership but the designate will be responsible for the ultimate disposition thereof to those who, under appropriate law, are entitled to the decedent's property and will request prompt advice as to whether the designate will accept such property and if he will that he furnish such shipping instructions, whereupon the property will be shipped at the expense of the Government. However, prior to dispatching such letter it will be definitely determined that the shipping expense will not exceed $10.00. If such expense will exceed $10.00 the excess cost will be ascertained and such notice will include a statement of the amount of such excess shipping cost with the request that such amount be remitted at the time shipping instructions are furnished. In estimating the shipping expense it will be assumed that shipment will be to the address of the designate to which the notice is sent. Each notice, however, shall contain a statement that in no event will the Government pay shipping expense in excess of $10.00. The notice will include a copy of the inventory of the property which it is proposed to deliver to the designate.

(B) Upon receipt of appropriate shipping instructions the property will be shipped, transportation charges prepaid, by mail, express, or freight as may be appropriate under the circumstances and most economical to the Government. The expense of such shipment, in no case to exceed $10.00, is payable from the appropriation "Salaries and Expenses, Veterans' Administration."

(C) The living owner of any property left or found at a facility will be promptly notified thereof. In no case will transportation charges be paid by the Government on property shipped to a living veteran who is absent without leave, or who was discharged, or who eloped and is not to be returned, or on found property. In such cases shipment shall be made as requested by the owner of the property (or his guardian) upon receipt of necessary transportation charges which will be prepaid, unless the owner requests shipment with charges collect and the carrier will accept such shipment without liability for such charges, contingent or otherwise, upon the Government.

(D) If the designate in any case advises that he declines to accept possession of the property of the decedent, or if ninety days has elapsed after notice to the designate and he has failed to request shipment, or ninety days has elapsed after any property is found and the owner (known or unknown) has failed to request same, report will be made to central office with recommendation of the manager as to destruction, use or sale of such property remaining on hand.

(E) Upon receipt of such recommendation central office will, if appropriate, authorize destruction, use or sale of such property in accordance with law; and will also furnish the manager with the names and addresses, if known, of the owner, or if deceased, the decedent's executor or administrator, widow, child, grandchild, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, brother or sister.

(F) Upon receipt from central office of authorization for the sale of such property the manager will cause proper notice of sale to be mailed (Form 1171). Such notice in all cases shall disclose the identity, if known, of the decedent whose property is to be sold and contain a copy of the inventory of such property and the other language as shown in said prescribed form. A copy of such notice (Form 1171) after completing Parts I, IV, V thereof, shall be mailed to the owner, if known, or if deceased, to the alternate designate, to the decedent's executor or administrator, if known, and also to his widow (or widower), child, grandchild, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, brother and sister, if known. If more than one relative of the degree named is known, copy will be mailed to each. If the owner is living, Parts IV and V only of Form 1171 will be completed.

(G) Copy of such notice (Form 1171, Parts IV and V) will also be posted by a responsible employee more than twenty-one years of age at—

(1) The facility where the death occurred or property shall have been found (if such facility be known and in existence).

(2) The place where such property is situated at the time such notice is posted, and

(3) The place where probate notices are posted in the county wherein the sale is to be had.

(H) In addition to the name of the owner, if known, (alive or deceased) and the inventory of the property to be sold, such notice shall state the hour and day when and the precise place where the sale will occur and that the same will be at public auction for cash upon delivery without warranty, express or implied, as to quality and that such sale is pursuant to Public Law No. 734 of the 75th Congress, approved June 25, 1938, and shall also state that any person legally entitled to said property may claim the same at any time prior to sale thereof and in the event of such claim by a proper person the property will not be sold but will be delivered to the person lawfully entitled thereto. Said notice shall also contain a statement substantially to the effect that if sold the net proceeds of sale may be claimed by the person who is legally entitled to the property at any time within five years after the date of notice, or in case of property of unknown ownership within five years after its finding; otherwise such proceeds will be retained in and disbursed for the purposes of the General Post Fund.

(I) The person or persons posting said notice of sale (Form 1171) shall make appropriate affidavit on a copy thereof as to his action in that respect and the manager will also certify on a copy as to the persons to whom a copy of such notice was mailed and the date when mailed. Such copy and the affidavit and certificate as to service of the notice will be retained in the station file pertaining to the disposition of such property and a copy thereof forwarded to central office with the report of sale, when held, or with report of delivery of such property if the same be claimed prior to sale. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4810 After proper notice as prescribed, sale of any such property which it is proper to sell, will be made by public auction by the manager (or an employee designated by him) at the time and place stated in the notice of sale. The property will be sold to the highest bidder (no employee of the Veterans' Administration shall purchase any of his property) and forthwith delivered and the amount of the bid collected and deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of "General Post Fund, Veterans' Administration." Report of sale will be made to central office. Care will be taken to segregate the property of each owner and separate account rendered as to the proceeds of sale thereof. If property is not disposed of by public auction, the case shall be referred to central office for instructions. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4811 If any claim for any such property or for its proceeds is received subsequent to sale thereof, the matter will be referred to central office with appropriate explanation of the facts and such claims will be handled and determined by central office. The claimant will be advised of the reference and to conduct future correspondence on the subject with central office. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4812 If it is shown that some person other than the veteran has title to property in a veteran's possession at the time of death, nothing contained in Sec. 4.4800 to Sec. 4.4812 shall be construed as prohibiting delivery of such property to the owner. A life insurance policy may be delivered to the beneficiary therein named if the insured is deceased, notwithstanding the veteran has designated a person to whom possession of his property at the facility is to be transferred. In no case will funds or effects be delivered to a minor; or to an incompetent person other than as provided in Sec. 4.4809 (C), but where any such person is entitled to title or possession delivery may be made to his guardian. (October 1, 1938.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4813 In order that all persons who bring property on the premises of Veterans' Administration facilities may be advised of the existence of Public Law No. 734, 75th Congress, and that it effects such property, notice thereof shall be permanently posted in at least one prominent place on the premises of each facility where persons are likely to see such notice (Form 1182). (October 1, 1933.) (52 Stat. 1189–1193.)

SEC. 4.4814 (A) When funds and effects of a deceased patient are delivered to the designate in person, distribution of Forms 2687, 2687a, and 1170 and 1171 will be as follows:

(2687)—Original—Receipted by the designate, to the station file attached to Form P–10.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY COMMISSION, UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

[Minute No. 165]

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND PRESERVATION OF THE RIO GRANDE RECTIFICATION PROJECT IN THE EL PASO-JUAREZ VALLEY

CIUDAD JUÁREZ, CHIHUAHUA,
August 13, 1938.

The Commission met at the offices of the Mexican Section in Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua, at 10:00 A. M., August 13, 1938, for the purpose of formulating regulations to make effective the maintenance and preservation of the rectified channel of the Rio Grande in the El Paso-Juarez Valley, in accordance with the Convention of February 1, 1933, and its annexes.

The Commission reviewed the Convention of February 1, 1933, as well as the maps and reports relating to the construction of the Rio Grande Rectification Project, and now finds and determines:

A. That the rectified channel has been completed throughout its length, in accordance with the provisions of the Convention of February 1, 1933.

B. That the rectified channel occupies a strip of land about 225 meters in width, within which there have been constructed a pilot channel for the normal flow of the river and a floodway formed by the building of levees to either side to carry the flood flows. The levees are generally 180 meters apart, and the remaining strips of land on both sides are partly occupied by the levees and other works and partly unoccupied. The structures built within the rectified channel right of way consist of bridges, grade controls and gaging stations extending across the floodway, and culverts through the levees. Additional structures of similar types may be built in the future.

C. That the required maintenance and preservation of the rectified channel will include the following items:

1. An annual clearing of the entire right of way to insure a continued maximum flood-flow capacity;
2. The replacement of material in levees and groins which may be eroded by the action of rains or floods;
3. The placing of earthwork in the building of new groins;
4. The placing of revetments along levees where material is unstable or flow conditions so require;
5. The performance of earthwork within or along the sides of the pilot channel where sand bars or islands may form or hard material be encountered or side erosion occur;
6. The placing of revetments along the sides of the pilot channel to prevent erosion;
7. The smoothing of the floodway floor wherever floods may so deposit material as to form obstruction to uniform flow;
8. And as to the structures, their enlargement if needed, the painting of wood and metal work and the replacement of worn or broken parts.

D. That inasmuch as Article XI of the Convention provides that the International Boundary Commission is charged with the maintenance and preservation of the rectified channel, and requires that to this end the Commission shall submit, for the approval of both governments, the regulations that should be issued to make effective such maintenance, there are hereby submitted for adoption the following:

RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. The International Boundary Commission shall keep the floodway clear of vegetation. The United States Section shall be responsible for and perform the labor required on the portion comprised between the pilot channel and the left or northerly levee, and the Mexican Section shall be responsible for and perform the labor required on the portion comprised between the pilot channel and the right or southerly levee. penses of clearing shall be borne respectively by each Section.

II. The International Boundary Commission shall maintain the pilot channel reasonably parallel to the rectification levees, preventing the formation of sharp curves. Each Section of the International Boundary Commission shall bear half the cost of these works.

III. The United States Section of the International Boundary Commission shall maintain at its cost the left or northerly rectification levee to the established grade, but shall have the right to increase the levee section on the land side. The Mexican Section of the International Boundary Commission shall maintain at its cost the right or southerly rectification levee to the established grade, but shall have the right to increase the levee section on the land side.

IV. The structures located in, on or across the floodway shall be maintained in good condition by work performed jointly by the International Boundary Commission, and half the cost thereof shall be borne by each Section.

V. The structures located in the levees shall be maintained in good serviceable condition. The United States Section of the International Boundary Commission shall carry out at its cost the work relating to the structures located in the left or northerly levee, and the Mexican Section of the International Boundary Commission shall carry out at its cost the work relating to the structures located in the right or southerly levee.

VI. No structure of any kind shall be constructed nor shall any works be performed within the floodway between the two levees that may interfere with the proper functioning of the floodway.

VII. VIII. Inasmuch as the joint work to be performed may require the accomplishment by one Section of the International Boundary Commission of maintenance and repairs within the national territory of the other Section, it is hereby provided that when one of the two Sections performs work within the national territory of the other, such work will be carried on by the performing Section's own personnel in the same manner and under the same regulations as though the works were being performed within the national territory of the Section doing the work. The crossing of duly authorized and identified personnel of each Section, for the accomplishment of maintenance and repair work, shall be facilitated by informal arrangements with the respective authorities of the two countries.

IX. In order to afford greater flexibility and economy in the work of maintenance and repairs, the performance of a part of the work herein allocated to one Section of the International Boundary Commission may be exchanged for the performance of an equal amount of the work allocated to the other Section, by means of informal agreements of the Commissioners.

X. Periodical inspection of the works, at least semiannually, shall be made by the Consulting Engineers of the two Sections, who shall submit joint reports to the Commission on the condition of the constructed works and the routine work being accomplished, including recommendations as to any other work that should be performed.

XI. Lists of all materials, implements, equipment, and supplies intended for the rectification works, and which as provided in the Convention are exempt from import duties when passing from one country to the other, shall be prepared in each case. Such lists shall be approved by the Commissioners before the goods may be transported across the boundary.

E. That the International Boundary Commission shall submit, for the approval of both governments, such further regulations as may in the future be found to be required for the effective carrying out of the maintenance and preservation of the Rio Grande Rectification Project.

C., or at any government agency or agencies in the United States which the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time designate for that purpose. The principal and interest shall be payable to the registered owner, whose name will be inscribed thereon, or registered assigns. Definitive debentures will be fully transferable, and those of the same class and series and having the same maturity date will be freely interchangeable as between the various authorized denominations. Interim certificates now outstanding are fully transferable and except for those in amounts less than $50 (which will be purchased for cash) may be exchanged for debentures of a like face amount in the same series, in any authorized denomination or denominations. No denominational exchanges will be permitted as between interim certificates. Unless otherwise provided by specific reference or plain context, the term "debentures" as herein used will be deemed to include interim certificates.

2. Transactions and operations.—The United States Treasury Department will act as agent for the Administrator in connection with the transactions and operations hereunder. The general regulations of the United States Treasury Department now or hereafter in force governing transactions and operations in United States registered bonds, and the payment of interest thereon, are hereby adopted, so far as applicable, as the regulations of the Administrator for similar transactions and operations in debentures, and the payment of interest thereon.

4. Redemption prior to maturity.—Debentures of any series, if so provided in the text thereof, may be redeemed at the option of the Federal Housing Administrator, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days on three months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Administrator shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption, the debentures to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Administrator.

5. Administration.—The Secretary of the Treasury or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered, on behalf of the Administrator, to administer the regulations governing any transactions and operations in debentures, to do all things necessary to conduct such transactions and operations, and to delegate such authority at his discretion to other officers, employees, and agents of the United States Treasury Department. The Secretary, the Under Secretary, or any Assistant Secretary of the Treasury acting by direction of the Secretary, is hereby authorized to waive any such regulation on behalf of the Administrator at his discretion in any particular case where a similar regulation of the Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds or interest thereon would be waived.

6. Amendments.—The Administrator reserves the right at any time or from time to time, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to revoke or amend these regulations or to prescribe and issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing debentures or interest thereon.

(3) If the recognized governing body of the tribe so requests, loan agreements involving tribal industrial assistance funds shall provide for an agreement on the part of the borrowers that, in case of default, the title of such trust or restricted land as shall be set forth in the agreements shall be transferred to the United States in trust for the tribe with approval of the Secretary (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.332 Transfer of title to borrowers.—Upon satisfaction of their indebtedness to the United States, borrowers shall receive from the superintendent title to the recoverable goods acquired by them under their loan agreements. In any case where it would appear to be to the detriment of a borrower to receive unrestricted title to the property, the superintendent shall submit the case with his recommendations to the Commissioner for action (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.333 Application of trust funds and property in case of default.—Each borrower shall be required to agree that if he fails to make repayments when due, to use borrowed funds in keeping with the loan agreement as originally approved, or amended, to make every honest effort to continue operations in a businesslike manner, or to take proper care of the property purchased with the borrowed funds or given as security for the loan, the superintendent may:

(a) Declare, after notice in writing of five days to the borrower, the entire amount advanced immediately due and payable;

(b) Discontinue any further advances of funds contemplated by the loan agreement;

(c) Apply as a set off against his indebtedness any trust funds to his credit, or any moneys due him from the United States from any source.

(d) Take possession of any and all trust property purchased with the loan funds or given as security and dispose of it in accordance with these regulations and apply the proceeds on his indebtedness;

(e) Proceed under State laws to seize and dispose of any nontrust property given as security (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.334 General authority to apply funds and property on indebtedness.—General authority is granted disbursing agents to make payment of delinquent indebtedness from individual funds by drawing an official check for the proper amount against the account of, and payable to, the debtor, who should be required to endorse the check back to the disbursing agent so that it can be applied on the indebtedness as is provided for in the loan agreement. If the payee refuses to do this the disbursing agent should retain the check and report the facts to the Indian Office for instructions (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.335 Repossessed or seized property taken up on agency records.—Trust property purchased from loan funds or given as security, repossessed or seized from a borrower, shall be taken up on the property records of the agency at its appraised value and dropped upon completion of the sale thereof (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.336 Disposition of repossessed or seized trust property.—Repossessed or seized property may be disposed of as follows:

(a) By sale to Indians.—When property purchased with loan funds or given as security is repossessed or seized, the superintendent shall appoint three persons, one a Government employee, one selected by the debtor, if he so desires, and the third, entirely disinterested, to appraise the property, which appraisal shall be the price charged against the Indian to whom it is subsequently sold, unless authority to sell at a lower price is authorized by the Commissioner or in accordance with instructions which may be issued by him. The Indian from whom the property was repossessed shall be given retaken credit on his account for the amount of the appraisal; if any balance remains unpaid the superintendent shall take all possible steps to collect the balance due on the agreement. The resale may be either for cash or under a new loan agreement which shall be handled as any other loan.

(b) By sale to other than Indians.—When repossessed or seized trust property cannot be sold to an Indian as provided above it shall be sold by public auction or under sealed bids in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner. Receipts from the sale of such property shall be taken up on an official receipt and so much thereof as may be necessary indicated for credit to the appropriate receipt account or tribal appropriation account and as a credit on the particular agreement. The balance, if any, may be credited to the individual Indian money account of the debtor (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.337 Receipts from the sale of nontrust property.—Receipts from the sale of nontrust property shall be taken up on an official receipt and so much thereof as may be necessary indicated for credit to the appropriate receipt account or tribal appropriation account, and as a credit on the particular agreement. The balance, if any, shall be credited to the individual Indian money account of the borrower (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.338 Transfer of property under loan agreements.—Upon mutual agreement of the superintendent, borrower, and prospective borrower, the superintendent may sell property purchased with loan funds or given as security, to the prospective borrower, by taking up the property on the agency property records, crediting the borrower for the appraised value of the property so taken up and preparing a new loan agreement with the new borrower (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.339 Reports of repossessions, seizures, dispositions and transfers of property.—Reports of repossessions, seizures, dispositions and transfers of property shall be immediately reported in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.340 Property of deceased borrowers.—The superintendent shall take all possible steps to safeguard and protect the property of deceased borrowers who are indebted to the United States until the obligations are liquidated or acceptable arrangements made with the heirs of the decedents for liquidation of the debts in accordance with the terms prescribed in the regulations. Preference shall be given to the kind of settlement which will provide the most rapid ultimate liquidation of deceased borrowers' accounts (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.341 Reports from borrowers.—Borrowers shall agree to submit reports required by the Commissioner (52 Stat. 302).

SEC 16.342 Restrictions on assignments, discounting and borrowing.—Borrowers shall agree not to rediscount, assign, pledge, or otherwise encumber any of their property in which the Government has an interest without the Commissioner's approval or that of his authorized representative (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.343 Insurance. — Borrowers shall agree to insure any property purchased with loan funds or given as security against loss by fire or any other cause as shall be prescribed by the superintendent. Funds for the payment of the premiums during the period of the loan may be included in the amount of the loans (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.344 Deposit of funds advanced under loan agreements.—Individual borrowers, cooperative associations, and unincorporated tribes shall agree that the funds advanced under any loan agreement shall be deposited to their credit in their individual Indian money accounts for use only under the terms of their loan agreements (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.345 Procedure for handling loans.—Where not otherwise provided for in these regulations, action on applications, completion of loan agreements, modifications and extensions of loan agreements, and other procedures in connection with handling loans shall be in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner; provided that requests from tribes for advances from tribal industrial assistance funds for the establishment and operation of tribal enterprises shall be approved by the Secretary (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.346 Accounts and records.—Accounts and records shall be maintained in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.347 Reports.—Annual reports or such special reports as may be required by the Commissioner shall be submitted in accordance with his instructions (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.348 Allotment, advance, and expenditure of funds.—Procedures for making allotment, advance, and expenditure of funds not covered by existing applicable regulations shall be handled in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner, provided allotments from tribal industrial assistance funds are requested by the tribe or its recognized officials (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.349 Collections.—When a collection is made the superintendent shall issue an official receipt and take the amount into his accounts in the usual manner for deposit later to the credit of the United States as a repayment for credit to the appropriate receipt account or as a repayment to the tribal appropriation account. Collections on loans shall be credited first to interest, which must be shown as a separate item on the receipt. Sufficient information shall be given to show clearly the loan and fund to which each collection applies (52 Stat. 302).

SEC. 16.350 Forms.—Forms for making loans under these regulations shall be prescribed by the Commissioner (52 Stat. 302).

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1938 CROP OF LOUISIANA SUGARCANE

Whereas, Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

"(d) That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing"

and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, on May 17, 1938, held a public hearing[1] in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1938 crop of Louisiana sugarcane.

Now, therefore, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine fair and reasonable prices for the 1938 crop of Louisiana sugarcane to be paid by processors who, as producers, apply for payments under the said act, as follows:

Not less than $1.00 per ton of standard sugarcane for each 1 cent of the price of 1 pound of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, based on the simple average of the weekly quotations of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, on the Louisiana Sugar and Rice Exchange and the Cane Products Trade Association exchange (or upon such quotations as the Secretary may elect to use for the purpose) for the weeks from October 13, 1938, to February 23, 1939, when the price of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, is 3.50 cents per pound:

Provided, however,

(1) That for each decline of ¼ cent in the prices of 1 pound of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, determined as above, below 3.50 cents per pound, the price for Louisiana standard sugarcane shall be reduced by not more than 3 per centum, with intervening prices in proportion, unless the price of sugar falls below 2.75 cents, in which case no further reduction shall be made; and

(2) That for an advance of ¼ cent in the price per pound of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, determined as above, over 3.50 cents, the price of Louisiana standard sugarcane shall be increased by not less than 3 per centum, with intervening prices in proportion, unless the price of raw sugar exceeds 3.75 cents per pound, in which case settlement shall be made on the basis of $1.03 for each 1 cent of such prices; and

(3) That, if the processor and producer mutually so agree, final settlement for sugarcane may be made within the season, as outlined in this determination, by substituting for the season average price of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, the simple average of the weekly quotations of 96° raw sugar, duty paid basis, on the Louisiana Sugar and Rice Exchange and the Cane Products Trade Association exchange for the week in which such sugarcane is delivered:

And provided, further,

(1) That standard sugarcane for the purpose of this determination shall be defined to be sugarcane containing no more sucrose in the normal juice than was defined as par sugarcane by the processor in his sugarcane purchase contract, or contracts, verbal or written, used in the year 1937; and

(2) That the premiums paid for sugarcane containing more sucrose in the normal juice than that defined as par sugarcane in the contract, or contracts, under the terms of which the processor purchased sugarcane in the 1937 crop shall not be less than those paid by such processor during the 1937 crop, but in no case shall the premium be less than 1 per centum for each full 1/10 per centum by which the per centum sucrose in the normal juice of such sugarcane exceeds 12½ per centum; and

(3) That the discounts applicable to sugarcane containing less sucrose in the normal juice than that defined as par sugarcane in the purchase contract, or contracts, used in 1937 shall be identical with those applied in connection with the 1937 crop; and

(4) That deductions based upon decreased boiling house efficiency may be made for frozen sugarcane accepted by the processor (it being understood that cane shall not be considered as frozen even after being subjected to freezing temperature unless and until there is evidence of damage having taken place because of the freeze) at a rate not in excess of 3.775 per centum of the payment computed as aforesaid for each .25 cc. of acidity above 2.25 cc. but not in excess of 4.50 cc. (analyzed in accordance with the established methods of the area with intervening fractions computed to the nearest multiple of .05 cc.); and

(5) That the processor shall not, through modification of any provisions of the cane purchase contract or through any subterfuge or device whatsoever, reduce the returns from the 1937 crop of Louisiana sugarcane to the grower below those determined above.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 23rd day of September 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary.

ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. The members of an industry committee are appointed, and the chairman of the industry committee designated, by the Administrator.

SEC. 2. The chairman of the industry committee may appoint authorized subcommittees of one or more persons from among the membership of the committee; provided, however, that the industry committee may, by a vote of not less than a majority of all its members, adopt a different procedure for the appointment of authorized subcommittees.

SEC. 3. An industry committee may be convened by the Administrator from time to time for the purpose of recommending the minimum rate or rates of wages to be paid employees in the industry. Orders by the Administrator convening an industry committee shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and otherwise made public in a general press release.

SEC. 4. The industry committee shall meet at the call of the chairman or the Administrator. A subcommittee shall meet at the call of the chairman of the industry committee or the chairman of the subcommittee.

SEC. 5. The industry committee and authorized committees shall meet in Washington, D. C., unless the Administrator, or the chairman of the industry committee, or the chairman of the particular subcommittee, designates another place of meeting.

SEC. 6. Two-thirds of the members of the industry committee shall constitute a quorum and the decision of the industry committee shall require a vote of not less than a majority of all its members.

SEC. 7. The chairman of the industry committee may request the Administrator to furnish specified legal, stenographic, clerical and other assistance to the industry committee and to subcommittees.

SEC. 8. Each member of the industry committee will be allowed a per diem of $15.00 for each day actually spent in the work of the committee, and will in addition be reimbursed for necessary transportation and other expenses incident to travelling, in accordance with Standardized Government Travel Regulations, as amended, dated January 30, 1934 and December 10, 1935. All travel expenses will be paid on travel vouchers certified by the chairman of the committee. Any other necessary expenses which are incidental to the work of the committee will, after approval by the Administrator, or his authorized representative, be paid upon the certification of the chairman of the committee.

PART II

PROCEDURE

SEC. 9. Upon being convened by the Administrator, the industry committee shall proceed as expeditiously as possible to investigate conditions in the industry for which it is appointed for the purpose of recommending the minimum rate or rates of wages to be paid employees in the industry.

SEC. 10. The industry committee shall consider such data as is submitted to it by the Administrator and by interested persons. The chairman of the committee may call upon the Administrator to furnish additional information to aid the committee in its deliberation. Any interested person may submit in writing pertinent data to the committee either through the Administrator or through the chairman of the committee.

SEC. 11. The industry committee, or an authorized subcommittee, may hear witnesses who may be summoned by the chairman of the industry committee or may be brought before it by the Administrator. If an industry committee or an authorized subcommittee elects to hold a public hearing in the course of its investigations, the chairman of the committee or of the subcommittee shall cause to be inserted in the FEDERAL REGISTER and to be made public by a general press release a notice of the time, place and scope of such hearing, at least five days before the date of such hearing.

SEC. 12. The industry committee shall keep a journal recording the time and place of all its meetings, the members present, the votes and other formal proceedings, including the appointment of subcommittees; but shall not be required to keep a stenographic transcript of any testimony that may be given before it or of its discussions. Subcommittees shall keep a similar journal.

SEC. 13. For the purpose of performing its duties and functions, an industry committee may exercise the powers conferred by the provisions of Section 9 and 10 (relating to the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents) of the Federal Trade Commission Act of September 26, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., 1934 edition, title 15, sections 49 and 50). These sections are set forth in full in the appendix to these regulations. Subpoenas and orders for the taking of testimony by deposition shall be issued only by the chairman of the industry committee or of a subcommittee upon forms to be furnished by the Administrator, and oaths shall be administered only by the chairman of the industry committee or of a subcommittee. Applications to a court for the enforcement of a subpoena shall be made only by the Administrator or his authorized deputy.

SEC. 14. No member of an industry committee shall make public any information obtained by the committee or a subcommittee thereof without the approval of the Administrator.

SEC. 15. Witnesses summoned before a committee shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the Courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the Courts of the United States.

SEC. 16. When called upon by the Administrator, an industry committee shall furnish him with such reports relating to its activities and such other information as he may request.

SEC. 17. An industry committee may, at any time, recommend to the Administrator that the scope of the industry as defined in the order appointing the committee be enlarged, modified or restricted.

SEC. 18. To reach the objective of a universal minimum wage of 40¢ an hour as rapidly as is economically feasible, the committee, in accordance with the declared policy of the Act to eliminate labor conditions detrimental to the maintenance of the minimum standards of living necessary for health, efficiency and general well-being of workers, shall recommend the highest minimum wage rates for the industry which it determines, having due regard to economic and competitive conditions, will not substantially curtail employment in the industry. The industry committee shall recommend such reasonable classifications as it determines to be necessary for the purpose of fixing for each classification within such industry the highest minimum wage rate (not in excess of 40¢ an hour) which (1) will not substantially curtail employment in such classifications, and (2) will not give competitive advantage to any group in the industry, and shall recommend for each classification in the industry the highest minimum wage rate which the committee determines will not substantially curtail employment in such classifications. In determining whether such classifications should be made in the industry, in making such classifications, and in determining the minimum wage rate for such classification, no classification shall be made and no minimum wage rate shall be fixed solely on a regional basis, but the industry committee shall consider among other relevant factors the following:

(1) Competitive conditions as affected by transportation, living and production costs;

(2) The wages established for work of like or comparable character by collective labor agreements negotiated between employers and employees by representatives of their own choosing; and

(3) The wages paid for work of like or comparable character by employers who voluntarily maintain minimum wage standards in the industry.

No classifications shall be made on the basis of age or sex.

SEC. 19. Upon the completion of its investigation the industry committee shall submit to the Administrator a report containing its recommendations together with a statement of the reasons supporting such recommendations. No recommendations shall be made by the committee unless concurred in by a vote of not less than the majority of all its members. The report shall be signed by all the members of the committee who approve it. Members dissenting therefrom shall note their dissent and append a signed statement in explanation thereof.

SEC. 20. After a report is submitted, the committee shall deposit with the Administrator all of its records and documents.

SEC. 21. If an industry committee is unable to arrive at a recommendation or refuses to make a recommendation, or unreasonably delays its work, it may be dissolved by the Administrator.

SEC. 22. When a committee has submitted a report as provided in Section 19 hereof, it shall cease to perform any further functions until reconvened by the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator may dissolve the committee after it has submitted its report.

ELMER F. ANDREWS,

SEPTEMBER 13, 1938.

Mr. DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman, Industry Committee No. 1, Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

DEAR MR. NELSON: I am considering the advisability of adding to the jurisdiction of Industry Committee No. 1 established in Administrative Order No. 1 (Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor) by amending the definition of "textile industry" to include:

(a) The manufacture and finishing of such yarn and woven goods with such percentage of wool fibre, as is so closely related to the operations listed in Order No. 1 as to require similar and simultaneous treatment to avoid conferring competitive advantage and to secure, insofar as practicable, reasonably related minimum wages within the establishment; and

(b) Such further processing of woven or knitted fabrics enumerated in the Order of September 13 as is substantially conducted in establishments which are also engaged in the weaving or knitting of fabrics, excepting knitted outerwear such as dresses, suits, overcoats and sweaters, and as may be included with the least disturbance of competitive relationships.

Because of the difficulty of drawing a definition that will achieve these objectives, I desire advice and recommendations from the Committee as to the form this definition should take. A memorandum setting forth the problems which should be considered by the Committee in connection with this definition will be submitted to you.

Sincerely,

ELMER F. ANDREWS,
Administrator.

The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to the above-named parties and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before October 7, 1938.

The matters concerned herewith are in regard to (a) the merger of Wisconsin Electric Power Company, a subsidiary of North American Edison Company, into The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company, (b) the segregation, in a new company, by The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company of its transportation properties, and (c) the issue and sale by The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company of $55,000,000 of First Mortgage Bonds and $14,500,000 of Serial Notes.

The matters referred to are proposed to be effected by the following transactions which are set forth in said applications and declaration:

1. The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company is to acquire from North American Edison Company all the outstanding capital stock of Wisconsin Electric Power Company, consisting of 400,000 shares of the par value of $20 per share, in exchange for the following shares of The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company: (a) 13,494 shares of Six Per Cent Preferred Capital Stock, par value $100 per share, which have been reacquired and are now held in the company's treasury, and (b) 78,710 shares of Preferred Capital Stock, Issue of 1921, 6% Series, par value $100 per share, of which 3,534 shares have been reacquired and are now held in the company's treasury and of which 75,176 additional shares will be issued;

After the proposed merger The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company is to adopt the name of Wisconsin Electric Power Company;

3. The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company is to transfer its transportation properties (excepting certain rights of way and rail lines thereon) to a new transportation company to be created for that purpose in exchange for $10,000,000 in principal amount of 4% Mortgage Bonds and common stock of an aggregate par value of $25,000,000. Such transportation properties consist of the local transportation plant in the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and surrounding suburbs, and interurban railways and motor bus business in the surrounding district, the local transportation system in the City of Racine, Wisconsin, and the capital stocks of Motor Transport Company, which conducts a freight transportation business, and of Badger Auto Service Company, which operates parking stations and gasoline filling stations;

4. After completing the foregoing transactions The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company is to issue and sell, through underwriters, the following securities:

Said First Mortgage Bonds are to be secured by a first lien on substantially all the physical property of The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company then owned by it and by pledge of the bonds to be issued by the new transportation company. It is stated that the proceeds from the sale of the foregoing new bonds and notes of The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company are to be used to redeem on December 1, 1938 the following securities issued or assumed by it: $44,375,500 principal amount of 5% First Mortgage Bonds, Series B, due 1961, $15,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 5% Series, due 1971, and $7,500,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 4% Series B, of Wisconsin Electric Power Company.

APPLICATION OF DUTIES PROCLAIMED IN CERTAIN TRADE AGREEMENTS TO ARTICLES THE GROWTH, ETC., OF CERTAIN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, September 23, 1938.

The Honorable HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930, approved June 12, 1934 (48 Stat. 943), as extended by the Joint Resolution approved March 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 24), I hereby direct that the duties proclaimed on this date in connection with the trade agreement signed on August 6, 1938 with the Republic of Ecuador, and all other duties heretofore proclaimed in connection with trade agreements (other than the trade agreement with Cuba signed on August 24, 1934, and the trade agreement with Nicaragua signed on March 11, 1936) entered into under the authority of the said Act, as originally enacted or as extended, shall be applied on and after the effective date of such duties, or, as the case may be, shall continue to be applied on and from the date of this letter, to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of all foreign countries, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, whether imported directly or indirectly, so long as such duties remain in effect and this direction is not modified.

Such proclaimed duties shall be applied to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of Cuba in accordance with the provisions of the trade agreement with Cuba signed on August 24, 1934.

Because I find as a fact that the treatment of American commerce by Germany is discriminatory, I direct that such proclaimed duties shall not be applied to products of Germany (including Austria).

My letters addressed to you on March 15, April 6, and April 15, 1938,[1] with reference to duties heretofore proclaimed in connection with trade agreements signed under the authority of the Act of June 12, 1934, are hereby superseded.

You will please cause this direction to be published in an early issue of the weekly Treasury Decisions.

Very sincerely yours,

TITLE 16—COMPETITIVE PRACTICES

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of September, A. D. 1938.

[File No. 21-314]

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE OLEOMARGARINE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION

Due proceedings having been held[2] under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I and Group II, as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved and received, respectively, by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of September 27, 1938.

STATEMENT BY THE COMMISSION

Trade practice rules for the Oleomargarine Manufacturing Industry, as herein set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under its trade practice conference procedure.

The product of the industry to which the rules relate is oleomargarine in its various forms, the total production of which, according to authoritative sources, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1938, was 411,725,009 pounds.

In the course of the proceedings an industry's conference was held in Chicago, Illinois, under the Commission's auspices, and proposed trade practice rules were submitted by members of the industry. Thereafter tentative action was taken by the Commission on the rules so submitted and a draft of proposed rules was made available upon public notice of at least fifteen days, in pursuance of which all interested and affected parties were afforded opportunity to present such pertinent facts, suggestions or objections as they desired and to be heard in respect to the proposed rules. Such hearing was held in Washington and all matters submitted orally and in writing were received and filed in the proceeding.

Thereafter, and upon consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken and the rules in the form appearing herein under Group I and Group II were respectively approved and received by the Commission.

These rules do not in any respect supplant, or relieve anyone of the necessity of complying with the legal requirements of the pure food laws or other provision of law. They are established under statutes administered by the Federal Trade Commission for the purpose of more effectively stamping out unfair practices in the interest of the public, and to assist in general law enforcement to this end.

TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE OLEOMARGARINE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

Unfair trade practices which are embraced in these Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission, as construed in the decisions of the Commission or the courts; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

RULE 1. Misrepresentation of industry products.—It is an unfair trade practice to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, directly or indirectly, any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation, by way of advertisement or otherwise, concerning the grade, quality, quantity, use, material, content, origin, nutritive value, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of oleomargarine, or in any other material respect.

RULE 2. Misbranding.—The false or deceptive marking or branding of oleomargarine with any word, phrase, name, trade-mark, label, picture, design, device, or other representation, with respect to the grade, quality, quantity, use, content, origin, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of such oleomargarine, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 3. Substitution of products not conforming to specifications.—The substitution and delivery to customers, without the consent of the purchaser, of oleomargarine which does not conform to formula specifications, samples, or representations upon which the purchase order is based; or the substitution or delivery, with or without the consent of the purchaser, of oleomargarine which does not conform to applicable Federal or State laws or regulations; with the purpose or with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving, directly or indirectly, the purchasing or consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 4. Misrepresentation as to milk content.—Falsely representing, directly or indirectly, through advertising or otherwise, that any type of oleomargarine contains milk when, in fact, the cream or any other food content has been extracted therefrom, for the purpose or with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 5. Misrepresentation as to fat content.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to sell, or offer for sale through advertising or otherwise, any oleomargarine the fat content of which is less than that specified in applicable regulations, duly promulgated by authority of law, for the purpose, or with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

RULE 6. Compliance with State and Federal specification requirements.—It is an unfair trade practice to sell or distribute, or cause to be sold or distributed, any oleomargarine manufactured in conformity with formula specifications of buyers or customers or otherwise, when such formula specifications or manufacture is violative of applicable Federal or State laws or regulations and where the tendency and capacity or the effect thereof is, directly or indirectly, to mislead or deceive the purchasing or consuming public.

RULE 7. Commercial bribery.—It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry directly or indirectly to give or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors, or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors.

RULE 8. Unlawful interference with raw material purchases.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, by means of any monopolistic practices or through combination, conspiracy, coercion, boycott, threats, or any other unlawful means, directly or indirectly, to interfere with a competitor's right to purchase his raw materials and supplies from whomsoever he chooses, or to sell his product to whomsoever he chooses.

RULE 9. Defamation of competitors and disparagement of their products.—The defamation of a competitor by falsely imputing to him dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality, or manufacture of the products of a competitor or of his business methods, selling prices, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 10. False invoicing.—Withholding from or inserting in an invoice, billing or statement any material information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transaction which such invoice or billing or statement purports to represent, with the purpose or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 11. Inducing breach of contract.—Inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers, or between a competitor and his distributor or agent, by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 12. Enticing away employees of competitors.—Wilfully enticing away the employees of competitors, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 13. Consignment selling.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use the practice of shipping goods on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their goods to consumers through regular channels of distribution, or with such purpose to entirely close said trade outlets to such competitors so as to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed or used as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of commodities in good faith and without artificial interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution in such manner as thereby to suppress competition or restrain trade.

RULE 14. Publication or circulation of false or misleading price quotations, etc.—The making, publishing, or circulating by any member of the industry of false or misleading price quotations, price lists, terms or conditions of sale, or reports as to production or sales, with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 15. Selling below cost.—The practice of selling oleomargarine below the seller's cost, with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice; all elements recognized by good accounting practice as proper elements of such cost shall be included in determining cost under this rule.

RULE 16. "Loss leaders".—The practice of selling oleomargarine below the seller's cost as a "loss leader" to induce the purchase of any other product of the industry, the sale of the latter being used to recoup the loss sustained on the "loss leader" product so sold, with the tendency or capacity to mislead or deceive purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 17. (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc.,[1] which effect unlawful price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, payment of dealer's license, or other form of price differential,[3] where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, payment of dealer's license, or other form of price differential effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[3] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[4] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[3] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[3] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[3] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Illegal price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other person engaged in commerce,[3] in the course of such commerce, to discriminate in price in any other respect contrary to Section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (Public No. 692, 74th Congress), or knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by such section as amended.

Group II

Compliance with the trade practice provisions embraced in these Group II rules is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with any such Group II rules is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition contrary to law, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of a violation of Group I rules.

RULE A. Cost records.—It is the judgment of the industry that each member should independently keep proper and accurate records for determining his costs.

RULE B. Repudiation of contracts.—Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market or by buyers on a declining market is condemned by the industry.

RULE C. Promotion of use of American agricultural products.—The industry recommends that the members thereof in the manufacture of their products encourage and promote the greater consumption of raw materials produced by American agriculture.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE NO. 45 (REVISED)

(Approved September 28, 1938; effective September 29, 1938)

I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, have determined that it is necessary to quarantine the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, to prevent the spread of two injurious insects—the gypsy moth (Porthetria dispar L.) and the browntail moth (Nygmia phaeorrhoea Don.)—not heretofore widely distributed within and throughtout the United States.

Now, therefore, I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended, do hereby quarantine the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, and by this Notice of Quarantine No. 45 do order that (1) coniferous trees, such as spruce, fir, hemlock, pine, juniper (cedar), and arborvitae (white cedar), without roots; known and described as "Christmas trees," and parts thereof, and evergreen decorative plants, such as boxwood, holly, and laurel, and parts thereof, known and described as "Christmas greens and greenery;" (2) forest-plant products, including logs, tanbark, posts, poles, car stakes, railroad ties, cordwood, empty cable reels, and lumber; (3) trees, shrubs, vines, and all plants having persistent woody stems, and parts of such plants excepting seeds and fruit; and (4) stone and quarry products, shall not be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved from any of said quarantined States into or through any other State or Territory or District of the United States in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the rules and regulations hereinafter made and amendments thereto: Provided, That the restrictions of this quarantine and of the rules and regulations supplemental thereto may be limited to the areas, in a quarantined State, now or hereafter designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas, when said State shall have provided for and enforced such control and regulatory measures with respect to such designated areas as, in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed adequate to prevent the spread of the gypsy moth and brown-tail moth: And provided further, That, wherever, in any year, the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine shall find that facts exist as to the pest risk involved in the movement of one or more of the articles enumerated in the regulations supplemental hereto, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any such regulation, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the applicable regulation should be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective, for such period and for such regulated area or portion thereof as shall be specified in said administrative instructions, and a copy thereof shall be mailed to the common carriers doing business in the quarantined area affected and every reasonable effort shall be made to give publicity to the said modification of the regulation in the area affected.

Done at the city of Washington this 28th day of September, 1938.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

(1) No restricted articles as defined in regulation 1 shall be moved interstate from the regulated areas to or through any point outside thereof, nor from the generally infested area to the lightly infested area, unless and until a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor by an inspector.

(2) Christmas trees and evergreen boughs.—Coniferous trees, such as spruce, fir, hemlock, pine, juniper (cedar), and arbovitae (white cedar), without roots, known and described as "Christmas trees", and parts thereof over 1 foot in length, originating in the generally infested area (unless grown as nursery stock in a cultivated nursery and certified under the provisions of regulation 4 hereof), shall not be moved interstate to any point outside of such area and no certificate or permit will be issued authorizing such movement. Such articles which have originated in the lightly infested area may be moved interstate from the generally infested area under the inspection and certification prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof.

(3) Shipments from brown-tail moth infested area.—Except as provided in paragraph (5) hereof no deciduous trees or shrubs, or such branches or other parts thereof as bear leaves, shall be moved interstate from the area designated as infested by the brown-tail moth to any point outside thereof unless and until a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor by an inspector, except that as to such movement wholly within the generally infested gypsy-moth area or wholly within the lightly infested gypsy-moth area, or from the lightly infested to the generally infested gypsy-moth area, a valid State nursery inspection certificate of the State from which the shipment is made may be substituted for such Federal certificate or permit.

(4) Shipments within regulated areas unrestricted.—Other than as prescribed in paragraph (3) hereof, and in regulation 7, no restrictions are placed by these regulations on the interstate movement of restricted articles wholly within the generally infested area or wholly within the lightly infested area or from the lightly infested area to the generally infested area.

(5) Cut flowers and greenhouse-grown plants.—In the case of woody plants which are grown in the greenhouse throughout the year, the plants themselves and the cut flowers thereof may be moved interstate without inspection or certification [1] under these regulations on condition that each box or package thereof is plainly labeled to show that the contents were greenhouse grown.

(6) Herbaceous plants unrestricted.—No restrictions [1] are placed by these regulations on the interstate movement of strawberry plants, or of other herbaceous annual or perennial plants or parts thereof.

REGULATION 4. CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF INSPECTION

(a) Application; assembly of articles for inspection.—Persons intending to move restricted articles interstate shall make application therefor as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment. Applications must show the nature and quantity of the plants or plant products or stone and quarry products it is proposed to move, together with their exact location, and, if practicable, the contemplated date of shipment. Applicants for inspection will be required to assemble or indicate the articles to be moved interstate so that they can be readily examined by the inspector. If not so placed, inspection will be refused. Articles to be inspected must be free from ice and snow and in condition to make inspection easily practicable.

(b) Nursery-grown stock.—With respect to nursery-grown stock, Federal inspection and the issuance of Federal certificates authorizing the interstate movement of nursery products will be conditioned on the presentation of a valid State certificate stating that the nursery or lot of nursery stock in question has been inspected by a State nursery inspector and certifying that it is apparently free from infestation with gypsy and brown-tail moths. Such State certification shall be renewed each year, shall be based on an inspection made as promptly as practicable after the egg-laying period of the gypsy moth, and shall be valid for the purpose of Federal certification, until the following egg-hatching period, except that, pending reinspection, shipments may be inspected and certified for interstate movement on the basis of the State certification of the preceding year. Whenever any nursery or independent unit thereof in the regulated area, or any shipment therefrom, is reported by a State inspector to be appreciably infested with either the gypsy moth or the brown-tail moth, or whenever such infestation is determined by a Federal inspector, further certification for interstate movement from such nursery, or independent unit thereof, will be refused until such nursery has been freed from infestation and has been again inspected and certified by the State to be apparently clean except that during such periods of refusal, Federal inspection and certification of individual shipments of nursery stock from nurseries being freed from infestation may be given provided a special certificate showing freedom from infestation has been issued therefor by a State inspector after examination of the material in each such shipment. During the larval period of the gypsy moth all nursery stock shall be assembled for the examination of the Federal inspector, and if passed by him as free from any infestation, either by egg masses or larvae, it may then be lined up and thoroughly sprayed under the direction of and in manner and method satisfactory to the said inspector, who will certify each shipment as having been thus inspected and treated.

(c) Native trees and shrubs.—With respect to living trees and plants not grown in nurseries, inspection and certification for interstate movement will be conditioned upon the presentation of a statement by the applicant specifying the exact source of such trees and plants, and in addition to such statement, if dug on land other than the property of the applicant, a permit from the owner of the said land authorizing such digging, provided such permit is required under the law of the State wherein the land is situated. If the inspection of the trees or plants intended for shipment discloses infestation with either the gypsy moth or brown-tail moth, certification may be refused as to the intended shipment and as to other similar shipments of trees or plants originating on the same property or in the same locality.

(d) Forest products and stone and quarry products.—Certificates of inspection authorizing the interstate movement of forest products and stone and quarry products may be issued under either of the following conditions: (1) When the articles to be moved interstate have actually been inspected and found free from infestation; or (2) when the articles have been disinfected under the supervision of an inspector in such a manner as to eliminate all risk of infestation. With respect to quarries, and with respect to yards or other places where forest products are assembled for shipment, as a condition of inspection and certification, the premises or surroundings of such places shall be cleaned up and kept free from gypsy moth infestation.

(e) Charges for storage, etc.—All charges for storage, cartage, and labor incident to inspection or disinfection other than the services of the inspectors shall be paid by the shipper.

(f) Use of certificates.—Certificates of inspection will be issued only for plants and plant products and stone and quarry products which are free from infestation by the gypsy moth and the brown-tail moth and have been so determined by an inspector. The use of such certificates in connection with plants and plant products and stone and quarry products which are not in compliance with these regulations is unlawful.

(g) Report of certificates.—Persons to whom certificates are issued shall report at time of shipment on forms provided for that purpose all their sales or shipments of such articles to points outside the regulated area.

REGULATION 5. CONDITIONS COVERING THE ISSUANCE OF PERMITS WITHOUT INSPECTION, AND THE REPORTING OF SHIPMENTS

Permits authorizing interstate movement of restricted articles may be issued (1) when such products have been grown, or manufactured, processed, and stored in such a matter that, in the judgment of the inspector, no infestation could be transmitted, and (2) when such products originate outside of the infested areas and, while within the infested area, have been stored and safeguarded in such a manner that, in the judgment of the inspector, no infestation could be transmitted. Permits will be issued only for plants and plant products and stone and quarry products which are not infested with the gypsy moth or brown-tail moth.

Persons to whom permits are issued shall report at time of shipment on forms provided for that purpose all their sales or shipments of such articles to points outside the regulated area.

REGULATION 6. MARKETING AND CERTIFICATION A CONDITION OF INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION

(a) Every box, basket, bale, or other container of the articles restricted for which a certificate or permit is required by these regulations shall be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignor and the name and address of the consignee, and the shipper shall securely attach to the outside thereof a valid certificate or permit issued in compliance with these regulations. In the case of lot shipments by freight, one certificate attached to one of the containers and another certificate attached to the waybill will be sufficient.

(b) In the case of bulk carload shipments by rail, the certificate shall accompany the waybill, conductor's manifest, memorandum, or bill of lading pertaining to such shipment, and in addition each car shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a placard showing the number of the certificate or certificates accompanying the waybill.

(c) In the case of shipment by road vehicle, the certificates shall accompany the vehicle.

(d) Certificates shall be surrendered to the consignee upon delivery of the shipment.

REGULATION 7. THOROUGH CLEANING REQUIRED OF CARS, BOATS, AND OTHER VEHICLES BEFORE MOVING INTERSTATE

Cars, boats, and other vehicles which have been used in transporting restricted articles within the regulated areas shall not be moved interstate until the same shall have been thoroughly swept out and cleaned by the carrier at the point of unloading or destination of all litter and rubbish from such regulated articles. No litter, rubbish, or refuse from any such restricted articles shall be moved interstate.

REGULATION 8. INSPECTION IN TRANSIT

Every car, vehicle, basket, box, bale, or other container moved interstate which contains or which the inspector has probable cause to believe contains either infested articles or articles the movement of which is prohibited or restricted by these regulations, shall be subject to inspection by an inspector at any time or place.

REGULATION 9. CANCELATION OF CERTIFICATES AND PERMITS

Certificates and permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled by the inspector and further certification refused, whenever in the judgment of the inspector the further use of such certificates might result in the dissemination of infestation.

REGULATION 10. SHIPMENTS FOR EXPERIMENTAL, SCIENTIFIC, OR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES

Articles subject to restriction in these regulations may be moved interstate for experimental, scientific, or educational purposes, on such conditions and under such safeguards as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of articles so moved shall bear, securely attached to the outside thereof, an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

These revised rules and regulations shall be effective on and after September 29, 1938, and shall supersede the rules and regulations promulgated November 4, 1935.

Done at the city of Washington this 28th day of September, 1938.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY.

[Special Order 401-A-5]

TEMPORARILY EXEMPTING AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., FROM PROVISIONS OF SECTION 401 (A) OF CIVIL AERONAUTICS ACT OF 1938, INSOFAR AS SAME ARE APPLICABLE TO AIR TRANSPORTATION SERVICE TO BE RENDERED BY SAID AIR CARRIER TO HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 23rd day of September 1938.

Upon consideration by the Authority of the application of American Airlines, Inc., for exemption from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, insofar as the provisions of said section are applicable to a scheduled stop proposed to be made by said air carrier at Huntington, West Virginia, the Authority is of the opinion and finds that:

(1) The applicant was, prior to May 14, 1938, and is now an air carrier engaged in the rendition of an air transportation service between Washington, D. C., and Chicago, Illinois, with scheduled intermediate stops at Elkins and Charleston, West Virginia, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, and as such is subject to the provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 and the jurisdiction of the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

(2) Said air carrier, prior to the enactment of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, and prior to and since May 14, 1938, in addition to the service described in Finding (1), was and has been engaged continuously in the rendition of a scheduled airline transportation service between Newark, New Jersey, and Glendale, California; between Newark, New Jersey, and Chicago, Illinois; between Fort Worth, Texas, and Chicago, Illinois; between Newark, New Jersey, and Albany, New York; between Cleveland, Ohio, and Nashville, Tennessee; between Newark, New Jersey, and Cleveland, Ohio, and was then and yet is possessed of a valid Scheduled Airline Competency Certificate therefor issued by the Secretary of Commerce.

(3) On or about the 5th day of May, 1934, the United States Post Office Department caused to be issued an advertisement for bidders for temporary air mail service, over a route from Washington, D. C., to Chicago, Illinois, with stops at Charleston, and Huntington, West Virginia, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, said route being known as AM 25.

(4) On or about the 2nd day of June, 1934, a contract for temporary air mail service over the route described in Finding (3), which route, with the exception of the stop at Huntington, West Virginia, is the same as that described in Finding (1), was awarded by the United States Post Office Department to American Airlines, Inc., said air carrier being the lowest bidder therefor. Said contract was extended from time to time until May 28, 1935, on which date the contract hereinabove mentioned for the transportation of mail by air was extended for an indefinite period of time, and on the date hereof American Airlines, Inc., is the holder of said air mail contract.

(5) On or about the 2nd day of December, 1934, said air carrier, after authorization received from the Secretary of Commerce, commenced operations over said route, transporting thereon passengers, property and mail, and from said date until and including the 4th day of March, 1935, made regular scheduled stops at Huntington, West Virginia.

(6) Prior to March 4, 1935, and after authorization therefor from the Postmaster General, said air carrier discontinued the transportation of mail by air into and away from Huntington, West Virginia, and all other air transportation into and away from said city, for the reason that the airport located at said city was not in a proper condition to permit safe operations, and until the date hereof no scheduled air carrier operations into the Huntington Airport have been conducted by said or any other air carrier.

(7) On or about the 4th day of March, 1935, the Postmaster General authorized the transportation of mail by air by said air carrier, to Elkins, West Virginia, and until the date hereof, said air carrier has conducted regularly scheduled operations for the transportation of passengers, property and mail over the route from Washington, D. C., to Chicago, Illinois, with scheduled intermediate stops at Elkins and Charleston, West Virginia, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, and in the conduct thereof has regularly flown over the city of Huntington, West Virginia.

(8) For some time last past, both labor and money have been expended on the improvement of the airport at Huntington, West Virginia, and on the date hereof said airport is in a condition to permit of safe and regularly scheduled air carrier operation into and away from said city. Said airport has been inspected by the inspectors of the Civil Aeronautics Authority and the use of such airport has been approved for Douglas DC-2 aircraft.

(9) Said city of Huntington, West Virginia, is on the regular air mail route AM 25, and by the terms of the contract entered into by and between the United States Post Office Department and said air carrier, is entitled to receive air mail service, and unless said air carrier be permitted to land at said city and citizens thereof will be deprived of the benefits to be derived from such service.

(10) Enforcement of the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, insofar as the provisions of said section are applicable to the air transportation service proposed to be rendered by said air carrier over the route set forth in Finding (3), would be an undue burden on said air carrier by reason of the unusual circumstances affecting the operation of said air carrier with respect to the air transportation service over said route, and particularly the right of said air carrier to land and take off from the airport of said city of Huntington, West Virginia, as a regular stop, and the enforcement of such section would not be in the public interest.

(11) Failure to exempt said air carrier from the provisions of section 401 (a) of said Act, with respect to the air transportation service proposed to be rendered by said air carrier over the route set forth in Finding (3), and particularly to the city of Huntington, West Virginia, would continue to prevent the carriage of mail by air between the cities on said route and other cities in the United States, and likewise would continue to prevent such other air transportation service as might be rendered between said cities by said air carrier, all of which would be contrary to the public interest.

(12) Said air carrier should be exempted from the provisions of section 401 (a) of said Act insofar as the provisions of said section are applicable to the air transportation service of said air carrier proposed to be rendered into and away from the city of Huntington, West Virginia, for the period from the date hereof to and including 120 days from June 23, 1938, and said air carrier should be permitted to make a regularly scheduled stop at the city of Huntington, West Virginia, and to continue its operations over the route set forth in Finding (3) and to render such service to said city and on said route during said period for such charges and rates as are established pursuant to law.

(13) If said air carrier files with the Civil Aeronautics Authority within the period set forth in Finding (12) application for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity for an air transportation service over the route set forth in Finding (3), and includes therein as an intermediate point for regularly scheduled stops, the city of Huntington, West Virginia, said air carrier should be further exempted from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, for all classes of traffic for which authorization is sought in connection with the air transportation service to be rendered into and away from the city of Huntington, West Virginia, from the date of filing of such application to the effective date of the Order of the Authority with respect to such application.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in it by sections 205 (a) and 416 (b) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, hereby makes and promulgates the following special order:

SPECIAL ORDER 401-A-5. EXEMPTING AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 401 (A) OF THE CIVIL AERONAUTICS ACT OF 1938, INSOFAR AS THE SAME ARE APPLICABLE TO THE AIR TRANSPORTATION SERVICE TO BE RENDERED BY SAID AIR CARRIER TO HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

American Airlines, Inc., is hereby exempted from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 insofar as the same are applicable to the air transportation service to be rendered by said air carrier into and away from the city of Huntington, West Virginia, and during the period from the date hereof to and including 120 days from June 23, 1938, and said air carrier is hereby authorized to make a regularly scheduled stop at said city and to continue operations over route AM 25 from Washington, D. C., to Chicago, Illinois, with scheduled intermediate stops at Elkins, Charleston and Huntington, West Virginia, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, and to render such service thereon during such period for such charges and rates as are established pursuant to law.

Said air carrier is hereby further exempted from the provisions of section 401 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, for all classes of traffic for which authorization is sought in connection with said air transportation service over route AM 25 from Washington, D. C., to Chicago, Illinois, with scheduled intermediate stops at Elkins, Charleston and Huntington, West Virginia, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, for a further period from the date on which said air carrier files application for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity for said air transportation service to the effective date of the Order of the Civil Aeronautics Authority with respect to such application, provided that said application for such certificate, including the city of Huntington, West Virginia, as a scheduled intermediate stop, is filed with the Authority within the period from June 23, 1938, to and including 120 days thereafter.

By the Authority.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of September 1938.

[File No. 37-24]

IN THE MATTER OF THE UNITED LIGHT AND POWER ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

ORDER APPROVING A SUBSIDIARY SERVICE COMPANY PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (B) OF SECTION 13 OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT, 1935

Approval, based upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law made in this matter, is granted Declarant to conduct its business as a subsidiary service company subject to the following conditions that:

1. In the event of a contemplated substantial change in its organization, the type and character of the companies to be serviced, the scope of services to be rendered or the method of allocating costs to associate companies, Declarant shall first obtain the approval of this Commission of such change.

2. If the application of Declarant's cost-allocation method does not result in a fair and equitable allocation of its costs among the associate serviced companies the Commission will require, after notice and opportunity for hearing, prospective adjustments, and, to the extent that it appears feasible and equitable, retroactive adjustments of such cost allocations.

3. The Insurance Trust Agreement, under which Declarant acts as Trustee, shall be amended to provide for an appropriate distribution of contributions in excess of cost to companies ceasing, at any time, to participate in the Trust.

4. Declarant, as Trustee, shall maintain separate accounts and records for the Insurance Trust and file a separate annual report with this Commission to cover the operations of the Trust.

5. Declarant, as Insurance Trustee, shall, after paying the various claims and expenses of administering the trust fund and taking into account the profit or loss on completed security transactions, after setting aside reasonable reserves, which, in the opinion of the management, will be necessary to provide for future and contingent claims, make refunds at least annually to the participating companies, assuming that the condition of the fund warrants such refunds.

This order is not to be construed as a ruling that Declarant may not be required to effect any changes in its organization and operation, or any other changes which become necessary for it to conform with the Act, present or future rules, regulations or orders.

It is so ordered.

By the Commission.
